Gospel Reflection (Matthew 25:1-13)

In today's gospel, Jesus tells the parable of ten virgins who were waiting for the bridegroom. Five were wise because they brought extra oil for their lamps, while the other five were foolish because they failed to prepare. When the bridegroom finally arrived, those who were ready entered the wedding celebration, while the others were left behind. Through this parable, Jesus reminds us of the importance of being spiritually prepared because we do not know when He will return.

The lamp is a symbol of our lives, our faith, and our relationship with God. Just as a lamp needs oil to continue burning, our spiritual lives need to be constantly nourished through prayer, love, acts of kindness, and unwavering trust in the Lord. We are called to remain vigilant and faithful, keeping our hearts close to God so that our faith never grows weak or runs dry. By living according to His will each day, we stay prepared for the return of Jesus. Rather than fearing His coming, we should look forward to it with joyful anticipation, confidence, and hope, knowing that a life rooted in faith and obedience allows us to welcome Him with hearts full of peace and devotion.

Loving God, thank You for always being with me. Help me keep the lamp of my faith burning brightly each day. May I always be ready to welcome You with joy, hope, and a faithful heart.

Remembering Our Deceased Loved Ones During the month of November, we are especially encouraged to remember and pray for the faithful departed, those members of our families and dearly beloved who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. As we pray for all our holy souls, we think also of all who grieve at this time.

Prayer For All The Deceased

God our Father, Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and by Your command we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family to sing Your praise forever and ever.

May the Divine Assistance remain always with us, and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Requiescant in Pace We offer our sympathy of the family and friends of
