New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, Sunday, October 4th: Feast of the Guardian Angels - "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 18:10) In the first week of October, we celebrate the feast of the Guardian Angels. For many of us, the first prayer we learned was one to our guardian angel and was left behind with our toys and other memorabilia of childhood. However, Pope Francis spoke powerfully about these guides in a 2018 homily when he urged us to remember that our guardian angel is our daily gate to transcendence: “Our angel is not only with us; he also sees God the Father. He is in relationship with Him”. Read the full text of his short homily here: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

St Thérèse of the Child Jesus, please intercede for us.

Fill our hearts with your pure love of God. As we approach and celebrate your feast day, make us more aware of the goodness of God and how well he tends his garden. Instil in us your Little Way of doing ordinary things with extraordinary love. Give us the heart of a child who wonders at life and embraces everything with loving enthusiasm. Teach us your delight in God's ways so that divine charity may blossom in our hearts. St Thérèse of the Child Jesus bring our petitions before God our Father. With your confidence, we come before Jesus as God's children, because you are our heavenly friend. As we celebrate the Feast Day of your homecoming in heaven, continue to shower roses and graces upon us. Amen.

PRAY for Stephen Byrne, Wigan, England, formerly Derrykinlough and Treenkeel (brother of Paddy Byrne, Aiden St) whose funeral will take place in Wigan next week. Joseph Sheerin, Carrandine/ Ballinamore Nursing Home whose funeral took place on Monday last and Lily Slattery, Knock/ St Louis Community School, whose funeral took place on Friday. We pray God's strength for Lily's family, friends and fellow students.

28th SUNDAY: Today's readings tell us that God has wonderful things in store for us. Everyone, no matter what kind of past they have had, receives the same invitation to sit down at God's table. However, having initially answered the invitation, we cannot take things for granted. There is no room for complacency. Almost more dangerous than being an obviously sinful person is being the 'ordinary, run-of-the-mill Catholic', the 'Sunday' Catholic, the "I'm a good enough Catholic", the "I'm a Catholic, but not a fanatic about my religion". These are all cop-outs. And it is not God, but ourselves who are the losers. (sacredspace.com)

THU 15: St Teresa of Avila, 1515-82 reformer and Discalced Carmelite nun. Nada te turbe – popularised by a Taizé chant means, "Let nothing disturb you". This is a Spanish saying and was the motto of Teresa of Avila, Carmelite reformer and mystic. She founded the reformed ("discalced") Carmelites and in spite of much opposition saw her reforms through.

FRI 16: St Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90) visionary. In many Irish churches you will see a stained glass window depicting Our Lord Jesus revealing his Sacred Heart to St Margaret Mary Alacoque. These windows bear witness to the enormous popularity of devotion to the Sacred Heart and the influence of St Margaret Mary Alacoque in spreading it. She is one of the Church's most famous visionaries.

SAT 17: St Ignatius of Antioch (c.37-107) bishop and martyr, is also called "Theophoros", meaning "God-bearer", was an early martyr, who is best known from the seven letters he wrote to various churches in Asia Minor with his strong theology of the humanity of Jesus and his presence in the Eucharist. Promoted bishop's role as a figure of unity in the Church.

MISSION MONTH: In the Catholic Church, October has long been associated with mission. The month starts with the feast of St Thérèse of Lisieux, Patron of missions and celebrates World Mission Sunday on October 18th—a special day of prayer and global solidarity celebrated in all Catholic parishes around the world.

CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) It is fun to go to a party. Getting invitations lets us know that we are liked and cared about. In this week's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable, or story, about a wedding. Some people accept the invitation, and some people refuse it. Jesus tells the parable to teach us about being invited to be his disciple. Jesus invites everyone to be his disciple. Some people accept his invitation, and some people refuse it. Read the short form of today's Gospel, Matthew 22:1–10. The king sent out three invitations to the wedding feast. Which group of people accepted the invitation—the first, second, or third group? (the third group) Jesus invites us to be his disciple. When we say yes to his invitation, he offers us life with God forever. Pray: Jesus, we have accepted your invitation to be your disciple. Help us follow you to God the Father. Pray the Glory Be to the Father FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) As you gather as a family, discuss what you consider appropriate attire for various occasions. For example, if your family were invited to a neighbour's barbecue, what would you wear? If you were planning to attend the symphony, what might you wear? If invited to an evening wedding, what might you wear? Discuss how our preparations for an event and our choice of attire indicates the importance and value we place on the occasion. In today's Gospel Jesus uses this metaphor to talk about the kingdom of heaven. Read Matthew 22:1-14. Discuss why the guest was thrown out of the wedding feast. What does Jesus expect of those who accept his invitation of salvation? What would be the evidence of our conversion to God's salvation? Pray together as a family that you will respond wholeheartedly to God's invitation to salvation. Pray together today's psalm 22.

MISSION MONTH: Daily Prayer – Prayer for Missionaries Lord our God, loving Father, we humbly pray to you for our beloved missionaries, heralds of the Gospel. May our prayers reach their hearts that they may feel our love, our strength, our faith. May our prayers reach their hearts that they continue with your zeal the mission you entrust them with. May their presence in their community be a reminder of your presence among us. Amen. (Missionary Society of St Columban)

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, Sunday, October 4th: Feast of the Guardian Angels - "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 18:10) In the first week of October, we celebrate the feast of the Guardian Angels. For many of us, the first prayer we learned was one to our guardian angel and was left behind with our toys and other memorabilia of childhood. However, Pope Francis spoke powerfully about these guides in a 2018 homily when he urged us to remember that our guardian angel is our daily gate to transcendence: “Our angel is not only with us; he also sees God the Father. He is in relationship with Him”. Read the full text of his short homily here: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Isaiah 5:1-7

Against the Lord's vineyard

Let me sing to my friend
the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside.
He dug the soil, cleared it of stones
and planted choice vines in it.
In the middle he built a tower,
he dug a press there too.
He expected it to yield grapes,
but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem
and men of Judah,
I ask you to judge
between my vineyard and me.
What could I have done for my vineyard
that I have not done?
I expected it to yield grapes.
Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you
what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
overgrown by the briar and the thorn.
I will command the clouds
to rain no rain on it.
Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts
is the House of Israel,
and the men of Judah
that chosen plant.
He expected justice, but found bloodshed,
integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 79(80):9,12-16,19-20

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore,
look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

And we shall never forsake you again;
give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Second reading

Philippians 4:6-9

If there is anything you need, pray for it.

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Jn15:15

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 21:33-43

This is the landlord's heir: come, let us kill him

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone.

This was the Lord's doing
and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

Breffni McGuinness currently serves as a Bereavement Coordinator at LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice. Prior to this role, Breffni has been working in bereavement support, focusing on developing awareness, education, and resources to support bereaved individuals and communities. Breffni brings unique perspectives to his work, with specialisations in dramatherapies and pastoral care.

For many parents, these Information Evenings are their first contact with any supports after the death of their child. Approachable psychoeducation based in their particular experience can help parents recognise their own needs and those of their family. But for many parents, making that first step can be intimidating. Hearing about supports specifically for this kind of grief from a trusted source, like a religious centre or church, makes all the difference.

Parish Pastoral Council

The PPC resumed last Monday after the Summer break. The meeting focused on the revitalisation of the Parish, transitioning from a “consumer” model of church attendance to a disciple model of active ministry. For those who go to Mass each week, it would involve a deepening of their spiritual life as committed disciples with a greater active involvement with their parish. Every encounter with the Lord results in some action by the person. For those who don't come to Mass (and that is about two thirds of our Catholic population) we would make a greater effort to reach them . Less would be expected of those who are not committed disciples. Greater joy results in their presence at Mass. The discussion will continue at our next meeting

The Feast of Our Lady of Banada takes place on the 8th of Oct. There will be a special ceremony in Tourlestrane church that evening at 7pm. The story of Mrs Jones praying for her son Freddie to mend his ways is something that every family experiences from time to time. Synod

What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time? Since 2021, people across Ireland have listened, prayed, and shared their hopes for the Church. From these voices seven priorities emerged: Belonging. Healing, Shared Responsibility, Family, Faith Formation, the role of Women, and Young People. These priorities come from YOU, the people of God in Ireland. Discover more in “Baptised and Sent”. Discover more at www.synod.ie Irish Synodal Pathway.

The Catholic Steps

Introducing The Catholic Steps (www.catholicsteps.com) — a free online fellowship for Catholics who are working through a twelve-step program rooted in the sacraments. The site offers a structured workspace where members work through all twelve steps with reflection questions drawn from Scripture and Catholic tradition. Each member is paired with a sponsor — a fellow Catholic who has completed the steps — who guides them privately through the process. Members can also connect with a daily prayer wall and access resources. It is open to any Catholic who recognises an attachment — whether to a substance, a behaviour, or a pattern of thought — that is keeping them from God. It offers a structured, sacramentally grounded path for parishioners who need more than a weekly meeting but are not yet ready for formal counselling.
