Last Christmas, 50 parishes took part — and we would love to grow that number even more this year! If you would like to find out more about how you can help, please email Mark at mark.mcmahon@trocaire.org or call 048 9080 8030.

Love God and Love Your Neighbour

In today's Gospel (Matthew 22:34–40), Jesus reminds us that the heart of our faith is simple: to love God with all our heart, soul and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourselves. These two commandments are closely connected. We cannot truly love God without allowing that love to shape how we treat others. A kind word, a listening ear, a helping hand, or a willingness to forgive can all become expressions of God's love in our daily lives.

Sometimes we may think that living our faith requires great gestures or extraordinary deeds. Yet Jesus reminds us that holiness is often found in the ordinary moments of everyday life, in the patience we show, the compassion we offer, and the care we extend to those around us.

As we go about the week ahead, may we ask ourselves: Can others recognise God's love through the way I treat them? May we strive to make love the guiding principle of our words, our actions and our relationships, so that our homes and parish community may become places where God's love is truly felt and shared.

Annual Muckno Parish Draw 2026–2027

Our annual Muckno Parish Draw is an important source of support for the life and development of our parish, and I warmly encourage everyone to get involved by supporting the draw and purchasing tickets from our parish promoters. We continue to carry a significant parish debt of approximately €700,000, and the draw is essential in helping us meet our repayments and manage this responsibility. In the coming months, we also hope to begin the extension of our parish graveyard. This is a very important project for our community, but the cost quoted for the work is substantial.

I am deeply grateful to all who support our parish through the annual draw and our weekly parish envelopes. Every contribution, no matter how large or small, makes a real difference and helps us to provide for the needs of our parish, both now and into the future.

Your continued generosity, encouragement and support are greatly appreciated. By working together, we can continue to care for our parish and provide for the needs of our community for generations to come.

Thank you sincerely for your ongoing kindness and generosity.

God Bless
Fr Adi

Memories

They say memories
Can comfort the grieving,
I say good memories
Can chafe the heart,
Wear it bloody
With remembrance.

Part of me wants to toss
All memories away,
Let the heart be freed
From what binds it
To the past.

Yet, memories do console.
How could I continue
Without the gift of a face
Held in my sorrowed mind,
Without years of love settled
Forever in my grieving bones.

Strength from memories.
Agony from memories.
Let the tension be.

Annual Memorial Service: for all our dead will take place on Sunday 8th November at 3pm in St. Patrick's Church Derrygonnelly. All the dead will be remembered but in particular those who have died since November last year. All are welcome to attend. Light refreshments afterwards in the community centre to which everyone is invited.

Remembering our Dead: we traditionally remember the faithful departed during November, the month of the Holy Souls. A novena of nine masses will be offered for the repose of all our deceased – families, relatives, friends, the anonymous dead whom no one remembers in St. Patrick's. Lists are available at the back of each church, on which you can record the name of those whom you want remembered and prayed for. You are asked to put your lists in an envelope and place them in the basket provided on the sacred space at the front of the altar in St. Patrick's during mass times.

Memory Tree: During the month of November the memory tree will be in St Patrick's Church, where you can place the name of your loved one on a labels provided.

Mission Sunday: Thank You! Thanks for the envelopes returned as part of the World Missions Collection for Mission Sunday last weekend. Morning Reflection Prayer for Self-Confidence

Heavenly Father,
Thank You for the gift of a new day.
As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts.
Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely.
When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone. Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry.
Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become.
May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good.
Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen.

Points to Ponder

To love the Lord with all our heart – is this even possible? A common assumption is that love must just come, that it grows organically, and that it cannot be forced. That's infatuation, not true love. Any kind of love – for a parent, spouse, child, or friend – will reach a point during which it is no longer easy. For love to be true, it must be a free choice and commitment.

'All your heart, soul, and mind' sounds rather extreme, even rather dangerous. The world says that loving anyone totally is a risky proposition – what if the one we love rejects us or lets us down, leaving us with nothing? And the world is even more terrified to love God totally, who cannot even be seen.

This makes sense; after all, to love totally is to trust that we will find fulfilment precisely by not looking for it ourselves, but by looking to fulfil someone else. That old, almost clichéd phrase, 'love grows when it is given away,' is actually spot-on in this regard.

True love takes a leap of faith, which is what frightens nonbelievers. Many people are okay with going to church every now and then or volunteering for a charity from time to time (and posting it on Instagram, of course).

Loving like that does not require us to make any kind of leap, any kind of definitive change, any commitment. But loving God with everything means that all we do is for love of him. We trust that he will take care of us. That is heroic; that is what it means to be a saint.

The Guardian Angel. Our angel is not only with us; he also sees God the Father. He is in a relationship with him. He is the daily bridge; from the moment we arise to the moment we go to bed. He accompanies us and is a link between us and God the Father. The angel is the daily gateway to transcendence, to the encounter with the Father: that is, the angel helps me to go forward because he looks upon the Father, and he knows the way. Let us not forget these companions along the journey. Pope Francis October 2018

Angel of God, my guardian dear,

To whom God's love commits me here,

Ever this day be at my side

To light and guard, to rule and guide.

Amen

Reflection: What Is Our Life For?
Much of life today is spent managing responsibilities, meeting demands, going to appointments, and trying to find a little time for ourselves. Amid all this activity, we can gradually become less available to one another, often without noticing. Today's Gospel invites us to reconsider what our lives are for. Jesus places love of God and love of neighbour at the heart of everything. Our lives are not simply our own to manage. They are gifts received from God. And the same is true of everybody else. Each person matters to God, independently of what they may mean to us. Christian faith invites us to grow in our awareness of these relationships and to become more capable of living them. We do not become fully ourselves on our own. Our journey towards maturity, and ultimately towards heaven, is a journey into deeper communion with God and with one another. That is the life for which we have been created.
