27th SUNDAY: The religious leaders understood that Jesus was speaking about them, but instead of repenting, they sought to kill Him. God desires that we bear fruit, that is, to live lives filled with faith, love, and obedience. He calls us to humility and repentance, turning from self-centeredness to Him. May we embrace Christ as our foundation, live faithfully, and bear the fruit that glorifies God. (Peoplaid.com)

WED 07: Our Lady of the Rosary. A memorial of the Virgin Mary as honoured in the rosary. The Rosary combines the recitation of the most profound of vocal prayers — the Our Father, the Hail Mary, the Glory Be, and the Apostles' Creed — with meditation on twenty mysteries from the lives of Jesus and Mary. Originally the rosary was the laity's "psalter" with the Hail Marys replacing the 150 psalms. This commemoration was established in 1573 in thanksgiving for a Christian victory over the Ottoman forces at Lepanto.

CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) We are asked to follow a lot of rules, aren't we? All of them exist for good reasons. We follow the rules and instructions that others have put in place to stay safe; to be a good friend, family member, student; and to be helpful. Rules teach us how to live good, healthy lives. God also has rules that he wants us to follow so that we can live good lives. In the Gospel this week, Jesus tells a parable, or story. The parable teaches us that God sent prophets, or messengers, to teach us how live as God calls us to live. But some people did not listen to and obey the prophets. Whom did God send to teach us about listening to and obeying him? (Jesus) That's right. God sent us his Son, Jesus. We listen to Jesus' parable. Read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:33–43. Jesus said that everyone who follows him and lives as he teaches us to live will be part of the Kingdom of God. When we follow Jesus' teachings and live as his disciples, our lives bear fruit. We help build up God's kingdom. End by thanking Jesus for teaching us how to live as his disciples and asking him for help to follow him always. Pray the Sign of the Cross.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) In an ideal household, family members know the rules and follow them consistently. Even the most conscientious among us, however, sometimes needs to be reminded of the rules and their importance. How we respond to such correction reveals our true character. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the most important rules of your household. Consider how consistently family members follow these rules. How are family members reminded when rules are not being followed? How do they respond? In today's Gospel Jesus corrects the religious leaders through a parable telling them that they have not heeded God's messengers. Read Matthew 21:33-43. What are some of God's rules that we must follow? How do we respond to God's messengers today? Pray together as a family that you will heed God's messengers and follow God's ways. Pray together the Act of Contrition for the times when your family has not heeded God's word.

MORNING REFLECTION PRAYER FOR SELF-CONFIDENCE: Heavenly Father, Thank You for the gift of a new day. As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts. Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely. When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone. Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry. Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become. May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good. Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen. (Our Lady of Silence Abbey)
