September is devoted to Our Lady of Sorrows, commemorated on September 15, reflecting Mary's suffering at the foot of the Cross. Many pray for guidance, protection, and spiritual growth throughout this month.

Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows:

Oh most holy and afflicted Virgin, Queen of Martyrs, you stood beneath the cross, witnessing the agony of your dying Son. Look with a mother's tenderness and pity on me, who kneel before you. I venerate your sorrows and place my requests with filial confidence in the sanctuary of your wounded heart. Present them, I beseech you, on my behalf to Jesus Christ, through the merits of his most sacred Passion and Death, together with your sufferings at the foot of the cross; and through the united efficacy of both, obtain the grant of my present petition. To whom shall I resort in my wants and miseries if not to you, O Mother of Mercy, who, having so deeply drunk of the chalice of your Son, can compassionate the sorrows of those who still sigh in the land of exile?

We cannot go through life without being hurt. People disappoint us, misunderstand us, sometimes treat us badly. Forgiveness does not mean pretending that these things do not matter, nor does it mean that every damaged relationship can simply be restored. But there is another question worth asking: what do we allow our hurts to do to us? What happens within us eventually reaches other people. Hurt can travel through us. Resentment can travel through us. Someone else's bitterness can slowly become our bitterness too. But mercy can travel through us as well. None of us has made our life entirely by ourselves. We have received love we did not earn, patience we did not deserve, opportunities we could not have created, faults that others chose to overlook. Above all, we live within the mercy of God. The challenge is to remember not only what has been done to us, but also what has been done for us. Sooner or later, one or the other will pass through us into the lives of others.

Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God's sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation.Church of the Immaculate Conception 200th Anniversary: We will mark this significant milestone with a Celebration Mass on Sunday 4th October at the 11.00am.
