PRAYER for the 15th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME.

"Lord, you call us to step out in faith, relying not on our own wealth or status, but on your grace. Soften our hearts to receive your Word, and give us the courage to be instruments of your healing and peace. Guide our hands and feet as we go forth to serve the weary and the marginalized in our communities. Amen. "

You come into the world with nothing, and the purpose of your life is to make something out of nothing.

Be Nourished by the Eucharist

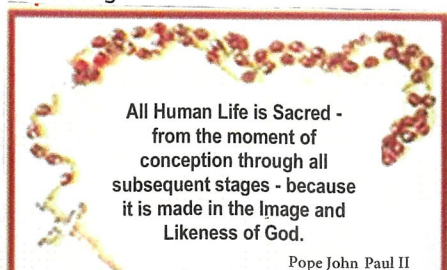

Be Enriched by the Word

In 2009, the first Darkness Into Light event in aid of Pieta House took place in Dublin's Phoenix Park. Around 400 people walked the 5km course that year to raise funds for the suicide prevention charity. Fast forward to May this year, and more than 130,000 people took part in 150 Darkness Into Light events across Ireland and worldwide. Many of us will know someone who took part, or we may have got involved ourselves this year. As the crucial message of hope and solidarity filters out from these events, who knows how many lives have been saved or transformed over the years?

Darkness Into Light is a great example of a movement which has grown from a small seed of an idea into a major force for good. The parable of the mustard seed, which we hear today, shows us that fantastic things can emerge from the most modest of beginnings, 'the smallest of all seeds'. The disciples who first heard Jesus speak were ordinary people – not the religious leaders of the time or those in positions of power or influence. But they were the seeds from which the Church would grow down through the ages. Each act of kindness or forgiveness, each time we spread the Good News of Jesus in our own way, we are hastening the spread of God's kingdom. These seeds grow and multiply, and bear abundant fruit even if we cannot always see the results. We can't change the world in one go – but we can change our world.

All Human Life is Sacred - from the moment of conception through all subsequent stages - because it is made in the Image and Likeness of God.

Pope John Paul II

Prayer for Vocations – Pope John XXIII

O Jesus, send labourers into Your Fields which are awaiting holy apostles, saintly priests, heroic missionaries and dedicated sisters and brothers. Enkindle in the hearts of men and women the spark of a vocation. Grant that Christian families may desire to give to Your Church, helpers in the work of tomorrow. Amen.

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.
8:18-23.

A bhráithre, measaim nach fiú piantaí na huaire seo le taobh na ghlóire atá le foilsíú dúinn ar ball. Mar tá an dúlra féin faoi dhaoirse agus sclábhaíocht agus ag dréim le foilsíú chlann Dé. Cuireadh an dúlra fosta ó rath, ní dá dheoin féin ach mar gheall ar an té úd a chuir ó rath é. Ach bhí dóchas ann i gcónaí go bhfuasclófaí an dúlra féin ón meath agus an daoirse ina raibh sé, agus go mbeadh sé rannpháirteach i saoirse ghlórmhar chlann Dé. Tá a fhios againn go raibh an dúlra go léir go dtí anois i ndaoirse agus ina sclábhaí le tinneas. Ní hé an dúlra amháin atá amhlaidh ach sinne féin chomh maith. Tá muidinne fosta tinn inár gcroí istigh agus sinn ag feitheamh le go ndéanfar clann Dé dinn agus go mbeidh ár gcorp fuascailte.

PLENARY INDULGENCE
QUASQUICENTENNIAL [125TH ANNIVERSARY], CATHEDRAL OF SAINTS EUNAN & COLUMBA, LETTERKENNY
To mark the 125th Anniversary of the consecration of the Cathedral of Saints Eunan and Columba, Letterkenny, the Holy See has granted a Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions. It may be obtained as follows:
The Plenary Indulgence may be obtained under the usual conditions by any of the faithful who, rightly disposed, participate in the liturgical life of the Cathedral with the intention of gaining the Indulgence, beginning with the Mass of Chrism on Holy Thursday of this year and concluding with the feast of the Epiphany, 6th January 2027. The same Indulgence may be obtained by the sick and others who, unable to leave their homes, participate spiritually in the same liturgical services by electronic means.
The Indulgence may be gained under the usual conditions by all who piously come on pilgrimage to the Cathedral in the aforementioned period with that purpose in mind.
The same Indulgence is extended to those who wish to obtain it by spending at least one hour in Eucharistic Adoration at the St. Pius X Chapel of Perpetual Adoration in the grounds of the Cathedral.
To obtain an indulgence, the usual conditions of detachment from all sin, Sacramental Confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Pope must be met within 7 days.

Why Sunday Matters
Our invitation to reflect on Sunday Mass is presented through the lens of Synodality - Communion, Participation, and Mission - reminding us that the Eucharist is not iust a personal encounter with Christ but also a communal experience that unites us all as the People of God... Mass is not just a personal act of devotion; it is a communal act of worship. We go to God together. The Sunday Mass is where the Church is most visibly alive, 'and where every member of the community plays an essential role. Each person's participation is needed for the Church to truly live.
'We are deeply thankful to priests, ministers and all those who gather to celebrate Mass. Special gratitude goes to those involved in liturgical ministries, such as Ministers of the Word, of Holy Communion, Music Ministers, Sacristans, and Altar Servers. Encouraging the return of young people as Altar Servers is especially important and should be actively supported by their families and parish.
(Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, Why Sunday Matters, 2025)

FEAR NO ONE was the title of Bishop Barron's homily for last Sunday: tiny.cc/BRBFEAR . When our lives are committed to Jesus it helps us to be detached from the anxieties of life.

Sandra's Run We are the organisers (parents) of Sandra's Motorcycle Run and we are going through Inver to stop at Texaco Donegal on July 4th for lunch. Between 4:30 to 5pm we are going up Mountcharles bypass and down Mountcharles Street, going down by the shore and coming out at Kelly's Garage. We kindly ask people if they would hang teddies out to support us on our challenge as teddies and cuddly toys are a symbol of sick children, they can be put out a few days before the run. All donations from the run go to the Mater Hospital where Sandra passed away RIP and for Children's Health Foundation. Thank you.

Today, Sunday 21st June the Church across Ireland celebrates Day for Life on the theme The Humanity of the Unborn Child which invites us to reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the Lord Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read full bishops' message visit councilforlife.ie

Thought for the Day

"O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.

Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.

To the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life."

The First Five Saturdays - To begin from the month of August

Then our Lady said to Lucy at Fatima;

“Look, my daughter, at my Heart surrounded with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce me at every moment by their blasphemies & ingratitude...”

You at least, must try to console me & say I promise to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary & keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation.”

How to practice this Devotion

Our Lady asks us on five successive First Saturdays of the month to;

1 Go to Confession

This Sacramental Confession may be made within eight days, or in case of difficulty even later, provided we are in a state of grace when we receive Our Lord.

2 Receive Holy Communion

3 Pray five decades of the Rosary

Our Lady asks us to say after each decade the prayer; O Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fire of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of Your mercy.

4 Keep Our Lady company for fifteen minutes thinking with her about the mysteries of the Rosary.

5 Have the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

St Peregrine

A blessing with the relic of St Peregrine can be obtained after Mass every Friday at 10am.
 This kindly Saint, born in Italy in 1260, is the Patron Saint of cancer patients.

Gratitude invites us to notice God's loving presence in the ordinary moments of each day.

Whether shared in a kind word, a quiet sunrise, or the simple gift of time with those we love, these everyday blessings remind us that grace is never far away.

As we cultivate thankful hearts, we begin to see that even the smallest moments can become encounters with God's generous love, drawing us closer to him and inspiring us to share that love with others. A grateful heart sees God's hand in everything, the laughter of a friend, the gift of a new day, even the challenges that help us grow.

Final Hymn: Whispering Hope

Soft as the voice of an angel
Breathing a lesson unheard
Hope with a gentle persuasion
Whispers her comforting word
Wait 'til the darkness is over
Wait 'til the tempest is done
Hope for the sunshine tomorrow
After the darkness is gone

*Whispering hope O how welcome thy voice
Making my heart In its sorrow rejoice*
If in the dusk of the twilight Dim be the region afar
Will not the deepening darkness
Brighten the glimmering star
Then when the night is upon us
Why should the heart sink away
When the dark midnight is over
Watch for the breaking of day.

Graveyard Mass with Blessing of Graves this Friday 24th July 7.00pm.

- The Blessing of the Graves takes place after Holy Communion. While the prayer of blessing is read, we invite you to bless your own graves with holy water. There will be a blessing of water at the beginning of Mass: please bring a bottle of water yourselves or collect one at the gate on entering the graveyard.
- While maintaining the graves of your loved ones, please ensure all excess material is removed from the graveyard. A skip is in place for graveyard use only.
- There are two water taps, one at the back of Scáthlán Mhuire and the other where new paths have been laid, beside the railings.
- The Gate Collection will help with the upkeep of the graveyard. Please support this worthwhile ongoing work.

Entrance Hymn: Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now I'm found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come.
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home. (Repeat Verse 1)

Entering Death by John O'Donohue

When your time comes, may you have
Every blessing and strength you need.

May there be a beautiful welcome for you
In the home you are going to.
You are not going somewhere strange,
Merely back to the home you have never left.

May your going be sheltered
And your welcome assured.

The Meaning and Symbolism of the Brown Scapular

The Scapular is a symbol of Mary's protection. It is a reduced form of the Carmelite habit. It involves 'putting on Christ' in our lives and entrusting ourselves to Mary's protection. It includes the idea of consecration to Mary. Consecration is properly an act done by God, so that when we say we consecrate ourselves to God and to Mary, we are principally stating that we freely want God's will to be done in our lives. We want the Lord Jesus to rule all we say and do. The wearing of the Scapular is a sign that we want the values lived out by Mary to be evident in our actions and dispositions.

Mary's Meals are delighted, in fact thrilled, to announce that Fr Eamonn Kelly is getting rid of the beard in a sponsored beard and head shave. It will take place at the Diamond, Donegal Town on Saturday 11 July from Noon to 4pm. Any support is greatly appreciated. There are sponsor cards at the back of the church or we have a idonate page

The events comprise recitation of the rosary, a reminder of the mission of laity through Gospel and the Catechism, as well as information on the work of Human Life International Ireland, sponsoring seminarians to priesthood in Tanzania (13 ordinations taking place this Summer), helping women in crisis pregnancy situations (630 babies lives saved so far), Holy Face devotion, and promoting the authentic teachings of the Catholic faith, working for an Ireland where God is First, Life is Sacred and the Family is Cherished. Feedback for the nights has been excellent and some clergy have attended the events including Bishop Cullinan in Waterford and Lismore.

Vocations Monstrance (Blessed by Pope Leo) in the Diocese of Raphoe from 21st to 4th July

The "Vocations Monstrance" is part of the Church's ongoing commitment to promote and foster vocations to the priesthood and to religious life. The monstrance will be in various churches in the Diocese to encourage prayer for vocations and to deepen young people's awareness of God's call in their lives. Through prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we ask the Lord to raise up generous and joyful servants for His Church. Vocations are born in prayer, sustained by prayer, and strengthened through prayer. Any parish wishing to have the "Vocations Monstrance" during these 2 weeks, please contact Fr Rory Brady at vocations@raphoediocese.ie.

Thank you

I would like to express my sincere thanks to everyone who joined with me on Friday, 19th June, to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of my Ordination, and to all who travelled from various Parishes to mark this important occasion for me. Your presence was greatly appreciated. My heartfelt thanks to you all.

Fr. James Sweeney

Thank You - The Organizing Committee would like to extend their sincere thanks to Bishop Niall Coll and all the Priests in the Diocese who joined with us to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the Ordination of Fr. James Sweeney PP, in St. Mary's Church, Killymard. Your presence was greatly appreciated, and we hope you enjoyed the evening.

Thank You

I received so many expressions of congratulations for the Diamond Jubilee of my Ordination as a Priest. I thank you sincerely for your prayers and good wishes. As I look back on sixty years as a priest, I can only praise the Lord for his goodness and fidelity. To you all who helped me in any way I express my sincere gratitude. I remembered you all and your intentions at Masses in Lourdes and at the Grotto. With renewed thanks and gratitude to one and all, With my blessing + Philip Boyce o.c.d

Collection for Peter's Pence on June 28 – the Sunday before the liturgical feast of Saints Peter and Paul – the traditional Peter's

Pence collection takes place. This is a concrete way to support the Holy Father in his mission of service to the universal Church. Donating to Peter's Pence is a concrete gesture of communion with the Holy Father and of solidarity with his mission to bring the Gospel throughout the world.
