ST. EUNAN'S CATHEDRAL LETTERKENNY NEWSLETTER

Sunday 1st November 2026

Feast of All Saints

God, lover of souls,
you hold dear what you have made and spare all things, for they are yours.
Look gently on your servant N., and by the blood of the cross forgive his/her sins and failings.
Remember the faith of those who mourn and satisfy their longing for that day when all will be made new again in Christ, our risen Lord, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever. Amen.

Cuidigh linn éisteacht le do bhriathra:
go mba údar solais dúinn sa dorchadas iad, go mba údar creidimh dúinn in aghaidh an amhrais iad go mba údar sóláis dúinn inár mbuairt iad.
Siné ár nguí chugat trí Chríost ár dTiarna.

PLENARY INDULGENCE FOR THE HOLY SOULS

1. From twelve o'clock noon on the 1st November until midnight on the 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father, one Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a Church or Oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles Creed. The indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or following the 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from the 1st - 8th November.
2. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from the 1st - 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

The annual NOVENA FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED will run from the 1st - 9th November at the evening Mass. You are welcome to write a list of the names of your loved ones and to leave them in the basket which will be placed in the Sanctuary for the purpose. Offerings are not expected, any offering received will be used to defray the cost of light and heat. You are encouraged to attend the Novena for its duration, conscious of the importance of praying for our beloved dead and for all the souls who have no one to pray for them.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Would you like to assist at Mass as an extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion? We are now looking for new volunteers for this important Ministry in the Parish. Perhaps you also know someone you could propose with their permission? We are looking for both younger adults and recent retirees who would be suitable for this ministry. How do you know if you might be suited and suitable? Here are some questions you can ask yourself: Do I practice my faith [Sunday Mass every week]; Do I have a love for the Holy Eucharist? Do I live in accordance with the Gospel as the Church teaches? Do I desire to be of service to the parish? Do I desire to grow in my faith? Many devout Catholics question whether they are worthy to distribute the Holy Eucharist. We all have failings, and the inner life of the soul is known only to God. If you are indeed asked to do this service, then you must trust that you are suitable and able. Training will be provided. Ministers are scheduled by the Coordinator, who will take account of other commitments you may have. We would like to see candidates come forward who attend our daily Masses, especially 8 am and 10 am, especially younger attendees and recent retirees. Names to be submitted to the Parish Office by Wednesday 4th November.

THANK YOU ~ Bishop Coll wishes gratefully to acknowledge the receipt of a donation of €1,000 for diocesan ministries.

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

All Saints

'What do you think?'

This question is often posed, but you would do well to gauge firstly as to whether the questioner wants a genuine viewpoint or some 'positive stroking.' We prefer flattery to leadership. Isn't that true! We prefer that which confirms our prejudices.

But Jesus didn't come to confirm our prejudices. He came to change us — to save us — to turn our world upside down.

We believe that the rich are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are the poor.'
We believe that those who have plenty are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are the hungry.'
We believe that those who laugh are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are those who mourn.'
We believe that people whom everyone likes are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are you when people hate you.'

Why would Jesus say such things? They don't make any sense. We want Jesus to use common sense.

Today Jesus might well say:
You are rich in the things that perish, but poor in the things of the spirit.
You are rich in gadgets, but poor in faith.
You are rich in goods, but poor in grace.
You are rich in know-how, but poor in deeds.

Those who mind don't matter, and those who matter don't mind.

Thoughts on the Gospel for All Saints Day November 1st 2026

Today the Church commemorates all those persons who lived in friendship with God on their earthly journey and entered through it into his glory. Some saints are raised to the altars as models of virtue and love for God. But many others left an imprint of sanctity day after day that perhaps passed unnoticed to human eyes, but that never escaped the attentive and loving eyes of God. As Monsignor Fernando Ocáriz, Prelate of Opus Dei, said: "All Saints Day is the feast of that quiet and simple sanctity—sanctity without any human splendor—which seems to leave no trace in history, but shines forth before God. It leaves behind in the world a sowing of Love from which nothing is lost."For the Gospel of today's Mass, the liturgy chose the passage of the beatitudes according to Saint Matthew. Thus it underlines the fact that these are the equivalent of sanctity, both of the sanctity that makes some people famous, so to speak, and the sanctity that is only fully revealed in heaven.

November Prayer

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting,
Keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice,
That we may serve you in union with the whole Church,
Sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly dwelling is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom where you live for ever and ever.
Amen.

Sliocht as leabhar an Apacailipsis. 7:2-4, 9-14.
Chonaic mé aingeal eile anoir chugam ó éirí gréine agus séala an Dé bhí aige. Ghlaoigh sé in aird a ghotha ar na ceithre haingle ar cuireadh de chúram orthu neamh agus talamh a scrios agus dúirt sé leo: "Ná déanaigí dochar do mhuir ná do thalamh ná do chrainn nó go raibh séala curtha againn ar sheirbhísigh Dé ar chlár a n-éadáin." Chuala mé líon an t-slóigh ar cuireadh an séala orthu, céad daichead is a ceathair de mhílte as gach treibh de chlann Isráél.
Ina dhiaidh sin, d'amharc mé arís agus siúd an slua gan áireamh de dhaoine as gach cine, treibh, pobal agus teanga; iad ina seasamh os comhair na rí-chathaoireach i láthair an Uain, éide geal orthu, craobhacha pailme ina láimh agus iad ag glaoch in ard a gcinn le chéile: "Slánú dár nDia atá ina shuí ar an rí-chathaoir agus don Uan!" Sheas na haingle go léir thart timpeall na rí-chathaoireach, na seanóirí agus na gceithre beithíoch; thit siad ar a mbéal fúthu os comhair na rí-chathaoireach agus thug adhradh do Dhia á rá: "Amen. Moladh agus glóir agus eagna agus buíochas agus onóir agus cumhacht agus neart dár nDia trí shaol na saol. Amen."
Ansin d'iompaidh duine de na seanóirí chugam agus dúirt: "Iad sin atá gléasta in éidí gheala, cé hiad féin nó carbh as díobh?" Duirt mise leis: "A Thiarna, is agatsa is fearr atá a fhios sin." Ansin dúirt sé liom: "Sin iad an dream a tháinig slán ón phianchrá mhór agus a gcuid róbaí nite geal i bhfuil an Uain."
Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

AN DARA LÉACHT
Sliocht as céad litir Naomh Eoin. 3:1-3.
A chlann ionúin, a leithéid de ghrá is a thug an tAthair dúinn, go dtabharfaí clann Dé orainn; agus is amhlaidh sinn.
'Sé 'n fáth nach n-aithníonn daoine dona an t-saoil,
sin mar nach bhfuair siad aithne airsean go fóil.
A chairde na páirte, is clann Dé sinn cheana féin,
níor foilsíodh dúinn go fóill cé mar bheimid;
ach nuair a fhoilseofar é, tá a fhios againn an méid seo;
go mbeimid cosúil leisean agus tchifimid é mar atá sé.
Gach duine a chuirfeas an dóchas sin roimhe
naomhaíonn sé é féin mar atá seisean naofa.
Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

SOISCÉAL
Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú. 5:1-12.
Nuair a chonaic Íosa na sluaite, chuaigh sé suas an sliabh. Shuigh sé síos agus tháinig a dheisceabail chuige. Thoisigh sé ag caint leo á dteagasc agus dúirt:
'Is beannaithe na bochta ó spiorad, óir is leo ríocht na fhlaitheas.
Is beannaithe na daoine ceansa, nó gheobhaidh siad an talamh mar oidhreacht.
Is beannaithe lucht an dóláis, nó gheobhaidh siad sólás.

All Saints' Day: Called to Holiness

On November 1, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints - a joyful feast honouring all those who have entered the glory of heaven, including the many saints known only to God. The saints remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Through God's grace, every Christian is called to become more like Christ in faith, hope, charity, and service.

Jesus gives us the pattern of holiness in the Beatitudes: humility, gentleness, hunger for righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and perseverance amid suffering (Mt 5:3–12). These virtues express the self-giving love that leads us toward the Kingdom of Heaven.

The saints are not distant from us. They belong with us to the Communion of Saints, the one Mystical Body of Christ. Their example inspires us, and their prayers draw us closer to Christ, the source of every grace.2 As St. Paul teaches, "If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together" (1 Cor 12:26).

This feast also points us toward our eternal destiny. Heaven is the kingdom of love, joy, beauty, and communion - a universal family gathered around God and united in Christ. Let us ask the saints to pray for us and renew our commitment to holiness in the ordinary circumstances of daily life: at home, at work, in our parish, and through service to those in need.

All you holy men and women, pray for us!

Novena for the Dead

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day)

On November 2, the Church remembers all the faithful departed and entrusts them to the loving mercy of God. We pray especially for those who have died in God's grace but still need purification before entering the fullness of heaven. The Catechism teaches that these souls are assured of eternal salvation, yet undergo purification "so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (CCC 1030).

Our prayers for the dead are an expression of faith in the Communion of Saints—the spiritual unity of the Church on earth, the souls being purified, and the saints in heaven. Scripture presents prayer and sacrifice for the dead as a holy and hopeful practice (2 Mac 12:41–46), and St. Paul prays that the Lord may show mercy to the deceased Onesiphorus "on that day" (2 Tim 1:16–18)

At every Mass, the Church prays for "our brothers & sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection" and asks God to welcome them "into the light of [his] face." We can unite ourselves to this prayer by offering Masses, praying for our deceased loved ones, visiting their graves, and performing works of charity in their memory.

All Souls' Day is not a day without hope. Because Christ has conquered death, we believe that death does not have the final word. Jesus' promise is eternal life in the Kingdom of God - a communion of love, joy, & peace with God & all the redeemed.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

A Thought for November

From my own experience of having loved ones die as well as from what others have shared with me, I have found that usually, after a time, we sense that our deceased loved ones no longer need us to pray for them. Now they just want us to connect with them. Prayer for the dead does that and even though our prayers might still have to be formulated as if we are praying for them we are now simply connecting with them and what was formerly a cold, cutting absence now becomes a warm, comforting presence. Ron Rolheiser OMI

November Prayer

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church
sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly dwelling is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom
where you live for ever and ever. Amen.

First Holy Communion

Final Hymn: Wherever You Go

Wherever you go I shall go
Wherever you live so shall I live
Your people will be my people
And your God will be my God too

Wherever you die I shall die
And there shall I be buried beside you
We will be together forever
And our love will be the gift of our lives (x2)

We will be together forever
And our love will be the gift of our lives

Entrance Hymn: Oh, The Love of My Lord

Oh, the love of my Lord is the essence
Of all that I love here on earth.
All the beauty I see he has given to me
and his giving is gentle as silence.

Every day, every hour, every moment
Have been blest by the strength of his love.
At the turn of each tide he is there at my side,
And his touch is as gentle as silence.

There've been times
when I've turned from his presence,
And I've walked other paths, other ways,
But I've called on his name in the dark of my shame,
And his mercy was gentle as silence.

Some existing members will step down, while those remaining will continue in their role, offering experience and continuity. New members will be welcomed and will bring new ideas and perspectives. This process of renewal helps to keep the council representative of the parish community and responsive to the current needs of the parish. The role of the PPC is to work alongside the parish priest Fr. James, in addressing all aspects of the pastoral life of the parish including liturgy, formation, social activities and outreach. The PPC meet every four to six weeks from September to June each year. The council helps to identify the current and future needs of the parish and encourages people to become actively involved in the parish to support and strengthen our community of faith. If you wish to nominate someone who you feel would be suitable for this role, please put their name in the Parish Pastoral Council suggestion boxes at the back of St. Agatha's Church or St. Patrick's Church.
