Parish Finance Matters

A member of our Parish Finance Committee will speak at all Masses this weekend to make an appeal and to encourage parishioners to join the envelope system in relation to the offertory collections. This is in light of the current and future high costs of repairing and maintaining the three churches of our parish.

No 10.00am Mass
Windsor Hill, Corryfield and Sunville: Friday, 9th October, at 7.30pm in the home of Eileen Savage.

Diocesan Needs Collection

The Diocese of Cork and Ross provide vital support to our parishes in many areas including Education, Religious Faith Formation in schools, Mission and Ministry, Youth Ministry, Safeguarding, Stewardship and Governance.
We also offer guidance in practical matters in areas such as Data Protection, Finance and Property.
This work is only possible because of your continued generosity. The next quarterly collection for diocesan needs takes place next weekend, 10th/11th October.
Your support and continued generosity are greatly appreciated.

October – Month of the Rosary

Pope Leo has invited Catholics to pray the Rosary for peace during October.
"I would like to make an appeal that is particularly close to my heart, here in this place," Pope Leo said during his Angelus address in Lourdes, at the conclusion of the outdoor Mass he celebrated there. "It was here the Immaculate Virgin appeared to Saint Bernadette with the Rosary and, as it were, guided her in prayer."
"For this reason, today I invite all the faithful and all Christian communities to pray the Rosary throughout the coming month of October, with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict," the Pope continued. "Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation."
The Rosary is recited at 9.40am before the 10.00am Mass.
In response to the Pope's invitation, it may be an idea to find some time during the month of October to pray the Rosary as a family, even just one decade.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The local conference helps people in need with a range of supports including food vouchers, fuel for heating, support with domestic bills, guidance, advice and encouragement to access support from the wider SVP network.
A gentle reminder that our monthly church-gate collection takes place this weekend.
As always, we thank you, the parishioners for your continued support and generosity.

LiveStream

The sanctuary areas of both the Sacred Heart Church, Glounthaune and St. Joseph's Church, Little Island are continuously monitored via 24/7 livestream.
Please be aware that if you are present in these areas, your image and actions may be captured on the livestream.

Pope Leo's Prayer Intention Oct 2026

This month, Pope Leo XIV invites us to pray "that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity." At a time marked by conflicts, the Holy Father recalls that religions must be "bridges and prophecy," and not "weapons or walls."

The Illusion of the Ego

When we look at human existence through the eyes of the world, we are taught to measure worth by what we accumulate, what we conquer, and how high we can elevate ourselves. But the gospel calls us to a different standard. In the economy of salvation, the ultimate triumph of a soul is not the building up of the self, but the quiet, courageous surrender of the ego to God. Sacred Scripture reminds us in the Gospel of Matthew, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." The human ego is a restless entity. It constantly demands to be right, to be noticed, to be validated, and to be first. Saint John the Baptist captured the essence of the managed ego when he said of Jesus, "He must increase, but I must decrease." When we clear away the heavy clutter of pride, we create a void—not an empty emptiness, but a space that can finally be filled by Christ's light. The souls who truly impact us in this life are rarely the loudest or the most self-absorbed. They are the ones who make room for others because they have first made room for God. They remind us that true dignity doesn't come from a puffed-up sense of importance, but from a surrendered heart. It takes immense faith to trust that God sees our quiet goodness, even when the world overlooks it.

Change to this week's Special Collection schedule

Fr. Manuel Casillas of the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus will visit Ascension Church this weekend, 10th and 11th of October, to do a Mission Appeal. He will be sharing with us his missionary experience and the work of the Comboni Missionaries in Africa, the Far East, and Latin America. The Diocesan Needs collection will take place on 17/18th October.

Mission Sunday Collection 17th & 18th October

Next weekend we will have a special collection, at all Masses, for World Mission Sunday, also known as Propagation of the Faith. Pope Leo XIV gives thanks for a century of global evangelization since Pope Pius XI established World Mission Sunday 100 years ago.

NorthsideParishes.ie - A new website for our family of parishes

We are delighted to announce the launch of a new website for our family of parishes here on the north-side of Cork City. This website is a joint initiative of Clogheen-Kerry Pike Parish, Farranree Parish, Gurranabraher Parish and Knocknaheeny-Hollyhill Parish and we hope that it will allow parishioners to access information about each of our parishes easily and readily.

It provides essential information such as the times of Masses and other devotions, contact details for our parishes offices and the priests of our family of parishes, news from our communities and information on how to book baptisms and weddings. People can also easily access resources such as reflections, prayers and the readings for Mass or connect to the live stream of Mass from Ascension Church in Gurranabraher.

Hopefully this new website will allow people to connect with our parishes and stay in touch with all that is happening in our communities. We are grateful to Denis O' Regan of faithful.ie who helped in the design and development of the website. Flyers available in the Church.

From The Deacon's Desk

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Matthew 22: 1-14

In the parable of the wedding feast, Jesus reminds us that God's invitation is offered generously to all. Yet accepting that invitation requires more than simply showing up; it calls for a sincere response and a willingness to be transformed by God's grace. The wedding garment symbolises a life shaped by faith, love and discipleship. As we reflect on this Gospel, may we recognise God's constant invitation and strive to respond wholeheartedly, with grateful and open hearts each day.

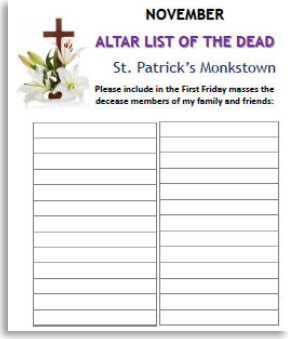

October: Month of the Rosary

The Church dedicates the month of October to Our Lady of the Rosary. Through the Rosary, we contemplate the mysteries of Christ's life, death and resurrection in the company of Mary, our Mother. In this special month, the Legion of Mary will pray the Rosary at the Grotto in Monkstown Farm every day @ 2:30 All are welcome.

Remembrance Liturgy

Reminder! On Wednesday 4th November we will remember and pray for all our deceased loved ones in a special Candlelit Liturgy of Remembrance. This special liturgy is also open to all parishioners who would like to attend, and light a special votive candle in memory of their loved ones.

November Altar List of the Dead

We are currently compiling the Altar List of the Dead for the year ahead. The names on the list are remembered at the First Friday Mass throughout the year and at all weekend masses in November. If you would like to have a loved one's name included on the list please collect an envelope and sheet from the back of the church and return it to the parish office or place it in the metal collection boxes at the back of the Church.
