Briathar Dé

An Chéad Léacht Sliocht as Leabhar Ísáia fáidh -- 25:6-10
Réiteoidh Tiarna na Slua féasta mór ar an sliabh seo le haghaidh na gciníocha go léir, beidh scoth na beatha ann agus togha an fhíona, beatha shaibhir agus bhlasta, fíon nach bhfuil a bhualadh le fáil. Tógfaidh sé leis den sliabh seo an lionndubh atá mar bheadh clóca ar an domhan go léir agus an taiséadach atá timpeall na náisiún go léir, cuirfidh sé an Bás ar ceal. Glanfaidh Dia na deora de chuile éadan, ní fhágfaidh sé a phobal faoi náire in aon áit ar fud an domhain, mar sé an Tiarna a dúirt. Déarfar an lá sin, breathnaígí, sé ár nDia é, a raibh muid ag súil le slánú uaidh; sé an Tiarna é ar chuir muid ár muinín as. Tá gliondar agus lúcháir orainn gur shlánaigh sé muid; mar tá lámh an Tiarna ag lonnú ar an sliabh.
Briathar an Tiarna. Freagra: Buíochas le Dia

Salm le Freagra: I dteach an Tiarna a mhairfidh mé, go brách na breithe.

'Sé'n Tiarna m'aoire, ní bheidh aon uireasa orm.
Cuireann sé i mo luí mé i móinéar féarghlas.
Seolann sé ar imeall an uisce mé,
mar a bhfaighim suaimhneas. Fr

Cuireann sé ar bhealach mo leasa mé, tá sé dílis dá fhocal.
Fiú dá siúlfainn i ngleann an dorchadais níor bhaol dom an t-olc agus tú ansin le do shlat is do bhachall, le sólás a thabhairt dom. Fr

Réitigh tú féasta dom,
i bhfianaise mo naimhde,
Chuir tú ola ar mo cheann;
tá mo chupán ag cur thar maoil. Fr

Leanfaidh cineáltas is fabhar mé, chuile lá de mo shaol.
I dteach an Tiarna a mhairfidh mé,
go brách na breithe. Fr

An Dara Léacht Sliocht as Litir N. Pól chuig na Filipigh -- 4:12-14, 19-20
A chairde, is minic mé ar an gcaolchuid agus is minic fuílleach agam. Tá seanchleachtadh agam ar chuile shórt: ar mo dhóthain mhór, agus ar an ocras, ar an bhflúirse agus ar an ngannchuid. Tá mé in ann chuile shórt a dhéanamh le cabhair an Té úd a thugann neart dom. Mar sin féin ba mhaith an mhaise daoibhse tíocht i gcabhair orm nuair a bhí mé i gcruachás. Agus ní fhágfaidh mo Dhia aon easpa oraibhse as a fhlúirse féin trí Íosa Críost. Moladh go deo le Dia, ár nAthair. Áiméan. Briathar an Tiarna. Freagra: Buíochas le Dia

Alleluia, alleluia! Is spiorad agus is beatha iad d'fhocla, a Thiarna; is agatsa atá briathra na beatha síoraí. Alleluia!

An Soiscéal Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir N. Maitiú -- 22:1-14
San am sin, thosaigh Íosa ag labhairt i bparabail leis na príomhshagairt agus le seanóirí an phobail; "Tá ríocht na bhflaitheas," ar seisean, "cosúil le rí a rinne bainis dá mhac. Chuir sé a shearbhóntaí amach ag glaoch orthu siúd a fuair cuireadh bainise, ach níor mhian leo a thíocht. Ansin chuir sé searbhóntaí eile amach agus dúirt sé leo a rá leo siúd a fuair cuireadh: "Breathnaigh, tá an féasta ullamh, mo chuid mart agus mo chuid beithíoch beaite maraithe, agus chuile rud réitithe: tagaigí chun na bainise." Ach ba chuma leo ach imeacht, duine acu ag obair ar an bhfeilm, duine eile ag ceannacht rudaí, agus an chuid eile acu, rugadar ar a chuid searbhóntaí, thugadar spídiúlacht dóibh agus mharaíodar iad. Tháinig fearg ar an rí, chuir sé a chuid saighdiúirí amach gur chuireadar na scriostóirí chun báis agus gur loisceadar a gcathair. Ansin dúirt sé leis na searbhóntaí: "Tá an bhainis réidh ach an dream a fuair an cuireadh, níorbh bhfiú iad é. Mar sin téigíse amach ar na sráideanna agus tugaigí cuireadh chun na bainse do chuile dhuine a chasfar oraibh." Chuaigh na searbhóntaí amach ar na bóithre agus bhailigh siad ar casadh orthu, olc agus maith, go raibh láthair na bainise lán le cuideachta. Chuaigh an rí isteach ag breathnú ar an gcuideachta, agus chonaic sé fear ann nach raibh aon éadach bainise air. Agus dúirt sé leis: "Céard a thug isteach anseo thú agus gan aon éadach bainise ort?" Ach níor fhreagair sé. Agus dúirt an rí leis an lucht freastail: "Ceanglaítear a chosa agus a lámha agus caitear amach sa dorchadas é: is ansin a bheidh caoineadh agus gíoscán fiacal." Mar glaoitear ar go leor ach ní thoghtar ach beagán."
Soiscéal an Tiarna. Freagra: Moladh leis an Tiarna Íosa Críost

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall not want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me; to revive my drooping spirit. – Psalm 23

Jesus compares God's kingdom to a king inviting guests to a wedding feast, people must choose to accept the invitation. They must also be ready by living according to His ways. "For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly - taking place in on 17 October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. The Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and scan the QR code to access the Working Document, and see www.synod.ie

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The landowner had prepared for a large crowd. When he sent his servants out to personally remind the guests to come, some of the servants were mistreated, beaten and even killed by his prospective guests! Quite naturally, the king was outraged.

What does this Sunday's Gospel say to us? I doubt that we have had the experience this story speaks of. However, we all have been disappointed and upset at various times in our lives. We may have been deeply hurt by someone or betrayed by another. Our natural human response is to be angry, hurt and disappointed – and rightly so. Hopefully, we haven't decided to kill anyone because of that!

In these situations, we need to take time to calm down and deal with the hurt, anger and disappointment. We need to acknowledge and feel the emotions. If we repress them, most likely the emotions will come back with a vengeance. But we can't stop there. We also need to honestly acknowledge what we are experiencing but then with time to gradually 'let these feelings go' and forgive. Most often this is the last thing that we want to do! It will take time but it is an important step to take. If we nurse our anger and hurt, we are not hurting the individuals who disappointed us, but we are hurting ourselves and those we love! If we are not able to forgive, we simply need to ask God to help us. May we have the grace to ask God to heal the anger and hurt – and to free us!

Oasis

Oasis tickets went on sale recently. By all accounts the tickets are in huge demand and their concerts all over Europe were expected to sell out within minutes. But for all their popularity it might surprise you to read that as popular as Oasis are they are not the biggest drawing 'act' in Europe this year. That honour falls to pope Leo XIV.

The summer of 2026 was bookended by two hugely significant Papal visits in Europe. In June Pope Leo visited Spain and then in September he visited France. In total almost 3 million people came out to greet him across both visits

Pope Leo has a distinctively different style of papacy than his predecessor Pope Francis. Inherently shy, Leo seems to be more considered in what he says and does. In many ways in our fractured world he has become a global voice of unity and reason. Pope Leo hasn't been slow to condemn the growth of Christian nationalism, while acknowledging the benefits of AI he has cautioned its unrestricted growth and in his condemnation of war he has been unequivocable in his defence of the sanctity of all human life. On every Papal visit he has made a point of not only meeting with victims of clerical abuse but also with migrants – it was telling that he declined an invitation to his native America to be part of its 250th Anniversary celebrations choosing instead to visit, on July 4th, the Italian island of Lampedusa to highlight the plight of migrants and refugees crossing the Mediterranean.

But none of that would have hinted at the enormous crowds which came our to greet and pray with Pope Leo on his visits to Spain and to France. In Spain, for example, some 600,000 young people joined Pope Leo for an open air prayer vigil which culminated in silent Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament while almost 1 million people attended Mass on the Plaza de Cibeles, in central Madrid.

Last week in Paris some 300,000 people lined the streets to greet Pope Leo as he made his way to Notre Dame and over 80,000 young people packed into the Stad de France that night for an event which included a reenactment of the Catholic history of France and which concluded with silent veneration of a relic of the true cross. The following day almost 800,000 lined the Champs de Elysee to join Pope Leo for a Papal Mass celebrated at the Place de la Concorde. For hours before Mass 100s of priests sat along the famous Parisian boulevard hearing confessions. The following day Pope Leo visited Lourdes where joining the sick he walked in the candle lit procession and celebrated Mass for 150,000 pilgrims. Pope Leo concluded his visit to France with a visit to the City of Metz where he celebrated mass in the Cathedral of St Stephen, known as the Cathedral of Light.

What is it about Leo's message that draws such crowds? Could it be that in preaching the Gospel of truth, justice and love he is pointing to a different kind of world, a world which every human heart longs for. His visits provided an oasis of hope for our broken world. We need to know that it doesn't have to be this way

God Bless
Fr Tod

Tuar Mhic Éadaigh Community Christmas Tree Project: The Knitting Circle and Coiste an Halla are currently working on a special community project for Christmas this year. The group is busy crocheting colourful squares which will be used to decorate a Christmas tree that will be erected in the village during the festive season. As the Christmas tree will be located outdoors and exposed to the elements, a strong and durable frame made from galvanised steel is required. The Knitting Circle would love to involve the whole community in this project and is asking for your support. If you would like to make a donation towards the Christmas lights for the tree or decorations around the tree, your generosity would be greatly appreciated. Donations can be left into the Halla or given to any member of the Knitting Group. community can make a contribution. Every donation, no matter how small, will help us create something colourful, festive and special for everyone to enjoy this Christmas.

Thank you to all who contributed to the autumn Collection for the Archbishop and priests of the parish. Anyone who has not returned your envelope may place it in the Offertory Collection. Thank you.

World Mission Sunday - is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, meaning this year it will be celebrated over the weekend of Sunday 18th October. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration. The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "One in Christ, United in Mission." The offertory collection at all Masses next weekend will go to Misso Ireland, the Irish branch of the Pontifical Missionary Society.

Be United in Mind and Purpose. An evening for parish councils with David Wells takes place in the Prayer Centre at Knock Shrine on Wednesday, October 14th from 7.30pm to 9.30pm. See www.knockshrine.ie for details. Email: faithrenewal@knockshrine.ie

Cathedral Accounts 2025 – A copy of the Cathedral's 2025 Income & Expenditure Account is available to view on the noticeboard in the Cathedral porch. Copies may also be collected from the Parish Office. The new boxes of offertory envelopes are currently being distributed, and we are grateful to our distributors for their assistance. Any parishioner who wishes to register with the parish and receive a box of offertory envelopes may contact the Parish Office 093 24250. Offertory contributions may also be made directly to the Cathedral account using IBAN IE 59BOFI90397187600921.
Please include your envelope number or name with any online donation. We extend our thanks to the ushers who assist with the offertory collection in the Cathedral and to the counters who count the collection each week. Above all, we sincerely thank our parishioners for their generous support of the offertory collection each weekend.
