MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS: November is traditionally the Month of the Holy Souls, a special time when we remember and pray for our loved ones who have gone before us. In our parish, we continue this beautiful tradition through the Altar List of the Dead. If you have not yet done so, please return your list as soon as possible so that your departed loved ones may be remembered in our prayers throughout the month. May they rest in the peace of Christ.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS (DIARY OF ST. FAUSTINA, 1227)

Eternal Father, turn your merciful gaze upon the souls suffering in Purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg you, by the sorrowful Passion of Jesus Your Son, and by all the bitterness with which His most sacred Soul was flooded, manifest Your mercy to the souls who are under Your just scrutiny. Look upon them in no other way than through the Wounds of Jesus, your dearly beloved Son; for we firmly believe that there is no limit to Your goodness and compassion. Have mercy, O Lord, have mercy on the Poor Souls in Purgatory. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

WEEKLY ENVELOPES: You can make a weekly contribution using the envelopes available at the back of the church or by scanning the QR code in the newsletter with your phone's camera. Envelopes may be placed in the porch safe or handed in at the parish office. If you contribute €250 or more a year, the parish can claim a tax rebate, which provides valuable additional support.

HOLY HOUR: Every Thursday evening in our parish at 7.00 pm: We have an hour of Eucharistic Adoration animated by Fr Marian or Fr Michel with guitar and music.

ARTANE SENIOR BAND IN SAINT JOHN VIANNEY: Our next music concert is scheduled for Sunday 13 December 2026 at 3pm in our church. The Artane Senior Band will be singing Christmas carols. It is an opportunity to bring the housebound of our parish and some of our parishioners who are in nursing homes to the concert.

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
8th November 2026

The door is closed against the bridesmaids who did not keep vigil nor trim their lamps. The concern of the Christian should be readiness for the call of the Lord, to seek the light of Christ in daily living, and to keep burning brightly the light received at baptism. It is true wisdom to be always eagerly longing for the Lord.

Entrance Hymn:

'Christ be near at either hand'

Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind, before me stand,
Christ with me where e'er I go,

Christ around, above below.

Christ be in my heart and mind,
Christ within my soul enshrined,
Christ control my wayward heart; Christ abide and ne'er depart.

Christ my life and only way,

Christ my lantern night and day;
Christ be my unchanging friend,
Guide and shepherd to the end.

Recessional Hymn

Here I am Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,

I have heard my people cry,

All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, is it I Lord. I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.

I the Lord of wind and flame. I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied. I will live my life to them Whom shall I send? R

Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

Jesus always new

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer and our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one,
ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day

ST. LAURENCE O'TOOLE (b.1128 d.1180)

Lorcán Ó Tuathail

Laurence was born in Castledermot, Co. Kildare in 1128. He became Abbot of Glendalough in 1153 and Archbishop of Dublin in 1162. He died in Eu in Normandy on the 14th of November 1180 and was canonised in 1225. His eventful life can be summarised under eight headings.

HOSTAGE. Laurence's father was Maurice O'Toole, King of Hy Murray. When Laurence was 10 he was given as a hostage to Dermot McMurrough, King of Leinster, who treated him with great harshness. The boy was sent in chains to a remote area where he was ill housed, ill-clothed and ill-fed. For two years, the king's son learned what it was to experience real poverty and oppression.

2. MONK. After two years, Dermot was forced to release Laurence and send him to Glendalough monastery, where his father could reclaim him. When Maurice arrived, he found his son had fallen in love with the life of the monks and he gave him permission to join the community. Laurence was only 25 when he was elected Abbot, and he proved to be the greatest Abbot of Glendalough since St Kevin its founder. He encouraged learning, built new churches and renewed -monastic life by bringing in monks from the continent. He was unfailing in his care for the poor and sold the monastery treasures to feed famine victims.

3. ARCHBISHOP. In 1162 Laurence became the first Irish Archbishop of the Danish city of Dublin. Many of the citizens were no more than nominal Christians and he made it his duty to deepen their faith and reform their lives. He introduced Augustinian monks from France to Christ Church Cathedral to reform the liturgy and he became a member of their community. He continued his works of charity, especially towards homeless children, whom he led and housed in his own residence.

He was tall and graceful in figure.[2] He was well known as an ascetic, wore a hair shirt, never ate meat, and fasted every Friday on bread and water. In contrast to this, it is said that when he entertained, his guests lacked for nothing while he drank water coloured to look like wine so as not to spoil the feast.

He died 14th Nov 1180.

Parish Bulletin
8 November 2026

This weekend, as we remember all our relatives and friends who died in the last year, we offer you this reflection to remind us all that we journey in life with the help and companionship of many people forming a chain designed by God. We also offer the names of all our parishioners who died since 1876.

Suaimhneas Síoraí
Rest in Peace

Link in a chain (St John Henry Newman)

God has created me to do Him some definite service.
He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another.
I have my mission.
I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.
I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught.
I shall do good; I shall do His work.
I shall be an angel of peace,
a preacher of truth in my own place,
while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.
Therefore, I will trust Him,
whatever I am, I can never be thrown away.
If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him,
in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him.
If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.
He does nothing in vain.
He knows what He is about.
He may take away my friends.
He may throw me among strangers.
He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me.
Still, He knows what He is about.

Throughout the month of November we remember family and friends who have returned home to heaven. We also pray for those who have no one to pray for them.

Please return your November List of the Dead to the Parish Office, as we pray that God will give eternal rest to all those who have died.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastors Desk Jesus always new

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer in our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one, ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life. Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day. ~ Fr Donal Neary, S.J

COMMUNION SERVICE

Reflection by Fr Laurence Freeman

By sitting still for half an hour each morning and each evening you will meet the crowd and in meeting it you will free yourself from it.

The inner crowd is made up of all the splintered selves that the ego keeps producing; all the voices that clamour competitively for recognition, for self-assertion, for domination; all those wounded and broken parts of ourselves, the little bits of our experience, the dangling ends of unfinished stories; the desires and fears with their unrestrained voices crying for the unattainable. The crowd is always desperate because it feels that what it longs for is not there — whereas its desires can only be attained when it becomes whole, becomes a single self.

The noise of the crowd in us is the flow of mental distraction.

Gospel Mt 25:1-13 Reflection: 1st November

In today's gospel, Jesus draws from this revelation about the future the practical moral that a Christian needs to be on the watch, living each day as if it were his last.

The important thing is not to speculate about when these events will happen and what form they will take, but to live in such a way that they find us in the state of grace.

Living each day as if it was your last is a powerful concept that can help us to live more fully and with greater purpose. It reminds us that our time on this earth is limited and that we should make the most of every moment. It also encourages us to focus on what is truly important in life, such as our relationships with others and our relationship with God.

Keeping watch is another important aspect of this passage. It reminds us to be vigilant and to stay alert to the signs of the times. We should be aware of the world around us and the events that are unfolding, so that we can respond appropriately. This means being informed about what is happening in our communities, our nation, and the world, and taking action when necessary.

Today's Gospel, then, is a powerful reminder to Christians to live each day as if it were their last and to keep watch for the signs of the times. By doing so, we can live more fully and with greater purpose, and we can be prepared for whatever the future may hold for us.

Share Appeal Sunday 2026

"In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese.

Because of your generosity to Share, a wide range of skilled personnel are available to parishes from the diocesan offices. They offer consultation, training, formation and guidance concerning local pastoral, education, strategic leadership, safeguarding and communications initiatives.

Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year.

May we be a people blessed with wisdom, humility, generosity, and great hope."

Reflection on the Readings this Sunday

Behold the Bridegroom!

As we come to the end of the liturgical year, the readings are increasingly concerned with the end of time and the Second Coming of the Lord.
In the First Reading, Wisdom is personified as an attractive lady, who seeks to comfort and support those who love and seek her. She prepares us for the virgins in the Gospel who are looking out for the bridegroom.
Continuing the theme of watching, the Psalmist's main ambition is to find God. He will certainly be ready when the Lord comes.
Using apocalyptic language, Paul reminds the Thessalonians that whether dead or alive, the Lord will be with them, so they can comfort one another. (Second Reading)
In the well-known parable of the wise and foolish virgins, Matthew reminds his audience that the Lord will eventually come, but that we must not only exercise patience, but also be ready at all times to welcome him. (Gospel)
This week, we might pray particularly for all those who will be unprepared when the Lord comes, whether because they don't know him, or because they have given up waiting.

St. Vincent de Paul

The monthly collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society will take place outside the Church after all Masses this weekend 7th/8th November.

Share Appeal Sunday takes place this weekend 7th/8th November, highlighting the important work that is funded by the weekly collection.

For the months of November, December and January the church will close at 3.00pm and 12noon on Saturday.

Pre Communion Mass

Next Sunday 15th November, we welcome the children and their families, preparing for First Holy Communion in 2027, to the 11am Mass. We ask you to keep them in your prayers throughout the year.

November Altar List of the Dead

The envelopes for our November Altar List of the Dead are available in the church. We ask that everyone takes one and one for a housebound neighbour. Envelopes can be returned to the Parish Office or Sacristy.
All those placed on the Altar List of the Dead will be remembered at Masses on the First Friday of every month during the year.

Diocese of Masaka, Uganda – Fr. Francis' Diocese

There will be an Outdoor Collection for the Diocese of Masaka, Uganda – Fr. Francis' Diocese next weekend 14th/15th November after all Masses. Light Refreshments in the Community Centre after the 11am Mass

Just a background to the forthcoming outdoor collection for Masaka Diocese. It is to support formation of the needy Seminarians who are orphans or whose parents are too poor to afford the tuition fees. The Bishop has a challenge of getting sponsors because of the increasing number of needy Seminarians.
Any Seminarian who fails to pay his tuition, his vocation is terminated and is sent back home for good. It is this painful experience that prompted the Bishop to appeal to the Parishioners for a possible support to save the vocation of the good Seminarians.
The donation will help many Seminarians to pay for their tuition fees and contribute to the increase of Priests in the Church.
Your support for this collection will be greatly appreciated.

Dublin Diocese has three job opportunities now:
1. Faith Development Co-ordinator for Youth and Young Adult Ministries – North Side.
2. Post Primary Diocesan Advisor.
3. Twin Pillar Strategy & Mission Lead. Full details on website www.dublindiocese.ie/vacancies. Applications to afitzpatrick@adarehrm.ie.

FROM DEACON DAMIAN MURRAY

Keeping Our Lamps Alight at Holy Child Nativity Parishes

We began November by celebrating the Communion of Saints (1st Nov) and praying tenderly for our faithful departed on All Souls' Day (2nd Nov). These twin feasts powerfully remind us of the final end of our Christian life: to be united forever with God in heaven.

This thread of eternal hope wound its way beautifully through the remembrance service we celebrated together in Whitehall church on Monday evening. It was deeply moving as we lit 163 candles, each representing a parishioner who passed away over the last year across our Holy Child and Nativity parishes. Watching those flames flicker in the sacred stillness was a profound moment of pastoral comfort, reminding us that our earthly pilgrimage is intimately connected to those who have gone before us.

This Sunday's readings pick up this theme, guiding our hearts toward eternity. In our First Reading, the Book of Wisdom tells us that divine wisdom is "resplendent and unfading." This wisdom is the spiritual sight we need to navigate our grief, keeping our eyes fixed firmly on heaven.

St Paul echoes this comfort to the Thessalonians, assuring us that death does not have the final word. Because Christ rose, we live in the certain hope of the resurrection. Our final destiny is to be reunited with the Lord and with those 163 beautiful souls we remembered so deeply this week.

Reaching this heavenly goal, however, requires active preparation. In the Gospel, Jesus warns us through the Parable of the Ten Virgins to keep our lamps lit. The oil of faith, prayer, and quiet charity must be nurtured daily in our hearts. May we keep our lamps trimmed, trusting that the love we shared on Monday evening is just a foretaste of our eternal home.

TO PONDER THIS WEEK

The wise bridesmaids kept their lamps burning through the long night. What fills my lamp (prayer, Mass, kindness) so I am ready when Christ comes?

The Word of the Lord

Readings for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING — Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is found by those who look for her

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Psalm 62(63)

℟ :For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water. ℟

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. ℟

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. ℟

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. ℟

SECOND READING — 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Do not grieve about those who have died in Jesus

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them; to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour
when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Matthew 25:1-13

The wise and foolish virgins

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH — The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Lady Immaculate Senior National School, Darndale - Annual Appeal

Dear parishioners,
As part of our social outreach programme, we in the Church of the Holy Name have twinned with Our Lady Immaculate Senior National School in Darndale.
This is the 6th year in our relationship and we are again asking for your assistance with the Annual Toy Appeal for the children of the National School which has the highest DEIS status.
This year we have given ourselves a target to raise €3,000 for this appeal to purchase toys e.g. footballs, arts &, crafts, sensory toys, board games, skipping ropes and squishy mallows. Donations of toys are also very welcome and we will circulate a list of what is appropriate.
As part of this Appeal, there will be a special collection after each Mass next weekend Saturday and Sunday the 14th and 15th November.
However, you can make a donation at any time through the Parish Office or by using the donate facility on the parish website.
There has always been a generous contribution in the past by you, the Parishioners, for which we wish to express our gratitude!
Many thanks,
Parish Pastoral Council

We extend a very warm welcome to the children from Lios na nOg and Scoil Bhride as they join us at our 9.30am Mass this Sunday. We ask for your prayers for the children, their parents, teachers and families as they continue their preparation for First Holy Communion.

Dear parishioners,

As the colder winter days arrive we are moving our Tuesday and Thursday 10.00am Masses and our First Friday Mass into the warmth and comfort of the sacristy—beginning this Tuesday 10th November. Tuesday and Saturday Eucharistic Adoration will also take place in the sacristy.

Gathering in a smaller space during the week allows us to be closer together in prayer while being responsible stewards of our parish resources. Heating our large church for a small daily congregation requires the use of a lot of energy; by heating only the sacristy we can significantly reduce our carbon footprint and save on gas and electricity costs.

Our Saturday evening Vigil Mass and our Sunday Masses will be celebrated in the church as normal.

Fr Paul.

In November we remember

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember our dear departed when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead, so that they may be prayed for at Masses during November and on the First Friday of each month for the coming year. If you wish to the have the names of your loved ones on the list, there are envelopes at the back of the church. These can be returned in the collection bags at Mass or to the Parish Office or sacristy. Contributions and donations for the November List of the Dead go directly to support your local clergy when they offer prayers and Masses. Your generous support is very much appreciated.

SHARE APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

A message from Archbishop Dermot Farrell

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese

The Share collection has evolved over the years and continues to evolve. It is a significant source of funding and support across the Archdiocese. Importantly, Share provides much needed financial relief to disadvantaged parishes where alternative funding cannot be secured. This year, for example, numbers of parishes that could not fund compliance with all-important fire-safety regulations have been assisted by Share. Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year.

St Vincent de Paul
Our outdoor monthly collection for St Brigid's will be taken up next weekend at both masses.
Thank you.

If you would like to order an advent wreath pack including candles (€15), please give your name in to the sacristy or the office before Saturday 14th Nov. The pack includes an oasis ring, candles and holders.
Thank you

Altar Cleaners

We are looking for 2 or 3 volunteers to help clean the altar once a month. It will take approx 45 mins, and any help would be greatly appreciated. If you are interested in helping, please leave your name in the sacristy or parish office. Thank you for your support.

Please note that the Irish Catholic newspaper price has risen by 30cents to €3.80. Please put the money in the Shrine Box.

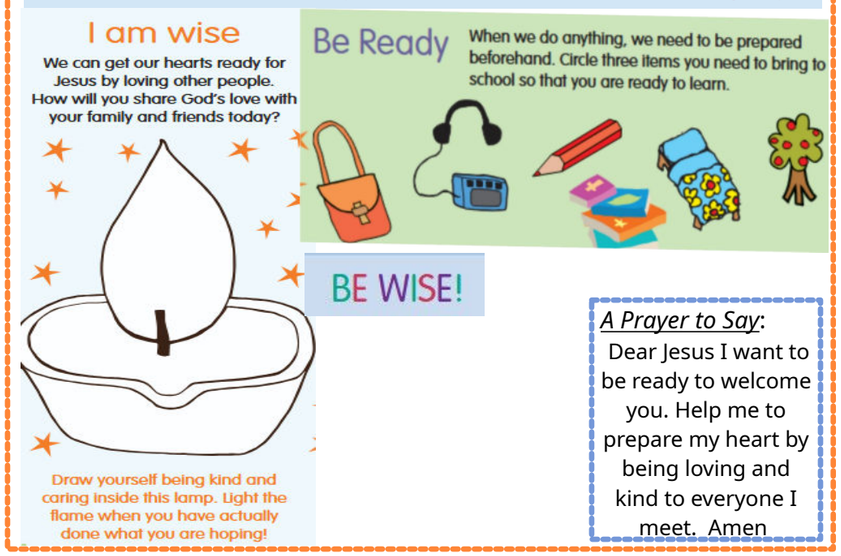
CHILDREN'S CORNER.... IN THE GOSPEL TODAY....

Five bridesmaids are wise - they are well prepared. They have spare oil to keep their lamps burning and lead the bridegroom to his bride. But five bridesmaids are foolish – they have run out of oil and so miss the party!



A Prayer to Say:
Dear Jesus I want to be ready to welcome you. Help me to prepare my heart by being loving and kind to everyone I meet. Amen

Our Parish Prayer Group: The Prayer Group
Welcome Rev Des Bair as guest speaker on Tuesday 10th November At 8pm in the Jubilee Room. All are welcome.

Thought for the Week

"In God's plan, nothing happens by chance"
St John Paul II

POPE LEO'S WORDS FOR NOVEMBER

At a Mass on Monday, Feast of the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, Pope Leo spoke these words in a homily*: "Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our faith in Christ tells us that our bond with the faithful departed is not severed but transformed. Through our prayers for the dead, we accompany our loved ones towards full communion with the Lord – that communion which we truly taste here, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist."*
Inspired by this faith, full of hope, we continue our earthly journey, awaiting the day when there will be no more death, mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. Pope Leo focused specially on the Beatitude*, "Blessed are those who mourn, they will be comforted."* Reflecting on this, Pope Leo said, "At this moment we wish to pray for all those who have recently lost a loved one, in particular, for those from whom a loved one has been torn away by the senseless violence of war. May the tears of so many mothers and fathers, so many children, so many elderly people touch the conscience of those who have the power to silence the weapons. " (Pope Leo XIV: 2nd NOVEMBER, 2026).*

SHARE APPEAL WEEKEND

In a letter to all Parishes this weekend, Archbishop Farrell expresses his appreciation to all Parishes for their support of the SHARE COLLECTION every weekend. The SHARE COLLECTION is primarily for the support of the poorer parishes in our Diocese. The SHARE COLLECTION also supports the Partnership arrangements among parishes requiring considerable input from the various agencies in the Diocese to train personnel for a variety of ministries, roles of responsibility and areas of management. The SHARE COLLECTION funds these various pastoral initiatives. The Diocesan Mission and Ministry Teams and the Finance Committee work together to ensure that the necessary training and upskilling is provided and that relevant information is communicated to all Parishes. SHARE provides much needed financial support to all these different projects both at a Diocesan and Parish level enabling parishioners and priests work more effectively for the betterment of their parishes. Our Parish of St. Agnes contributed €85,187, which was the second highest contribution to SHARE last year. We are the second highest contributor in the almost 200 parishes. Thank you so much for your generosity. In his letter this weekend, Archbishop Farrell is very grateful to all Parishes for their support of the SHARE collection and asks, if at all possible, that we give A LITTLE EXTRA this weekend. His letter is on the notice board at the back of the Church.
Thank you again for your generosity.

St. Laurence O'Toole was born in Castledermot, Co. Kildare in 1128. He became Abbot of Glendalough in 1153 and Archbishop of Dublin in 1162. At the time Dublin was predominantly a Danish settlement, Laurence set himself to reform Church life in Dublin, one of his first acts was to begin building in stone the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity, now called Christ Church Cathedral.
Laurence was noted for his talents as a peacemaker, while on a mission to improve relations between Henry 11, King of England and Rory O'Connor High King of Ireland, he died in Eu in Normandy on the 14th of November 1180 and was canonised in 1225. His heart is venerated in a reliquary at Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin.

Points to Ponder for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 8 November 2026

In today's Gospel, Jesus draws from this revelation about the future the practical moral that a Christian needs to be on the watch, living each day as if it were his last.

The important thing is not to speculate about when these events will happen and what form they will take, but to live in such a way that they find us in the state of grace.

Living each day as if it were your last is a powerful concept that can help us to live more fully and with greater purpose. It reminds us that our time on this earth is limited and that we should make the most of every moment. It also encourages us to focus on what is truly important in life, such as our relationships with others and our relationship with God.

Keeping watch is another important aspect of this passage. It reminds us to be vigilant and to stay alert to the signs of the times. We should be aware of the world around us and the events that are unfolding, so that we can respond appropriately. This means being informed about what is happening in our communities, our nation, and the world, and taking action when necessary.

Today's Gospel, then, is a powerful reminder to Christians to live each day as if it were their last and to keep watch for the signs of the times. By doing so, we can live more fully and with greater purpose, and we can be prepared for whatever the future may hold for us.

Sunday's Liturgy of the Word

ENTRANCE HYMN

Lord of all Hopefulness, Lord of all Joy,
Whose trust, ever child-like, no cares can destroy, Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray, Your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, Be there at our labors, and give us, we pray, Your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day..

FIRST READING Wis.5:12-16

A reading from the book of Wisdom.

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her. Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them. Watch for her early and you will have no trouble, you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown; be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you. She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 62:2-8.R.v.2

(R) For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water. (R)

2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life, my lips will speak your praise. (R)

3. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands. My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy. (R)

4. On my bed I remember you. On you I muse through the night for you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice (R)

SECOND READING 1 Thes.4:13-18

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven: those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt. 24:42.44

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt. 25:1-13

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you O Lord.

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
"The kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible; The foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry. 'The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him.' At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones "Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out." But they replied, 'There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves.' They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied. "I tell you solemnly I do not know you." So, stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

RECESSIONAL

Seek ye first the kingdom of God
And his righteousness;
And all these things shall be added unto you. Alleluia, alleluia,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Ask and it shall be given unto you,
Seek, and you shall find,
Knock, and the door shall be opened unto you, Alleluia, alleluia
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Sign of Peace

"Peace Be With You"

What the Happening

After the Our Father, the priest prays for peace and unity in the Church, then invites the congregation to offer one another a sign of peace. This gesture has ancient roots - early Christians called it the holy kiss - and its placement here is deeply intentional. Before we receive Christ in Communion, we are reconciled to one another. We cannot approach the altar carrying unresolved contempt for anyone. Christ himself taught this: "If you bring your gift to the altar and there recall that your brother/sister has something against you, leave your gift and go first to be reconciled."

How We Should Respond The Sign of Peace is not a greeting or a social moment. It is a prayer - offered through gesture rather than words. Offer it to those immediately around you with genuine intention, rather than reaching past others for a more comfortable exchange across the pew. If reconciliation with someone present is genuinely needed, let this moment be its beginning.

Living This at Mass Before Mass begins, notice if you are carrying any friction or resentment towards anyone present or in your life, Let the Sign of Peace be a real moment of release - however small rather than a handshake on autopilot.

Annual Mass.

Thank you to all who planned, took part, and attended our Mass for the Dead held here last Monday night. There are too many to thank individually, but we were delighted that so many took solace and hope from the evening. As you know during the month of November we pray each day here for all who died over the last year, and all the dead. We draw your attention also to our beautiful Remembrance Cross which has the names of those who died over the past year hanging from it. May they rest in the peace of Christ, and may all who mourn them be comforted.

Entrance

I am the bread of life You who come to Me shall not hunger

And who believe in Me shall not thirst No one can come to Me

Unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up And I will raise you up

And I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give Is My flesh for the life of the world

And if you eat of this bread You shall live forever

You shall live forever

And I will raise you up And I will raise you up

And I will raise you up on the last day.

Recessional

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky, Casting its shadows near.

And on this morning bright though it be, I feel those shadows near me.

But you are always close to me Following all my ways.

May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

I watch the sunset fading away, Lighting the clouds with sleep. And as the evening closes its eyes, I feel your presence near me. For you are always close to me Following all my ways. May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

A November Reflection.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

POPE LEO XIV

When we pray for the dead, we do so not only for them, but also with them, drawn into a reciprocal relationship that the Holy Spirit brings to life in our hearts. The Church is a mystery of communion between Christ, our head, and us, His members: from Him we receive life. This communion unites the blessed souls who already contemplate the face of God and all those who, in heaven or on earth, are journeying toward the radiant destination. Pope Leo

ADVENT RETREAT "some things work – some don't "

The Parish Residential Advent Retreat, entitled Making Room: Every Heart a Bethlehem, has been cancelled, after very little uptake and this made it difficult to hold on to the places in the retreat centre on the off-chance that others may come forward. So we had to decide. We are exploring other options to provide reflection opportunities throughout Advent for parishioners. Indeed, we will be doing further reflection on what are the initiatives that meet the needs of today's parishioners. More on this later?

NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

Two new stained glass windows for the parish church have been commissioned to commemorate the worldwide Aids epidemic. This will be an opportunity to remember in prayer & reflection all those who died of Aids, all those in Church and State who cared for them and all family and friends who grieve the great loss of loved ones. The new windows will be installed in this week and have been funded by a very kind parish benefactor. United Nations, World Aids Day is marked on the 1st December each year

NEW PORCH FOR THE LITTLE FLOWER CHAPEL

The Parish Team are considering the installation of a new porch entrance to the Little Flower Prayer Room. We are aware that this will be a considerable expense to the parish. However, we consider it worthwhile as, it is likely that in the future the Little Flower Chapel will be used more and more. The New Porch entrance is necessary for ease of access, health & safety, assisted access, & weather protection for the room. Further details later.

Parish Weekly News for St Benedict's & St Monica's

8th November 2026 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time/ *A

Parish Mission Statement

We, as members of St Benedict's & St Monica's Parishes, strive to be a community united in our Catholic Faith, and strengthened by prayer, worship and service. We accept our call to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, working to serve all with justice, peace and love, in the name of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer an our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one,
ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day

ANNUAL PARISH REMEMBRANE MASS
Our parish Annual Mass of Remembrance for those whose funeral took place in our church in the past year, will take place in St Benedict's Friday 13th November @ 7.00pm. This special Mass is an opportunity for our entire parish community to come together in prayer, to remember our loved ones who have died, and to offer comfort and support to those who are grieving. We strongly encourage all parishioners to join us for this very special occasion, as we unite in faith and prayer, showing the bereaved families that they are not alone in their loss. By coming together, we can surround one another with love, compassion and the support of our parish family.

Book Review: "Loss: The New Collection" by Donna Ashworth

Grief is a landscape that every one of us will have to walk through at some point in our lives. It is the price we pay for love, yet when it arrives, it can feel incredibly isolating, confusing, and overwhelming. For anyone currently navigating the dark valleys of bereavement, or for those seeking the right words to comfort a friend, Donna Ashworth's newly expanded book, Loss: The New Collection, offers a gentle sanctuary.

Ashworth, a bestselling poet known for her deep empathy and emotional clarity, has compiled a beautiful Treasury of words explicitly designed to meet people in their quietest, heaviest moments. Rather than offering clinical advice or hollow platitudes, the book presents short, accessible poems and reflections that act like a warm hand to hold during the darkest days of sorrow.

One of the most profound reminders woven throughout this collection is that grief is not a problem to be solved or an illness to be cured. Instead, Ashworth gently reveals that great grief is simply the continuation of great love. She honours the unpredictability of mourning—how it comes in waves, shifting from total numbness to sharp heartbreak—and reassures the reader that every feeling is a normal part of the healing process.

For our parish community, this book serves as an invaluable resource. It is a thoughtful gift for someone who has recently lost a spouse, parent, child, or dear friend. Because the pieces are short and bite-sized, it is perfect for a grieving heart that may find it difficult to concentrate on a heavy, lengthy book.

Loss: The New Collection ,reminds us that while losing someone casts us adrift, we do not walk the path to healing alone. It is a comforting, hopeful addition to any bedside table and a reminder of the enduring power of love.

Scripture quote of the month "And hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. Romans 5:5

Thought for the Month

"It is not joy that makes us grateful; it is gratitude that makes us joyful." — David Steindl-Rast

HISTORY!

Unfortunately, due to unexpected circumstances Kilmacanogue History Society have had a change of Speaker for our November Talk on the Delgany Heritage Trail, which has had to be deferred. However, we are very lucky to have Peadar Cullen, author and local historian speaking about "Evie Hone- Stained Glass Artist of Marlay" instead. This Talk takes place in the Parlour of the Grove Bar near Kilpedder, Eircode A63XY89, on Monday 2nd November at 8p.m. All welcome.
It is for her work in the medium of stained glass that she is best known and with Harry Clarke and Michael Healy, she is recognised as one of the leading artists in this field. Evie Hone's masterpieces are primarily located in churches and public institutions across Ireland and the U.K. Among her most celebrated pieces is the 'My Four Green Fields' window now housed in Government Buildings.

November Themes Remembrance: Honouring loved ones who have passed away, alongside historical reflection and remembrance days. Gratitude: Shifting focus from grand gestures to everyday blessings, small joys, and inner peace. Transition: Letting go of the last remnants of autumn and embracing slower, cosier indoor rhythms. Renewal: Using the shorter days as an invitation to pause, take stock of the year, and reset. "The month of November makes me feel that life is passing more quickly. In an effort to slow it down, I try to fill the hours more meaningfully." — Henry Rollins

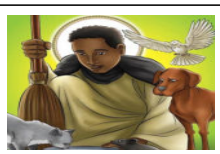
A Big Thank You!

We would like to express a big thank you to Paul Cahill for his brilliant work in trimming the hedges around the Church at St Mochonog's and removing several heavy overhanging boughs from the main Church driveway. This work is carried out on a voluntary basis as Paul's contribution to the upkeep of Church grounds and is greatly appreciated by all our Parishioners. Well done to all .

November Prayer "As the leaves fall and the days grow shorter, November gently slows us down. It is a month where memory meets hope. We light candles for those we love and miss, trusting that the light of Christ shines brighter than any darkness. May our parish be a harbour of comfort this month—holding space for grief, offering gratitude for lives well-lived, and walking gently together into the promise of God's peace."

St. Martin de Porres.



Martin lived in 16th- and 17th-century Peru and experienced racial prejudice and poverty himself. He devoted his life to caring for sick people, serving the poor and treating people of different backgrounds with compassion. He also cared for animals. What makes him especially relevant is that he lived out the equality of human dignity in a society deeply divided by race and class. He did not reserve his kindness for people who were socially respectable or powerful.

Take Note!

Come and light a candle for your loved ones

Families are invited to bring their children dressed as angles and shepherds. This is a really special event for the whole community and we would love to see as many of you as possible.

Thank you from Missio Ireland We at Missio Ireland extend our thanks to the parishioners of Enniskerry parish, for their generosity on Mission Sunday. An amount of €375 has been received, for which we are very grateful. The support of each parishioner who donated to this worthy cause is very much appreciated.

What is The Living Room? The Living Room is a special ecumenical collaboration between Powerscourt Parish and St. Mary's Parish, Enniskerry. Our monthly gatherings offer a different and refreshing way to pray. The Living Room has become much more than a time of prayer and reflection; it is a warm, welcoming space where friendships have grown, support is shared, and a real sense of community has developed. An important part of our gathering is the opportunity to enjoy a cup of tea or coffee together afterwards. This relaxed social time allows friendships to deepen, conversations to continue and new connections to flourish in a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere. All are Welcome Next Wednesday 4th Nov 11 am St Mary's Gospel Reflection: Matthew 25:1-13 : Jesus shares a parable about ten virgins waiting for a bridegroom. Five are wise and bring extra oil, while five are foolish and don't. When the bridegroom arrives, only the wise ones can join him in the wedding feast, as they are prepared. The message stresses readiness and vigilance.

Share Appeal Sunday takes place this weekend (7th/8th November), highlighting the important work that is funded by the weekly collection. Through the work of the Dublin Diocesan Offices, Share provides a range of essential services to our parishes and schools. The Share Collection is an essential source of funding in the Archdiocese, supporting parish life and ministry. Please give as generously as you can on Share Appeal Sunday.

Food collection for the St Vincent de Paul Foodbank at Darndale, Dublin 17

We are planning another Food collection for the above foodbank. You have been very generous when we had collections in the past. Currently each week the approximately 140 families in the Darndale area use the food bank.

As you can well imagine, this is a service more and more in demand in these times of increasing food prices. The food bank volunteers appreciate any extra supplies they receive; Nonperishable food items, toiletries, treats and cleaning materials are welcome.

Please bring your items to the church during the period Saturday 14th November to Monday 23rd November and leave them on the side altar.

Go raibh maith agat.

THIS WEEKEND

Share Appeal Sunday

This Sunday is Share Appeal Sunday, an opportunity for everyone in our parish to support the important work of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of Dublin.

The Share collection helps provide financial support for parishes and communities, particularly those facing greater challenges. It contributes towards the training and formation of priests, the education and preparation of lay people for ministry, pastoral programmes, youth ministry, safeguarding, and the many services that help the Church reach out to people in need. It also assists parishes with fewer resources, ensuring that the work of the Church can continue in every community.

The Church is more than our own parish. We are part of a much wider family, and Share reminds us that we have a responsibility to support one another. Some parishes have greater resources than others, but all share in the mission of bringing Christ's love and message to the world.

This week, parishioners are invited to consider giving a little more generously to the Share collection. Even a small increase in our usual contribution can make a real difference when it is added to the gifts of others. Your generosity helps sustain the life and mission of the Church across the Archdiocese. Thank you for your continued support.

Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

Jesus always new

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer and our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one,
ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day

Sincere sympathies to the families of Mary Gallagher (née Jenkinson) Friar's Hill, Wicklow Town & formerly Brittas Bay, Co. Wicklow

FOR GRIEF
By John O'Donohue (1956-2008)

When you lose someone you love,
Your life becomes strange,
The ground beneath you gets fragile,
Your thoughts make your eyes unsure;
And some dead echo
drags your voice down
Where words have no confidence.

Your heart has broken heavy with loss;
And though this loss has wounded others too,
No one knows
what has been taken from you
When the silence of absence deepens.
Flickers of guilt kindle regret
For all that was left unsaid or undone.

There are days
when you wake up happy;
Again inside the fullness of life,
Until the moment breaks
And you are thrown back
Onto the black tide of loss.

Days when you have your heart back,
You are able to function well
Until in the middle of work or encounter,
Suddenly with no warning,
You are ambushed by grief.

It becomes hard to trust yourself.
All you can depend on now is that
Sorrow will remain faithful to itself.
More than you, it know its way
And will find the right time
To pull and pull the rope of grief
Until that coiled hill of tears
Has reduced to its last drop.

Gradually, you will learn acquaintance
With the invisible form of your departed;
And when the work of grief is done,
The wound of loss will heal
And you will have learned
To wean your eyes
From that gap in the air
And be able to enter the hearth
In your soul where your loved one
Has awaited your return
All the time.

The Annual SHARE Appeal Collection Takes Place This Weekend

Extract from Archbishop Farrell's Letter: The Share collection has evolved over the years and continues to evolve. It is a significant source of funding and support across the Archdiocese. Importantly, Share provides much needed financial relief to disadvantaged parishes where alternative funding cannot be secured. This year, for example, numbers of parishes that could not fund compliance with all-important fire-safety regulations have been assisted by Share. Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year. May we be a people blessed with wisdom, humility, generosity, and great hope. Full letter available on parish notice board.

ACN Ireland

Week of Witness – For Persecuted Christians – 15th to 22nd November

220 million Christians live in in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution, while 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely violated.

Also Red Wednesday 18th November

On this day we are asked to pray for all those who are suffering for their faith in various parts of the world.

Red is the colour that has been traditionally associated with martyrs, who refused to deny Christ and shed their blood in defence of their faith. The colour Red also points us to the Holy Spirit. It is the colour of the vestments worn on Pentecost Sunday and for the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is very appropriate as the word 'Martyr' means 'Witness' and it is the Holy Spirit who gives us the courage to witness.

Some leaflets are available on the table at the back of the church.
For more information or to scan the QR Code - see posters in the church porch or go to www.acrnireland.org

Thirty Second Week in Ordinary Time 8th November 2026

Thought for the day

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus shares the Parable of the Ten Virgins. Five were wise and brought extra oil for their lamps; five were foolish and brought none. When the bridegroom arrived late, the foolish virgins begged the wise for oil, but they were told there wasn't enough to share.

At first glance, the refusal of the wise virgins feels uncharitable. But it reveals a profound spiritual truth: there are some things in life you simply cannot borrow at the last minute.

The "oil" in the parable represents our personal relationship with God. It is built drop by drop through daily prayer, quiet moments of scripture reading, acts of hidden charity, and the frequent receiving of the Sacraments. When we face life's unexpected crises—or when we eventually stand before the Lord—we cannot borrow someone else's faith,

Prayer

"Lord, grant me the Wisdom that seeks me out daily. Fill my lamp with the oil of patience, charity, and deep faith, so that I may never be caught unprepared for Your arrival, but may instead step joyfully into Your eternal banquet. Amen."

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

Dear Friends,

The times they are achangin' (Bob Dylan). In the USA at any rate. Hopefully we'll see an end to war soon, in Iran and the Holy Land, and in Ukraine, Sudan, and Yemen. During the week, Pope Leo recalled the words of his predecessor, Pope Francis: "war is a failure of politics and of humanity, a shameful capitulation, a stinging defeat before the forces of evil". And Leo added: "Politics that tends to the wounds of peoples and of those who suffer injustice offers grounds for hope for the future of humanity". How appropriate that the "minstrel of rock" met him in Rome this week. We pray for an end to war and conflict, hatred and greed. This year we are marking 800 years since the death of St Francis. Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Amen.

God bless.
Fr Tom

Being Prepared!

I mentioned a few weeks back in our Bulletin that I would do my best to bring clarity to you in relation to the future of Mount Argus as soon as feasible. Again I thank all the people who responded so positively and encouragingly. As many of the 'governance' and organisation issues have to be decided at a higher level, it was necessary to get guidance from them, at least in broad outline. Such discussions have taken place, at least at a preliminary level, and having spoken with our own Provincial here, Fr. Martin Coffey, he has kindly agreed to meet with all those interested and able on this coming Wednesday evening, at 7.30 pm. in the St. Charles' Centre, in order to fill us in on latest developments and likely future directions, on the one hand, and on the other to hear whatever contributions and suggestions you may wish to make with regard to the way forward.

This is a critical time in the history of Mount Argus. Since we have come here in 1856 the Passionists have striven to serve not only the local church, but, particularly through their special ministry of parish missions and retreats have attempted to bring the message of Christ's love for all, as especially revealed through His Sacred Passion, to our whole nation. With a changing world, a changing Church, and a changing Passionist Congregation, the time has come for a major re-assessment of how to most fruitfully serve God's people with the much-diminished resources now at our disposal.

Our meeting on Wednesday evening is an opportunity for those interested to express how they feel in relation to the inevitable decisions that must be made. It's especially an occasion to assess the opportunities that are there to maximise on the good will and many talents that are clearly demonstrated in those who attend here. We are all agreed that while on the one hand we can't return to the past, neither can we just let the future happen. We need to put our best efforts into planning and being prepared for the way forward.

Which is a message the foolish bridesmaids in today's Gospel should have learnt. Even though their principal function was to provide light, they still risked skimping on the amount of oil they had with them to keep their lamps lit. Any unexpected developments and they were bound to be in trouble. Not just in relation to our Parish, but also in relation to our own individual spiritual journeys, we need to "stay awake", as our gospel reminds us. We need to stay awake to the opportunities to grow closer to the Lord and His way of love. We need to stay awake to the opportunities to fulfil our baptismal commission of spreading his word throughout our community and our world. And we need to stay awake to the opportunities to build up the community of the church, our spiritual family, our constant source of nourishment and love.

Prepare for Christmas this Advent 2026 by joining a Lectio Divina evening in the Pastoral Space from 7pm-8pm.
Beginning on Monday 23rd November & continuing on Monday evenings on 7th, 14th & 21st December.

In Western Christianity, Lectio Divina (Latin for "Divine Reading") is a traditional monastic practice of reading scripture, meditation and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word. In the view of one commentator, it does not treat Scripture as texts to be studied, but as the living out of God's Word.

Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) was founded in Germany in 1947 as a Catholic aid charity for war refugees. The Charity has grown over the years and today has national offices in 23 countries. The Irish office was established in 1989. ACN was re-founded as a Pontifical Charity by Pope Benedict XVI in 2011. It is dedicated to the service of Christians around the world, wherever they are suffering persecution or oppression because of their faith in Jesus Christ. One in ten Christians, 220 million people, live in countries where they are persecuted for their faith. Aid to the Church in Need is organising a Week of Witness from November 15-22 to highlight their plight with a special appeal for parishioners to pray for the suffering Church on 'Red Wednesday' November 18.

Our Parish

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time-8th November 2026

"So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour" (Mt 25:13)
Even the sensible ones sleep. The parable (in Sundays' Gospel) does not scold us for being tired. It only asks whether when we are shaken awake, there is still enough in us to know who is calling and to go in with him. The closed door sounds harsh, but Jesus tells the story now, while the door is still open. We do not know the day or the hour. That is not meant to make us anxious. It is meant to keep us from leaving important things until some later version of ourselves gets around to them. So the last line is simple and it is for us: stay awake. Not frantic. Just awake enough to keep a little oil nearby. He takes longer than we expect. And then he comes. (Michael Kelly ACN)

220 million Christians live in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution, while 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely violated. ACN WEEK OF WITNESS which runs from Sunday 15th Nov. to Sunday 22nd Nov. has become very important in raising awareness of persecuted Christians throughout the world.

Wherever you go around the world and meet Christian Communities who suffer for their faith, the first thing they ask is 'pray for us' and this is usually followed by 'don't forget us' As a papal charity at the service of Pope Leo, ACN is committed to ensuring that these communities are not forgotten. We are appealing to all faith communities to use the Week of Witness and Red Wednesday to show our brothers & sisters that we will speak up for them!

SHARE
APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

A message from Archbishop Dermot Farrell

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese.

In the parable that Jesus recounts today, those who were wise brought extra oil, but the unwise did not have enough oil to keep their lamps lit into the evening (Matthew 25:1-13). In our world, through no fault of their own, some parishes will not have 'enough oil for their lamps'. We share from what we have so that no parish is left behind, none is overlooked. I appeal to you today, then, if you can, to increase your contribution to Share throughout the year so that we can enhance our response to the needs of all.

Because of your generosity to Share, a wide range of skilled personnel are available to parishes from the diocesan offices. They offer consultation, training, formation and guidance concerning local pastoral, education, strategic leadership, safeguarding and communications initiatives. A particular focus currently is training for Pastoral Councils using a new handbook, Being a Synodal Pastoral Council. Assistance is provided, too, for ongoing parish and partnership conversations, Building Hope in a synodal manner.

Parishes are also helped in meeting regulatory and statutory obligations in administrative and operational matters, such as finance and fundraising, property, sustainability, health and safety, and data protection. This year we are expanding our support for health and safety compliance, with a full-time person provided from the diocesan offices to assist parishes. Through our new sustainability engineer, we are also helping parishes to look at alternative energy sources, aligned with Laudato Si' and Care for Creation. Speaking in September, calling for a wise and far-sighted vision of humanity, Pope Leo insisted that, 'the climate question is not merely an environmental challenge, it is fundamentally a question of justice, human dignity and solidarity between people and generations'. (24th September 2026). We must all be engaged in reflection on what we can do to care for our planet and all its people.

The Share collection has evolved over the years and continues to evolve. It is a significant source of funding and support across the Archdiocese. Importantly, Share provides much needed financial relief to disadvantaged parishes where alternative funding cannot be secured. This year, for example, numbers of parishes that could not fund compliance with all-important fire-safety regulations have been assisted by Share.

Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year.

May we be a people blessed with wisdom, humility, generosity, and great hope.

REFLECTION

You can shed tears that they have gone, or you can smile because they have lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that they'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all they have left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see them,
or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember only that they have gone, or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what they'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

REMEMBERING SOULS IN NOVEMBER

November has traditionally been a time to remember loved ones who have died. If you would like to have your loved ones prayed for during the month and on the First Friday of each month through the year please take one of the lists and envelopes at the back of the church and return it before the 21st of November. You can drop it into the Sacristy after any Mass, drop it into the Parish Office during office hours or drop it into the safe on the back wall. Thank you.

APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

Share Appeal Sunday
Sharing Our Responsibility

This Sunday is Share Appeal Sunday, an opportunity for everyone in our parish to support the important work of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of Dublin.

The Share collection helps provide financial support for parishes and communities, particularly those facing greater challenges. It contributes towards the training and formation of priests, the education and preparation of lay people for ministry, pastoral programmes, youth ministry, safeguarding, and the many services that help the Church reach out to people in need. It also assists parishes with fewer resources, ensuring that the work of the Church can continue in every community.

The Church is more than our own parish. We are part of a much wider family, and Share reminds us that we have a responsibility to support one another. Some parishes have greater resources than others, but all share in the mission of bringing Christ's love and message to the world.

This week, parishioners are invited to consider giving a little more generously to the Share collection. Even a small increase in our usual contribution can make a real difference when it is added to the gifts of others. Your generosity helps sustain the life and mission of the Church across the Archdiocese. Thank you for your continued support.

NOVEMBER MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Saturday 28th November 6.30 pm

This Mass is for all those Parishioners who died in past year and for those whose funerals took place in our Church. But anyone who is grieving for a loved one is most welcome to attend this Mass of Remembrance.

The November List is available from the Church for you to complete and return. They can be returned via the basket collection on Sundays, to the parish office or via the offerings box in the back of the church.

November is traditionally the month in which the Church remembers Her dead, and in a special way we are invited to remember family and friends who have died, especially those who have passed in the previous year. All those on the November list of the dead will be prayed for at every Mass during the month of November.

MASS ATTENDANCE SURVEY

Every year the Archdiocese surveys the number of people attending Sunday Masses in the Diocese. They average Mass attendances over three Sundays. Volunteers will conduct the count.

Christmas Cards and calendars will go on sale in the Church on Sundays.

The St. Vincent de Paul Church Gate monthly collection amounted to €1375 last weekend. The Society is very grateful for your generosity in giving to this worthy and much needed charity.

Parish Pastoral Outreach

As we gather this November to remember our deceased loved ones, our thoughts also naturally turn to those in our community who are elderly, housebound, or feeling disconnected from the parish. Sandymount Parish offers a Pastoral Outreach Ministry to provide visits, a listening ear, and pastoral companionship to those who may be feeling isolated or unable to regularly attend Mass.

- Request a Visit: If you, a family member, friend, or neighbour would appreciate a pastoral visit, please let us know. You can fill out the new Visit Request Form (available from the parish office and on the parish website) or simply contact the Parish Office.
- Join the Team: We are also hoping to expand our Pastoral Outreach team. If you have an hour or two to spare each week and would like to visit those who are housebound or feeling isolated in our community, we would love to hear from you. Support, shadowing, and Garda vetting will be provided.

Let us continue to keep all our parishioners connected to the heart of our parish community this November.

CHURCH COLLECTIONS

The amounts collected last week: 18th October, 2026:
1st collection €950 (Common Fund)
The Common Fund is for the support of Priests (serving and retired) of both the Parish and the Archdiocese.
2nd collection: €605 (Share)
The Share Fund is for assistance to needy Parishes and support services provided to all Parishes by the Archdiocese.

A Message from Archbishop Dermot Farrell

Share Appeal Sunday takes place this weekend, November 7/8, highlighting the important work that is funded by the weekly collection.

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

Always be ready

Jesus said we must always be ready for His second coming, ready to meet Him. Being 'ready' doesn't mean spending all the time doing religious things. For married couples, being 'ready' means being ready to listen to each other, sharing thoughts and feelings. Keep your 'love tank' full by thinking of ways he or she can be surprised by love.

Could You Be a Welcomer?

We are looking for parishioners to welcome people to Mass, hand out missalettes and offer a friendly smile. If you attend a weekend Mass, could you come a few minutes early to help? Welcomers will serve in teams of two, and we hope to have a team at every weekend Mass.

A warm welcome helps everyone feel at home.

If you can help, please get in touch with the parish office on 012822277 or info@stannesparishshankill.com

Thank you!

The November Mass of Remembrance will take place on Sunday 8th November at 12.30pm. At this Mass, we remember in a special way, all our beloved parishioners who have died, holding them close in our hearts and prayers. A candle will be lit in memory of each loved one who has passed, symbolising the light, love and cherished memories that remain with friends and family. May they all rest in the eternal peace of the Lord.

GAISCE & TRANSITION YEAR: VOLUNTEER WITH THE PARISH

Is there a young person in your family (a son, daughter or grandchild) in Transition Year or older and looking for a Gaisce Community Involvement activity?

St. Fintan's Parish is running a Parish Participation Programme for 2026/2027. Students help organise and run parish events alongside our liturgical team and volunteers. Roles include music, coordination, preparing materials and PowerPoint for Mass, hospitality in the Parish Centre, and leading parts of events.

Opportunities run throughout the year, from the Family Masses and Holy Week to the Life in the Spirit course and the visit of the relics of St. Carlo Acutis in January. Every event a student takes part in is signed off by the parish, and a confirmation form is provided for their school's Gaisce leader (PAL) or TY Coordinator.

To find out more or to sign up, contact Fr. Paul Hampson at pa_hampson@yahoo.com

EVENTS IN THE PARISH FOR ADVENT

Whether you sing, play an instrument, read or simply love to pray and connect, there's a place for you. Come and be part of something special.

Meet the organisers and parish team: Monday 9 November, 6:30pm, Parish Centre. Help us kick things off, build our community and share the Good News. Everyone welcome!

Building Hope

Your voice in shaping St Joseph's future

Dear friends,

In 2027, St Joseph's will hold its first Parish Assembly: a gathering of the whole parish community to reflect together on who we are and where we are going. It is part of Building Hope, the Archdiocese of Dublin's call to every parish to become a place of listening, co-responsibility and shared mission.

An Assembly is only as good as the listening that comes before it. So before we gather, we want to hear from you. The Parish Pastoral Council has put together a short survey of seven questions, which takes about five minutes. Your answers will directly shape what the Assembly discusses.

We especially want to hear from people who don't usually get asked: fresh voices and quieter voices, those at the heart of parish life and those at its edges. Every response counts the same.

You can complete the survey here: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/VZBVQDQ

Paper copies are available through the Parish Office.

Thank you for giving us a few minutes of your time and your wisdom.

With every good wish,

The Parish Pastoral Council

St Joseph's Parish, Terenure.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

8th November 2026

Donal Neary SJ Gospel Reflections for Year A: Matthew

Jesus always new

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer and our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one,
ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day
