Feast of St Francis of Assisi 4th October: What does Saint Francis's witness tell us today? What does he have to say to us, not merely with words – that is easy enough – but by his life? His first and most essential witness is this: that being a Christian means having a living relationship with the person of Jesus; it means putting on Christ, being conformed to him. Where did Francis's journey to Christ begin? It began with the gaze of the crucified Jesus. With letting Jesus look at us at the very moment that he gives his life for us and draws us to himself. Francis experienced this in a special way in the Church of San Damiano, as he prayed before the cross. On that cross, Jesus is depicted not as dead, but alive! Blood is flowing from his wounded hands, feet and side, but that blood speaks of life. Jesus' eyes are not closed but open, wide open: he looks at us in a way that touches our hearts. We turn to you, Francis, and we ask you: Teach us to remain before the cross, to let the crucified Christ gaze upon us, to let ourselves be forgiven, and recreated by his love.

Thank You

The Down Syndrome Association are grateful for the generous response to their recent church collection. €689.00 was donated.

Update

I would like to update everyone on our parish restoration project and, most importantly, to thank everyone who has so generously supported the fund so far.

Thanks to your support, we can now move forward with several important improvements to our church:

- Upgrading the church sound system, which has not been working satisfactorily for some time — something many will be delighted with, and hopefully with no more interference!
- Providing dedicated accessible parking in the church yard for parishioners and visitors who require easier access to the church.
- Beginning the first and important stage of our wider restoration plan — the restoration of the west-facing entrance door and its associated windows which will include the Evie Hone Window. I am grateful for your continued generosity, patience and support. While the works may cause some temporary inconvenience, we hope that, together, we can continue to preserve our church and parish for future generations.

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary

ONE MILLION CHILDREN PRAYING THE ROSARY

Wednesday 7th October (Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary)

Children's led Rosary in St. Eunan's Cathedral at 6.15 pm. Everyone welcome.

Aid to the Church in Need Ireland is inviting you this year to join in the worldwide prayer campaign a million children praying the Rosary.

Once again, we are calling on children in every continent to join together - in the first week of October, and especially on October 7th, the Feast of the Holy Rosary, and pray the simple but powerful prayer of the Rosary for peace. We know the old tradition that the prayer of children finds a privileged hearing in the sight of God, especially perhaps since it flows from pure hearts and childlike trust. St. Thérèse of Lisieux, a model of childlike faith, describes prayer like this: "For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned towards heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." This is exactly what happens when children pray the Rosary. They open their hearts to Jesus, to Mary and to all this wounded world. St. Padre Pio said, "When a million children pray the Rosary, then the world will change." For the prayers of children have a special power before God - a power that can breach walls, heal wounds and bring light into the darkness.

1 MILLION CHILDREN PRAYING - Childrens Rosary on today Sunday 4th October at 4:30pm in St Eunan's Cathedral. A global week of prayer led by children and promoted by ACN takes place from 1st - 7th October, inviting children, schools, parishes, and families to come together and pray the Rosary. Today, feast of St Francis during this Jubilee year dedicated to him, you are warmly invited to join with your family and friends to pray the Rosary for unity and peace in the world.

The Cathedral 'FAMILY MASS' will take place at 10 am on Sunday 11th October. If any family would like to take part i.e. reading, prayers of the faithful or offertory, please contact the Parish Office on 0749121021. The Family Mass takes place on the second Sunday of each month.

OCTOBER DEVOTIONS are a long tradition that brings us together to pray the rosary in this month of special devotion to our Blessed Mother. Following the Sunday evening Masses in the Cathedral we will have the Rosary and Benediction. You are encouraged to join us for this time of prayer.

The ROSARY will be prayed Tuesday to Friday evening after the 7 pm Mass at Our Lady's Altar during October. Monday evenings Rosary will be at 7 pm

ROSARY will be prayed at Lisfannon Beach on this Sunday afternoon at 3pm.

FATIMA CANDLELIGHT PROCESSION: October is the month of the Holy Rosary, and in Honour of Our Lady of Fatima, a Candlelight Rosary Procession will take place on Tuesday, 13th October at 7.45pm. The procession will begin by assembling across from the Market Square, before proceeding through the town towards the Famine Graveyard.

AN OPEN INVITATION is warmly extended to everyone to join Bishop Niall Coll for a Holy Mass in thanksgiving for Cursillo in St Mary's Church Stranorlar at 3pm on Sunday 25th October and afterwards to a gathering in the Parish Centre (Stranorlar). Everyone welcome.

A REMEMBRANCE MASS for missing people, and their families will be held in St. Mary's Church, Sandyford, Dublin, D18E5R3, on Saturday 10th October at 2.30 pm. The Mass will be celebrated by Father Aquinas Duffy.

It was a lesson, not a life sentence.*

The Deep End • Finding my role in God's plan

Today, designated by the Church as the 'Day for Life', celebrates the dignity of life from conception to natural death. These words by Blessed John Henry Newman remind us that regardless of whatever situations we may find ourselves in, we are all part of God's plan for this world:

'God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me.

Still, He knows what He is about.'

Divine Mercy Prayer

Eternal God, in whom Mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your Mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your Holy Will, which is Love and Mercy Itself.

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Reflection

If you asked somebody to do something and they didn't do it, you might give them a second chance.

If they failed to do it the second time, your patience might be stretched a bit.

You just might ask them a third time.

But if they failed the third time, you would definitely give up on them.

Thankfully, our ways are not God's ways. God clearly has more patience with us than we have with ourselves and each other.

In today's parable, God offers the chance to reap an endlessly abundant harvest of love, mercy and forgiveness. They are offered to us freely out of love. Like those in the gospel, we have to choose freely whether to accept or decline God's generous offer.

God looks to us to produce the fruits of love, mercy, compassion and the values of the Kingdom of God. The burning question from this parable to us today is simple but challenging: what sort of fruits and harvest are we producing today through our ordinary daily lives as followers of Jesus?

October Intentions of our Holy Father Pope Leo XIV

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church helping us to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Is the gospel of Christ complete or do we need something else? Jesus Christ is all we need-and the reason is because He alone was the Son of God, sent from Heaven as God's final sacrifice for our sins. Cults deny this-but the Bible is clear: "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12)

Thoughts on the Gospel for October 4th 2026

Today's parable is linked to last Sunday's about the two sons sent to work in their father's vineyard. One promised to go and work there, but he did not actually go. The other at first refused, but later relented and went. The message of Jesus is clear (especially in the context of Matthew's Gospel).

God's people had disappointed their God. It was the formerly sinful Gentiles who took on the task of building the Kingdom. This should not be understood as anti-Jewish. On the contrary, this was being written by Christian Jews for Christian Jews and it must have been a painful thing for them to see and accept.

I would like to invite the members of the Pastoral Council to a short meeting next Tuesday night, October 6th, in the Oratory at 7.30 p.m. Thank you. Fr. Lorcan.

Glenfin Area Council - Monthly Draw 2026/27

The Glenfin Area Council would like to express their sincere appreciation for your ongoing support of local initiatives. Your support is greatly valued.

Proceeds from this year's monthly draw will be dedicated to the development of Independent Living Accommodation for seniors adjacent to Ionad Pobail Gleann Fhinne.

In the coming weeks, volunteers will be visiting homes to provide information and selling lines in the new Monthly Draw for 2026/27. The monthly prize fund totals €1,000, with a first prize of €500 and five additional prizes of €100 each. Additionally, there will be a special bonus draw in December, featuring ten €100 prizes.

Please support this Draw. This project was very much at the heart of John Gallagher.

We must all do our best now to fulfil his worthy dream that will benefit all elderly people.

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Ezicéal fáidh. 18:25-28.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna: “Dúirt tusa: ‘Níl gníomhartha an Tiarna cóir.’ Éist liom, a mhuintir Isráél, nach bhfuil mo ghníomhartha cóir? Nach iad bhuir ngníomhartha féin atá míchóir? Má thréigean an firéan an fhíréantacht agus peaca a dhéanamh, tiocfaidh a bhás de; gheobhaidh sé bás de bharr an oilc atá déanta aige. Arís, má thréigean an drochdhuine a pheacaí agus déanamh mar is ceart agus mar is cóir, bhéarfaidh sé a bheatha slán. De bhrí go ndéarna sé machnamh agus gur thréig sé a pheacaí go léir, mairfidh sé go cinnte; ní bhfaighidh sé bás.”

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM:

Cuimhnigh ar do thrócaire, a Thiarna.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Filipigh. 2:1-11.

A Bhráithre, más fiú aon ní an sólás a fhaigheann sibh ó Chríost, más fiú aon ní an spreagadh a thig ón ghrá, más fiú aon ní bhuir gcumann leis an Spiorad, má tá dáimh nó trua ar bith ionaibh, cuirigí barr ar mo chuid áthais trí bheith ar aon aigne le chéile, ar aon ghrá, ar aon toil agus ar aon intinn. Ná déanaigí dadamh le éad ná le bród, ach sibh a mheas go humhal gur fearr daoine eile ná sibh féin. Gan aon duine a gaibh a leas féin amháin a iarraidh, ach leas a chomharsan comh maith. Bíodh an intinn sin agaibh a bhí ag Íosa Críost. Bhí sé riamh i gcló Dé, ach nár shanntaigh sé bheith ar chomhchéim le Dia. Gur fholmhaigh sé é féin le dhul i gcló seirbhísigh, agus teacht ar an saol i gcló agus i gcosúlacht duine. I gcló an duine dó, d'isigh sé é féin agus bhí umhal go bás, go fiú bás na croiche. D'ardaigh Dia go mór é dá bharr sin, gur bhronn air an t-ainm atá os cionn gach ainm, ionas nuair a luafaí ainm Íosa go gcromfadh gach glún, ar neamh, ar talamh agus faoi thalamh, agus go n-aidmheodh gach teanga le hómós do Dhia, gurb é Íosa Críost an Tiarna. Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

World Mission Sunday, 18th of October. What is World Mission Sunday? World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal in support of overseas mission. It takes place in very parish worldwide where the Church is present. Who organises World Mission Sunday? Missio Ireland [the Irish branch of Pontifical Mission Societies] coordinates World Mission Sunday. It is part of a global network, serving the Church in over 1,130 dioceses world wide. How are funds received on World Mission Sunday dispersed? All projects go through the local bishops and nuncios in the countries where funds are requested. They are vetted and checked by the Pontifical Mission Societies in Rome. Projects are allocated to Ireland to match the amount of funds that are available, once the audit is complete. This year, €2.6m has been sent out to projects from Missio Ireland. Why is World Mission Sunday so important? All donations received on Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This Fund is essential, not only for missionaries, but for the future of the Church. It supports missionary activities in over 1,130 mission dioceses, mostly found in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

Matthew 21:33–43

Jesus tells of a landowner who plants a vineyard and entrusts it to tenants. When the owner sends servants to collect its harvest, the tenants beat and kill them. Finally, he sends his beloved son, but they kill him too, believing they can seize the inheritance.

The vineyard represents God's people, the servants represent the prophets, and the beloved son points to Jesus himself. The parable recalls Israel's repeated rejection of God's messengers and foreshadows the rejection and death of Christ. Jesus then warns that God's kingdom will be entrusted to those who will produce its fruits. The stone rejected by the builders will become the cornerstone — a Messianic prophecy fulfilled in Jesus, who becomes the foundation of the new covenant and the Church (Matthew 21:42; Psalm 118:22–23). 16

Reflection: God lovingly entrusts his vineyard to us. We are called to receive Christ, listen to God's word, and bear fruits of faith, justice, mercy, and holiness.

Aodh Ruadh 11k Loop Walk

Sunday, 15th November beginning and ending at Fr. Tierney Park. Starting at 10am before heading to Bundoran and then returning via the Active Travel Route. (Also, a 5k option starting at Finner Roundabout) Event is being led by Former Pupils of Ballyshannon Secondary Schools. All proceeds from the walk will go towards the refurbishment of the stand in Fr. Tierney Park. Parish Choir Practice Monday 7.15pmEntrance Hymn: Seek Ye First

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God,
 and his righteousness,
 And all these things shall be added unto you:
 allelu, alleluia
 Chorus Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, allelu, alleluia
 Ask and it shall be given unto you, seek and ye shall find;
 knock and it shall be opened unto you:
 allelu, alleluia (Chorus)
 We do not live by bread alone
 but by ev'ry word
 that comes forth from the mouth of God:
 allelu, alleluia (Chorus)

Final Hymn: Christ Be Beside Me

Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
 Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
 Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
 Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
 Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
 Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
 Christ in my rising, light of my life.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me,
 Christ be in all tongues telling of me,
 Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
 In ears that hear me, Christ ever be.

VESPERS by John O'Donohue

*As light departs to let the earth be one with night,
 Silence deepens in the mind and thoughts grow slow;
 The basket of twilight brims over with colours
 Gathered from within the secret meadows of the day
 And offered like blessings to the gathering Tenebrae.*

*After the day's frenzy may the heart grow still Gracious in thought for all the day brought,
 Surprises that dawn could never have dreamed,
 The blue silence that came to still the mind,
 The quiver of mystery at the edge of a glimpse,
 The golden echoes of worlds behind voices.*

*Tense faces unable to hide what gripped the heart,
 The abrupt cut of a glance or a phrase that hurt,
 The flame of longing that distance darkened,
 Bouquets of memory that gathered on the heart's altar
 The thorns of absence in the rose of dream.*

*And the whole while the unknown underworld
 Of the mind turning slowly in its secret orbit.*

*May the blessing of sleep bring refreshment & release
 And the angel of the moon call the rivers of dream
 To soften the hardened earth of the outside life,
 Disentangle from the trapped nets the hurt & sorrow
 And awaken the young soul for the new tomorrow.*

ST FAUSTINA WEEKEND IN CONVOY

On the weekend of October 2, 3 and 4, we are going to hold a St Faustina Weekend. Her Feast Day is on October 5. The idea of the weekend is that we will grow in praying with Divine Mercy. Under this year's theme of 'Divine Mercy is a gift to me', we will have prayer times, quiet times, reflections and Eucharist. You are very welcome to join us for all or any part or parts of the weekend. We hope that more people come to know Divine Mercy in a deep and profound way. The greatest things in life are free. Jesus is not a statue but the living Lord of life. Jesus has paid the price for our sins to bring us back into communion with God. Jesus is a stream of living water from which we are invited to drink. The Divine Mercy Revelations are an invitation to let the future be what life was meant to be.

On behalf of the Parish of Raphoe, we want to express our deepest gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to Fr Jimmy Masereka who covered for Fr Kelly during the months of August and September. May the Lord bless Fr Jimmy as he continues with his studies in Rome and serving God's people.

Eucharistic Adoration.

In John 14:9 Jesus said to his disciples, "For a long time I have been with you all, yet you do not know me".

The greatest way to get to know Jesus – apart from Holy Mass – is by spending time with him in Adoration. "Come to me all you who labour or are heavily burdened and I will give you rest". Jesus invites us to come into his presence. How awesome is that? How did the practice of adoration begin? Back in the 12th century the Catholic faithful wished to have more time after Holy Communion to pray in the Presence of Jesus. Their wish was granted when Thomas Aquinas (Saint Thomas Aquinas), introduced Eucharistic Adoration. This powerful form of prayer spread throughout the world to the present day. The consecrated Host is placed in the monstrance on the altar. People may pray, read, sit in silent contemplation or just rest, in the True Presence of Jesus. "Heart speaks to heart." (St. Teresa of Calcutta)

New members of our parish community have signed up and committed to an hour of adoration each week. That is great news, but more are always needed to keep this devotion viable. Many people drop in to the church on a casual basis during the hours of adoration. That is also very highly commended. However, remember that God gives us 168 hours each week. Can we not give him back 1 hour?

Reading the Bible

This Autumn in Ards Friary 087 635 5602
with Br. Jeremy
Monday nights 7:30 to 9:00
(starting 28th September 2026)

This year we will be reading the Prophet Isaiah, the second longest book in the Bible, and one of the most influential Old Testament books in the history of the Church.

Each night we begin with a short time of prayer before reading and discussion. During the week we read a little in preparation for the following week's meeting.

This group is non-academic and we will be prayerfully reading the Bible in the Catholic tradition.

Pick up the Bible
this autumn!

If you have a Bible please bring it.
