Fr Stephen Baxter - Our new temporary Curate

My name is Stephen Baxter and I was ordained for the Diocese of Derry on Sunday 14th June in St Columb's in the Waterside in Derry City.

I started studying for the priesthood in 2019 by attending the Scots College seminary in Salamanca, followed by studying Philosophy for two years in Maynooth then Theology for four years in Rome. Before entering seminary, I attended St Columb's College in Derry, working for six years in Stewarts and Tesco supermarkets then I worked for nineteen years as a bus driver and Inspector for Translink.

Since ordination I have been based in the Waterside helping out as required and I am now delighted to have received my first appointment to Omagh and I am looking forward to my time in your parishes and I thank Father Kevin and Father Malachy for the welcome they have given me to the parishes.
