CAUSEWAY FAMILY OF PARISHES

16th August 2026
Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

GREAT FAITH, NO BOUNDARIES

Today's Gospel finds Jesus seemingly reluctant to help a Canaanite woman pleading for her daughter, telling her it wouldn't be right to give "the children's bread" to "the dogs." It's very strange - until we see what the Lord is really doing. He's teaching his apostles, who had brushed the woman aside as a foreign outsider. Through their back-and-forth, Jesus reveals her deep faith and heals her daughter, showing the Twelve that God's love has no borders of race or nation.

It's a lesson for us too. As Isaiah foretold, God's house is "a house of prayer for all peoples." We're called to carry that welcome beyond our church doors — meeting everyone with respect, and speaking up against the prejudice and division still so present in our world.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, Light of my life.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me,
Christ be on all tongues telling of me.
Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
In ears that hear me, Christ ever be.

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me His praise should sing?
Praise Him, praise Him,
praise Him, praise Him,
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress.
Praise Him still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him, praise Him,
praise Him, praise Him,
Glorious in His faithfulness.
