Weekly Reflection.

The grace of forgiveness.

Forgiveness is not easy. There is no more difficult form of giving than forgiving. For some people, forgiveness seems an impossible requirement, because of what they have suffered and the harm that has been done to them. How do you forgive someone who has done something terrible to you or to a member of your family? There are times in our lives when we are not able to forgive someone, especially when the offending person shows no sign of remorse or of wanting to make restitution for the harm done.

Jesus, in today's parable of the unforgiving servant, is suggesting that God's tender, limitless mercy towards us is with a view to our own transformation. To really open our lives to God's limitless mercy is to be transformed by God's love into God's likeness. We all have someone to forgive and we all need to be forgiven by someone. Offering forgiveness to another will never come easy to us; it sometimes comes very slowly. Today's Gospel suggests that the more we appreciate and open ourselves up to the gift of God's limitless forgiveness of us, the freer we will be to pass on that forgiveness to others.

Fr. Owen Joe.

The Season of Creation is the annual Christian celebration to pray and respond together to the cry of Creation: the ecumenical family around the world unites to contemplate and care for our common home. This year, we will unite around the theme "Living Water", inspired by Ezekiel 47:9 - a powerful biblical vision of hope and ecological healing. Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God's sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation. The Season of Creation continues until 4th October. For further information, including prayers and reflections, visit Season of Creation 2026 | Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

Reflection on Today's Gospel

In today's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus, "How often must I forgive?" Jesus' answer—"not seven times but seventy-seven times"—reminds us that forgiveness is not about keeping count. It is a way of living. The parable of the unforgiving servant shows us the depth of God's mercy. We have received forgiveness far beyond what we could ever earn, yet we can sometimes struggle to extend that same mercy to others. Jesus challenges us to remember that the forgiveness we receive from God should overflow into our relationships.

Forgiving does not mean pretending that hurt never happened. It means choosing not to let resentment have the final word. As we pray the Lord's Prayer, "forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us," may we ask for the grace to forgive generously, patiently, and from the heart.

We are delighted to launch our Annual Parish Draw for 2026–2027, and we warmly encourage everyone in the parish to support it by purchasing a ticket from one of our parish promoters/ Parish Office

The Parish Draw is a very important source of fundraising for our parish. Your support helps us to meet our financial commitments and, in particular, to repay our parish debt and continue to invest in the future of our parish.

This year, funds raised will also contribute towards the beginning of the construction of a new graveyard in Castleblayney, Muckno—an important project for our parish and for future generations.

We are very grateful to all our promoters who give generously of their time, and to everyone who supports the draw each year. Every ticket makes a difference, and together, through your generosity, we can continue to care for and develop our parish.

We hope that you will support the Parish Draw again this year. Please purchase your ticket from any of our promoters and encourage your family, friends and neighbours to do the same.

Thank you, as always, for your wonderful generosity and continued support of our parish.

The Season of Creation is the annual Christian celebration to pray and respond together to the cry of Creation: the ecumenical family around the world unites to contemplate and care for our common home. This year, we will unite around the theme "Living Water", inspired by Ezekiel 47:9 - a powerful biblical vision of hope and ecological healing. Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God's sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation. The Season of Creation continues until 4th October. For further information, including prayers and reflections, visit Season of Creation 2026 | Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Christian community must be seen to be one of forgiveness and mercy. If the Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy, who are we to be otherwise? We need to be conscious of our own weakness and failures so that we may not judge others harshly. We cannot pray the Lord's Prayer with unforgiving hearts.

A Prayer for our Earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace. Pope Francis Laudato Si' (246)

Thought for Today

As Catholics, we have received the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which allows us to experience God's forgiveness personally. It is a reminder of His boundless love and mercy. In turn, it should inspire us to be forgiving and merciful in our interactions with others. We must remember that forgiveness is not just a one-time act but a continuous disposition of the heart. Let us be mindful of the unforgiving servant in the parable and strive to be merciful and forgiving as our Heavenly Father is to us. In doing so, we bear witness to the transformative power of God's love and mercy in our lives and in the world. Adam Eichelberger • assumptions.org

Points to Ponder

Readiness to forgive is taught by many of the great philosophies and religions of the world. Why? Because you can't be happy, or have any sort of inner peace, far less inner joy, if you refuse to forgive. Dwelling on past hurts, nurturing resentment, indulging simmering anger: these things can blight or embitter a person's whole life. Unfortunately though, as all of us know: sometimes forgiveness can seem very difficult indeed, even impossible. Perhaps this is so nowadays more than ever, because contemporary secular culture encourages us to think of ourselves as victims, who have a right to demand compensation and redress.

What though if we find it too hard? What if my brother really hurts or upsets me, and ever continues to do so? What if I have been so deeply wounded by someone that my life is effectively ruined? In that case, let us simply admit the impossibility of our task, and turn to God for help. O God come to my aid, we cry. 'Lord, help me to let go of this. If I can't forgive, then do you forgive in my place. Bless us both, Lord, so that each of us is able to receive the gift of your forgiveness.' We pray, we go to confession, and we come to Mass. Here the love and mercy of Jesus that flows from his sacrificial death are made present, and received in sacramental form. Here supremely we find the grace and strength we need, in order to let go of the debt we are owed: we, who have been redeemed from our own incomparably greater debt, through the blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.
