27th & 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

In this Sunday's second reading, St Paul urges us not to be anxious about anything, but to bring every need to God in prayer and leave it in his hands. Like a loving parent, the Lord knows best how and when to answer, and whatever his reply, he promises us a peace beyond understanding.

And one of the best ways to pray is with the rosary. October is the month of the rosary, a tradition dating back to Pope Pius V's call for prayer before the Battle of Lepanto in 1571. Why not pray at least a decade each day, ideally with our families, and join our candlelight rosary, which returns on Thursday. Prayer intentions may be left in the boxes at the back of the church and will be prayed for throughout this month.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
of this world in the next.
