Those who baked and bought tickets, those who sold raffle lines and secured sponsorship, those who helped in so many ways on the day itself – to say nothing of those who turned out in great numbers to give their support on the day. Our sincere thanks to the businesses and individuals who gave sponsorship and prizes – your generosity is noted and appreciated. Sincere thanks to Scoil Mhuire for the use of their facilities. A great “thank you” to all concerned and to those in the Parish Office and those who attended the meetings and who were in the eye of the storm. Hopefully, such a lovely experience and expression of who we are as a Parish can be repeated again in the years to come. Our crowds were smaller than in other years, but we hope that there is still good support for this initiative. We thank God too for the lovely weather we all enjoyed. Father Bradley	GUIDED HOLY HOUR The Holy Hour in honour of the Holy Face of Jesus continues this Sunday at 6pm in St Mary’s Oratory. BAPTISMS We welcome into God’s Family the following children who were recently baptised: Adam Neil Patrick Moran Annie Moran Rosie Méabh Lavery Watson May God guide and protect our children always.	READINGS FOR 22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1st Reading: Jer 20: 7-9. The prophet Jeremiah lived through the siege of Jerusalem (600 BC), the destruction of the Temple and deportations to Babylon. His prophesying urged a shift from outward practices to a person-to-person, relational, heartfelt religion. For this he was ridiculed and imprisoned. ‘The prophet here foreshadows Christ on the eve of his passion: the living word of God had lit a similar consuming fire deep in Jeremiah’s heart.’ 2nd Reading: Rm 12:1-2. Merely external, outward practice is not acceptable. Our behaviour has to spring from a whole new mind, offering ourselves in all things like Jesus, 'as a holy sacrifice pleasing to God.' Gospel: Mt 16: 21-27. Back in 1994 at the Maynooth launch of the Catechism of the Catholic Church Cardinal Desmond Connell described and explained how Jesus will proudly wear the wounds of his Passion for all eternity. Christians should accept their cross just as Christ did	PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS That the men called to priesthood will be filled with courage and hope as they hear Jesus calling them to follow Him by re-nouncing themselves, taking up their cross every day, and finding life in Him and in the service of His people.
