We pray God's strength for Lily's family, friends and fellow students.

28th SUNDAY: Today's readings tell us that God has wonderful things in store for us. Everyone, no matter what kind of past they have had, receives the same invitation to sit down at God's table. However, having initially answered the invitation, we cannot take things for granted. There is no room for complacency. Almost more dangerous than being an obviously sinful person is being the 'ordinary, run-of-the-mill Catholic', the 'Sunday' Catholic, the "I'm a good enough Catholic", the "I'm a Catholic, but not a fanatic about my religion". These are all cop-outs. And it is not God, but ourselves who are the losers. (sacredspace.com)

THU 15: St Teresa of Avila, 1515-82 reformer and Discalced Carmelite nun. Nada te turbe' – popularised by a Taizé chant means, "Let nothing disturb you". This is a Spanish saying and was the motto of Teresa of Avila, Carmelite reformer and mystic. She founded the reformed ("discalced") Carmelites and in spite of much opposition saw her reforms through.

FRI 16: St Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90) visionary. In many Irish churches you will see a stained glass window depicting Our Lord Jesus revealing his Sacred Heart to St Margaret Mary Alacoque. These windows bear witness to the enormous popularity of devotion to the Sacred Heart and the influence of St Margaret Mary Alacoque in spreading it. She is one of the Church's most famous visionaries.

SAT 17: St Ignatius of Antioch (c.37-107) bishop and martyr, is also called "Theophoros", meaning "God-bearer", was an early martyr, who is best known from the seven letters he wrote to various churches in Asia Minor with his strong theology of the humanity of Jesus and his presence in the Eucharist. Promoted bishop's role as a figure of unity in the Church.

MISSION MONTH: In the Catholic Church, October has long been associated with mission. The month starts with the feast of St Thérèse of Lisieux, Patron of missions and celebrates World Mission Sunday on October 18th–a special day of prayer and global solidarity celebrated in all Catholic parishes around the world.

CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) It is fun to go to a party. Getting invitations lets us know that we are liked and cared about. In this week's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable, or story, about a wedding. Some people accept the invitation, and some people refuse it. Jesus tells the parable to teach us about being invited to be his disciple. Jesus invites everyone to be his disciple. Some people accept his invitation, and some people refuse it. Read the short form of today's Gospel, Matthew 22:1–10. The king sent out three invitations to the wedding feast. Which group of people accepted the invitation—the first, second, or third group? (the third group) Jesus invites us to be his disciple. When we say yes to his invitation, he offers us life with God forever. Pray: Jesus, we have accepted your invitation to be your disciple. Help us follow you to God the Father. Pray the Glory Be to the Father

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) As you gather as a family, discuss what you consider appropriate attire for various occasions. For example, if your family were invited to a neighbour's barbecue, what would you wear? If you were planning to attend the symphony, what might you wear? If invited to an evening wedding, what might you wear? Discuss how our preparations for an event and our choice of attire indicates the importance and value we place on the occasion. In today's Gospel Jesus uses this metaphor to talk about the kingdom of heaven. Read Matthew 22:1-14. Discuss why the guest was thrown out of the wedding feast. What does Jesus expect of those who accept his invitation of salvation? What would be the evidence of our conversion to God's salvation? Pray together as a family that you will respond wholeheartedly to God's invitation to salvation. Pray together today's psalm 22.

MISSION MONTH: Daily Prayer – Prayer for Missionaries Lord our God, loving Father, we humbly pray to you for our beloved missionaries, heralds of the Gospel. May our prayers reach their hearts that they may feel our love, our strength, our faith. May our prayers reach their hearts that they continue with your zeal the mission you entrust them with. May their presence in their community be a reminder of your presence among us. Amen. (Missionary Society of St Columban)

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, Sunday, October 4th: Feast of the Guardian Angels - "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 18:10)
In the first week of October, we celebrate the feast of the Guardian Angels. For many of us, the first prayer we learned was one to our guardian angel and was left behind with our toys and other memorabilia of childhood. However, Pope Francis spoke powerfully about these guides in a 2018 homily when he urged us to remember that our guardian angel is our daily gate to transcendence: "Our angel is not only with us; he also sees God the Father. He is in relationship with Him". Read the full text of his short homily here: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.
