Commencing at 2.30pm with the sacrament of the anointing of the sick. A Day of grace and blessing for the whole family as we honour grandparents and the elderly. All are welcome.

Prayer for Father's Day: Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, his foster father. Bless all fathers and grandfathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience, give them the ability to love in a way that reflects your love. Support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to you for love and salvation. Help us to love them in a way that would bring honor to You and them. Bless and heal all those wounded by the imperfections of their fathers and grant an eternal rest to our fathers you have called from this life to yourself, through Jesus Christ Lord. Amen

Most Holy Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His Most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners.

21Ú MEITHEAMH 2026 - AN DARA DOMHNACH DÉAG - A

Reflection

In March 2018, Fr Tony Coote, a 53 year old Dublin priest, was diagnosed with the dreaded Motor Neuron Disease, and died 18 months later. Before his death he wrote an inspiring memoir about his life entitled Live While you Can. It became an instant best-seller. The final words of Tony’s memoir were: ‘When the train stops, I will step onto that platform with hope and no fear.’ The words ‘Fear not’ are the most frequent words spoken by Jesus to his disciples. In today’s gospel they occur three times. But what is Jesus really saying when he tells them not to be afraid? Certainly, he is not giving them, or us, the false assurance that we have nothing to fear. Down through the centuries, all true disciples of Jesus have met with opposition from those who benefit from the unjust status quo. In recent decades, violent persecution of Christians has been on rise. Speaking to diplomats on the 9th January this year, Pope Leo stated that ‘the persecution of Christians remains one of the most widespread human rights’ crises today, affecting over 380 million believers worldwide. They suffer high or extreme levels of discrimination, violence or oppression because of their faith’. According to the 2026 World Watch List (WWL) report, the number of Christians suffering persecution rose by 8 million over the past year. In face of such opposition and persecution, Jesus urges his disciples not to allow their genuine fears to cripple them, but to continue to proclaim the truth of the gospel and to witness to him publicly. He assures them that the truth that the powerful elites try to cover up will eventually be revealed: ‘Nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known’ (Mt 10:26). He reassures them of the Father’s love and care for them: ‘Even the hairs of your head are all counted’ (Mt 10:30). And he ends by making them this promise: ‘Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven’ (Mt 10:32).
So we pray: Lord, grant us the courage to stake our lives on the truth of your word. Amen.

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Zachária fáidh.

9:9-10.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna:

"A iníon Sión, déan lúcháir agus gáire i do chroí; tóg gártha, a iníon Iarúsailéim. Féach, tá do rí ag teacht chugat go mórtasach slán, agus é go ceansa, ag marcaíocht ar asal, agus ar shearrach asail. Scuabfaidh sé an carbad chun siúil as Efraim agus an capall as Iarúsailéim; brisfear an bogha cogaidh. Labhróidh sé leis na náisiúin faoin tsíocháin agus beidh sé i réim ó mhuir go muir agus ón abhainn go críocha na cruinne"

Briathar an Tiarna.

FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM

Beannóidh mé d'ainm de shíor,

mo Dhia agus mo Rí.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

8:9, 11-13.

A bhráithre, ní faoi réir na colainne atá sibhse ach faoi réir an Spioraid, más fíor go gcónaíonn Spiorad Dé ionaibh. Go deimhin, má bhíonn Spiorad an té a thóg Íosa ó mhairbh ina chónaí ionaibh, deanfaidh an té sin a thóg Críost ó mhairbh bhur gcorp básmhar a bheochan trína Spiorad atá ina chónaí ionaibh. Ar an ábhar sin, a bhráithre, níl aon cheangal ag an gcolainn orainn. Más de réir na colainne a mhaireann sibh, tá an bás in ndán daoibh; ach má chuireann sibh gníomhartha na colainne faoi smacht le cúnamh an Spioraid, mairfidh sibh beo.

Briathar an Tiarna.

FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Bíodh teachtaireacht Chríost ina cónaí faoi rath ionaibh. Gabhaigí buíochas trí Chríost le Dia ár nAthair.

Alleluia!

SOISCÉAL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú.

11:25-30.

San am sin labhair Íosa agus dúirt: "Bheirim buíochas duit, a Athair, a Thiarna neimhe agus talún, de bhrí gur cheil tú na nithe seo ar lucht eagna agus éirime agus mar a d'fhoilsigh tú do naíonáin iad. Is ea, a Athair, óir is amhlaidh sin ba mhaith leat é. Tá gach aon ní tugtha domsa ag m'Athair; agus níl aithne ag aoineach ar an Mac ach amháin ag an Athair, ná níl

To mark the 125th Anniversary of the consecration of the Cathedral of Saints Eunan and Columba, Letterkenny, the Holy See has granted a Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions. It may be obtained as follows:
The Plenary Indulgence may be obtained under the usual conditions by any of the faithful who, rightly disposed, participate in the liturgical life of the Cathedral with the intention of gaining the Indulgence, beginning with the Mass of Chrism on Holy Thursday of this year and concluding with the feast of the Epiphany, 6th January 2027. The same Indulgence may be obtained by the sick and others who, unable to leave their homes, participate spiritually in the same liturgical services by electronic means.
The Indulgence may be gained under the usual conditions by all who piously come on pilgrimage to the Cathedral in the aforementioned period with that purpose in mind.
The same Indulgence is extended to those who wish to obtain it by spending at least one hour in Eucharistic Adoration at the St. Pius X Chapel of Perpetual Adoration in the grounds of the Cathedral.
To obtain an indulgence, the usual conditions of detachment from all sin, Sacramental Confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Pope must be met within 7 days.

Why Sunday Matters
Our invitation to reflect on Sunday Mass is presented through the lens of Synodality - Communion, Participation, and Mission - reminding us that the Eucharist is not just a personal encounter with Christ but also a communal experience that unites us all as the People of God... Mass is not just a personal act of devotion; it is a communal act of worship. We go to God together. The Sunday Mass is where the Church is most visibly alive, 'and where every member of the community plays an essential role. Each person's participation is needed for the Church to truly live.
'We are deeply thankful to priests, ministers and all those who gather to celebrate Mass. Special gratitude goes to those involved in liturgical ministries, such as Ministers of the Word, of Holy Communion, Music Ministers, Sacristans, and Altar Servers. Encouraging the return of young people as Altar Servers is especially important and should be actively supported by their families and parish.
(Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, Why Sunday Matters, 2025)

FEAR NO ONE was the title of Bishop Barron's homily for last Sunday: tiny.cc/BRBFEAR . When our lives are committed to Jesus it helps us to be detached from the anxieties of life.

Today, Sunday 21st June the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The Humanity of the Unborn Child which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read full bishops' message visit councilforlife.ie

Thought for the Day

"O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.

Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

To the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life."

A Word of Gratitude from Fr Colm

I had a memorable weekend celebrating the Golden Jubilee of my Ordination. With the Church of my Ordination, Teach Pobail Mhuire, Derrybeg, being destroyed by fire a year last Easter, I celebrated Mass at home with family and neighbours last Saturday, followed by a delightful meal. On Sunday I celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Mary of the Visitation Church here in Killybegs at 11am, followed by refreshments in Foresters Hall. Both celebrations touched me deeply as did the presence of so many. My sincere gratitude to everyone concerned.

There was a great atmosphere in the Chapel on Sunday and indeed I found it very emotional. Some family members were present, with my brother Fr. Seán concelebrating, along with Fr. Charlie Byrne. Ministers of the Word and Eucharist, Gift Bearers, Collectors and Altar Servers played their part, along with our exceptional Parish Choir, who presented me with a lovely gift, accompanied by song. Plunkett Smith was there to keep a visual record, along with Thomas Gallagher of the Donegal Democrat.

Our beautiful Church is so conducive to liturgical celebrations and the presence of a vibrant and appreciative faith-community made it such a memorable celebration for me, receiving such warm and heartfelt congratulations and good wishes, along with a multitude of cards and gifts, for which I am deeply grateful. Thank you sincerely for your kindness, thoughtfulness and generosity.

I did not expect Foresters Hall to be full to capacity and the refreshments served by Stephanie McHugh and her team were greatly appreciated. Thank you, Stephanie, for spearheading the operation with such precision and cheerfulness and thanks to everyone who helped, giving so generously of their time and energy. Thanks also to the Foresters Hall Committee.

Celebrating with my own family on Saturday and celebrating with the parish community and friends here in Killybegs on Sunday meant so much to me and marked the Golden Jubilee of my Ordination in the most memorable way possible.

Moladh go deo le Dia! Blessed be God forever!

Entrance Hymn: Let There Be Love

Let there be love shared among us
Let there be love in our eyes,
and let your love sweep this nation,
Cause us, O Lord, to arise.
Give us a fresh understanding,
Brotherly love that is real.
Let there be love shared among us, let there be love
Let there be peace shared among us....
Let there be joy shared among us.....

Final Hymn: Go now in peace together today.
Jesus is here in a very special way.
Tell all you meet that he is gentle and kind.
Praise him and love him in body, soul and mind
Go in Peace! Go in Love!
Go in Joy, every girl and boy. (x2)
Bring all the love we've had here today.
Share it around, don't let it fade away.
Love one another as Jesus Christ loves you.
Praise him and love him in everything you do.

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

28th June 2026 – Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

STEP BY STEP THROUGH THE MASSThe Liturgy of the Word (Part 12) – The Prayers of the Faithful

Once we have made our Profession of faith with the recitation of the Creed, we move on to the final part of the Liturgy of the Word at Mass; namely: The Prayers of the Faithful – sometimes called the Bidding Prayers. These prayers are not inconsequential pious throw-aways – they are an expression of our union with Christ, praying as the Body of Christ in response to the Word of God – praying through him, with him and in him – which is why the prayers are ordinarily made (though not bindingly prescribed) as an addressed to God the Father.

The Church asks that this prayer be relatively short, as opposed to long winded paragraphs, and that they should ordinarily be prayers that gather the whole Church and World into the intentions of this congregation gathered for this Mass on this Sunday. These prayers, therefore, are not ordinarily a moment to be specific about a given private or very local issue. For example, while we might pray for good weather for the farming community to do its important business, we wouldn't be so specific as to pray that Farmer John gets his farming work done. Of course, anyone who knows our local Farmer John can include him in their participation in the prayer – the prayer spoken from the Ambo is usually more wide ranging rather than specific. Exceptions are permitted by the Church when the congregation is gathered for a specific ceremony or celebration: Funerals, Confirmations, Weddings etc.

For the Prayers of the Faithful the Church has guidelines to follow. The order of the prayers is usually: for the needs of the Church, for public authorities and the Salvation of the whole world; for grave difficulties that afflict people and even nations; then finally for the local community. At the end of each prayer the acclamation is spoken: "Lord hear us!" The congregation replies: "Lord, graciously hear us!" We call out to God, confident that he will hear us. We are encouraged by the Word of God which will have recounted to us something of God's past interventions with the human race; especially in sending his Only Begotten Son, Jesus. In effect, in faith we are presenting him the difficulties that afflict our present world asking him to intervene with his grace, power, mercy and love as we know he has done in the past, especially as we have heard from the Sacred Scriptures.

So, the Bidding Prayers are no mere formality. They are meant to be heartfelt pleas to God the Father, made IN the Holy Spirit, BY us, THROUGH Christ Jesus. In faith we call out: "Lord graciously hear us!"

Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament has been established in this parish for a long time. However, over the years, times and days have been changed to accommodate people and situations. We are presently undertaking a review of the Adoration times and days in all three parish churches. You might let Fr Kelly or any members of the Parish of Raphoe Committee know your ideas.

When we have listened to your ideas we will be in a much better position to make the right decisions regarding Adoration in the parish of Raphoe. Every hour is in itself a commitment and so all the adorers have to make good commitment. It seems nowadays people do not like making such commitments. So please pray about this and let Fr Kelly or anyone on the Parish of Raphoe Committee know your thoughts on Adoration in our parish.

Vocations Monstrance (Blessed by Pope Leo) in the Diocese of Raphoe from 21st to 4th July

The "Vocations Monstrance" is part of the Church's ongoing commitment to promote and foster vocations to the priesthood and to religious life. The monstrance will be in various churches in the Diocese to encourage prayer for vocations and to deepen young people's awareness of God's call in their lives. Through prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we ask the Lord to raise up generous and joyful servants for His Church. Vocations are born in prayer, sustained by prayer, and strengthened through prayer. Any parish wishing to have the "Vocations Monstrance" during these 2 weeks, please contact Fr Rory Brady at vocations@raphoediocese.ie.

Thank you

I would like to express my sincere thanks to everyone who joined with me on Friday, 19th June, to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of my Ordination, and to all who travelled from various Parishes to mark this important occasion for me. I received so many expressions of congratulations for the Diamond Jubilee of my Ordination as a Priest. I thank you sincerely for your prayers and good wishes. As I look back on sixty years as a priest, I can only praise the Lord for his goodness and fidelity. To you all who helped me in any way I express my sincere gratitude. I remembered you all and your intentions at Masses in Lourdes and at the Grotto. With renewed thanks and gratitude to one and all, With my blessing + Philip Boyce o.c.d

Collection for Peter's Pence on June 28 – the Sunday before the liturgical feast of Saints Peter and Paul – the traditional Peter's Pence collection takes place. This is a concrete way to support the Holy Father in his mission of service to the universal Church. Donating to Peter's Pence is a concrete gesture of communion with the Holy Father and of solidarity with his mission to bring the Gospel throughout the world.
