4 October 2026, Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A . (Mission Month).

Sunday Gospel God wants us to bear fruit, as in the second reading. He will give these fruits - and wants us to value them. We could say that in many countries child protection and care is better, we are more inclusive of people who differ from us and that the Church is open to the whole human family. In Ireland we have more peace than we had, but maybe not more justice, especially for our migrant people. These are some fruits. We miss out on some issues - the value of faith and community is low and sometimes in public or political life we go for the temporary or the illusory. The gap between rich and poor is wider than ever. We have had bad experiences of greed and financial abuse, even in the charities sector. Looking at the gospel vision, we can ask how the vineyard is nourished. We find that the cornerstone of the Christian way of life is love, and that love is a person in Jesus. He is the one who will invigorate the vine ... some will ignore him, some will follow. God sent his own Son into the vineyard of human life, not because life is perfect, but because his love is. (Fr D Neary).
