A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

After reading this weekend's Gospel, one phrase comes to mind: "For those who have been given much, much is expected." I would like to reflect on William Barclay's interpretation of this Gospel. For Barclay, the characters are clear: the owner is God; the vineyard is Israel; the tenants are its religious leaders; the servants are the prophets; and the son is Jesus. The parable invites us to reflect on several important truths. God's generosity - The vineyard has already been planted and carefully prepared. Everything begins as a gift from God. Human responsibility. The tenants are entrusted with the vineyard. God gives us freedom, but that freedom also carries responsibility. God's patience. Servant after servant is sent. Even in the face of rejection, God continues to reach out. The rejection of Jesus. Finally, the owner sends his son. This points towards Jesus' own rejection and death. Judgment. God's patience should never be mistaken for indifference. His gifts are given for a purpose: they are meant to bear fruit. So what does this parable say to us today? We, too, have been entrusted with God's vineyard. We have received so many blessings: our faith, the Eucharist, the Word of God, Our Blessed Mother, the teaching and example of the saints, our families and parish, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and countless opportunities to love and serve. So perhaps we might ask ourselves: Do I realise how much God has blessed me? Am I making full use of the abundance of God's blessings? Am I producing the fruit He desires — love, holiness, generosity and mercy? God has entrusted His vineyard to us. What fruit is my life producing?
