

PARISH

of Aghagallon & Ballinderry

The Medical Missionaries of Mary will be with us this weekend. They will speak of their work, mainly in Africa and South America, and their mission to bring Christ's healing love to those most in need. Our parish and our diocese have supported MMM generously in the past, both in finance and in prayer, and MMM wishes to express gratitude for that support and to emphasise that we here at home are the body of mission, and those who are sent to far away places are the hands and the feet.

Growing In Faith Together Programme. Will continue this Monday, 3rd Oct 2026 in Aghagallon Community Centre from 7.30pm-9pm for Year 8's.

G.I.F.T 4 Reunion Day We had a great day meeting up with the young people after their pilgrimage to Rome. They are a very enthusiastic group who are trying their best to talk Declan into running a new GIFT 5 in the parish. Watch this space!!! Children will receive Rosary Beads during Children's Liturgy.

Altar Servers We would like to welcome new members to our Altar Servers Club on Saturday 24th October 2026. This is for new and existing members. We will meet in the sacristy of the church at 4pm-7pm Mass, parents are welcome to attend 7pm Mass during which the new altar servers will be commissioned.

Adoration We are blessed to Have Eucharistic Adoration in our Parish Every Wednesday from 10:30am (after Mass) till 10pm. We wish to thank all our current adorers for keeping their commitment to Jesus. We would like this devotion to continue to thrive in our community, but we can't do it without you, our parishioners; the heart and soul of our Parish! We are calling for new adorers to commit to 1 hour or 30 minutes of their time every week to spend in the presence of Jesus. We currently require cover between 6pm-7pm & 8pm-9pm. There is a sign in sheet in the porch for you to register your time.

MINISTRY OF WELCOME

We welcome Jenny into our Parish Family

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.

Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.

Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism

Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

Prayer after Communion

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;

Body of Christ, save me; Blood of Christ, fill me;

Water from the side of Christ, wash me;

Passion of Christ, strengthen me, O Good Jesus hear me

Within your wounds hide me; allow me not to be separated from you;

From the malicious enemy defend me; At the hour of my death call me;

And bid me come to you, that with your saints I will praise you forever and ever.

Amen

27th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Priest: If there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving'. With trust and faith, we bring our prayers before our Heavenly Father.

For the Church: 'the vine your right hand has planted' in the world. May we remain rooted in love and grow together in faith through lives of kindness, compassion and service.

Let us pray to the Lord

For peace in our world: that nations at war with one another may safeguard the 'peace of God which is so much greater than we can understand' so people can live in mutual respect and harmony.

Let us pray to the Lord.

For our world and its people: that we may be faithful stewards of God's creation, caring for our common home and ensuring that its resources are shared with those less fortunate

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who are seeking direction on their journey of faith, that they may listen for God's voice, trust in his guidance, and find courage and wisdom to follow the path he sets before them.

Let us pray to the Lord

For the sick and those carrying heavy burdens: that they may experience Christ's healing touch and find comfort through the support of others.

Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:

Recently Deceased: Gerry Fitzsimons

may they share in the fullness of heavenly light.

Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: Lord our God, you have entrusted your vineyard to our care. Help us to be faithful and fruitful in your service and hear the prayers we bring before you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CAUSEWAY FAMILY OF PARISHES

5th & 12th October 2026
27th & 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

In this Sunday's second reading, St Paul urges us not to be anxious about anything, but to bring every need to God in prayer and leave it in his hands. Like a loving parent, the Lord knows best how and when to answer, and whatever his reply, he promises us a peace beyond understanding.

And one of the best ways to pray is with the rosary. October is the month of the rosary, a tradition dating back to Pope Pius V's call for prayer before the Battle of Lepanto in 1571. Why not pray at least a decade each day, ideally with our families, and join our candlelight rosary, which returns on Thursday. Prayer intentions may be left in the boxes at the back of the church and will be prayed for throughout this month.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills of this world in the next.

Pope Leo’s call to pray the Rosary for Peace

At his Angelus Address last Sunday in Lourdes, Pope Leo invited us to pray the Holy Rosary each day for peace in the world during the month of October.

“I would like to make an appeal that is particularly close to my heart, here in this place. It was here that the Immaculate Virgin appeared to Saint Bernadette with the Rosary and, as it were, guided her in prayer. For this reason, today I invite all the faithful and all Christian communities to pray the Holy Rosary throughout the coming month of October, with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict. Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation. May our most holy Mother intercede for us!”

Pope Leo’s Prayer at the Grotto of the Apparitions at Massabielle (Lourdes)
Saturday, 26 September 2026

“Our Lady of Lourdes, the Immaculate Conception, in this blessed place you spoke with such gentleness and tenderness to Saint Bernadette, a humble daughter of the French people, to convey to the world a radiant message of prayer, conversion and hope. We turn to you with trust, for you are the Mother whom Jesus has given, and you are attentive to all our needs.

We pray to you, our Mother, for France, for you are her Patroness and have protected her for so many centuries. Grant its people the gift of fraternal harmony, so that they may build a harmonious society that banishes all violence and hatred, and allows everyone to work, to start a family and to live life to the fullest in peace and serenity. May the most disadvantaged and the poorest always be supported. Obtain for France wise and generous leaders, ready to make sacrifices, capable of responding to challenges, and eager to serve the common good. May they keep France at peace within the family of nations, and may they make her voice heard in promoting the defence of fundamental human rights and peace in the world, rejecting the mentality of war once and for all.

Blessed Virgin Mary, we present to you the People of God journeying in this country, which you have so deeply marked with your presence. Renew the faith and fervour of Christian families, who are so dear to your heart, so that they may live day by day in the presence of Jesus, in his grace, and with his support through the difficulties they face. May they be generously open to life, and may God awaken vocations within them, especially to the priesthood and religious life. Grant that your Church in France may show, especially to the youngest among them, the luminous path of the Gospel, so that they may build the just and fraternal society to which they aspire.

Finally, Mother full of love, we entrust to you our most urgent personal intentions, especially those of the sick and suffering, as well as all those who accompany them, who have come together to find strength and healing at the spring of Massabielle.

We entrust to you our living and deceased loved ones. We pray that you will remove all the obstacles that still separate us from your beloved Son and that he may reign in all hearts.”

Hello children! In today's gospel Jesus talks to us about a man who has real trouble with the people who are looking after his vineyard.

Like the man who gave the vineyard to his tenants to look after, God has given us the earth and all that is in it. He wants us to be responsible for looking after the earth and all the animals, people and plants that are in it. This week, let's do our bit for our planet and give thanks to God for the earth and all the wonders in it Creator God, may we listen to your word. Teach us to care for each other and for all creation so that all people may have what they need. Amen.

Worksheets and the Kids Bulletin to support this week's Gospel are available in both churches. Pick up copies for your children/grandchildren.

Missio – Children Helping Children
Children's Day of Mission Prayer – 9th October 2026

Young people sharing hope and solidarity with the world's poorest children.

Children's Day of Mission Prayer is celebrated on the Second Friday of October each year. Its purpose is to enhance the prayer lives of children, encouraging them to pray for each other and for overseas missionaries on mission with children. This special day fosters an awareness of mission and the need to help and serve others. It is aimed at children on the whole island of Ireland, teaching professionals, priests, chaplains, religious congregations and all those who are in ministry with children.

As the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission, Missio Ireland's Children Helping Children supports the physical, spiritual and emotional well being of children around the world. We encourage children to pray together, for each other and for children living in poverty and fear. We also encourage children to share whatever they can, no matter how little, to help with the material needs of their brothers and sisters. Thanks to young people living out our motto Children Helping Children, the Missio family can support millions of the world's poorest children every year. As a result, thousands of children's projects, led by missionaries are supported. These missionaries, who are living out their faith through action, know the value of every donation they receive as they try to help everyone they can regardless of their backgrounds or beliefs. Sunday 18th October 2026 is Mission Sunday

The Vineyard is Ourselves!

God is all the time caring for his people and thinking of us, making sure we're not endangered when he can help it. His care for his people goes into the heart of the Trinity, one of whom becomes one of us, for our sake.

He wants us to bear fruit, as in the second reading. He will give these fruits - and wants us to value them.

In our society today, we could say that in many countries child protection and care is better today, we are more inclusive of people who differ from us and the church is open to the whole human family. In Ireland we have more peace now than we had, but maybe not more justice, especially for our migrant people. These are some fruits. We miss out on some issues - the value of faith and community is low and sometimes in public or political life we go for the temporary and the illusory and the dramatic. The gap between rich and poor is wider than ever. We have had bad experiences of greed and financial abuse, even in the charities sector. Our care of the elderly leaves much to be demanded.

Looking at the gospel vision, we can ask how the vineyard is nourished. We find that the cornerstone of the Christian way of life is love, and the love is a person in Jesus. He is the one who will invigorate the vine. Some will ignore him, some will follow. All of us are probably a bit in between. God sent his own Son into the vineyard of human life, not because life is perfect, but because love is. Jesus comes among us because we need him.

Message of Thanks Canon Colm wishes to pass on his thanks. He really enjoyed the celebration on Sunday 27 September in St Clare's hall and was overwhelmed by the generosity and support of parishioners. Thanks to everyone and God Bless.

Following Christ is a 7-week journey in growing in love of God and one another. When Jesus was calling his first Disciples, he said, 'come and follow me'. We receive this calling ourselves today. God comes toward us calling us to himself to be Disciples of Christ. It takes an effort on our part to respond to that call. Will you strive to live the Christian life that Jesus calls you to and make the effort to attend the Following Christ course? It is a course that will help you to understand what it means to be a Disciple of Christ offering practical ways in which to live out your Catholic faith through learning to pray, read scripture, engage in the sacraments and more. The course runs each Monday until 19 October, 7 – 9pm in Mater Dei Pastoral centre. The topics covered are; Personal Prayer, Hearing God in Scripture, The Power of the Sacraments, Forgiving One Another, The Spirit-Empowered Life, The Heart of a Disciple and Going on with the Lord. www.christlife.org

Liturgical 'Sign of Peace' The Sign of Peace remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The customary expression of the Sign of Peace in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the sign of peace such as a nod, a bow or a smile are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. No offence should be taken if someone prefers to express a non-contact Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, and if you exhibit flu-like symptoms, you are encouraged to remain at home.

Church Webcam The church webcam for live stream of Masses can be accessed via the Parish Website www.glenavyandkilleadparish.com Go to the top line and click on webcams and pick either Mater Dei or Glenavy. It can also be accessed at www.churchmedia.tv. Select Antrim & search for St Joseph's, Glenavy or Mater Dei, Crumlin and the churches will appear. Click on the play button to view live stream. The webcams enable us to attend Mass, however they do not allow us to receive the Eucharist, The Body of Christ. When possible, we should attend Mass in the Church whenever our circumstances permit in order to receive Holy Communion.

Making your offering to the church Parishioners are encouraged to make donations to the parish either by using the parish envelopes or by means of bank transfer. It is of great benefit to the parish when we can record donations so that gift aid can be claimed, if applicable. If you would like to donate using envelopes and don't already do so, please contact the parish office. Alternatively, if you are able, you are encouraged to make a monthly offering to the Church by means of a Bank Transfer to: Parish of Glenavy and Killead Sort Code 98 04 60, Account 10654677. The relevant forms are available at the back of the Churches. Both forms need to be completed with one sent to your Bank and the other to the parish office. If you have any queries, please contact the Parish Support Officer in confidence. Please note that there is a separate account number for the Parish Draw and this should not be used when making a weekly donation.

Today marks the twenty-seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time. We are now at the beginning of October. Where does the time go? Interestingly, the name ‘October’ comes from the Latin word ‘octō’, which means eight. It was the eighth month in the old Roman calendar, but it kept its name even after January and February were added. October is a month dedicated to the Rosary. Mass of Our Lady of the Rosary will be celebrated on the seventh of October. This feast was established by Pope St. Pius V to thank the Lord for the naval victory at Lepanto on 7 October 1571, which stopped the Ottoman Turks from invading Europe. Pope St. Pius V named it the Feast of Our Lady of Victory, and it was originally celebrated on the first Sunday of October. Later, Pope Gregory XIII renamed it the Feast of the Holy Rosary.

The Rosary is also known as the ‘Breviary of the Common People’ (because it has 150 Hail Marys, just like the Breviary has 150 Psalms) and it is also named ‘Psalms of the Illiterate’. The prayers we say are from the Bible, so they’re ‘inspired’, and the mysteries we think about come from the lives of Jesus and Mary. The ‘Our Father’ is a prayer that Jesus himself taught us, and the ‘Hail Mary’ is also based on the Scriptures. The first part of the ‘Hail Mary’ is what the Archangel Gabriel and Elizabeth said to Mary. And the third prayer, the ‘Glory be to the Father’, is a long-standing prayer of adoration and praise, just like what we find in the Book of Revelation. The Rosary invites us to reflect on the events in Jesus and Mary’s lives, which are like chapters in the Paschal Mystery—the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. The Rosary’s goal is to help us ponder the big mysteries of our salvation.

This weekend, the Gospel (Matthew 21:33-43) tells us about the Vineyard. It’s a carefully planned place, surrounded by hedges or fences, where God has intentionally set aside a space for his people to grow and mature in his ways, producing the fruits of love and peace.

This Gospel reveals three important things about God:

1. God trusts us. He doesn’t hover over the vineyard’s cultivators like a police officer.
2. God is patient with us. The master sent messengers repeatedly to the vineyard, not rushing in with harsh punishment when one messenger had been mistreated. He gives the cultivators many chances to respond and repent. God is patient with us in our sins and doesn’t abandon us.
3. God will come to judge us. There will be a day when we will all be held accountable for how we have carried out the tasks God has given us.

However in today’s second reading from Paul to the Philippians (4:6-9), he gently reminds us: ‘There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God which is so much greater than we can understand will guard your thoughts and hearts in Christ Jesus’. Father Charles C.P.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

5:1-7

Let me sing to my friend
the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
He dug the soil, cleared it of stones,
and planted choice vines in it.
In the middle he built a tower,
he dug a press there too.
He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.
What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?
I expected it to yield grapes.
Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
overgrown by the briar and the thorn.
I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it.
Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.
He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 79:9. 12-16. 19-20. R Is 5:7

(R) The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

1. You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots. (R)

2. Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. (R)

3. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R)

4. And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians 4:6-9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 21:33-43

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a wine-press in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone.
This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE CREED

All: I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow your head up to the words 'and became man') and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the wine we offer you:

fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Accept, O Lord, we pray, the sacrifices instituted by your commands and, through the sacred mysteries, which we celebrate with dutiful service, graciously complete the sanctifying work by which you are pleased to redeem us.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER III

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (II in Ordinary Time)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Christ our Lord.

For out of compassion for the waywardness that is ours, he humbled himself and was born of the Virgin; by the passion of the Cross he freed us from unending death, and by rising from the dead he gave us life eternal.

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions,
and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven,
we sing the hymn of your glory,
as without end we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise, for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ,
by the power and working of the Holy Spirit, you give life to all things and make them holy,
and you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you:
by the same Spirit graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and + Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

For on the night he was betrayed
he himself took bread,
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing,
broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended,
he took the chalice
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT, FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD, THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

Priest: Therefore, O Lord, as we celebrate the memorial of the saving Passion of your Son, his wondrous Resurrection and Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this holy living sacrifice.

Look, we pray, upon the oblation of your Church and, recognising the sacrificial Victim by whose death you wished to reconcile us to yourself, grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ.

May he make of us an eternal offering to you, so that we may obtain an inheritance with your elect, especially with the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse, with your blessed Apostles and glorious Martyrs with Saint Patrick and with all the Saints, on whose constant intercession in your presence we rely for unfailing help.

May this Sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray, O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world. Be pleased to confirm in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, with your servant Leo our Pope and N our Bishop, the Order of Bishops, all the clergy, and the entire people you have gained for your own.

Listen graciously to the prayers of this family, whom you have summoned before you:
in your compassion, O merciful Father, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world.
To our departed brothers and sisters and to all who were pleasing to you at their passing from this life, give kind admittance to your kingdom.
There we hope to enjoy for ever the fullness of your glory through Christ our Lord, through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching,
we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels

The celebrant says quietly:

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world,
free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood,
from all my sins and from every evil;
keep me always faithful to your commandments,
and never let me be parted from you.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Lam 3:25

All: The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:

What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity.

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray.
Grant us, almighty God,
that we may be refreshed and nourished
by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May God bless you with every heavenly blessing, make you always holy and pure in his sight, pour out in abundance upon you the riches of his glory, and teach you with the words of truth;
may he instruct you in the Gospel of salvation,
and ever endow you with fraternal charity.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever.

All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go in peace.

All: Thanks be to God.

We pray for our beloved dead:

AUTUMN MONTHS

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons.

As we welcome the autumn months, may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest.

May the brilliant colours of the leaves remind us of the wonder of your creation.

May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is you who give us the breath of life.

May the dying of summer's spirit remind us of your great promise that death is temporary, and life is eternal.

Creator God, who brings forth both green shoot and hoar frost, sunrise and sunset, we bring our thanks for seeds that have grown, harvests gathered, storehouses filled, mouths fed.

And, as your good earth rests through winter's cold embrace, we look forward to its re-awakening when kissed by Spring's first touch.

We praise you for your goodness forever and ever. Amen.

During the month of October each year we are asked to consider the needs of the Church on the mission fields. Later in the month (18th October,) we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Why not consider praying the daily rosary with family, or with friends, for the missions during this month!

NEWTOWNARDS & COMBER PARISH-OUR MISSION

Responding to our baptismal call, we come together in prayer and worship to celebrate the word and the Eucharist. Having been fed at these tables we are sent out to witness to Christ by announcing and living out the Gospel. In this way we pass on the gift of faith to future generations.

IN SUPPORT OF HUMAN LIFE

During this week we are asked to pray for the protection of life: - Today is the feast day of St Francis of Assisi, we pray with his powerful intercession for governments, that their ability to support the vulnerable would increase and that they would anchor themselves on the desire to protect all human life.

TIDY-UP' SATURDAY- Saturday 17th October 10am-12noon.

Have you an hour or two to spare on Saturday 17th October?

We plan to host a tidy-up of the grounds around St Patrick's Church.

As autumn sets in, and in advance of winter, you are invited to come along to help. Refreshments will be provided. We will meet at St Patrick's Minor Hall at 10am. Bring along your brushes, rakes, shovels, and gloves!

RELECTING ON MERCY & FORGIVENESS

In our Catholic understanding of marriage, mercy and forgiveness are not simply helpful qualities; they are part of the sacrament's spiritual life. Marriage brings two imperfect people into a lifelong covenant in which each is called to reveal something of Christ's faithful and merciful love.

Mercy sees the person before the fault. A husband or wife may act selfishly, speak carelessly or disappoint the other. Mercy does not pretend the wrong did not happen, but refuses to reduce the person to that failure.

Forgiveness is a decision as well as a feeling. A spouse may choose to forgive before the hurt has completely disappeared. Healing can take time, but forgiveness can prevent resentment from taking root and can open the way to reconciliation and peace.

THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

The celebration of the Month of the Rosary goes back to a moment in history when prayer changed everything. In 1571, during the Battle of Lepanto, Christians across Europe prayed the Rosary for peace and protection. Against overwhelming odds, victory came, and the Church recognized this as the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Soon after, the Church established October as a month dedicated to the Rosary, inviting the faithful to turn to Our Blessed Mother in times of need. Today, that invitation is still open to all!

The Rosary: A Global Prayer That Unites the Church

The Rosary isn't just a personal devotion, it's a global mission.

Right now, over 1.3 billion Catholics worldwide are united in prayer; the Rosary is prayed daily on every continent and missionaries often rely on the Rosary as a primary spiritual tool in remote communities. From villages in Africa to urban centers in Latin America, the Rosary crosses language barriers and cultural differences.

It's simple. It's accessible. And it's powerful!

Why the Rosary Still Matters in Today's World

We live in a world filled with anxiety, division, and uncertainty.

The Rosary offers something different:

- Peace in the middle of chaos
- Hope when situations feel impossible
- Connection to God through Mary's guidance
- A source of comfort for families
- A way to teach the Gospel
- A tool for building faith communities.

CARE OF SAINT PATRICK'S CHURCH

Volunteers are required to help care for St Patrick's Church, in terms of regular cleaning. We have four cleaning teams at present, providing an effective service on a Friday morning after Mass. Parishioners and visitors often comment on how well-presented the church is, thanks to all involved. At the time, some of the teams require additional volunteers. Would you be interested? If so, please leave your name and contact details into the sacristy; after-all, 'many hands make light work!'

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS

This weekend Deacon Derek celebrates the first anniversary of his ordination as deacon. May the Lord continue to bless his ministry and his family!

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

through meditation on His life, death, and resurrection. Catholics ask Mary to pray for us, not because she is worshipped, but because she is the Mother of Jesus and is believed to intercede for us.

Praying the Rosary can bring peace and help us slow down, especially during busy or difficult days. It gives us a way to place our worries and Intentions before God, strengthens our faith and perseverance, and encourages virtues such as patience, compassion, humility, forgiveness, and hope.

The repeated prayers provide a simple rhythm that helps us focus on God and reflect on the Gospel. Even when we are distracted or don't know what to say, the Rosary gives us a way to continue praying and entrusting our lives to God.

Ultimately, the Rosary is not about simply repeating words, It is about spending time with God, contemplating Jesus, and allowing prayer to gradually transform our daily lives

A NOVENA TO OBTAIN GRACES THROUGH THE INTERCESSION OF SAINT FAUSTINA

Jesus, you gave your servant Saint Faustina, the gift of deep reverence for your unending mercy.
I ask you if it be Your holy will, to grant me,
Through her prayers, the grace for which I fervently pray.
(Mention your need)
Because of my sins, I don't deserve Your Mercy, but I ask you to remember Saint Faustina's spirit of sacrifice and self-denial, and be gracious to her faithful love of You by granting the petition which I make to You now, with childlike trust through her intercession.
Amen.

From the head to the heart - a journey through Luke's Gospel

How well do you know the stories of Jesus? This autumn, the Parish of Ardkeen is offering a unique 8-week introduction to the Gospel of Luke. Together, we will trace the narrative backwards—from the joy of the empty tomb, through the life and ministry of Jesus, to the stable in Bethlehem as Advent begins. This course will give you the historical context to understand the text, insights to love the stories, and the spiritual tools to turn scripture reading into deep personal prayer. No prior Bible study experience needed! The course begins on Sunday, 11th October, 7.45-8.45 pm (after the 7 pm Solemn Rosary) in the Nunsquarter Room, St Mary Star of the Sea.

~A Spiritual Communion~

Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You Sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, I embrace You as if you are already there, and I unite myself wholly to You.

The Lord asks of you only this, that you act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God.
(Micah 6:8)

Message to Parishioners

Dear Parishioners

Whilst reluctant to make new changes in my first year as Parish Priest, it has been suggested that in order to accommodate the possibility of Saturday morning funerals as well as accommodating weddings prior to 1.30/2.00pm that we should move the 12noon Mass on Saturday to 9.30am. (Cemetery's in the city close at 11.00am.) This would also provide the opportunity to have Baptism celebrated on a Saturday as well as a Sunday.

Baptisms on the 1st Sunday of the month at 1.30pm and the 3rd Saturday of the month at 11.00am.

This would entail moving Saturday morning confessions to 10.00am.

I would welcome hearing your views.

Sunday Message

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE WORD

Year A • 4 October 2026 • Colour: Green • Psalter Week 3

THE GIFT OF PATIENCE

MT 21:33-43

St Matthew uses the parable in today's Gospel to summarise the story of God's relationship with God's people. The characters in the story are symbolic. The landlord represents God, the tenants are the people of Israel, and the servants are the prophets, whom God has continually sent to Israel to remind the people of their true destiny. All of them were rejected and despised.

Finally, God sends his son Jesus, who, like the son in the parable, will be murdered by those to whom he came. The landlord will punish the tenants by leasing the vineyard to new tenants. This is Matthew's way of telling his readers that the Kingdom of God will be given to the Gentiles, the outsiders, as it were, those who weren't part of the original story. Since the Son has been rejected by the people he came for, he must go to others instead.

The parable is also a reminder of God's patience. In the Old Testament, the people of Israel kept turning their backs on God. But God never gives up on them, never abandons them. Over and over again, God makes allowances for them and forgives them. This is what distinguished the God of Abraham from other gods of antiquity, who were indifferent, capricious, and casually cruel. Israel's God is the God of endless patience, of infinite second chances, always ready to welcome the prodigal home. In the end, God even sent his Son among us to save us, to lead us home.

Jesus displayed similar patience. People resisted his message; many opposed him; even his closest friends misunderstood him. He must have been desperately frustrated and disappointed with them, but Jesus never gave up on them. Even after Peter denied him three times, Jesus welcomed him back.

God shows that same patience towards each one of us. Even when we keep letting God down and turning our backs on God, even when we disappoint and exasperate him, God is always ready to forgive and forget, to accept us with open arms. ■

DO

Try to be more patient with people at home, at work, and on the roads this week.

SAY

"Lord, I thank you for your patience with me. Help me to draw closer to you every day. Amen."

PRAY

In today's fast-paced, super-competitive world, practising patience has never been more challenging. Pray for the virtue of patience, if you need it.

LEARN

God never stops giving us the chance to turn back towards him

God always sees the good in us, our potential; God never rejects anyone

God's message is intended for everyone

REFLECT

There's no doubt about it, practising patience has never been more difficult. We live in a culture of wanting things now, one of instant gratification. Waiting is a challenge. And not just the sort of anxiety-filled waiting we're obliged to do in an overcrowded A&E, but any kind of waiting. Many of us suffer from road rage, all for the sake of gaining a few extra minutes. Having to sit at a red light annoys us; being stuck in a barely moving queue frustrates us. If our internet connection is down or slow, we get angry. Regular broadband is no longer sufficient; we need high-speed broadband. We're intolerant of inconvenience and discomfort.

The letter 'I' in 'internet' stands not just for me, the individual, but also for instant

- instant access, instant news, instant communication, instant entertainment, instant titillation - available immediately, right now, this very second. As with instant messaging, instant coffee, and ready-made meals, we demand immediate results, and we want them now.

It can be the same with our relationships. If a relationship is in difficulty, we can be tempted to give up on it. Caring for sick or elderly loved ones can test our endurance, our tolerance. If things start to go wrong for us professionally - maybe there are problems at work, or a promotion isn't coming, or our ambitions are being frustrated - we can get angry or feel like quitting.

So also with our religion. Scandals in the church, impatience with the pace of reform, or disappointment with the clergy can leave us feeling fed up and inclined to walk away. When God is slow to answer our prayers or doesn't appear to answer them at all, we can be tempted to stop praying or even to abandon God altogether.

Our pilgrim journey requires patience. Despite our best efforts, we're not going to become saints overnight, become perfect in a flash, reach heaven unscathed. We are human; we are frail; we make mistakes; we flounder and founder. Knowing that God is always patiently with us, walking alongside us every step of the way, we learn to be patient with ourselves and patient with each other. ■

Pope Leo's Intention for October: For mental health ministry.
Let us pray that mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

The Vineyard is Ourselves!

God is all the time caring for his people and thinking of us, making sure we're not endangered when he can help it. His care for his people goes into the heart of the Trinity, one of whom becomes one of us, for our sake.

He wants us to bear fruit, as in the second reading. He will give these fruits - and wants us to value them.

In our society today, we could say that in many countries child protection and care is better today, We are more inclusive of people who differ from us and the church is open to the whole human family.

In Ireland we have more peace now than we had, but maybe not more justice, especially for our migrant people. These are some fruits. We miss out on some issues - the value of faith and community is low and sometimes in public or political life we go for the temporary and the illusory and the dramatic. The gap between rich and poor is wider than ever. We have had bad experiences of greed and financial abuse, even in the charities sector. Our care of the elderly leaves much to be demanded. Looking at the gospel vision, we can ask how the vineyard is nourished. We find that the cornerstone of the Christian way of life is love, and the love is a person in Jesus. He is the one who will invigorate the vine ... Some will ignore him, some will follow. All of us are probably a bit in between. God sent his own Son into the vineyard of human life, not because life is perfect, but because love is. Jesus comes among us because we need him.

FEAST/MEMORIAL DAYS THIS WEEK

Monday 5 October - St Faustina was born in Poland in 1905 and her short life was spent as a sister of Our Lady of Mercy. She understood that no human wretchedness could measure itself against the mercy which pours from the heart of Christ. She inspired the movement dedicated to proclaiming and imploring Divine Mercy throughout the World.

Wednesday 7 October - Our Lady of the Rosary

This celebration urges all to meditate on the mysteries of Christ, following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary who was in a special manner associated with the incarnation, passion and glorious resurrection of the Son of God.

Friday 9 October – St John Henry Newman was beatified by Pope Benedict in 2010 and canonised in 2019. The memorial of the new saint is 9 October, the anniversary of his reception into the catholic Church in 1845. The Church in Ireland is deeply aware of St John Henry's gentle scholarship, deep human wisdom and profound love for the Lord.

St Vincent de Paul 028 90351561

NEW LODGE GROTTTO ROSARY

Rosary at the Lourdes Grotto in the New Lodge every Monday at 7pm and Thursday at 7.30pm. All welcome.

TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Fruitless Vineyard

The Old Testament tells us that God cared for his people as a good gardener cares for his vineyard, yet they failed to produce the desired fruits. We are the new people of God, the vineyard planted and cared for by Christ. God looks to us to produce the fruits of justice, holiness and peace. This is a great privilege and a great challenge too.

History is littered with stories of good tenants and wicked landlords. In the gospel we have a story of wicked tenants and a good landlord. The parable is an allegory of God's dealings with his people. The landlord is God. The vineyard is Israel. The wicked tenants are the people of Israel, but more especially the religious leaders who have been given charge of the vineyard by God. The servants are the prophets sent by God and so often rejected and killed. The son is Jesus himself whom they killed.

Like the parable of the two sons, this parable was directed at the chief priests and elders. It was meant as a warning, but it went unheeded. The tenants came to a bad end, Jerusalem was destroyed, and the Gentiles replaced the Jews as God's people.

READINGS: First Reading (Is 5:1-7). Israel is compared to a well cared for vineyard which fails to produce fruit. Second Reading (Phil 4:6-9). St Paul advises the converts at Philippi how they should live in order to enjoy the peace of God. Gospel (Mt 21:33-43). The parable of the wicked vine-dressers tells us of God's goodness to his people, and of their failure to respond in kind.

*Then in His mercy may He give us a safe

4 October 2026, Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A . (Mission Month).

Sunday Gospel God wants us to bear fruit, as in the second reading. He will give these fruits - and wants us to value them. We could say that in many countries child protection and care is better, we are more inclusive of people who differ from us and that the Church is open to the whole human family. In Ireland we have more peace than we had, but maybe not more justice, especially for our migrant people. These are some fruits. We miss out on some issues - the value of faith and community is low and sometimes in public or political life we go for the temporary or the illusory. The gap between rich and poor is wider than ever. We have had bad experiences of greed and financial abuse, even in the charities sector. Looking at the gospel vision, we can ask how the vineyard is nourished. We find that the cornerstone of the Christian way of life is love, and that love is a person in Jesus. He is the one who will invigorate the vine ... some will ignore him, some will follow. God sent his own Son into the vineyard of human life, not because life is perfect, but because his love is. (Fr D Neary).
