Sunday 6th September 2026 – Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus offers practical guidance for dealing with conflict. Rather than allowing disagreements to grow, he urges us to take the first step, speak honestly, and seek reconciliation. The goal is not to win an argument but to restore a relationship: "If he listens to you, you have won back your brother." We know how communities, families and individuals can carry old hurts for many years. Recent public debates remind us that unresolved disagreements never simply disappear. Yet the Gospel challenges us to move beyond division and to look for opportunities to heal relationships. Jesus invites us to ask difficult questions of ourselves: Is there someone I need to forgive? Is there someone from whom I need to seek forgiveness? Is there a conversation I have been avoiding? Where people make the effort to build bridges, Christ is present. His way is always the way of reconciliation, understanding and peace.
