A massive thank you to our fantastic U10 girls & boys who braved the weather conditions on Saturday last to form a Guard of Honour for our Intermediate A Hurlers and Junior B Camogie Team at their County Finals.

Despite the wind and rain, you all turned out to show your support, and we couldn't be prouder of you. A wonderful display of club spirit and pride. You are the future of our club, and hopefully one day it will be your turn to take to the field for a County Final.

Unfortunately, it wasn't our day for the teams, but it's great to get to a County final.

PRESENTATION SISTERS 250th ANNIVERSARY

On Christmas Eve in 1775 in a little cabin in Cove Lane, Cork, Nano Nagle, with three companions, began what she called 'a little foundation' and 'a work of God'. That 'little foundation' is now known as the Congregation of Presentation Sisters. Nano Nagle was born in 1718 in Ballygriffin, near Mallow, North Cork, the eldest of seven children born to Garret and Ann Nangle. Her home was in the valley of the Blackwater, near the Nagle mountains, so named after her ancestors, wealthy Catholic landowners. The Penal Laws made it unlawful for Catholics to open a school, to teach in one or to travel overseas for education. Nano and her sister Ann were able to travel to the continent, smuggled, perhaps in a cargo ship. They were educated for 6 years at the Benedictine Convent in Ypres. On leaving, they moved to Paris for finishing school. After her father's death in 1746 she and her sister returned to Ireland to live with their mother in Dublin, where they encountered widespread poverty. They got involved in charitable works, but with obstacles on all sides, she could not see a way to serve the poor. Back in Cork in the early 1750's Nano rented a cabin in Cove Lane and set up her first school in defiance of the law. There she welcomed about thirty children, all girls, the poorest of the poor. Within a year she had five schools for girls and boys. Nano employed teachers at her own expense and insisted that literacy, numeracy and life-skills, as well as religious education, were part of the daily curriculum. She visited her schools each day and personally supervised catechesis and preparation of children for the sacraments. Nano Nagle will be remembered as benefactor of the poor, friend of the sick and homeless, as the 'Lady of the Lantern', treading the dangerous lanes and alleys of Cork by night to bring comfort to the sick and lonely. Her vision of education extended beyond the classrooms. She raised the statis of women and girls through schools of lacemaking and crafts – cottage industries that meant livelihood for families. She introduced the Ursuline Sisters to Ireland. She befriended prostitutes and ‘beggars brats’ and trained boy-missionaries destined for the sugar plantations in West Indies. She purchased a plot in St. Finbarr’s Cemetery for abandoned women, founded an alms-house and took to the streets as a beggar to fund her schools. For these and other things, Nano Nagle will be remembered and celebrated. In her letters there is no mention of Nano’s call to consecrated life. She had been led by the Spirit into founding a new type of religious congregation, where members were to live a vowed life without enclosure. Her followers, and others, 250 years later continue to celebrate that ‘work of God’. Declared venerable by the Church in 2013, Nano Nagle is on the path to beatification and canonisation. She died on 26th April 1784 at her Convent on Douglas Street, Cork. (Sr. Mary Brien – Messenger Magazine)

St. Padre Pio Healing Mass with blessing of the Glove will take place in St. Aidan's Church, Ferns on Monday 2nd November, Feast of all Holy Souls at 7.30pm. Individual Blessing the Glove of St. Padre Pio. Confessions available throughout. All are welcome.

THE YEW TREE

The Yew Tree became known as guardians of the graveyards from earlier times. Yew Trees growing in church yards were thought to protect the spirits of the dead. Because of the Yew Tree is an evergreen tree of extreme longevity, the ancient custom of mourners of putting sprigs of yew into shrouds and on the graves of the departed showed they believed death was not the end of life but merely a passing through into the continuance of life to come. The Yew came to symbolise resurrection and is used in Church at Easter time.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

In life have a friend that is like a mirror and shadow:

Mirror doesn't lie and shadow never leaves you.

NORMS FOR INDULGENCES AT THE COMMENMORATION OF ALL SOULS.

1. From 12 noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (One Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain a plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles Creed.

This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time withing the week preceding or the week following 1st November.

2. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st – 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.

Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church, sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.

And when our earthly journey is ended, lead us rejoicing into your kingdom, where you live for ever and ever. Amen

As the poet says:

Is there a leaf upon the tree

The Father does not see?

Leaves fall, so do we all

Return to earth, to sod.

Sparrows and kings,

And all manner of things

Fall, fall into the hands

Of the living God

DID YOU KNOW? (Ireland's Own)

Of the ancient seven wonders of the world, only the pyramids of Egypt still survive.

The hands of a clock form a right-angle 44 times in the course of a day.

A SMILE – LEISURE

Little Jimmy was doing his homework, "what does 'leisure' mean he asked his dad. "It means the couple of minutes rest, I get" sighed his father, while your mother is thinking up something else for me to do.

HAPPY HALLOWE'EN EVERYONE!

A thought for the weekend….

In the parable, the foolish bridesmaids ask the wise ones to share their oil when the groom is delayed but are told they must buy their own.

This illustrates personal responsibility. Grace faith prayer and good works can't be borrowed from a spouse parent friend or priest.

Each Christian is individually commissioned at Baptism to keep their own lamp burning and can't rely on someone else's spiritual life.

Given this, we're asked to reflect on my own response to Jesus' call. How am I in terms of nurturing my faith development, my personal prayer and my commitment to sharing Christ with others?

As a community of faith, we gather either daily or on weekends to celebrate Mass (Eucharist).

The Eucharist acts as the "source and summit" of your faith development and an intimate, direct encounter with Jesus Christ. Rather than a mere symbol or ritual, it is a living relationship that provides the ultimate spiritual support for your journey.

Today, you're here to celebrate the Eucharist, find support from your community and to pray for the strength to be missionaries for Christ throughout the coming week.

LAUNCH OF NEW POETRY COLLECTION

Among the Fields of God draws on Sean O'Leary's experiences of working with parish communities across the Diocese of Ferns and accompanying participants in pastoral ministry programmes. The poems celebrate the quiet faith, generosity and service of priests, parish volunteers, lay ministers, catechists and many others who sustain parish life. The launch takes place on Saturday 28 November at 11.00am in the Pastoral Centre, St Peter's College, Wexford. Among the Fields of God will be available on the day and all proceeds will go to support 'Our Future Church'.

Youth Ministry Church Gate Collection

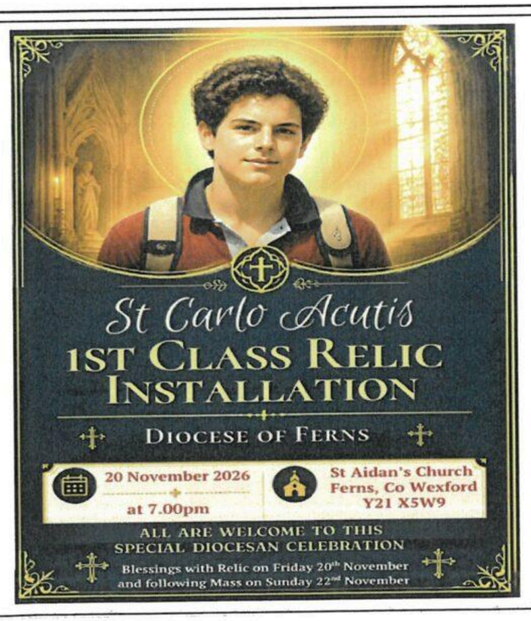

This year, 30 young people have signed up to take part in the youth pilgrimage to Medjugorje. The pilgrimage provides a wonderful opportunity for our young people to grow in their faith, strengthen friendships and deepen their spiritual journey.
The church gate collection this weekend will provide an opportunity for the young people to raise some funds towards the cost of the pilgrimage and to support the work of Ferns Youth Ministry.
Any support, no matter how small, would be greatly appreciated and will go directly towards the costs of the pilgrimage.

Feast Days for the Coming Week

Sunday 1st November - All Saints honours those Holy men and women – true friends of God – who decided to trod the path of the Beatitudes. They learned to know themselves and to direct their efforts toward God, toward themselves and toward others, knowing in their weakness how to trust in the divine mercy. Through this feast, the Church shows us the saints who are at our side, friends of God and models of a blessed life who intercede for us.

Monday 2th November - All Souls honours the Holy Souls who have gone before us. We are reminded in scripture that "It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins," and so we offer Masses, prayers and visit cemeteries at this time.

Tuesday 3rd November - St Malachy. Born near Armagh in 1094, St Malachy rose through the Church to become Bishop of Armagh. He visited St Bernard of Clairvaux on his journey to Rome in 1139 and is responsible for founding the monastery of Mellifont, the first Cistercian house in Ireland. In 1148, he again set out for Rome to meet the Pope, but fell ill with fever at Clairvaux where he died in the arms of St Bernard.

Wednesday 4th November - St Charles Borromeo 1538-84. A key Counter-Reformation figure in the history of the Church, St Charles was appointed Bishop of Milan at the age of just 21. He worked tirelessly for the reform of his diocese and was responsible for drafting the Catechism of the Council of Trent. He is the patron saint of catechists and seminarians.

Thursday 5th November - St Martin de Porres 1579-1639. Born in Lima, Peru, St Martin became a lay brother of the Dominican Order. Having experienced poverty as a child after his father abandoned the family, Martin was always sensitive to the plight of the poor. From a young age he would often pray through the night and during the day devoted himself to the most menial of tasks.

His love of animals is often portrayed in images of St Martin where you will sometimes see the mice that he fed at the kitchen doors. St Martin died surrounded by his brothers reciting the Credo at the words "et homo factus est."

Friday 6th November - All the Saints of Ireland honours those countless men and woman who dedicated their lives to the Lord and were rewarded by sharing in his presence in heaven. Ireland, the land of saints and scholars, has raised many great figures to this height and we pray that through their intercession our Church on this island may continue to lead people to sanctity. Truly, we are all called to be saints.

Saturday 7th November - St Willibrord. Born in Northumbria in 658, St Willibrord entered the Benedictine order and spent twelve years studying at the monastery of Rath Melsigi in Co. Carlow before travelling to Frisia to evangelise. He was ordained Bishop of Utrecht by Pope Sergius I and founded a monastery at Echternach in Luxembourg in 700, where he died in 739.

"Always consider others as more holy and more worthy than you, at the same time strive to be as holy as you can be."
- St Martin de Porres

Veneration Of Relics

Today is the Feast Of All Saints when we are reminded of those pre-eminent disciples of the Lord who have been raised to the glory of sainthood. In honour of this great Feast Day, the holy relics of the saints held in St Michael's will be available for veneration after Mass.

Candlelight Prayers In St Michael's Cemetery

Our annual candlelight prayer service will take place in St Michael's cemetery on Monday 2nd November at 7pm. This special service honours and remembers all those buried in our parish cemetery.

Mass Of Remembrance

Our annual Mass of Remembrance for those who have died during the year will take place on Sunday 8th November at 10am in St Michael's church and at 12 noon in St Kevin's church.

Visits Of The Capuchins During Advent

In honour of the Jubilee Year of St Francis of Assisi, and as part of our preparations for the celebration of Christmas, the Capuchin Friars will visit our church during Advent on the evenings of Wednesday 2nd, Wednesday 9th and Wednesday 16th December. Each evening will commence with 6:30pm Mass and have a different theme.

Wednesday 2nd December - an introduction to St Francis: listening to God's call, followed by a blessing with the relic of St Francis of Assisi.

Wednesday 9th December - exploring the story of Padre Pio: Minister of God's Mercy and Healing, followed by a blessing with the glove of St Pio.

Wednesday 16th December - looking at the association between St Francis and the Christmas crib followed by prayers around the crib.

Wall Of Remembrance

The month of November is dedicated to remembering the Holy Souls. Please contact the parish office if you would like to add your loved one's name/names to the Wall of Remembrance in St Michael's church.

November - Month Of The Dead

November is the month when we remember our dead in a special way - by having Masses said, praying for, and offering indulgences on behalf of the departed. We are reminded of the indelible link between the Church Militant (on Earth), the Church Penitent (in Purgatory), and the Church Triumphant (in Heaven). While we pray for those undergoing the purification of Purgatory, we ask the intercession of those who have already attained the eternal glory of Heaven.

During this special month, we invite you to remember the departed by using the Pious Lists and our parish prayer card for the dead, which are available at the back of the church. Masses will be offered for the dead throughout the month of November. We also encourage you to offer works of charity on behalf of your departed. Our Mass Association cards for the departed are available in the Parish Office. Those enrolled in the Mass Association will be remembered at Mass every Saturday morning at 10am for one year.

Pope Leo's Intention for November
For the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity with those who have little.

When you lose someone you love,
Your life becomes strange,
The ground beneath you becomes fragile,
Your thoughts make your eyes unsure;
And some dead echo drags your voice down
Where words have no confidence
Your heart has grown heavy with loss;
And though this loss has wounded others too,
No one knows what has been taken from you
When the silence of absence deepens.

Flickers of guilt kindle regret
For all that was left unsaid or undone.

There are days when you wake up happy;
Again inside the fullness of life,
Until the moment breaks
And you are thrown back Onto the black tide of loss.

Days when you have your heart back

You are able to function well,
Until in the middle of work or encounter
Suddenly with no warning,
You are ambushed by grief

It becomes hard to trust yourself.
All you can depend on now is that Sorrow will remain faithful to itself.
More than you, it knows its way
And will find the right time
To pull and pull the rope of grief
Until that coiled hill of tears
Has reduced to its last drop.

Gradually, you will learn acquaintance
With the invisible form of your departed;
And when the work of grief is done,
The wound of loss will heal
And you will have learned
To wean your eyes

From that gap in the air
And be able to enter the hearth
In your soul where your loved one
Has awaited your return
All the time

Feast of All Saints —1st November 2026

As we enter the winter, we come to the Sabbath time of year, when nature rests. In our anxiety to go places and do things in our busy lives, we miss things in the world about us and lose opportunities for grace. A sense of Sabbath, a commitment to taking time and space out of our busy lives and giving it to the sacred, can restore our openness to grace and make us alive to the miracles around us. (Sr Stanislaus Kennedy, Gardening the Soul)

Reflection on the Gospel for the Feast of All Saints
In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us to follow the challenging yet life-giving Way of the Beatitudes. He calls us to choose humility, compassion, justice, and peace over wealth, power, and popularity. This way of life asks us to look beyond ourselves, show mercy, and stand with those who are struggling. The Beatitudes are more than words to admire—they are an invitation to shape our choices each day. How can we live them more fully and bring God's love and hope to those around us?

Get Your Candles This Weekend
Let a candle carry your love and remembrance to those who have gone before us. Candles and LED candles are available at St Mary's Church, Kilmore, this weekend and for the next two weeks. Call in to get yours and remember your loved ones in this special way. They are available at the top of the church with a donation of two euros per candle.
All are warmly invited to the Memorial Prayer Service at St Mary's Church on Monday, November 2, at 7.00 pm. After the service, we will walk together in a candlelit procession to the graveyard, where we will pray for our departed loved ones and place our lights on their graves.

ALL THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A LOVED ONE IN THE PAST YEAR ARE INVITED TO LEAD THE PROCESSION.

Praying for the Dead in November
In November, beginning with the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, the Church invites us to pause and remember those who have died. In a world that moves quickly and often leaves little space for reflection, taking time to pray for our loved ones is a meaningful act of love. It keeps their memory close and expresses our faith in the Communion of Saints—that we remain united in God's love, even in death. In all our churches, you can pick up a November altar list of the Dead and write out the names of all your loved ones and place them in the special place reserved for them at the top of the church.
As Pope Leo reminds us, reflecting on death can help us recognise what truly matters and choose how we want to live. Remembering those who have gone before us can inspire us to cherish the people beside us, live with greater kindness, and place our hope in God.

Jesus himself commonly points to things like the red sky, a hen, lilies, the fig tree, a donkey caught in a pit, the birds of the air, the grass in the field, the temple animals that he released from their cages, and on and on. He was clearly looking at the seemingly "nonreligious" world, ordinary things all around him, and appeared to do most of his teaching outside.

Imagine how different the world would be if we just obeyed that one commandment to love our neighbour as we love ourselves. (Richard Rohr) and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God have mercy on us…..
Amen.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity,
so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are yours.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ…..

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Wisdom 6: 12 -16

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.
By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her,
she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble;
you will find her sitting at your gates.
Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go,
in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 62:2-8

R. For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water. (R)

2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. (R)

3. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. (R)

4. On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night for you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. (R)

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 (shorter form 4:13-14)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians.

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 25: 1-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this:
Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

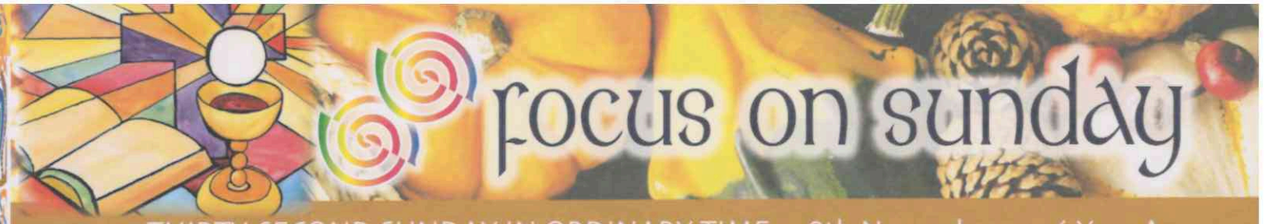

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
All bow for following three lines:
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

We are called to follow Jesus.
We are called in a way that will prepare us for heaven and our eternal life of friendship with God.

Focus

We prepare in advance for things that are important to us in our lives. Whether these are holidays, exams, interviews, or meeting loved ones, our preparation indicates the value we place on what we are preparing for.

Today's Gospel paints five bridesmaids in a rather unfortunate light. In first-century Israel, wedding feasts were strictly guarded to prevent intruders and, once the wedding party entered, the door was locked. The wedding party were identified by their roles as light-bearing ushers, and the word lampas used in the Gospel referred to outdoor torches, which were long sticks with oil-soaked rags wrapped tightly around the top. They burned extremely quickly, needing large amounts of oil. Therefore, it would have been culturally inexplicable to come to the wedding without extra oil. The wise bridesmaids simply could not share their oil, as this risked all torches burning out, leaving the bridal walk to the groom's house in pitch darkness and disarray. Plus, without a lit lamp, one could not be identified as a member of the wedding party, resulting in the ultimate rebuttal in the words " I do not know you".

These words echo Peter's betrayal of Jesus. Betrayal is based on lack of trust and a loss of confidence. The five foolish bridesmaids were not prepared for the coming of the bridal party. What does this tell us about their values? What can it tell us about where we put our time and energy in our lives, and what we value?

History Notes - Part 148:
ANCIENT HURLING TALES
Perhaps the earliest hurling tale is that of Cuchulainn who tamed the guard dog by striking his hurling ball down the dog's throat. In later centuries, and before the game was codified and developed by the GAA, the game was popular as a summertime activity. Before goalposts were thought of, a single willow (sally) post was used, with both ends sunk in the ground to form a hoop. A goal was scored when the ball was passed through the hoop from either side, and the game was decided by the scoring of one or more goals, as agreed by the teams before the match. Rules were fairly basic, and numbers of players per team was again a matter of agreement. The sponsors of hurling were often the local landlord and each had a team of tenants. Caesar Colclough of the Duffrey had a famous hurling team which he brought by invitation to Wales to play the team of a local landlord there. The Duffrey team wore yellow sashes to distinguish them from the opposition, and an important Walsh lady at the game supporting the Duffrey men, shouted "Come on the Yellowbellies!". And our Wexford Yellowbellies hurl on to this day.
