11Ú DEIREADH FÓMHAIR 2026 – AN tÓCHTÚ DOMHNACH FICHEAD – A

Reflection

Reading today's gospel challenges us to ask ourselves how well we are responding to the Lord's multiple invitations to us. Are we so tied up in all kinds of concerns and anxieties about things which do not really matter that we fail to recognise or simply ignore the invitation to God's banquet? And, even if we may not persecute God's prophets and messengers, how seriously do we take their words of wisdom? Following the refusal of the invited guests to accept the invitation, the King sends his servants out again – this time not to the houses of the wealthy and respectable, but to the crossroads in the town. These were places near the gates and markets of a typical Middle East town where large crowds of ordinary people would gather. Here you found the social and religious outcasts, tax collectors, prostitutes, all those in despised trades. This time no exceptions are made. All are invited, good and bad alike, until the wedding hall is filled. What Jesus is saying is that everyone is invited to the Kingdom of God. All kinds of people are called to be part of God's new world. It does not belong to an elite group of specially chosen ones. It encompasses saints and sinners. As the sacrament of the Kingdom, the Church must never forget that, in God's eyes, there are no first and second-class members. It must resist the temptation to create elite groups that are 'different' and, by implication, 'better' than the ordinary average members. While it might seem wonderful to have a Christian community consisting only of totally dedicated members, it would not reflect the love of God reaching out to all. It would not be a catholic church, a church open to all. The only requirement is 'the simple offering of your faith, green as a leaf'.

Mission Sunday
Next Sunday, 18th October, is Mission Sunday. On this very special day every Church, in every parish across our globe, will give what they can, no matter how little, towards the World Mission Sunday collection. Your contribution will be used to help spread faith, hope and love by supporting overseas missionaries, many of whom work in some of the world's most impoverished and remote communities. Envelopes are available in the church porches.

Eucharist Adoration
Please note that the times for the Wednesday Holy Hour have changed, and will take place from 8 pm to 9 pm until further notice.

Cursillo
An open invitation is warmly extended to everyone to join Bishop Niall Coll for a Holy Mass in thanksgiving for Cursillo in St Mary's Church Stranorlar at 3pm on Sunday 25th October and afterwards to a gathering in the Parish Centre, Stranorlar. All are most welcome.

Remembrance Masses
A remembrance Mass for missing people, and their families will be held in St. Mary's Church, Sandyford, Dublin, D18E5R3, on Saturday 10th October 2026 at 2.30 pm.. The Mass will be celebrated by Father Aquinas Duffy. This is a poignant ceremony to pray for missing people, and for comfort and strength for families, and to guide all search efforts towards their successful return. Prayers will also be offered for Irish people missing abroad and pray for an end to the sufferings of these families.
Annual Service of Remembrance for Miscarriage, Still Birth, Neo-Natal death and for Children who have sadly died will take place in the Letterkenny University Hospital.Chapel on Sunday 11th October at 3pm

Irish National Synodal Assembly
The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on 17 October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and scan the QR code to access the Working Document and find out more, and see www.synod.ie

Flu Clinic
Falcarragh Medical Centre will be holding a Flu Vaccination clinic on Tuesday 13th October please call the surgery to make an appointment, 0749135491/35490. On the day it would be advisable to wear short sleeves for ease of access.

Church Gate Collection
The Friends of Letterkenny University Hospital's Annual Church Gate Collection will take on Saturday and Sunday, 10th and 11th October. Please support as best as you can to enable the Friends to carry out the valuable work that they do, including supporting new service developments in the hospital and the provision of transport for patients to St Luke's Hospital in Dublin and UCHG in Galway.

Food Bank Appeal
The Food Bank is in dire straits at the moment, very low on supplies, so non perishable goods are very urgently required. Food bins have been left in the 4 porches for any goods donated. If anyone needs help please contact us on 085 7560177 or call on Thursday mornings between 10am and 12pm.
