DO WE DIRECT JESUS OR FOLLOW HIS DIRECTIONS?

Peter has just confessed that Jesus is the Christ, yet he cannot accept that the Messiah must suffer and die. He wants the glory of Christ without the Cross. Jesus tells him, "Get behind me," calling Peter back to his proper place: not directing Jesus, but following him. When Jesus asks us to deny ourselves, he is not asking us to hate ourselves or believe we are worthless. Rather, he asks us to surrender the false self that must always succeed, remain in control and avoid weakness. Taking up the cross means accepting the cost of loving faithfully, trusting that Christ walks before us. The Gospel contains a paradox: when we cling to life on our own terms, we lose it; when we entrust ourselves to Christ, we discover life. The question is not simply whether Jesus accompanies my plans, but whether I am willing to follow where he leads.
