Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ennis - A Franciscan Town Eight Centuries of Presence, Prayers and People.

As the Franciscan family worldwide marks the 800th Anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi Transitus (passing) on 3rd October 1226, the town of Ennis holds a place of special honour in Ireland's Franciscan Story.

The Abbey founded by the O'Brien's of Thomond in the mid-13th Century, grew into one of the Order's great centres with 350 Friars and 600 pupils by 1375.

Even after the penal times and the dissolution of Monasteries, the Franciscan presence endured through individual Friars and a small community re-established in 1627.

Today that unbroken tradition continues - the present Friary, acquired in 1824 serves as a living hub of prayer, devotion and community life for so many of us.

Ennis remains home not only to the Friars but also to the Poor Clare Sisters and the Secular Franciscans, who together carry forward the spirit of Francis and Clare.

Today's feast of St. Francis amid the jubilee year is a moment to give thanks for 800 years of blessings and to offer our thanks and appreciation to the present community of Friars, Guardian Fr. Hugh and his fellow Friars Liam, Elezear, Philip, Seamus, Brendan & Eugene.

May God who has begun the good work in them bring it to fulfilment.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Is 5:1-7

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted choice vines in it.

In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.

What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?

I expected it to yield grapes.

Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn.

I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.

He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
 To plant it you drove out the nations.
 It stretched out its branches to the sea,
 To the Great River it stretched out its shoots. R.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
 It is plucked by all who pass by.
 It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, Devoured by the beasts of the field. R.

God of host, turn again, we implore,
 Look down from heaven and see.
 Visit this vine and protect it,
 The vine your right hand has planted. R.

And we shall never forsake you again:
 Give us life that we may call upon your name. God of hosts, bring us back; Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians. Ph 4:6-9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, every thing that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, Because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt.21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone.
 This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
 To the soul that seeks him.
