O kind and gentle St Anthony, by finding the things we lose, you make us all give thanks to God. Please ask the Infant Jesus, Who became Incarnate in His Mother's Womb, to protect and save the Unborn. Implore Him, also, to restore in us the childlike innocence and purity of heart which we have lost through our sin. Amen

Reading The Bible Course in Ards Friary

This year we will be reading the Prophet Isaiah, the second longest book in the Bible, and one of the most influential Old Testament books of the Church. This will take place on Monday nights from 7.30pm to 9.00pm starting 28th September 2026. Please see poster for more details

In today's parable Matthew is addressing an issue in the community where people are unhappy with certain groups being included in God's Kingdom... they were there first! We can identify with the characters: times when we felt hard done by; times we made comparisons between ourselves and others. Whereas 'THEY'? Well, 'they' are the cause of the problem, benefiting in some way from our perceived injustice.

'Friend, I am doing you no wrong.' This is a moment of grace where God is freeing people from jealousy; there is enough to go around, everyone has received what they were promised. Even in our relationships with one another, people sometimes want to possess and take all for themselves. In reality God (and people) can love others unconditionally without taking anything away from us. If we could liberate ourselves from such insecurities and not let them take hold, life would be a lot happier. Have you been wronged? Has an injustice occurred to anyone else? No, then why worry? The workers expect a judgemental God and often we too confine our image of God to a distributor of justice. God's justice is more concerned with generosity and compassion, there is plenty for all. God's love is just... different.

'True love is delicate and kind, full of gentle perception and understanding, full of beauty and grace, full of joy unutterable... With such a love one would see all things new; we would begin to see people as they really are, as God sees them.'

DOROTHY DAY

Be Enriched by the Word

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

The naked truth is always better than the best dressed lie.
