Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Anniversary Masses

People are encouraged to have these Masses on a Friday evening as well as the Sunday Mass. This will ensure that there is no overcrowding in the church during any Mass Meeting of Ushers. After the Wednesday evening Mass there will be a short meeting to organise ushers over the next few months. Present ushers and new members are invited to attend.

Church cleaning Thanks to all those that have helped in keeping the inside of the church and the grounds clean and tidy. The work of both groups is greatly appreciated.

velopes & Donations can be dropped into the metal box on the porch wall or into the basket as you walk into the body of the church. Alternatively people can donate to the parish electronically through online or using the IBAN IE23BOFI90326942685351

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. The theme this year is "Come and See" (Jn 1:46). Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are. Pope Francis tells us that 'the Gospel comes alive in our own day, whenever we accept the compelling witness of people whose lives have been changed by their encounter with Jesus... The challenge that awaits us now, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

NATIONAL SYNOD FOR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN IRELAND. A new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years has been announced. Submissions are invited as to what methods/models to adopt in these coming years of conversations. You are invited to offer feedback (300 words max) to the following question: What would be your preferred option for engagement in a conversation process about the future of the Church? The responses will be considered by the task group to be put in place by the bishops this summer to plan and oversee the first steps along the synodal pathway. Submissions should be made via the new Synodal Pathway webpage: www.catholicbishops.ie/synod.

Accord Catholic Marriage Care Service is currently recruiting volunteers to train as marriage preparation programme facilitators. Contact Aisling on 01 505 3112 or by email to info@accord.ie. The following prayer for strength was written by Pope John 23rd. Some days we struggle to find the right words or just struggle to get going with prayer. This lovely prayer could easily fill those moments.

Every day, I need you Lord, but today especially I need some extra strength to face whatever is to come. This day, more than any other day, I need to feel you near me to strengthen my courage and to overcome my fear. By myself I cannot meet the challenge of the hour. We are frail human creatures and we need a Higher Power to sustain us in all that life may bring. And so dear Lord, hold my trembling hand. Be with me Lord, this day and stretch out your powerful arm to help me. May your love be upon me as I place all my hope in you. Amen.

This week's bulletin has been sponsored in memory of the Gavin family, Aughnaskew.

UPDATE ON ST. MACARTAN'S CATHEDRAL:

With the scaffolding now removed, we can now see our beloved Cathedral in all her glory once more. This immense project ensures that St. Macartan's Cathedral is now protected for further generations. As mentioned, our attentions now turn to the finer comforts, such as heating and toilet facilities, working hard to provide the best solution to meet the needs of parishioners, whilst conscious of our responsibility to ensure that we provide a sustainable system which protects our fragile environment. Our current fundraising figure stands at €2.3million, raised thanks to the amazing generosity of our parishioners, clergy and diocesan wide support.

What happens next: Charitable Donations Scheme (separate to Monaghan Parish) will be rolled out in the coming months and we ask, if you receive a CHY3/Enduring Certificate from us, that you complete and return same.

Yearly Pledges: If you have pledged to pay yearly and have yet to make your 2026 payment, just a reminder if you are paying by cheque, please make cheque payable to Diocese of Clogher. You can drop it in Parish Office, or post to Bishop's House, FAO Gail. If paying by Bank Transfer, please ensure you use your name as reference. If you have any questions, please call Gail at Bishop's Office - 047 81019, or by email: gail@clogherdiocese.ie A sincere thanks to all for your continued support and patience.

Confessions in St Joseph's Church each Saturday 11am to 12pm (Dependent on availability of priest)

Coeliacs: For parishioners with gluten sensitivities, special low-gluten hosts are available at all Masses. To receive please go to the main priest celebrant and say that you are coeliac. Please Note: As the Catholic Church requires a minimal amount of gluten for the host to be valid matter, the hosts are not totally gluten free.

September is devoted to Our Lady of Sorrows, commemorated on September 15, reflecting Mary's suffering at the foot of the Cross. Many pray for guidance, protection, and spiritual growth throughout this month.

Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows:

Oh most holy and afflicted Virgin, Queen of Martyrs, you stood beneath the cross, witnessing the agony of your dying Son. Look with a mother's tenderness and pity on me, who kneel before you. I venerate your sorrows and place my requests with filial confidence in the sanctuary of your wounded heart. Present them, I beseech you, on my behalf to Jesus Christ, through the merits of his most sacred Passion and Death, together with your sufferings at the foot of the cross; and through the united efficacy of both, obtain the grant of my present petition. To whom shall I resort in my wants and miseries if not to you, O Mother of Mercy, who, having so deeply drunk of the chalice of your Son, can compassionate the sorrows of those who still sigh in the land of exile?

We cannot go through life without being hurt. People disappoint us, misunderstand us, sometimes treat us badly. Forgiveness does not mean pretending that these things do not matter, nor does it mean that every damaged relationship can simply be restored. But there is another question worth asking: what do we allow our hurts to do to us? What happens within us eventually reaches other people. Hurt can travel through us. Resentment can travel through us. Someone else's bitterness can slowly become our bitterness too. But mercy can travel through us as well. None of us has made our life entirely by ourselves. We have received love we did not earn, patience we did not deserve, opportunities we could not have created, faults that others chose to overlook. Above all, we live within the mercy of God. The challenge is to remember not only what has been done to us, but also what has been done for us. Sooner or later, one or the other will pass through us into the lives of others.

UPDATE ON ST. MACARTAN'S CATHEDRAL:

With the scaffolding now removed, we can now see our beloved Cathedral in all her glory once more. This immense project ensures that St. Macartan's Cathedral is now protected for further generations. As mentioned, our attentions now turn to the finer comforts, such as heating and toilet facilities, working hard to provide the best solution to meet the needs of parishioners, whilst conscious of our responsibility to ensure that we provide a sustainable system which protects our fragile environment. Our current fundraising figure stands at €2.3million, raised thanks to the amazing generosity of our parishioners, clergy and diocesan wide support.

What happens next: Charitable Donations Scheme (separate to Monaghan Parish) will be rolled out in the coming months and we ask, if you receive a CHY3/Enduring Certificate from us, that you complete and return same.

Yearly Pledges: If you have pledged to pay yearly and have yet to make your 2026 payment, just a reminder if you are paying by cheque, please make cheque payable to Diocese of Clogher. You can drop it in Parish Office, or post to Bishop's House, FAO Gail. If paying by Bank Transfer, please ensure you use your name as reference. If you have any questions, please call Gail at Bishop's Office - 047 81019, or by email: gail@clogherdiocese.ie A sincere thanks to all for your continued support and patience.

Confessions in St Joseph's Church each Saturday 11am to 12pm (Dependent on availability of priest)

Coeliacs: For parishioners with gluten sensitivities, special low-gluten hosts are available at all Masses. To receive please go to the main priest celebrant and say that you are coeliac. Please Note: As the Catholic Church requires a minimal amount of gluten for the host to be valid matter, the hosts are not totally gluten free.

St Carlo Acutis, you loved Jesus in the Eucharist and found joy in serving God with a generous heart.

Help us to seek holiness in the ordinary moments of life.

May your example inspire all our young people to live with faith, compassion, and courage.

Intercede for our parish and for all who pray before your relic, that we may grow closer to Christ each day.

St Carlo Acutis, pray for us.
