Feast Days this Week

Tuesday 8th September: Nativity of Mary. We celebrate the Birth of Mary, who brought Jesus Christ the dawn of hope and salvation into the world. She is the Ark of the Covenant, the temple of God, because her body received the one Mediator.

Wednesday 9th September: St. Ciaran was born in Roscommon around 512. He came to Clonmacnoise in January 545 where he founded a monastery which was to become one of the most renowned in Europe. He died at the age of thirty-three while the monastery was still being built.

Thursday 10th September: St. Peter Claver was born in Verdu, Catalonia, in 1580 and studied at the University of Barcelona. He became a Jesuit; and while he was studying philosophy in Mallorca, the doorkeeper of the college, Alfonso Rodríguez, saw that his true vocation was to evangelize the New World, and encouraged him to fulfil that vocation. (Rodríguez was later canonized on the same day as Peter Claver himself). He arrived in Cartagena, in what is now the country of Colombia, in 1610, and after his ordination six years later he became a servant to the native people, labouring on their behalf for 33 years, attending to both their spiritual and material needs. The slave trade around at the time was repeatedly condemned by the Popes, but it was too profitable to be stopped and on the whole the local church hierarchy kept quiet about it, much as they did in North America in the 19th century. He brought fresh food to the slave-ships as they arrived, instructed the slaves and baptized them in the faith, followed their progress and kept track of them even when they were sent to the mines and plantations, defending them as best he could from oppressive slave-owners. At the end of his life he fell ill with a degenerative disease and for four years he was treated neglectfully and brutally by the servant whose task it was to look after him. He did not complain but accepted his sufferings as a penance for his sins.
