Remembrance Service

Those who have died in the past year will be remembered in a special way at the weekend Masses of Saturday 21st and Sunday, 22nd November. All welcome.

Remembering Our Loved Ones Who Have Died

During the month of November, we pray for all the faithful departed including our parishioners, family members, neighbours, friends and all who have no one to remember them.

Eternal rest grant unto them,
O Lord, let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

November Sacred Space

During the month of November, we remember our faithful departed. You are invited to write the names of your loved ones on the paper provided and place it in the basket in the Sacred Space provided in front of the Altar. Your loved ones will be remembered at Masses throughout the month. Come to Church, visit the Cemetery and spare a prayer for all who have gone before us. The best assurance that we will be remembered after our deaths, will be to maintain a tradition of prayer for the dead.

Celebrating Our Dead

We are not powerless in the face of the loss of those we love. Our prayers and our acts of remembrance assist our loved ones on their journey back to God. November each year reminds us to remember our dead. The kindness and friendship of those who loved us, and who is now with God, had a great influence on our lives. We share that love with others and our love may yet be passed on to generations yet unborn.

November Offerings

November Offerings for our Priest is due around this time. Thank you for your generosity.

Pope's Monthly Intention – November

The Parish Of Ballyhale – Knocktopher

In 1936 was the foundation of the Carmelite Convent of Kocktopher by James, Earl of Ormond and grandson of Edmund le Botiller. The town of Knocktopher, which according to Lewis, "appears to have enjoyed the privileges of a free borough by a kind of prescriptive right", was granted a weekly market and several fairs in 1365 by the King, at the request of the same Earl. The Earl of Ormoond died in his castle of Knocktopher in 1382 and was buried in St. Canice's Cathedral, Kilkenny. In 1487, Sir James Butler, father of Pierce Ruadh, Earl of Ormond, also died in the castle of Knocktopher. He is buried in the old Augustinian Abbey, Callan. Pardons were granted to the provost and commonalty of Knocktopher for a fine of £4 on January 17th, 1571/72. (to be continued…) Carrigan

Ferrybank Annual Remembrance Mass 2026

This weekend we welcome all to our 7pm Vigil Mass of Remembrance in Ferrybank Church, especially those families who have been bereaved during the past year as we remember all our loved ones who have died. We pray that they may enjoy the just rewards which our Loving Father has promised his faithful in Heaven.

Slieverue Annual Mass of Remembrance will be celebrated in Slieverue Church next Saturday 14th November @ 6.00 pm.

In November we remember …

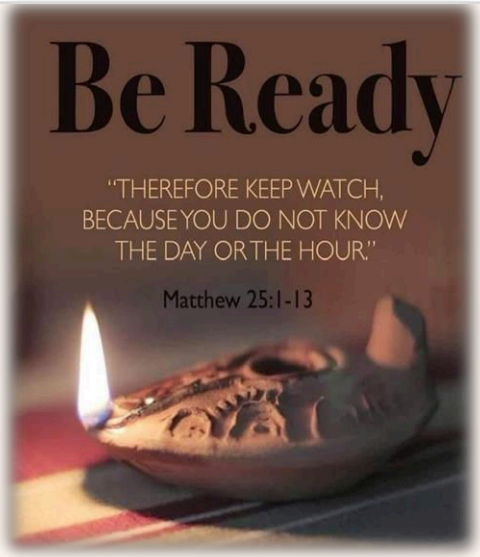

We remember all our loved ones who have died in a special way and pray for them in all our Masses and prayers during this month of November. Throughout the month of November, Masses for the dead will be celebrated between both Ferrybank & Slieverue Churches.
There are 'November List of the Dead' slips available at the back of both Ferrybank & Slieverue Churches for you to write the names of your loved ones to be remembered. All the names will be placed in a basket in front of the altar in both Churches for the month of November. (Please do not leave money in the basket).

Mass of the Sick and Anointing of the Sick

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick brings spiritual grace, peace, strength, comfort and healing. It can restore spiritual, emotional and physical health, if it is God's will. Any Catholic or Christian in serious illness, advancing age or preparing for surgery can avail of it. It can be repeated monthly or if an illness worsens. The priest lays his hands on the person and anoints their forehead and the palms of their hands with blessed oil offering a special prayer of healing and grace. In relation to this important Sacrament, starting in November, the last Thursday of the month in Ferrybank at 10.00am and the last Friday of the month at 10.00am in Slieverue, a special Mass of the Sick including anointing will be celebrated.

Eight Steps Toward a More Satisfying Life

A recent TIME magazine "Eight Steps Toward a More Satisfying Life." presented eight recommended steps:
1. Count your blessings.
2. Practice acts of kindness.
3. Savor life's joys.
4. Thank a helper.
5. Learn to forgive.
6. Invest time/energy in friends/family.
7. Take care of your body.
8. Develop strategies for coping with stress and hardship.

This w/e as we reflect on the parable of the Ten Bridesmaids, or Ten Virgins as in many translations, we add a 9th: Be prepared to and trust the Spirit. The Spirit appears in many guises, disguises, and surprises.

Remembering Our Loved Ones Who Have Died

During the month of November we pray for all the faithful departed including our parishioners, family members, neighbours, friends and all who have no one to remember them.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen.

November The Month Of Holy Souls

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed form their sins....."
(2 Maccabees 12: 46).
Each November, the Church engages in a great crusade of prayer for our dead. We pray for our dead because we believe there is a communion - an unbreakable link - between the living and the dead. That link ensures us that we can help them and they can help us. One saint said that the Holy Souls may win astounding favours for us and deliver us from evils, sickness and dangers of every kind. Our prayer, especially the holy sacrifice of the Mass, is the greatest expression of our gratitude and love for those who have died. In fact, the November Novena of Masses is the most powerful way to honour with great respect the memory of our dead. Our prayers will enrich their eternal happiness and their concern for us will enhance our pilgrim lives. You are encouraged to attend Mass, as often as you can, during the month of November for the Holy Souls.

FOR OUR YOUNG PARISHIONERS

1st November is All Saints Day

We celebrate all the wonderful holy people, the Siants, who are already in Heaven. We ask them to pray for us and guide us. This week, maybe you can find out about your favourite saint and draw a picture of him or her here.

2nd November is All Souls Day

We pray for all those who have died. We remember especially members of our family who have died. We can also pray for those who have no one else to pray for them.
Draw a picture here of someone you would like to pray for during the month of November.

Remember those this special time who live with God above.
All Saints, All Souls and all our own who live with God in love.

ALL SAINTS

The Feast of All Saints Today we celebrate the great multitude from every nation—the saints in heaven. They are not perfect by nature, but sinners transformed by God's grace. The Gospel of the Beatitudes shows us the path they walked: gentle, merciful, pure in heart. As St. John reminds us, we are already God's children, and one day we shall see Him face to face. We are all called to be saints. Let us ask the saints to pray for us as we strive to live the Beatitudes daily.

All Souls Day & The Holy Souls November 2nd is All Souls' Day, opening the Month of the Holy Souls. We remember our beloved dead who are being purified, awaiting the glory of heaven. We can help them! Please pray for the dead daily, have Masses offered for your loved ones, and visit their graves. Our parish will offer special Masses for the Holy Souls this month. Let us pray that they may soon enjoy eternal peace and the vision of God.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS

First Reading:	Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14
Responsorial Psalm:	Psalm 24
Second Reading:	1 John 3:1-3
Gospel:	Matthew 5:1-12a
Key Theme:	Called to holiness
Focus:	Living the Beatitudes
Summary:	God gathers a great multitude of faithful people from every nation. Jesus shows the way to holiness through the Beatitudes.
Challenge:	We are called to become saints by following Jesus each day. Choose mercy, peace, faithfulness, and love even when it is difficult.
Action Step:	Choose one Beatitude to practice today. Look for one simple way to live it.
Verse to Remember:	"Blessed are the peacemakers." (Matthew 5:9)

JoJo Dullard Remembrance
JoJo Dullard is missing 31 years this November. JoJo was 21 years of age at the time of her disappearance. At the time that she disappeared, she was making her way from Dublin back home to Callan in Co Kilkenny. To mark the anniversary a walk and prayer service to remember JoJo will take place on Sunday, November 8th at the courtyard of Kilkenny Castle at 2 pm walking to the missing persons monument. This is an opportunity for all of us to gather 31 years on to ensure that JoJo is not forgotten and the search for her will continue.

November Reflection - Fr. Willie.
As the days shorten and the earth rests, November calls us into a quiet space of memory and hope. The crisp air and lengthening shadows invite us to pause from the restless pace of daily life and enter into the gentle rhythm of reflection. Nature itself seems to bow its head in surrender, teaching us the quiet beauty of letting go and trusting in the promise of renewal.
In the stillness of these November days, we carry those who have gone before us not as distant figures of the past, but as living presences held forever in the tender mercy of God. In that sacred hush, the veil between heaven and earth feels thin. We remember their smiles, their voices, their quiet sacrifices, and the love they so generously poured into our lives. Death has not severed our bond; rather, it has transformed it, anchoring our grief in the steadfast hope of eternal life.
As we look back with gratitude, we also look forward with faith, knowing that the God who holds our loved ones in His eternal embrace holds us in our present pilgrimage. In this season of remembrance, may our hearts find comfort in the quiet assurance that love never ends, and that we walk toward a shared light that no darkness can ever extinguish.

Pope Mourns Those Lost in Spanish Train Crash

Pope Leo XIV has expressed his "deep sorrow" over the tragic railway accident that occurred in central Spain on Wednesday. He sent a telegram of condolences signed by Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin and addressed to Archbishop Chaves of Toledo. In the telegram the Holy Father assured all those affected of his prayers for the eternal repose of the deceased and extended his heartfelt condolences to the families of those who have died, together with expressions of comfort and deep concern, and his wishes for the speedy recovery of the injured.
He likewise encouraged members of the rescue teams to persevere in their efforts to provide relief and assistance and imparted his Apostolic Blessing.
This weekend let us join with Pope Leo in praying for all affected by this terrible accident.

Songs of Praise at St Canice's Cathedral

On Sunday at 5.30pm there will be a Songs of Praise Service in Saint Canice's Cathedral. The Service will take place under the Peace Doves installation, a huge and immersive community art project by artist Peter Walker. 10,000 paper doves soar above the cathedral crossing, each with a handwritten message of peace, a prayer, a memory of a loved one.
On the Feast of All Saints all are welcome to come and sing favourite hymns in this glorious setting.
Our singing will be led by the Cathedral Choir with Dr Harry Meehan FRCO at the cathedral's Bevington organ.

A Great Cloud of Witnesses

St Canice's Catholic Parish will host a special exposition of more than 3,000 first class relics of saints and martyrs on the Feast of all Saints. Public veneration will take place during and after the 11.30am Mass.

Annual Novena

The annual novena in honour of Saint Martin de Porres will be held in the Black Abbey, 28th October to 5th November. Mass each day 10.30am & 7.30pm. Mass and Anointing of the Sick on Sunday, 1st at 3.00pm. All are welcome.

Parish Ministries

If you can offer your gifts in one of our parish ministries – Reader, Ministry of Welcome, Music, Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist – contact the Parish Office on 056 772 1072.

Please Return Your 'CHY3 Cert'

Thank you to all who have returned the form so far. If you haven't done so yet, it would be much appreciated if you could return the form to the Parish Office for processing. Thanks.

Mass for Deceased Bishops, Priests and Religious

Bishop Ger will celebrate a Memorial Mass for deceased Bishops, Priests and Religious of Ossory on Sunday, 8th November 2026 in St Mary's Cathedral at 5.30pm. All are welcome.

Prayer for the Month of November

Lord Jesus, may I never doubt your guiding presence and your merciful love towards me. Through the gift of your Spirit fill me with courage and persevering faith to trust you in all things and in every circumstance, I find myself. Give me the strength to cling to your promises when the word around me begins to shake or crumble and when my love and zeal begin to waver, fan into my heart a flame of consuming love and dedication for you who are my all. Amen.

All Saints – 1st November 2026

The Solemnity of All Saints

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of All Saints, a day that gently reminds each of us that we are all called to holiness. And the path to holiness is not hidden. Jesus has already shown it to us in the Beatitudes.

In our first reading from the Book of Revelation, St. John is given a beautiful glimpse of heaven: a vast crowd, too many to count, standing before the throne of God in white robes. These are the saints of every age, gathered "from every nation, race, tribe and language." What a lovely reminder that God's family knows no borders. As Catholics, we cherish the dignity of every person, whatever their country, language, or culture. We do this not because the world tells us to, but because this is how God Himself sees His children.

In the second reading, St. John tells us something truly wonderful: we are already children of God through our baptism. Even now, in the ordinary days of our lives, God is preparing us to see Him face to face one day.

Then, in the Gospel, Jesus goes up the mountain and describes the life of a saint in the Beatitudes. This is the very road walked by so many holy men and women: young St. Carlo Acutis, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. Oscar Romero, to name just a few.

So let this feast fill us with hope. The saints were not superheroes living lives far beyond our reach. They were baptised Christians like you and me who, with God's grace, said "yes" to the life Christ offered them. That same invitation is held out to each one of us, in every pew, every single day of our lives.

Vatican News

Pope Leo XIV has become Papal Confrater of the College of St George at St George's Chapel, Windsor, with the approval of King Charles III, the Dean and Canons of Windsor announced on Friday, 23rd October. According to the announcement, the appointment represents "a visible sign of spiritual fellowship, ecumenical friendship and Christian fraternity". It recognises the centuries-old relationship between the College and Chapel of St George and the Holy See, as well as progress in relations between the Catholic Church, the Church of England and the Anglican Communion.

The appointment also reflects the mutual esteem between Pope Leo XIV and King Charles III and their shared desire for Christian unity, the announcement states. More information on www.vaticannews.va

Eight Steps Toward a More Satisfying Life.

A recent TIME magazine 'Eight Steps Toward a More Satisfying Life' presented eight recommended steps: 1. Count your blessings. 2. Practice acts of kindness. 3. Savor life's joys. 4. Thank a helper. 5. Learn to forgive. 6. Invest time and energy in friends and family. 7. Take care of your body. 8. Develop strategies for coping with stress and hardship. This weekend as we reflect on the parable of the Ten Bridesmaids, or Ten Virgins as in many translations, we add one more step, a 9th step to the strategy: 'Be prepared'. Be prepared to step off life's planned paths and trust the Spirit. After all, the Spirit can appear in life in many guises, disguises, and surprises.
