SAINT OF THE WEEK

When Cardinal Bob Prevost was picking a name for his papacy, Leo came to mind. Over 135 years ago, Leo XIII published Rerum Novarum on workers' rights. But back through the centuries was another Leo, always called 'the Great'. This quiet scholarly man was the one who met Attila the Hun at the gates of Rome and persuaded the attacker to go away. Leo the Great courageously worked for peace, as our Leo also does.
Pope St Leo the Great (feast day Tuesday 10 November) pray for our current Pope Leo (XIV), and pray for us.

Is there a hell?

A few years ago, the Church revised the words of the Creed. That prayer used to speak of Christ 'descending to the dead' after His own death. In the revised wording, Christ 'descended into HELL'. Some found this unsettling, till they remembered how much hell persists on earth; where there is war and destruction, rape and all the terrible abuse of people. Christ descended to those dark places and remains, defeating darkness with his redeeming power.
When life here is over, is there a hell in the afterlife too? If there is light, there must be shade, if there is heaven, there must be hell too. But how many people does the merciful God permit to enter it? Only God knows.
The catechism puts it succinctly: "God predestines no one to go to hell; for this, a wilful turning away from God is necessary, and persistence in it to the end." (# 1037)
And how likely is that, when a person leaving this world meets the love of God, perhaps for the first time? Can the depths of evil be swept away in that moment, through the victory Christ has won? This mystery will be revealed only in eternity.

Vol. 35 No. 9 Sunday: November 8th, 2026 (Thirty Second Sunday In Ordinary Time)

Mary O'H submits.....

Sometimes, when the sun goes Down…..

Sometimes, when the sun goes down,
it seems it will never rise again…
But it will!

Sometimes, when you feel alone,
it seems your heart will break in two…
But it won't.

And sometimes it seems it's hardly worth carrying on…
But it is.

For sometimes, when the sun goes down,
it seems it will never rise again,
But it does.

Do not be obsessed by past sadness.
Hold on to the joys, however small.
They are the catalyst that transforms even the darkest sorrows into new beginnings.

Trust in the Lord forever, for in the Lord you have an everlasting rock. (Is. 26:4)

Remembrance Mass –

We celebrated a poignant and uplifting Mass last Monday evening. The church was completely full for this special gathering. Families attended in great numbers across different generations. It's inspiring to see different age groups together in the church supporting one another and simply being together. Prayer comes more easily to all of us when we lovingly remember our loved ones who have died. In a world where we can be overwhelmed with the speed of events and communication, it's reassuring to see that we take all the time in the world to remember our loved ones. The power of the Mass is that those who have died are very close to us and truly part of the celebration. This is why we are moved to arrange anniversary and Month's Mind Masses that also gather families together. Most certainly, many families will also gather in St. Michael's Cemetery this Sunday afternoon to stand near the graves of their loved ones and patiently wait for blessings and prayer. While many things have changed in the faith landscape of Ireland, our remembrance of the dead remains strong and we thank God for that this weekend. May all those who have died, now rest in the peace of the Lord. - Fr. Michael

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

• First Reading (Wisdom 6:12–16)
Wisdom is personified as radiant, unfading, and eagerly seeking those who look for her. Getting ready for God is not about last-minute panic, but a steady, intentional pursuit of truth and discernment.
• Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 63:2, 3–4, 5–6, 7–8)
A deep expression of the soul's spiritual thirst for God ("My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God").
• Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 4:13–18)
St. Paul comforts a grieving community worried about loved ones who died before Christ's return, reminding them of the hope of the resurrection and reunion with the Lord.
• Gospel (Matthew 25:1–13)
The parable of the ten bridesmaids (five wise and five foolish) waiting for the bridegroom. The wise brought extra oil for their lamps, while the foolish were unprepared and locked out of the wedding banquet.

Reflections

1. While the parable has clear end-of-time applications, it can also be applied to any moment of grace. It reminds us that moments of grace come unexpectedly, and we need to be awake to receive them. Recall times when you were alert for such a moment. What were the consequences for you?
2. Grace can also be disturbing. We can be coasting along in life and suddenly an opportunity or a graced moment arrives and we are shaken out of our routine in order to respond. Perhaps you can recall both moments when you were unprepared and moments when you were able to respond. What lessons have you learned from such experiences?
3. We may be tempted to judge the wise virgins as being selfish for not sharing with the others, but perhaps Jesus is teaching us that there are some things that other people cannot provide for us. We have to acquire them ourselves. What qualities in life do you see as the essential oil that you must provide for yourself?

PRAYER
A lmighty and ever-living God, remove the obstacles that stand in our way, that unimpeded in body and soul, we may freely devote ourselves to your service.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Thought for the day

To engage with today's readings, it might helpful to go back in your own mind to someone in your life whom you regard as really wise. When did you become aware of it? Have you benfited from it? If someone were to ask how would you recognise wisdom and what are its marks, what would you say? Have you learned from your encounters with wise people? Do you desire wisdom for yourself? Perhaps as parent or friend or family member or colleague. Do you nourish your hunger (!) for the qualities and attitudes which we associate with people who have learned from life?

PRAYER
All wise and loving God, the desire for you lies deep within us. Awaken us to the quest for true wisdom that by being true to ourselves we may come home to you, the source of all wisdom. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Kieran O'Mahony OSA

ENTRANCE – Be Not Afraid

You shall cross the barren desert
But you shall not die of thirst
You shall wander far in safety
Though you do not know the way
You shall speak your words to foreign men
And they will understand
You shall see the face of God and live

Chorus: Be not afraid
I go before you always
Come, follow me and I will give you rest

Blessed are your poor
For the kingdom shall be theirs
Blest are you that weep and mourn
For one day you shall laugh
And if wicked men insult and hate you
All because of me
Blessed, blessed are you

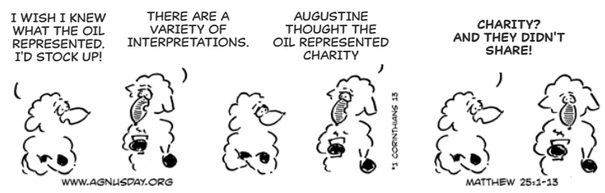

Chorus:

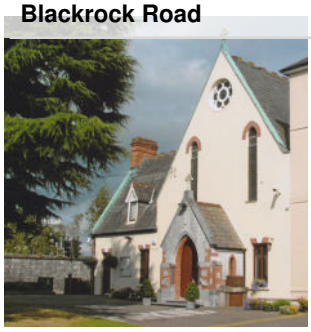

RECESSIONAL - Amazing Grace

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

Crosshaven Parish

We continue to pray for our loved ones who have died. The Novena for The Holy Souls continues at 10.00am on Mon. Nov. 9th and concludes on Tues. Nov. 10th.

Death does not bring our love for the deceased to an end. Prayer is one way we continue to express that love. We remember their goodness with gratitude while recognising, that like us, they too had their struggles. During November we entrust them to God's mercy, asking Him to heal all that needs healing and welcome them into the fullness of his peace.

God Our Father
Comfort those of us who grieve and strengthen our faith in the promise of eternal life.
May your love guide all souls to everlasting joy, free from pain and suffering.
We entrust them to your compassionate care.
Through Christ Our lord.
Amen.

The Novena of Masses for the Holy Souls concludes on Tuesday, 10th November.
Envelopes and lists for the names of your beloved dead are still available in the three churches of the parish and in the Parish Office. The names have been placed in a basket on the altar to be remembered during November, uniting our prayers for the faithful departed with Christ's sacrifice at every Mass.
When writing the names of those who have died, please don't forget to include those who have no one to remember them.

Parish Envelopes

If you use the envelope system for the various church collections, your box of envelopes for 2027 is now available from the Parish Office.
A sincere word of thanks to all who support the parish financially whether it is through the envelope system, by placing cash in the collection baskets, and by periodic or annual contributions.
Thanks also to those who have signed up for the envelope system following the recent appeal at the weekend Masses.
For your information, the offertory collection at the weekends and on church holidays goes towards the financial upkeep of the parish on a day-to-day, week-to-week basis i.e. paying the bills, just like any household.

Youth Ministry Collection

This annual diocesan collection will be taken up at all Masses next weekend, 14th/15th November. The collection supports the work of Sheila Kelleher, our diocesan youth ministry coordinator, and the many volunteers dedicated to the nurturing of the faith among our youth.
It is important for us to encourage and support our young people in every way we can so that they can become involved in their local parish.

Station Masses

Now that the Station Masses have finished for the Autumn, just to say a word of thanks to those households who generously hosted a Mass for their neighbours and friends.
Thanks for the hospitality, the welcome and also to those who provided refreshments after the Church Stations in Little Island, Knockraha and Glounthaune.
Thanks also to the many volunteers who so kindly distributed the Station Mass envelopes to the homes in the various parts of the parish.
If you wish like to host a Station Mass for your area of parish in Spring 2027, please give it some thought and contact the Parish Office if you would like to do so.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The local conference helps people in need with a range of supports including food vouchers, fuel for heating, support with domestic bills, guidance, advice and encouragement to access support from the wider SVP network.
Volunteers are always needed, so if you feel that you could help with this important work, please contact 087 – 152 0360.

LiveStream

The sanctuary areas of both the Sacred Heart Church, Glounthaune and St. Joseph's Church, Little Island are continuously monitored via 24/7 livestream.
Please be aware if you are present in these areas, your image and actions may be captured on the livestream.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Each Friday from 3.00pm to 4.00pm in the Sacred Heart Church. Please feel free to come along and spend some time with the Lord.

Congratulations!

Well done and warmest congratulations to the Erin's Own hurlers on their wonderful victory against our near neighbours Carrigtwohill in the final of the Senior A Hurling Championship on Sunday last.
To the players, the management team and all who were involved in so many different ways in bringing the Jim Forbes Cup to the parish, we say well done to you all.
Hopefully at some stage in the future with the co-operation of the management, we might be able to bring the cup to the three churches of the parish. So, watch this space.
We look forward once again to premier senior hurling in 2027. Rogha Éireann abú!

During the month of November, we remember all those who have died. We remember the lessons we have learnt from them and the talents we have inherited from them. We remember how we loved them and how they loved us and made us what we are today. We remember their good deeds and determine to be more like them, and finally we pray for those who have died alone with no one to remember or pray for them.
We encourage everyone to make a special effort to come to daily Mass during the Novena for the Dead and maybe even keep up the effort for the mont h of November.

Michael Kelly, Aid to the Church in Need Ireland, writes in Intercom Magazine…

Persevering in Faith amid Persecution

This Sunday's readings, as we mark the beginning of the Week of Witness dedicated to praying for Christians persecuted for their faith, speak of trials and endurance. As we reflect on the readings, we focus on Christians persecuted for their faith, trusting in God's promise of ultimate victory.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Thessalonians, speaks directly to people who may have to pay a price for staying faithful. He says that the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The world around them talks of peace and security. Believers are not to share that drowsiness. They are children of light, meant to stay awake and sober. In any age when faith becomes costly, that sobriety is not gloom. It is simply the refusal to pretend that everything is fine, or that discipleship can be kept safely out of sight.

The parable of the talents presses the same point from another side. The servant who buries what he has been given does so out of fear. He knows the master is demanding, so he decides the safest thing is to do nothing and hand the silver back untouched. Fear of loss, fear of the master's severity, fear of standing out – any of these can send a gift underground.

For Christians who live where faith is watched, restricted, or punished, the temptation is real: keep the light low, say little, risk nothing, preserve what you can.

Neither reading promises that faithfulness will be easy or rewarded at once. What they do promise is that staying awake and putting the gift to work belong to the life of faith itself.

The persecuted Church is not asked to be reckless. It is asked not to bury what it has been given simply because the night feels long and the risk feels high.

The charity Aid to the Church in Need tells us that some 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely violated – that's 18% or about one in five Christians. Of these, approximately 220 million live in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution – that's 10% of all Christians. Let's keep them in our prayers this weekend.

Gospel Reflection:
Be persistent… and patient…

Our Gospel today is about persistence… just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response…

Annual Remembrance Weekend

Gospel Reflection
There's a Time to Remember…

Today is a time for us, as a parish community, to remember the many loved ones from our families, among our neighbours and friends, who have been called home to God. As Liam Lawton's hymn reminds us, it is "a time to remember, a time to recall…"

We recall the lives we shared with them and the memories that carry us forward each day. In our memories, our loved ones continue to live on with us. As Christians, we believe that in death, life is changed, not ended. Death is a homecoming—a return to the One who made us for himself.

For those of us who remain, grief is painful. Yet this is also a time to renew our faith in the resurrection and in the promise that we will be reunited one day. That promise sustains us now and through the days of mourning. We mourn because we have known love—love given and received. Without love, there would be no grief, nor the blessings promised in today's Gospel.

So let us find comfort in knowing that our loved ones are at rest with the Lord, and in the support, prayers and care of those around us. Let us give thanks for the love we have shared, and treasure the memories we carry in our hearts.

Annual Remembrance Masses 2026

This weekend, the churches of our Family of Parishes will gather for our Annual Remembrance Masses. We will remember with love all those who have died during the past year and hold their families and friends in our prayers. All are warmly welcome to join us as we come together in prayer, thanksgiving and remembrance.

A Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys, we yearn to share, we remember them.

together we say;

So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A)

The parable of the 10 bridesmaids. The message of the parable is very clear: be ready for the coming of the Lord. This reminder about death and judgment is in keeping with the mood of November, the month of the departed. Nothing is more obvious about human life than the fact that everybody must die at some time. Yet our confused minds make us think and act as if we have the right to live on here forever. As secular thinking takes more of a grip in people's minds, death is becoming a taboo subject. The inevitability of death is not being honestly faced.

An old story about three devils goes: The first devil said: "Tell them there is no hell, so there is nothing to be afraid of". The second disagreed: "No, that's not enough. Some of them fancy that they act for more noble motives than fear. Why not tell them there is no heaven? Take away all hope, take away a future to look forward to." The third spoke out of his experience: "Forget about this heaven and hell tactic. That is all too unreal for them. I know how they live and how they think. You must meet them where they are. Don't bother telling them there is no hell. Don't tell them there is no heaven. Just tell them there is no hurry."

Christmas Shoebox Appeal.

The closing date to ensure that boxes will reach their intended locations is November 10th so that children can enjoy their gifts for Christmas. We thank those who have responded, again a very generous response from our members. Thank you!

Week of Witness for Persecuted Christians

15-22 November 2026

220 million Christians live in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution, while 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely violated, that is 18%, or about one in five Christians.

Around the church and in the Parish Centre are fact sheets outlining some facts of the top countries where this persecution is real and the types of persecution being faced by Christians.

Red Wednesday 2026 will be observed on Wednesday 18 November 2026, as part of a global initiative by Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) to highlight the persecution of Christians and promote religious freedom.

On that day we invite people coming to church or visiting our Parish Centre to wear some red item of clothing as a gesture of solidarity with our fellow persecuted Christians around the world.
