Hail, Queen of Heaven, the Ocean Star:
Guide of the wand'rer here below,
Thrown on life's surge we claim thy care;
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me.

10:00AM MASS NEWCASTLE

1. I watch the sunrise lighting the sky.
Casting it's shadows near
And on this morning, bright though it be
I feel those shadows near me

Chorus:
But you are always close to me. Following all my ways
May I be always close to you. Following all your ways Lord.

2. See Hail Queen of Heaven above

OCTOBER — MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on 7 October every year. World Rosary Day is also held on 7 October, specifically to coincide with that feast. We encourage the rosary to be recited throughout the month of October and especially on World Rosary Day at 7:00pm.

POPE LEO'S MESSAGE ON THE ROSARY
"I would like to make an appeal that is particularly close to my heart. I invite all the faithful & all Christian communities to pray the holy rosary throughout the coming month of October, with the particular intention that wars may cease & that peace may be established among peoples in conflict. Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance & mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue & reconciliation. May our most holy Mother intercede for us!" (In Lourdes recently).
When back in Rome Pope Leo was joined by approx. 700 children in the Vatican Gardens. Encouraging them in their Rosary prayer, he reminded the children that they were asking Jesus and Mary for "a special gift: peace for all the children of the world, especially those who live in places where there is war, in so many countries around the world." Pope Leo also highlighted that the children gathered in the Vatican were part of something much larger. During the week of October 1–7, around one million people around the world are joining in the Rosary. He described this as "Fifty million 'Hail Marys' rising to Heaven from every part of the world & in every language, asking for peace, joining together like one enormous Rosary, embracing all the continents, peoples, & nations of the world." Pope Leo concluded by stressing that prayer must be lived out through action: "Prayers must also be accompanied by good deeds & acts of love. That is how peace grows."

The kingdom of God will be given to a people who will produce its fruit."
(Matthew 21:43)

Jesus reminds us that we are only caretakers of what God has entrusted to us. The tenants failed because they acted as owners of the vineyard and rejected the son. Like them, we can forget that our life, talents, and responsibilities belong to God.

"One in Christ, united in mission" - is the theme of World Mission Sunday 2026 which takes place on Sunday, October 18th. "Following the Jubilee Year, [2025] I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community" (Pope Leo XIV). Missio Ireland envelopes are available in both churches if you wish to take one and return it on October 18th. Thank you.

St Francis of Assisi, whose feast day we celebrate on 4th Oct, was known by the many in his own day as the Poverello - the little poor man. Over the course of the last 800 years the ideal of poverty of St Francis has been much discussed and often misunderstood. The early friars did not go without – going without was not the understanding of poverty that St Francis held – what he wanted for his friars was to live without anything of their own, and what they needed they grew or tended themselves, or they worked, not for money, but for the actual things they needed. He had recognised that with ownership often came conflict, and that it was a strange idea that we human beings could own that which was created in relationship with us. We are in fact tenants, and our rent is love, trust, and a life lived together. We need to trust that God will provide for us both materially and spiritually, he will give us the grace we require to tend and keep His Garden, and how do we know this? Because He sent His Son. Just like the Landlord of the parable the Son was sent. Jesus was sent to us to remind us of the true nature of our life and the real relationship we have with God and Earth, and to fulfil the covenant God has made with the whole of Creation. Yes, it is true that human fear led to the Passion and Death of Jesus, but the Resurrection promises us that God is not going to take the Vineyard away from us and give it to someone else, but He is going to continue to offer his Gifts to us so that what we have harmed can be healed. We will be, if we are open, brought back into the Covenant between God – the Human Family – Earth, and live together in the fullness of life.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

4th October 2026

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

GREETING

In the name of the Father, Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Have mercy on us, O Lord.

For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

And grant us your salvation.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask. Through our Lord Jesus Christ.....

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 5: 1 - 7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted choice vines in it. In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me. What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? I expected it to yield grapes. Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn. I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it. Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men on Judah that chosen plant. He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 79:9, 12-16, 19-20

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

1. You brought a vine out of Egypt; to plant it you drove out the nations. It stretched out its branches to the sea, to the Great River it stretched out its shoots. [R]

2. Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. [R]

3. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. [R]

4. And we shall never forsake you again: give us life that we may call upon your name. God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. [R]

SECOND READING

Philippians 4: 6-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I chose you from the world to go out and bear fruit, fruit that will last, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 21: 33 - 43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see? 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 4th October 2026 Year A

The graces and gifts which God gives to us are both signs to us of his love and his care, and also his expectation that they will bear fruit in our lives.

Be a courageous tenant in the vineyard of God suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters,

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept, O Lord, we pray, the sacrifices instituted by your commands and, through the sacred mysteries, which we celebrate with dutiful service, graciously complete the sanctifying work by which you are pleased to redeem us. Through Christ our Lord.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

AFTER THE CONSECRATION

The mystery of faith.

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Though many, we are one bread, one body, for we all partake of the one Bread and one Chalice.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Grant us, almighty God, that we may be refreshed and nourished by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume.

Through Christ our Lord.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's parable is a powerful message about God's patience, our responsibility, and the consequences of rejecting Him.

God Entrusts Us with His Blessings: Just as the landowner provided everything for the vineyard to thrive, God has given us all we need – His Word, His Spirit, and His Grace. He calls us to be faithful stewards of His blessings. Are we using what God has given us for His glory? Do we honour Him with our time, talents, and resources?

God is Patient, but there are Consequences for Rejection: God's patience is great, but it is not limitless. When people continuously turn away from Him, they face the consequences of their choices. Jesus warned that the kingdom would be taken from those who rejected Him and given to those who bear its fruit.

Jesus, the Cornerstone we must build our lives on: We must ask ourselves: Is Jesus the cornerstone of our lives? Do we build our decisions, actions, and purpose on Him? Or are we trying to build on our own understanding? Only when Christ is our foundation can we truly bear fruit for God's kingdom.

A Call to Repentance and Fruitfulness: The religious leaders understood that Jesus was speaking about them, but instead of repenting, they sought to kill Him. God desires that we bear fruit, that is, to live lives filled with faith, love, and obedience. He calls us to humility and repentance, turning from self-centeredness to Him.

May we embrace Christ as our foundation, live faithfully, and bear the fruit that glorifies God.

In the readings this weekend the message is that God continually gives people opportunities to respond to him, but we can reject his love & responsibility. Jesus warns that those who are entrusted with God's gifts must produce good fruit – justice, love, faithfulness and care for others. The question we must ask is “What am I doing with what God has given me?”

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi(Feast October 4th)
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring love.
Where there is offence, let me bring pardon.
Where there is discord, let me bring union.
Where there is error, let me bring truth.
Where there is doubt, let me bring faith.
Where there is despair, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, let me bring your light.
Where there is sadness, let me bring joy.

Our Lady’s 15 Promises to Those Who Pray Holy Rosary

The Holy Rosary is an enormous source of grace and spiritual protection, and one of the most powerful sacramentals of the Catholic Church. In particular, Our Lady has made fifteen specific promises to those who faithfully pray the Rosary throughout their lives. We should yearn for these special graces—and you can read the exact promises below. But more than that, we should first remember that the Rosary is a clear and easy path to sanctity. Over the course of the Rosary’s history, Our Lady has appeared to saints and mystics to encourage devotion to her and her Son, especially through the Rosary.

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armour against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered and never overwhelmed by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall grow in grace and become worthy of eternal life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons and daughters, brothers and sisters of my only son Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Burrishoole ParishOct 4th 2026*Fr Tod Nolan*Parish Office 098 41123Office Hours: Tues-Fri 11am-3pm,Email: burrishooleparish@gmail.comFacebook/YouTube: Burrishoole ParishSt Vincent de Paul Helpline 086 4181000Our Children in Church Policy

Next week I will meet the parents of our First Holy Communion children. The parents who will gather will be there for all sorts of reasons. Some will see First Holy Communion as an important milestone along their child's faith journey while others will see it as nothing more than a rite of passage. Some will be just going along with the flow while others will use it as an opportunity to reconsider the place faith holds in the life of their family. Some parents may opt out and others will say that they want their child to make their own choices when then grow older. All parents want the very best for their children.

As a faith community we believe that faith is important and that by bringing our children to Mass we are doing the very best for them. By bringing children to church we are in fact giving them the means by which they can make a choice. So if your children are loud, please still come to Mass.

If you're running late because getting everyone out the door was a battle, please still come. If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to church.

If your baby needs to eat, if your child asks questions at the least convenient time, please still come to church.

If someone cries, drops a toy, needs a snack, or has to make their third trip to the toilet, please still come to church.

If your child doesn't know all the words, all the prayers, or exactly when to sit and stand, please still come to church

If you feel like you spent the entire Mass managing your children and heard next to nothing of the sermon, please still come to church. If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to church.

If you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to church. Because children do not learn how to be part of the Church by staying home until they can sit quietly. They learn by being here.

They learn the singing by hearing us sing.

They learn the prayers by hearing us pray.

They learn to worship by watching us worship.

They learn that church is home because we make room for them here.

The wiggles, whispers, dropped crayons, crying babies, and little voices are not interruptions to the life of the Church.

They are evidence that the Church is alive. So bring the babies. Bring the toddlers. Bring the big kids. Come late. Sit in the back. Sit in the front. Step out when you need to and come right back in. Just come.

Children are not simply the future of the Church. They are part of the Church right now. If we don't make room for the next generation in the Church, we risk becoming a generation that leaves behind empty churches. The children in our pews today are the Church leaders, worshippers, and servants of tomorrow.

God Bless
Fr Tod
