TODAY'S MASS READINGS

First reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The Word was made flesh and lived among us: to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.'

ARLES DOONANE PARISH NEWSLETTER

SERVING ARLES, BALLYLINAN, DOONANE, KILLEEN AND MAYO

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time 11th October 2026

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

THAT THEY MAY HAVE LIFE

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday

Next Sunday, the Holy Father invites all Catholics to contribute to a special collection. Every person in every parish in every country where the Church is present will be celebrating together and sharing what they have, no matter how little.

It is the one Sunday in the year when the Mass is celebrated exclusively for missionary activity. Donations are collected at these worldwide Masses and they go to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor.

It is also the one Sunday in the year when your generosity goes directly to help mission parishes overseas and reach out with Jesus' message of hope and love. World Missions Ireland is the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission. It is responsible for coordinating Mission Sunday in Ireland and, through local bishops, churches, and missionary congregations around the world, ensures that resources are distributed equitably and justly on the basis of need.

In offering our prayers, we join with missionaries everywhere in communion and compassion to support them in spreading the Good News, and by giving a donation we respond to Christ's call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked so please give what you can.

Thank You.

PARISH NEWSLETTER

Twenty Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A - 11th October 2026

Over the next two weekends at the Sunday Masses, we will have the Ceremony of Enrolment & Commitment in preparation for Frist Holy Communion (Frist Confession) and Confirmation 2027 in our parish.

This weekend the 11th of October; the children, parents and faith community of Grangecon at the 9.30am mass, will be asked to commit themselves to the preparation for their children's FHC.

Next weekend the 18th of October; the children, parents and faith community of Stratford at the 9.30am mass and again Bigstone, Baltinglass and Stratford Lodge at the 11am mass, will be asked to commit themselves to the preparation for their children's FHC and Confirmation.

This ceremony marks the beginning of the journey we will be taking together in preparation for the sacraments. This is not a journey we take alone but the children and their parents will be journeying together at home, the children and their teachers will be journeying together at school and our faith communities will be praying, showing support and encouraging our children in their faith in preparation to receive their sacraments.

May God Bless each and every one of our children. Amen.

Mission Sunday 2026 will be celebrated on 18 October. It will mark the 100th World Mission Day, which was established by Pope Pius XI in 1926.

The theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV is "One in Christ, united in mission." It reminds Catholics that we are united in faith and called to share the message of Christ with others.

On Mission Sunday, parishes and families pray for missionaries and support the Church in places where communities are young, vulnerable or persecuted. Donations help provide churches, pastoral care, education, faith formation and healthcare. By taking part in Mass, praying and contributing to the Mission Sunday collection, we join Catholics around the world in supporting the Church's mission.

IRISH NATIONAL SYNODAL ASSEMBLY

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on 17 October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and scan the QR code to access the Working Document and find out more, and see www.synod.ie

Prisoners Sunday

Morning Prayer

Father in heaven.

I give you today, all that I think and do and say. And I unite it with all that was done, by Jesus Christ, your dear Son. May the prayers of Mary, mother of your Son, protect and guide all I meet this day and all who have asked my prayers. Amen.

Evening Prayer

Lord, fill this night with your radiance. May we sleep in peace and rise with joy to welcome the light of a new day in your name. May we look after those in our care and remember with thanks all who have helped us during this day gone by and at all times of our lives. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Where funds collected on Mission Sunday 2025 were distributed Funds collected in 2025 were used for a range of projects in the following countries: Antilles, Bangladesh, Bolivia, Cameroon, Kenya, Panama, Peru, Senegal and Sri Lanka. Some of these funds were used for the following: support for children's projects, construction of Churches as well as the renovation of presbyteries. Nearly 1,000 Churches were supported through worldwide solidarity funds. Some of the funding each year also supports catechists. Catechists are vital, especially in very large rural Parishes, where the priest cannot reach all areas of his Parish too often due to its size. The Pontifical Mission Societies globally support approximately 844,000 catechists. Funds also support seminarians' upkeep as well as their academic formation. Worldwide, seminarians reside in 725 seminaries, and there are more than 83,000 seminarians worldwide. Over 250,000 Religious Sisters worldwide are aided in their ministries.

St. Francis of Assisi 800 Years On

This weekend, we commemorate 800 years since the death of St. Francis of Assisi, who died on the 3rd of October in 1226.
Born in Assisi around 1181, Francis grew up in a wealthy family and, as a young man, dreamed of a life of adventure and knighthood. Yet a profound conversion changed the course of his life. He turned away from wealth and privilege and chose instead to follow Christ through a life of poverty, simplicity, prayer and service. Francis' love for God extended to all of creation. His beautiful Canticle of the Creatures, written towards the end of his life, praises God through "Brother Sun", "Sister Moon" and all the wonders of creation. His deep respect for nature has made his message particularly relevant in our own time. Francis was also a man of peace. He sought to live the Gospel by reaching out to others, including those of different faiths, and his simple greeting became: "The Lord give you peace."
Eight centuries later, his example continues to challenge and inspire us. In a world often marked by division, conflict and materialism, St. Francis reminds us of the value of simplicity, humility, compassion, forgiveness and care for God's creation. As we mark this special anniversary, may we ask ourselves how we can bring a little more of Francis' spirit into our own lives, by being more generous, more forgiving, more attentive to those in need, and above all, by seeking to live the Gospel with joy.

St. Francis of Assisi, pray for us

The Tragic Death of Leonard Selby

On the 8th of October in 1926, a young single man, Leonard Selby, just 22 years old and from Low Moor, Bradford, England, tragically lost his life in Carlow.
Leonard was a skilled steeplejack, working on the dismantling of the spire of St. Anne's Church on Athy Road. While removing stone approximately 115 feet above the ground, he slipped and fell from the spire, suffering fatal injuries. His death occurred at the beginning of an extraordinary undertaking the dismantling of St. Anne's Church, with its stones transported across the River Barrow and eventually rebuilt and dedicated as St. Clare's Church in Graiguecullen. Leonard's death was ruled accidental at an inquest held that evening in Carlow. He was described as a steady, sober and experienced young man.

Nearly a century later, Leonard Selby's name can once again be remembered, not simply as a forgotten name in an old newspaper, but as a 22-year-old Yorkshire steeplejack who came to Carlow to work on a remarkable project and tragically never returned home.

Rest in peace, Leonard Selby.

Pope Leo's Appeal for Peace

Pope Leo XIV has called on all the faithful and Christian communities to pray the Holy Rosary throughout the month of October, with a special intention for peace in our world. Speaking at Lourdes, the Holy Father asked that the Rosary be offered particularly for an end to wars and for peace among peoples affected by conflict. He also encouraged us to accompany our prayer with acts of mercy, reconciliation and a commitment to dialogue. As a parish, let us join Pope Leo in this special prayer for peace throughout the month of October.
We will pray the rosary before masses at the following times:

Monday to Friday @9.40am, Saturday @6.10pm, Sunday @8.40am

If you cannot attend masses we encourage you to pray at home with your family

Dargan School of Dance 25 Years

This month, we celebrate 25 years of Dargan School of Dance and the wonderful contribution they have made to our community.
To mark this special milestone, a Thanksgiving Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, 10th October, in St Clare's Church. We warmly welcome past and present teachers and dancers to join us as we give thanks for 25 years of dedication, friendship and achievement.
We will also pray for God's continued blessing upon the Dargan family, their team and all their students, and give thanks for the many ways they have enriched the lives of so many within our community. Congratulations to Dargan School of Dance on 25 wonderful

A wise person once said "Be careful who you let on board, because some people will sink the whole ship just because they can't be the Captain!"

27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The risk for Christians today is that we read the parable complacently, because it clearly refers to Jews and Christians in the first century. However, it is not only in the past that the leadership of God's project has changed hands, so to speak. Down through history, more committed groups have challenged the established Church -they can attract by more exciting worship and by a closer living of the Gospel. the hard words of St. Paul to the Gentile Christians in Rome may help to shake us up: for if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.(Rm 11:21)

Israel, God's first chosen people, did not produce the fruit expected of them. God found fault with them and the promised inheritance passed from them. The Church today must prove itself worthy of God's call by bringing forth the fruit of love and good works.

Applications for enrolment into St. Joseph's NS for 2027 will be accepted from Mon, 5th Oct. until Fri, 23rd Oct. See website for further details.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM THE PARISH PRIEST OF KILCOCK & NEWTOWN

Dear Parishioners and wider Community,

After much reflection and prayer, I feel it is important to offer a few words of clarification regarding the proposed Parish Centre and some information and rumours currently circulating on social media. I fully understand that people may have questions and concerns, and I sincerely respect the right of everyone to seek clear and accurate information. I would simply encourage people to rely on verified information and, where clarification is needed, to contact the Parish Office directly by phone or email.

For the avoidance of any misunderstanding, I would also like to make it clear that the Parish has no connection with, or involvement in, the sale, purchase or subsequent affairs of the Shalom building. It is entirely independent of the Parish and remains the responsibility and ownership of its respective owners. As Parish Priest, I fully understand and respect the importance of safeguarding the safety and wellbeing of everyone connected with our schools and churches. I also deeply respect the character, peace and surroundings of our community. These considerations are very important to me and must always be treated with care and responsibility.

Our calling as priests is to serve our people and to respond, as best we can, to the needs of the Parish and the wider community. We have a responsibility, not only to the present generation, but also to think carefully about our elderly, children, young people and those who will come after us. Our sincere hope is to provide a place where people can meet, support one another and build a stronger community - a place where we can stand together in friendship, as human beings and as Christians.

I am grateful to everyone who has contacted me, shared their concerns respectfully and offered their support for our Parish and our priests. I ask you all to continue to pray for wisdom, peace and truth, and that whatever we undertake may always be guided by charity, honesty, respect and the common good.

With sincere thanks and prayers,

Fr. George

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October (Month of the Holy Rosary):

The Rosary Before Mass: During the month of October, all parishioners are warmly invited to come to Mass early and join in reciting the Rosary. Each morning from 9:15am before the 10am daily Mass in Kill, in Ardclough from 9:00am on Sunday mornings before the 9:30am Mass or from 10:30am on Sunday mornings before the 11am Mass in Kill.

Pray the Rosary at Home: October is the Month of the Holy Rosary. As a parish community, we want to encourage all individuals and families to rediscover the beauty and peace of this powerful prayer by praying the Rosary at home during 6pm and 8pm each evening. If you are new to the Rosary or out of practice, don't worry—we have a simple guide available for you to take home. Rosary beads available from the parish office.

PRAYER INTENTIONS: Daily prayer intentions will be posted on the parish website www.killparish.ie for you to use each day.

Prayer for the National Synodal Assembly

Lord Jesus,
You have called us together through Baptism and faith.
Make us a Church that proclaims your Gospel, accompanies all who seek you,
heals the wounded,
walks with people on their journey,
and empowers all the baptised to share in your mission.
Guide the National Synodal Assembly and all who participate in it.
May we listen to one another, discern your will,
and courageously follow where your Spirit leads.
Amen.

Mercy Sisters: Our heartfelt gratitude to Bishop Denis Nulty, Fr. Pat Hennessy, Fr. Tom Lalor, Fr. Gerry Byrne and co-celebrant Deacon Patrick Roche and parishioners for the wonderful send off we received on Saturday last. We realize a lot of work went into organizing the event - the Church so beautifully decorated, the choir adding to the prayerfulness of the Liturgy, and to cap it all, the wonderful party prepared by the ladies of the parish. We appreciate being remembered by the exquisite tapestry hanging in the Church. Our thoughts and prayers will always be with the people of Leighlin Parish for their friendship and support over the past 116 years. Sisters Ethel and Nancy.

ST FRANCIS PEACE PRAYER

Lord make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there's sadness, joy;

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand, to be loved as to love; for it is giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

"Is not this what God asks of you?"

Irish Synodal Pathway
www.synod.ie

'The peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts in Christ Jesus' The 'Season of Creation' draws to a close today on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of the vineyard to illustrate how God's radical message of love, professed by ancient prophets and by himself, has been ignored and rejected. Despite this, Jesus can confidently proclaim the truth: that what people have ignored will become the foundation of a new covenant of love. May Christ Jesus, who forever guards our hearts and sustains us in his love, give us the courage and strength to lead lives centred on truth, justice, peace and compassion for all.

BLESSING OF PETS, 3.00pm, this Sunday (4th) front yard of the Parish Church.
All Welcome….

Synod News Synod News Synod News

Ireland's 'National Synodal Assembly' of the Catholic Church will take place in Gormanstown, Co. Meath on 17th October next. The seven Delegates to the Synod from our diocese are: Fr Ger Ahern, Sr. Ann Walsh, Deacon Jody Callan, Cathríona Kelly, Matt Lawlor, Deacon Patrick Roche and Victor Souza. More details to follow.

We pray: Lord Jesus, You have called us together through Baptism and faith. Make us a Church that proclaims your Gospel, accompanies all who seek you, heals the wounded, walks with people on their journey, and empowers all the baptised to share in your mission. Guide the National Synodal Assembly and all who participate in it. May we listen to one another, discern your will, and courageously follow where your Spirit leads. Amen.

SPECIAL FEASTDAYS October 4th (Sun) is the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, although this year, because it falls on a Sunday, the Sunday celebration takes precedence. St. Francis heard that specific call from the Lord to "Go and repair my church", not what he first thought, to repair a building, but to renew all people spiritually, his mission continues today worldwide – make me a channel of your peace, where there is hatred let me bring your love…..

St. Faustina was key to promoting devotion to "Divine Mercy" and since her death in 1938 it has grown steadily. Faustina, and other saints like her were simple and unassuming people. What makes them extraordinary is God's grace. Her feastday is Monday (5th)

Wednesday's (7th) feast of 'Our Lady of the Rosary' is the main reason that October is often called "Rosary Month". The story of the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary shows that when Christians are in danger, they can go to Mary. She encouraged praying the Rosary in her apparitions. At Lourdes when she appeared to Saint Bernadette, Mary had a Rosary beads. As Bernadette prayed Mary joined in on the Glory Be prayers. At Fatima Mary exhorted the three children who saw her to pray the Rosary for peace. In Knock and Medjugorje it continues to be one of the main devotions of their pilgrims.

Pope John Paul II Award Ceremony, Carlow

The Pope John Paul II Award is a national award which acknowledges young people for their involvement in Parish and Community Life. The award was set up in memory of Pope John Paul II and is rooted in his belief in the goodness of young people.

In our Diocese hundreds of teenagers receive the award at Bronze, Silver or Gold level each year from Bishop Denis. The award is open to those in senior cycle in school and above. It asks the participants to make a commitment to serve their parish and community during the year, along with other young people, and with adult leaders from the school and parish to encourage and support them. The Pope John Paul II award aims to develop leadership and personal skills in the young people, and to help them to find an active role in their faith journey.

This year, six young people from Naas, Sallins and Two Mile House received their awards at the end of September, and we thank each of them for the contribution which they have made to the parish, the schools and to the wider community. Congratulations to each one on their achievement!

Registration for the award is now open for this year, and we are happy to invite those young people from TY and above who are interested to contact Trish in the Parish Office for information on how to register.

NaasPoint Christmas Food Appeal: Volunteers Needed

Christmas can be an especially difficult time for people experiencing hardship, and your support can help us care for our neighbours.

We will be holding a Food Appeal Collection in the two Tesco stores in Naas on Thursday 3rd December, Friday 4th and Saturday 5th December.

Volunteers will hand out leaflets, invite customers to purchase an item listed on the leaflet and ask them to place it in the Food Appeal collection trolley once they have paid for it at the checkout.

We are looking for volunteers to cover two-hour shifts at Tesco Blessington Road and Tesco Monread between 10.00am and 6.00pm on the 3rd, 4th and 5th of December.

If you can help, please consider asking a friend or family member to accompany you.

To put your name on the roster, please contact Naas Parish Office, Sallins Road, Naas, in person, or call 045 879 730 or email office@naasparish.net.

Thank you to everyone who gives their time or donates food.

Your kindness will help support local families this Christmas.

PRAYERS ASKED FOR THE NATIONAL SYNODAL ASSEMBLY

Your prayers are asked at this time as delegates prepare to participate at the National Synodal Assembly in Gormanstown on 17th October. The preparatory document for the assembly can be read in full on www.Kandle.ie along with a list of our diocesan delegates. The Archdiocese of Dublin has offered the following prayer:

Lord Jesus,
You have called us together through Baptism and faith.
Make us a Church that proclaims your Gospel, accompanies all who seek you, heals the wounded, walks with people on their journey, and empowers all the baptised to share in your mission.
Guide the National Synodal Assembly and all who participate in it.
May we listen to one another, discern your will, and courageously follow where your Spirit leads. Amen

MONTH OF THE ROSARY OCTOBER

October is the month of the Rosary. It's a time when we are encouraged to pray the Rosary as a family.

O'QUEEN OF THE HOLY ROSARY

O'Queen of the Holy Rosary,
each mystery blends with thine,
the sacred life of Jesus,
in every step divine.
Thy soul was His fair garden,
thy virgin breast His throne,
thy thoughts, His faithful mirror,
reflecting Him alone.
O'Queen of the Holy Rosary,
we share thy joy and pain,
and long to see the glory of Christ's triumphant reign.
Oh, teach us, holy Mary,
to live each mystery,
and gain by patient suff'ring
the glory won by thee (EM Shepcote)

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Deacon: Rev. Liam Dunne

Matthew 22:1-14 Invite everyone you find

The parable we hear today is the third of three parables that Jesus aims at the chief priests and the elders about the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a great wedding banquet and this is symbolic of God's relationship with God's people. When invitations to this feast are rejected, we are told that the king sends troops to destroy the city. It's a rather fierce reaction when we consider the king represents God. The context here is important, as Matthew's community would have been trying to make sense of the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans (AD 70) including the destruction of the Jerusalem Temple, the holiest of places in Judaism. Some probably saw it as punishment from God for Jesus 'death. The judgement sound harsh, but the criticism here is directed at some of the religious leaders and how they have interpreted the Law for ordinary people, often in extremely oppressive ways. If God is portrayed as a tyrant in this parable, it is because some of the religious elite have inflicted this image of God on the people. If the parable challenges us to do anything, it is to critique certain interpretations of how God operates in the world. In Jesus' teaching, the Kingdom is opened wide and new guests are invited from the 'main streets'; he says: 'invite everyone you find'. The invitation to the banquet is not restricted to the social elite and powerful; it is wide open to those considered unwanted and the hall is 'filled with guests'. Matthew's addition to this parable about the wedding robe seems harsh; how could this poor man be expected to find wedding robes at such short notice? There was a tradition in the early Christian community that 'putting on' a new robe was symbolic of a new way of life, 'cloth yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience … cloth yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony' (Col 3:12, 14). These are attitudes that the Christian community are to wear so that everyone can attend this mighty feast. Copyright © Triona Doherty & Jane Mellett. The Deep End: A Journey with the Sunday Gospels in the Year of Matthew (Dublin: Messenger Publications, 2022).

"The Church is not a select circle of the immaculate, but a home where the outcast may come in… a hospital where the broken-hearted may be healed, and where all the weary and troubled may find rest. James H. Aughey

MISSION SUNDAY – 18th October 2026

The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is:

"One in Christ, United in Mission".

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration.
100 years of World Mission Sunday. Many missionaries work in difficult and dangerous situations. 17 Catholic missionaries died tragically in 2025, 10 of them in Africa. The missionaries who were killed included 6 priests, 2 seminarians and 2 catechists. We are appealing for people to support the Missions. You can put your donation in an envelope with your name on it. Some envelopes available in the Church – Thank you.

WEEKEND COLLECTIONS – 3rd & 4th October

We thank all our parishioners who contribute to the weekly Collections.
Rathvilly: Offertory €311.50 Envelopes €720.15
Kiltegan: Offertory €88.39 Envelopes €181.00

On this mountain the Lord will prepare a banquet for all people.

We are here this day
at God's invitation.

There is no VIP section,
no conditions for being invited,
he has prepared his banquet
his Eucharist, for all peoples.

The only condition is that we want to be here,
that we know our need for God,
our need to be nourished by the Bread of Life,
to be forgiven by the Word of God,
and then we are sent to be this Bread of Life.

This bread is baked, blessed, broken, and shared in the name of Jesus,
as the bread of life was baked, blessed,
broken and shared by his disciples.

Nourish us, Lord Jesus, with the bread that satisfies our hunger for meaning and direction in our lives, our thirst for a companionship that is always faithful,
our hope for the fullness of forgiveness,
our deep need to know we are totally loved.

No conditions for joining in this banquet;
come to God as you are,
and you will return blessed, refreshed, strengthened and sent forth in his name.
