Birr Neighbourhood Watch: Annual Church Gate Collection the weekend of November 14th & 15th 2026. Please support your Neighbourhood Watch to make our community a safer place. All donations appreciated.

Birr Historical Society - All are welcome to Birr Historical Society's upcoming lecture which takes place on Monday, November 9th at 8pm in Dooly's Hotel, Birr. (R42 KC56) Aidan Doyle will speak on the subject of "Duelling in the King's County" between 1583 and 1845 where he will tell the fascinating story of titled aristocrats, indebted gentry, military officers and others who fought duels using broad swords, rapiers and pistols to resolve their disputes. For those who did not have an opportunity to purchase the recently launched bicentenary reprint of Thomas Lalor Cooke's "Picture of Parsonstown", copies will be available on the night. All are welcome.

Carrig/Riverstown/Killeen Local History Group are working on a new project for the next few months. Titled, " Imithe ar Slí na Fírinne" (Gone on the Path of Truth). Gone to their Eternal Reward. We are asking residents in the areas mentioned above to make their family Memorial Cards available to us for scanning and to eventually appear in book form. Further information from Margaret O'Brien at 0871343108 or Tony Dargan at 0872069342.

Healthy Offaly, Offaly County Council's Healthy Ireland programme, is partnering with Croí, the Heart and Stroke Charity, to offer free community health checks in various locations across Offaly this November and December. Checks include glucose, cholesterol, blood pressure and pulse testing, along with lifestyle advice. Free community health talks will also take place at 11am at selected venues. Places are limited, so advance booking is encouraged. No booking is required for checks at Birr Mart. Birr Civic Offices - Nov 10th, Birr Mart - Nov 16th.

A Prayer of Remembrance

God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November.

We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in the our dark moments of grief and loneliness.

We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief. Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage.

May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Is paidir í seo ón mbéaloideas a bhíodh á rá ag ár sinsir gach Domhnach .

Fáilte Roimh an Domhnach

Dé bheatha an Domhnaigh, tar éis na seachtaine, Lá breá scítheach chun Críost d'agallamh.
Corraigh do chos chun dul chuig an Aifreann,
Corraigh do bhéal go briathar beannaithe.
Oscail do chroí agus scaoil an ghangaid as.
Féach suas ar mhac na banaltra,
Mac Dé, - is É do cheannaigh sinn,
Chuir le daonnacht le cith allais,
A chuid fola naofa, saor Ár n-anam,
Go rabhaidh Sé an cosán fada romhainn,
Go bhfaighimis buíochas
I ríocht na bhflaitheas leis. Áiméan.

We welcome the Lord's Day

Sunday you are welcome at the end of each week,
A restful day when we can speak to the Lord.
Let us go to Mass and pray fervently.
Open our hearts to let go of bitterness.
Turn our thoughts to the Son of God.
Through His Precious Blood ,
He has redeemed us and shown us the way.
May we be with Him forever in heaven. Amen.

Prayer for Prisoners

We pray your grace Lord Jesus for prisoners and their families, who walk their sentence
with their loved one.
We pray your healing Lord for the trauma that has caused them to hurt themselves, their families, and their victims.
We pray they will turn to You and begin their journey of recovery, finding compassionate support in our Christian society.
Jesus, we trust in you. Amen.

Weekly Reflection

Take time to refresh your spirit,
take time for prayer,

take time for Eucharist,
take time for wonder,

be surprised by God
in the November sunrise,

in the Christmas anticipation,
in the evening's winter peace,
and your light glows new again.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time The door is closed against the bridesmaids who did not keep vigil nor trim their lamps. The concern of the Christian should be readiness for the call of the Lord, to seek the light of Christ in daily living, and to keep burning brightly the light received at baptism. It is true wisdom to be always eagerly longing for the Lord.

November Reflection for our Loved Ones

Lord, be good to them, and show them all your love.
Lord, be kind to them, and grant them peace above.
Lord, be merciful to them, and wipe their sins away.
Lord, be generous to them, with all our hearts we pray.
Lord, be gracious to them, for good that they have done.
Lord, be gentle with them, for sufferings undergone.
Lord, may we meet again, when Heaven's crown is won.

Congratulations: Congratulations to Clarecastle GAA and to the team that won the Clare PIHC competition recently, and opened the door to Clarecastle's return to Senior Hurling Championship.

Congratulations: Also the Local Tidy Towns Group on their magnificent result in the National Tidy Towns Competition. Our lovely village won a Gold Medal again this year. We are 9 points behind the national winner. A few more volunteers and a little more commitment could see us win the National Title. Surely there are ten or twelve people among us who will volunteer to join the local Tidy Towns Team. Your presence and ideas could make all the difference to securing a National Title.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
Let my prayer come in to your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help,
O Lord.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the book of Wisdom
Ws 6:12-16

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and
you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
R. For you my soul is thirsting,
O God, My God

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
For you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
Like a dry, weary land without water. R.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
To see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
My lips will speak your praise R.

So I will bless you all my life
In your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
My mouth shall praise you with joy. R.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
In the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.
1 Thess 4:13-18

We want you to be quite certain, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
Because you do not know the hour
When the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 25:1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this:
Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon:
The disciples recognised the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread.

DOORA BAREFIELD PARISH

NEWSLETTER

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A 8TH November, 2026

Rituals and how they call us to attention.
Context and reference point

Jesus comparing events at a wedding celebration to the "Kingdom of Heaven" is far from rare and yet here this parable has it's own reference point to a particular moment of traditional ritual of the day ….Here Jesus introduces us to one of the roles the bridesmaids perform by way of the welcoming procession of the couple from the brides home to her new home with her husbands family, as they would draw near the ten bridesmaids represent the ladies who would be there to welcome the couple on their final steps with lighted torches …. Here Jesus draws the picture for us … for reasons not shared there had been a delay … the five wise and prepared bridesmaids had planned for this eventuality while the other five seem to have been somewhat complacent and got caught off guard.

Having been sent away to get some extra oil the couples arrival sees celebrations get underway and their return finds them left outside not recognised by the groom … a little harsh it would appear … here there is room for allegory … the Bridegroom represents Jesus and the procession, our waiting for HIS RETURN … the bridesmaids surely relayed to US as we wait for Jesus' return at a time we do not know.

The message is relatively simple but carries in it's simplicity the reality of living in a world that for us is our lifetime and how we as Christians chose to live it … wise and prepared or foolish and complacent. The time referred to is that time in theological terms between Resurrection and the return of the Son of Man which is not meant to be an "empty time" but a time to remain alert with "our lamps lit" SO .. When I say I am Christian

When I say ..."I am a Christian," I'm not shouting "I am saved." I'm whispering "I was lost!"
That is why I choose this way.
When I say… "I am a Christian," I don't speak of this with pride. I'm confessing that I stumble
And need someone to be my guide.
When I say …"I am a Christian," I'm not trying to be strong. I'm professing that I'm weak And pray for strength to carry on.
When I say… "I am a Christian," I'm not bragging of success. I'm admitting I have failed
And cannot ever pay the debt.
When I say… "I am a Christian," I'm not claiming to be perfect, My flaws are too visible
But God believes I'm worth it.
When I say… "I am a Christian," I still feel the sting of pain. I have my share of heartaches
Which is why I seek his name.
When I say… "I am a Christian," I do not wish to judge. I have no authority.
I only know I'm loved.

All welcome.

On passing a Graveyard

John O'Donohue

May perpetual light shine upon the faces of all who rest here,
May the lives they lived unfold
further in spirit.
May all their past travail find ease
in the kindness of clay.
May the remembering earth mind every memory they brought.
May the rains from the heavens
fall gently upon them.
May the wildflowers and grasses
whisper their wishes into light.
May we reverence the village of presence in the stillness of this silent field.

Cathedral Renovation Appeal

In the past week Fr. Tom wishes to acknowledge donations of €1,000 & €200.

We thank the many people who have made once off contributions to this appeal.

Book of Remembrance

Our Book of Remembrance containing photographs of all who have died in the parish in the past year is available from the Parish Office.

We ask for a donation to cover the cost of printing.

Friary & Poor Clare Heating Fund

Envelopes for those who wish to contribute to this year's Appeal for the Friary and Poor Clare Heating Fund are available in both the Friary and the Cathedral and the Parish Office.

Prayer for Vocations

We have two students studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of Killaloe at the present time and they will be joined by another student in January.

Please pray each day for Mark and Brian and all others who are answering the call to ministry in our diocese.

We have a number of lay people currently discerning a call to respond to ministry. Please pray for them.

Week of Witness

Week of Witness for persecuted Christians from 15th to 22nd November.

220 million Christians live in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution, while 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely isolated. Aid to the Church in Need invites you to support them with prayer.

Ennis TradFest

Welcome to all this weekend celebrating the best of our music, song and dance.

St. Laurence O'Toole

Laurence was an Augustinian Archbishop of Dublin. He was involved in negotiating with the English following the invasion of Ireland and in 1172 convened a Synod at Cashel. He also attended the General Lateran Council in Rome in 1179 and was named Papal Legate to Ireland.

While on a mission to Kind Henry II of England, Laurence died at EU Normandy, France. He was canonised in 1225. We celebrate his feast day on Saturday 14th November.

Cathedral Works Update

Great progress was made in the past week with the paving in front of the Cathedral.

Our thanks to the Romanian Pavers who have come to assist our Contractor M. Fitzgibbon with this part of the project. Work is continuing at the Marian Shrine beside Bishops Willie and Harty's graves.

Drainage issues are being addressed on the grounds in preparation for the tarmac which will be the final part of the project.

Our thanks for your understanding and patience while this work is progressing and for the many people who through their generosity and contributions make it possible.

Over €800,000 is the estimated cost of the project and all contributions are very much appreciated.

We remind all that there is NO PARKING in the Cathedral Grounds at this time as the area is designated a work site.
Thank you for your understanding.

Sr. Maureen Haugh, St. Xavier's Convent of Mercy

Born 28th August, 1933
Died 27th October, 2026

Maureen was born and grew up in Shragh, Doonbeg attending the local national school and St. Xavier's Secondary School, Kilrush.

She entered the Sisters of Mercy in Nenagh on 26th April, 1954 and made her final profession on 29th October, 1959. She qualified as a Secondary School Teacher with qualifications from both UCD and UCC.

Her teaching life began in Birr and Borrisokane before her appointment as Principal of St. Joseph's Secondary School, Tulla in 1980. Six years later, she transferred to Shannon where she taught in St. Caimin's Community School.

In her retirement from teaching Maureen was appointed by the late Bishop Willie Walsh as our Diocesan Delegate for the Care of Asylum Seekers and Refugees following the example of her foundress, the Venerable Catherine McAuley.

She welcomed the stranger. She saw the face of Jesus in the migrant, the refugee, the displaced, those who arrived with nothing and needed help and support.

Maureen put mercy into action. She opened doors, made room, helped fill out forms, helped navigate bureaucracy.
She offered a listening ear and a place to belong.

The final years of her life were spent between St. Xavier's Convent in Ennis and Catherine McAuley House in Limerick where she died peacefully on Tuesday 27th October last.

May Maureen now be welcomed to the home of the Father and hear those words:
"I was a stranger
and you made me welcome.

Remembrance Prayer

God, thank you for the people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November.
We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in our dark moments of grief and loneliness.

We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief.
Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage.

May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
Let my prayer come in to your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help,
O Lord.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the book of Wisdom
Ws 6:12-16

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and
you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
R. For you my soul is thirsting,
O God, My God

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
For you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
Like a dry, weary land without water. R.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
To see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
My lips will speak your praise R.

So I will bless you all my life
In your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
My mouth shall praise you with joy. R.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
In the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.
1 Thess 4:13-18

We want you to be quite certain, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
Because you do not know the hour
When the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 25:1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this:
Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon:
The disciples recognised the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread.

A Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and in its going down. We remember them. In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter. We remember them. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer. We remember them. In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn. We remember them. In the beginning of the year and when it ends. We remember them. When we are lost and sick at heart. We remember them. When we have joys, we yearn to share. We remember them. So long as we live, they too shall live. We will remember them.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION continues on Tuesdays from 2 to 8pm in Kilmaley Church.

KEEPING THE FLAME OF FAITH ALIVE

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 25:1-13), Jesus tells the parable of the ten bridesmaids waiting for the bridegroom. Some were prepared, with lamps filled with oil, while others were not. His message is simple: stay awake and be ready.

This is an invitation to keep the flame of faith alive in our own lives. In the busyness and distractions of everyday life, it is easy to lose sight of what matters most. Prayer, kindness, forgiveness and care for others are ways of keeping our lamps burning brightly.

May we remain close to the Lord, live each day with love and generosity, and always be ready to welcome Him into our hearts and our lives.

FINDING LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

As the evenings grow shorter and the days become darker, we can sometimes find the winter months challenging. For some, this time of year can bring feelings of loneliness, sadness or isolation, particularly when the warmth and brightness of summer seem a distant memory. Yet, even in the darkest days, we are reminded that we are never alone. Our Christian faith tells us that Christ is the light of the world, a light that no darkness can overcome. His presence brings comfort, strength and hope, especially when life feels difficult.

Perhaps this winter we can make a special effort to look out for one another. A friendly phone call, a visit, a smile or a few kind words can make a real difference to someone who is feeling lonely. Let us remember that God walks beside us through every season of life. May we find warmth in His love, encouragement in our faith and hope in the promise that brighter days will come.

May we be a little light for one another this winter.

Please pray for the happy repose of the soul of:
╬ John Haren, Magowna and late of Cappalea
We offer our condolences to his family and friends.

Reflection

We are called to stay awake and keep our hearts ready for the Lord. Like the lamps in the Gospel, our faith needs to be kept alive through prayer, love and kindness. We do not know what tomorrow will bring, but each day gives us an opportunity to live our faith and share God's love with others. May we always be ready to welcome the Lord into our lives.

REMEMBRANCE MASS FOR ALL WHO DIED IN MILTOWN since last year on Saturday 14th of November at 6 p.m. We warmly invite you to a cup of tea after Mass.

REFLECTION:

They brought oil as well as their lamps

We are each the light of God;
a light given with the candle given to our parents in baptism,
the light of faith to guide our steps in the way of Jesus,
to enlighten our minds in the truth of Jesus,
to nourish our love with the life of Jesus.

You are light,
you are the lamp of God,
and this light is the warmth of God.

And the power of the lamp is the love of God.

In the Eucharist our light is brightened,
and the lamp is renewed,
as a waterfall generates electricity
as love generates new life.

They brought oil as well as their lamps.

Take time to refresh your spirit,
take time for prayer,
take time for Eucharist,
take time for wonder,
be surprised by God
in the November sunrise,
in the Christmas anticipation,
in the evening's winter peace,
and your light glows new again.

They brought oil as well as their lamps.

REFLECTION –

The foolish have no oil in their lamps.
They burn themselves out
Through a life of self-seeking
And dedication to worldly cares and vanities.
They do not even think of the Lord,
Much less waiting for his coming.
The wise, one the other hand,
have oil in their lamps.
They are detached from themselves
And from the cares of the world,
And are full of charity.
They are waiting for the Lord,
And desire nothing else but his coming.
Let us keep our minds alight with faith,
Our souls alight with hope,
And our hearts alight with love,
As we wait in joyful hope
For the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

"In the torment of the insufficiency of everything attainable we come to understand that here, in this life, all symphonies remain unfinished."
Karl Rahner

We Remember Them

In the rising of the sun and it's going down,
In the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter,
In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
In the rusting of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends
When we are weary and in need of strength,
When we are lost and sick of heart,
When we have joys and special celebrations we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for we are part of them.
When we sing God's praises,
we remember them.

In November, We Remember

Keeping Our Lamps Lit

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares the Parable of the Ten Virgins. It serves as a gentle reminder that Christian vigilance isn't about fear or anxious waiting; it's about the quiet, daily practice of keeping our faith alive through prayer, love, and community service. As the days grow darker and the liturgical year draws to a close, how can we replenish the "oil" in our spiritual lamps this week?

The Sound of Silence

Silence is one of the most essential elements of the Mass. Both our own interior silence and the shared external silence in the church building during and between the readings, helps us to really listen to God speaking to us and to begin to hear what God is saying to us. Silence creates a space for God.

Triduum Mass Intentions

Christmas Triduum Mass Intentions, an ideal way to link with our loved ones this Christmas is to send them a Parish Christmas card and include them in our Christmas Triduum of Masses. Cards will be available in the Parish Office and shop at St Mary of the Rosary from Monday 16 November. More details will follow next week.

'The Leaves'
The leaves were falling from the trees. Two leaves clung on. "It isn't the way it used to be," said one leaf to the other. "No, so many of us have fallen off tonight, we're almost the only two on this branch," answered the other. "Even when it is warm and the sun shines, a storm or a cloud burst would come sometimes, and many leaves would be torn off, though they were still young. You never know who is going to go next." "The sun seldom shines now," sighed the second leaf. "Soon we will go. Can it be true that we are replaced by others, and then when they have gone by others, more and more?" It is really true," whispered the other leaf. "It makes me feel very sad. Why must we all fall? What happens to us once we have fallen?" "We sink down...what do you think is under us?" "I don't know, some say one thing, and some another, but nobody knows. No one has ever come back to tell us about it." "Which of us will go first?" "Let's not worry about that now, let's remember how beautiful it was, how wonderful when the sun came out and shone so warmly that we thought we'd burst with life. Do you remember? "Yes, I remember, but look at me now, I am so yellow and ugly." "No, you are as lovely as the day that you were born." Hours passed, a moist wind blew cold and hostile through the branches. The leaves were torn from their places and spun downwards... winter had come.

Parish Notes

Newmarket-on-Fergus

Choir: Newmarket-on-Fergus has a wonderful tradition of choral and sacred music. Our pastoral council has been working to revive our choir in the Church of Our Lady of the Rosary. Claire O'Dea has very kindly agreed to work with our choir. Rehearsal will take place on the second Saturday of each month at 5.15pm, commencing Saturday, 14th November and the choir will sing at 6pm Mass. We look forward to welcoming back previous members of our choir, new singers & musicians are welcome. Sacred music adds so very much to our liturgy and prayer, and we are grateful to Claire and to all who give so generously of their time and talent for the glory of the Lord.

Annual Christmas Party, Sun. Dec 6th @ 1:30pm in the Rhine Hotel: The Christmas Party is for all Senior Citizens currently residing in Newmarket-on-Fergus Parish, and we look forward to welcoming everyone for a wonderful afternoon together.

O Bhéal Poetry Festival: The overall winner at O Bhéal poetry festival was Cahercon educated Deirdre Mulrooney. Her film - The Clouds are not Inaccessible was about the restored poetry and dance reputation of James Joyce's daughter Lucia. For The Skin Covered Axe Conor Madden and Mary Grogan had to be content with a promise of a second screening at a monthly event held in Cork. Well done to Conor and Mary.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 15th November 2026

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

GREETING

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

You were sent to heal the contrite of heart:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
You came to call sinners:
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
You are seated at the right hand of the Father to intercede for us:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
May almighty God have mercy on us....
Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand
of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you,
for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy
the author of all that is good.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ....

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Proverbs 31: 10-13.19-20. 30-31.

A reading from the Book of Proverbs.
A perfect wife - who can find her?
She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband's heart has confidence in her, from her he will derive no little profit.
Advantage and not hurt she brings him all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax she does her work with eager hands.
She sets her hands to the distaff,
her fingers grasp the spindle.
She holds out her hand to the poor,
she opens her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty;
the woman who is wise is the one to praise.
Give her a share in what her hands have worked for,
and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 127: 1 - 5

R. O blessed are those who fear the Lord.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. (R)
2. Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. (R)
3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem
all the days of your life. (R)

SECOND READING 1 Thessalonians 5: 1-6

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.
You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it.
But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Even if you have to die, says the Lord, keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 25: 14 - 30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. (*Shorter from in italics)
Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir", he said you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness." Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
All bow for following three lines:
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters, ...
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Grant, O Lord, we pray, that what we offer in the sight of your majesty may obtain for us the grace of being devoted to you and gain us the prize of everlasting happiness.
Through Christ our Lord.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

AFTER THE CONSECRATION

The mystery of faith.
We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Behold the Lamb of God, ...
Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

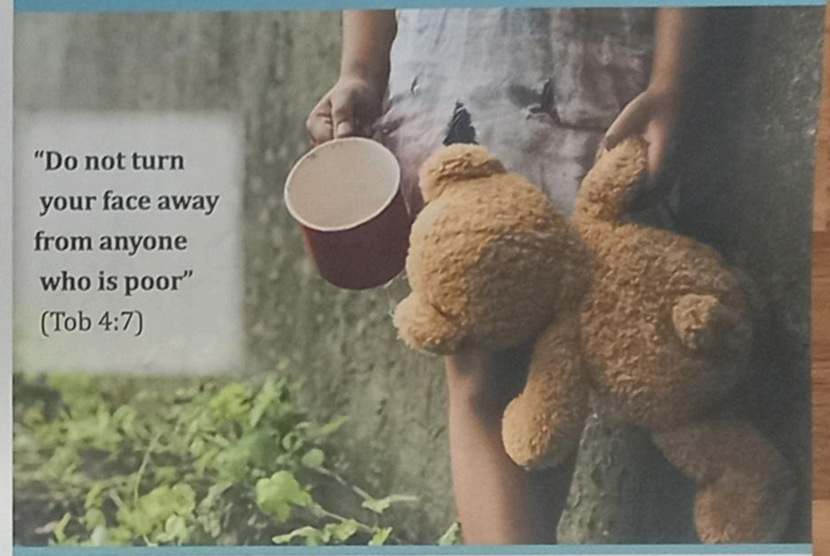

We have partaken of the gifts of this sacred mystery, humbly imploring, O Lord, that what your Son commanded us to do in memory of him may bring us growth in charity. Through Christ our Lord.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 15th November 2026 Year A

World Day of the Poor

We find today an invitation from the gospel to put all our talents at the service of God and of his kingdom.

"Do not turn your face away from anyone who is poor" (Tob 4:7)

Today the Church asks us to reflect on poverty in our world and our country and how we should respond. While climate change, war, and natural disasters such as droughts and floods contribute to poverty, the basic cause of poverty is the unfair distribution of the world's resources. The wealth of the world's 3,000 billionaires grew by $2.8 trillion in 2024 and now stands at $18.3 trillion while 3.6 million people remain in poverty, a figure that is largely unchanged since 1990. The wealth of the world's richest 1% would eliminate global poverty 22 times over (Oxfam report). But we all have a role to play. We live in a culture that promotes the idea that the only real security in life is financial security, encouraging us to seek to accumulate as much as possible, for the sake of our families. Greed has become a virtue! Perhaps it is, not money, but the love of money which is the root of all evil.

Dependency on others is seen as a vulnerability which we have to overcome, through building up our finances. Our culture also seeks to persuade us that "what I have is mine and I can do what I want with it." But the Gospel is very clear, that what I have that I do not need (admittedly a very subjective judgement that requires discernment) belongs to those who are in need. We are all called by the gospel to "live simply and share generously."

Fr. Peter McVerry SJ

Jesus' Story Fr. Liam Hickey

I liked the colours in The Church Window. All were different and held together in light, like a happy family. Every person is a colour of God, and is like a talent, to let the light of God's Love shine through us. We let the love of God shine through us when we smile, offer to help, say please and thanks and respect our mother Nature.

Prayer

God of all creation,
You are present in every place,
in every moment of history,
give us faith to believe that you are with us, here and now.

We believe that those we loved and who are laid to rest are now held in your embrace.

We pray that a circle of light, happiness and peace may surround them and that they may come to the fullness of life in your presence.

We remember how their lives shaped us,
their hands held us, their words inspired us,
their love supported and sustained us.

Eternal God, you see face to face those we remember here.

Give us confidence that what we have loved in them is not lost, but lives on in your presence, as it does in our hearts.

Comfort us in our loss and help us to believe that one day we shall be united with them when we too shall see you, face to face.

Thought for the Week

"We do not remember days. We remember moments"
