As reliably as rain produces growth in parched ground so too does God’s Word, Jesus, bring to birth, in an ultimately unstoppable fashion, the Kingdom of God in this sinful world. Second Reading: Rom 8:18-23. Since the Fall of our First Parents, with the coming of Jesus, people filled with the Holy Spirit have struggled and go on struggling to bring to birth God’s great plan of salvation for the entire cosmos. Particularly we who have received the Spirit “groan inwardly as we wait for our bodies to be set free.” Gospel: Mt 13:1-23. Jesus knew that only some would be receptive to him. The Parable of the Sower is a metaphor for what goes in our hearts as we hear God’s Word. Those who reject it are in danger of losing even the measure of understanding that they begin with. Those who welcome and keep it produce a great harvest.	GUIDED HOLY HOUR The Holy Hour in honour of the Holy Face of Jesus continues this Sunday at 6pm in St Mary’s Oratory. All Welcome. DAY OF PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

Tuesday July 14 is our day of prayer for Marriage & Family Life. Theme: Grandparents & Great Grandparents.

Grandparents are such a vital part of the rearing of children. This has always been the case, but maybe it is the situation now more than ever when both parents have to work outside the home and need all the support and input they can get with their children.

Grandparents are particularly important in helping the children to grow into faith in Christ and to be part of the life of the Church now and all through their lives. The parish community needs to be a place where Grandparents constantly receive encouragement and help to do what they are best at. Pray for Grandparents all through this month and find the opportunities to highlight them in the life of the parish community.

We must reawaken the collective sense of gratitude, of appreciation, of hospitality, which makes the elderly feel like a living part of the community. Our elderly are men and women, fathers and mothers, who came before us on our own road, in our own house, in our daily battle for a worthy life. Very often it is grandparents who ensure that the most important values are passed down to their grandchildren, and many people can testify that they owe their initiation to the Christian life to their grandparents. Their words, their affection or simply their presence help children realise that history did not begin with them, that they are now part of an age-old pilgrimage and they need to respect all that came before them. July 26th is the feast of Saints Joachim & Anne, the parents of Mary, and of course the grandparents of Jesus.

BLESSING OF GRAVES

Annual Blessing of Graves will take place on Sunday August 16 in Clonmany Cemetery at 3pm, Cleagh Cemetery 4pm & Urris Cemetery 5pm.

ROSARY

The Rosary will continue on Wednesday evenings at 8:30pm at the Grotto in St Mary's Church, Clonmany—beginning July 15. All are welcome to join as we pray for peace.

CHIROPODIST

Patricia Barnett—Podiatrist/Chiropodist, will attend St Columbcille Centre, Clonmany on Wednesday July 15 from 9am-2pm. For an appointment call 0749363282.

THE RICH SOIL

A LOOK AT THE GARDEN

In Ireland, many people have lost touch with the meaning of the Christian Story. This means that the Story (often) makes sense only as a thing to do, like a tradition or an occasional event. As a result, it is easy pickings for the 'vultures' of secularism, because the seed of faith does not find rich soil.

Jesus tells us today that the seed of GOD's Word needs this rich soil if it is to bear fruit. Here, in Clonmany, it means we need always to figure out how we can better prepare the soil of our parish life, so that it is seen as more attractive and relevant.

A starting point is to stop doing the same unsuccessful things over and over again, and find a better way to tell our Story. It is to rediscover the firepower of the Gospel, and find new, creative, hope-filled and engaging ways to proclaim it.

This is the rich soil: sharing the Good News with a joy and attraction that connects with people's lives today.

Thank You

To everyone who ministers in our parish in any way. You help make our parish better for all of us ... and we are grateful.

Seeds of God's Promise

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us to think about how God's word works in our lives. Each reading uses simple images from the world around us. Rain, seeds, soil, and harvest all show how God's word brings life and hope.

These readings remind us that God always works with purpose.

In Isaiah, we hear how God's word is like rain that makes the earth fruitful. Paul tells us in Romans that creation itself longs for freedom and shares in our hope.

In the Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of the Sower to teach us that our hearts must be ready to receive God's word.

On the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, these passages come together to remind us that God's plan is certain. His word nourishes us, even when life feels dry or hard. With open hearts, we can grow strong in faith and bear much fruit.

The costly parrot trained to sow the word of God: Four brothers left home for college and became successful doctors and lawyers. Some years later, they had a reunion. They chatted after having dinner together. They discussed the gifts they had been able to give their elderly mother who lived in a faraway city and decided to open their mother's thank you letter to each. The first said, "I had a big house built for Mama." The second said, "I had a hundred-thousand-dollar theatre built in the house." The third said, "I had a Mercedes dealer deliver an SL600 to her." The fourth said, "You know how Mama loved reading the Bible, and you know she can't read anymore because she can't see very well? Well, I met a preacher who told me about a parrot that can recite the entire Bible. It took twenty preachers 12 years to teach him. I had to pledge to contribute $100,000 to the church, but it was worth it. Mama just has to name the chapter and verse, and the parrot will recite it." The other brothers were impressed. Then they solemnly opened the thank-you letters sent to them by their mom. Mama wrote: "Milton, the house you built is so huge. I live in only one room, but I have to clean the whole house. Thanks anyway." "Michael, you gave me an expensive theatre with Dolby sound, it could hold 50 people, but all my friends are dead, I've lost my hearing and I'm nearly blind. I'll never use it. Thank you for the gesture just the same." "Marvin, I am too old to travel. I stay at home and I have my groceries delivered, so I never use the Mercedes. The thought was good. Thanks." "Dearest Gerald", she wrote to her fourth son. "You have the good sense to know what your mother likes. I cooked the chicken you sent. It was absolutely delicious!"

Fourth Sunday of Advent Sunday 21 December

Christmas Message 2025

This week we will celebrate Christmas Day. The birth of Jesus Christ, over two thousand years ago, was a pivotal moment in the lives of many people at that time, and ever since. In a sense, we join the Angels, the Shepherds, and the Wise Men who rejoiced with Mary and Joseph at the birth of the long awaited Saviour of the world.

We join the apostles and the disciples - men and women - who knew Jesus personally, who walked with Him and worked with Him in those early days of spreading the Good News of God's love for us in sending His Son among us.

We join all those who, down the years and right up to our own time, have lived up to their baptismal promises to be God's people, living and handing on the faith to the generations coming behind them.

As we gather with family, friends, neighbours, and fellow parishioners for Christmas Mass and other celebrations, let us pledge ourselves to be a people of Faith, Hope, and Love in a world which needs the presence of Jesus Christ - through our care, our words, and our actions - now more than ever before.

Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.
Nollaig shona daoibh, agus Athbhliain faoi mhaise.

THE PARABLE EXPERIENCE –ENGAGE

Parables are not simply a 'story with a moral'; they are much more. Parables speak to the heart and command an alertness to all that is said and all that is unsaid. We need to pay attention to detail, but must also be careful not to miss the hidden meaning in the parable experience. The parable does not end once we are finished hearing or reading it. It stays with us; disturbs us; forces us to ponder. Parables should awaken our senses.

Today's parable highlights the various ways that we do not allow God's word to penetrate deep into our hearts and minds. Jesus tells the disciples; 'The reason I speak to them in parable is that 'seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen'. Jesus emphasises the enormous harvest that is waiting for those who really 'open their hearts'

If we are open to the parable experience, if the soil is truly receptive, perhaps the Word can affect us in the same way. In the coming Sundays we will hear more parables. Perhaps we can listen for the first time.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

Sunday 12th We must have faith in the power of God's word. It is the instrument by which God effects his purpose. It does not work automatically, but grows in a soil of faith and prayer. We have to be concerned about teaching, preaching and praying the Word and to work to ensure a receptive soil.

Monday 13th St Henry (973-1024) Duke of Bavaria and later emperor. A just ruler, humble man of prayer and reformer of the Church

Tuesday 14th St Camillus de Lellis (1550-1614) was rough-tempered and a gambler in his early life as a soldier, but was converted at the age of twenty-five. Guided by St Philip Neri, he became a priest and worked with the sick along with two companions. His Servants of the Sick prospered and founded hospitals. Patron of nurses, hospitals and the sick.

Wednesday 15th St Bonaventure (1221-1274) born in Tuscany, Minister General of the Franciscans, Cardinal Archbishop of Albano and theologian of the Council of Lyons.

Sunday 19th 11.30am Mass will be celebrated in Ballybrack.

Mass this week in St Pius X: Monday to Friday 10am. Saturday 6.30pm; Sunday 10am.

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 13:1-23

In today’s Gospel, Jesus paints a familiar image of a farmer scattering seed with remarkable generosity. The seed falls on every kind of ground, reminding us that God offers His grace and His word to everyone without exception. The difference lies not in the quality of the seed, but in the condition of the soil that receives it.

Jesus invites us to reflect honestly on our own hearts. At different times we may recognise ourselves in each type of soil. We can become hardened by disappointment, shallow in our commitment, or distracted by the pressures and attractions of daily life. Yet the Lord never stops sowing. He continues to speak to us through the Scriptures, the Sacraments, the Church, and the quiet moments of prayer.

The good soil is the heart that remains open, patient, and willing to be transformed by God's grace. Such a heart does not simply hear the word but lives it. The fruit it bears is seen in acts of kindness, forgiveness, generosity, and faithful discipleship.

As we listen to God's word this week, may we ask the Holy Spirit to break up whatever has become hard within us, remove the thorns that hinder our growth, and deepen our roots in Christ. Then the seed of the Gospel will flourish, bearing an abundant harvest for the glory of God and the service of our neighbour.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: We pray for the men called to serve the Church as priests of our diocese, that their hearts will be the fertile soil Jesus needs to receive the seed which is His Word, and that they will spread His Word, His Good News, by their preaching and by the example of their lives.

On 16th July, the Church celebrates the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, a day that reminds us of Mary's loving care and constant intercession for all who turn to her. The title "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" comes from Mount Carmel in the Holy Land, where Christian hermits lived lives of prayer and eventually formed the Carmelite Order. They looked to Mary as their Mother, Protector, and model of faithful discipleship. The Brown Scapular, closely associated with this feast, is a sign of devotion to Our Lady and a reminder of our call to live as faithful followers of Christ. Mary's response to God's call was one of trust and wholehearted surrender. Her example encourages us to deepen our own prayer, to place our confidence in God's providence, and to bring Christ's love to those around us through simple acts of kindness and service. Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Welcoming the People of God”

Throughout the Old Testament readings that we hear during the year, there are many instances of hospitality shown. In many ways this was seen as an essential part of the culture of the time. This is not just hospitality for immediate family and friends, but also in a more special way caring for the stranger. Without knowing who he was, we hear in this Sunday's readings that the prophet Elisha was welcomed by the stranger as a Holy Man of God.

Significantly, on the feast of Saints Peter and Paul which we celebrate this Monday (29 June), in this parish we mark forty years since the late Bishop Edward Daly rededicated St. Columb's Church following its renovation in the previous years. It is worth reflecting on this, the Church as our spiritual family home. We think of the tears of the funerals and maybe also at a wedding! The joys of celebrating the sacraments of First Holy Communion, baptisms, marriages, confirmations and ordinations that many of us attended in the years before and since and for many years to come.

But our parish churches, while a special and beautiful place of solitude, prayer, worship and many memories, are only the place where we receive our spiritual nourishment in Word and Sacrament of the Body of Christ. Yet the 'Body of Christ' is more than only receiving Holy Communion at Mass. By our baptism, we the people and those gone before us in faith of the Parish, the Diocese and the whole Church are the Body of Christ. We are sent out to live what we receive in our words and actions. In our time as we gather for Mass, as a parish community welcome all the people of God, familiar faces and the stranger alike who make up the Body of Christ around us. When we truly welcome any of the people of God, we trust that we welcome Christ and indeed we welcome the one who sent him.

Baptisms – We welcome into the family of God Hallie Grace McCartney, Whitethorn Drive and Eva Sophie Crossan, Birch Hill.

Deaths – We offer our sympathy to the family and friends of Tom Frawley, Rosswater and John Doran, Violet Street.

Thought for the Day

We are rarely asked for a cup of water. But the rewards promised by Jesus extend beyond individual almsgiving to those who work for others in a thousand hidden ways, for instance maintaining a city water system, or caring for public hygiene, as civil servants, plumbers, engineers, scientists, streetcleaners or parents of families. We live in a more complex society, but the same care and generosity are found in all walks of life, wherever people devote themselves to the service of others.

Thank you, Lord, for the opportunities I have to serve others.
