

The Homily: "Breaking

Open the Word" What the Priest Is Doing

The homily is not a speech, a lecture, or a personal reflection. It is an act of the liturgy the Church's official unpacking of the Scripture just proclaimed.

The priest's task is to build a bridge between the ancient Word and the living congregation before him, helping ordinary people hear what God is saying to them today, in their actual lives.

A good homily costs the priest something.

Preparation, prayer, honest self-examination. When it works, it is because the preacher has first allowed the Word to break him open before breaking it open for others.

How We Should Respond

Resist the temptation to evaluate the homily as a performance. Instead, listen receptively asking not "is he a good preacher?" but "what is God saying to me through these words?" Even an imperfect homily can carry a genuine word if we are genuinely listening.

Living This at Mass

Carry one sentence from the homily into your week. Write it down if necessary. A single idea, genuinely lived, is worth more than a brilliantly delivered homily forgotten by Sunday afternoon.

POPE LEO XIV

Europe as we know it, with its spiritual and moral heritage, is rooted in the lives and work of men and women who lived, preached, and shared the teachings of the Gospel. From this heritage, the moral foundations of the world in which we live have been handed down to us: principles such as the primacy of the person and the sacred and inviolable nature of human life; the protection of freedom; the primary importance of the family; care for the poor and those most in need; welcoming the stranger; and respect for the elderly.

Entrance Longing for light , we wait in darkness .Longing for truth we turn to you.

Make us your own, your holy people, Light for the world to see..

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts . Shine through the darkness. Christ be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Longing for peace , our world is troubled. Longing for hope, many despair. Your word alone has power to save us. Make us your living voice.

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts . Shine through the darkness. Christ be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Recessional

As I kneel before you As I bow my head in prayer

Take this day, make it yours And fill me with your love

Ave Maria Gratia plena Dominus tecum
Benedicta tu

All I have I give you Every dream and wish are yours

Mother of Christ Mother of mine, present them to my Lord

Ave Maria Gratia plena Dominus tecum
Benedicta tu

As I kneel before you And I see your smiling face

Every thought, every word Is lost in your embrace

Ave Maria Gratia plena Dominus tecum
Benedicta tu
