33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle A).

Last week, we saw that the delay in the coming of the Lord requires that we be vigilant. This Sunday we are encouraged to live industriously. It is not enough that we wait patiently. We have been entrusted with talents, talents that really belong to God. We are required to use our talents to the best of our ability. We are required to invest ourselves in the here and now. It makes no difference to what our talents may be or how many talents we may have. They have been entrusted to us as the possessions of the master are entrusted to a servant.

If we have been wise and have used the talents entrusted to us, we will be richly rewarded. However, if we have not realised the potential that is possessed by our talents we will be punished. The foolish man in the gospel knew the householder was exacting. He made his choice, and he had to accept the consequences of that choice.

WEEK OF WITNESS FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS.

15 -22 November 2026.

220 million Christians live in countries where they are directly exposed to persecution, while 413 million Christians live in countries where religious freedom is severely violated, that is 18%, or about one in five Christians.

Around the church and in the Parish Centre are fact sheets outlining some facts of the top countries where this persecution is real and the types of persecution being faced by Christians.

Red Wednesday 2026 will be observed on Wednesday, 18 November 2026, as part of a global initiative by Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) to highlight the persecution of Christians and promote religious freedom.

On that day we invite people coming to church or visiting our Parish Centre to wear some red item of clothing as a gesture of solidarity with our fellow persecuted Christians around the world.
