In the film adaption of the Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe from the novels of CS Lewis, one of most insightful and thought provoking scenes for me, at least, is when Aslan, the lion speaks to Edmund, one of the children about his transgression. Edmund has betrayed his family by following a wicked witch. When he does come back to his family, we see Aslan, the majestic guardian of Narnia speak to Edmund but at a distance. We do not know what is being said, the matter is being dealt with quietly as it should be, minimising the embarrassment of the offender, who in this case is very much aware of his transgression and shame.

The Gospel today puts the responsibility on the offended party, on us, to go speak to those who have wronged us, to speak to them quietly, to point out how they have sinned against us, to offer them forgiveness and hence to put them back on the path to God. Before we decide to do this we must be clear in our intentions and be sure of whose needs we are filling – it cannot be our goal to cause embarrassment or to seek revenge. God calls us to put our needs to one side in this case and to seek redemption for our brother who has turned himself away from God's grace.

Jesus provides steps for doing this. After quietly speaking to your brother, if he will not listen bring witnesses who may convince him. This reminds us that if we are unsuccessful in our attempts we should not give up. If we have been unsuccessful in our attempts are there others who can help – again being mindful of whose needs need to be filled. Matthew closes this passage reassuringly telling us forgiveness belongs to that person where it has been agreed upon by others.

Anxiety

*Lord, I am anxious about my future.
But your love will support me.
Do not disappoint me.*

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

*For where two or three are gathered in my name,
I am there among them. Matt 18:20*
