TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A

MATTHEW 21:33-43

Sunday 4th October 2026

Ennis a Franciscan Town
Eight centuries of presence, prayers and people.

Mass Times

As the Franciscan family worldwide marks the 800th Anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi Transitus (passing) on 3rd October 1226, the town of Ennis holds a place of special honour in Ireland's Franciscan Story. The Abbey founded by the O'Brien's of Thomond in the Mid-13th Century, grew into one of the Orders great centres with 350 Friars and 600 pupils by 1375.

Even after the penal times and the dissolution of Monasteries, the Franciscan presence endured through individual Friars and a small community re-established in 1627.

Today that unbroken tradition continues, the present Friary, acquired in 1824 serves as a living hub of prayer, devotion and community life for so many of us.

Ennis remains home not only to the Friars but also to the Poor Clare Sisters and the Secular Franciscans, who together carry forward the spirit of Francis and Clare.

Today's feast of St. Francis amid the jubilee year is a moment to give thanks for 800 years of Blessings and to offer our thanks and appreciation to the present community of Friars, Guardian Fr. Hugh and his fellow Friars Liam, Elezear, Philip, Seamus, Brendan & Eugene.

May God who has begun the good work in them bring it to fulfilment.

October - Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of October is especially dedicated to the Holy Rosary, This tradition originates from Pope St. Pius V who wanted to dedicate a feat to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary following the victory at the Battle of Lepanto against the Turkish fleet on the 7th October 1571. During October we invite you to pray the Rosary.

October - Month of the Missions

As well as being the month of the Holy Rosary, the month of October is also associated with the Missions, as World Mission Sunday occurs on Sunday 18th October.

Feast of Saint Francis at the Friary

The OPW invite all to a guided tour of the Medieval Franciscan Abbey here in Ennis on this Sunday at 12 noon to celebrate the 800th anniversary of St Francis' death.

Learn about Francis' early life, the arrival and growth of the Franciscan Order in Ennis, and the friars' fate after the dissolution of the Friary.

The tour will last about 30-35 minutes and entry to the Abbey is free during the event.

Fáilte

As we celebrate the Feast of St. Francis this weekend, we welcome the latest member of the Franciscan Fraternity to Ennis. Fr. Eugene Barrett OFM. Fr Eugene a native of Clonmel has just completed his term as guardian of the Friary in Rosnowlagh, Co. Donegal. Fr. Eugene's parents and family the late Tom and Kitty Barrett lived in Ennis in the 1970's and were very active in our Parish and in Comhaltas. We wish Fr. Eugene every blessing and happiness for his Ministry with us here in Ennis.

St. Anthony Herald

The Bi monthly magazine of the Franciscan Order is now available in both the Friary and the Cathedral. The €2 donation supports the Missionary work of the Franciscan Order.

This latest edition has interesting articles on Dolly Parton's Faith; Five Words of Advice from Pope Leo for older people; the life of Derry Girl, Sr. Clare Crockett and the Six Word Prayer.

Rest in Peace

Safeguarding Month of October Creating a Safe & Welcoming Parish for Everyone

Safeguarding is an essential part of parish life. As a parish community within the Diocese of Killaloe, we are committed to creating an environment where everyone, especially children and young people, feels welcomed, respected, valued and safe.

Our Shared Responsibility:

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Each of us has a part to play in ensuring that our parish is a safe and welcoming place for all. We encourage everyone involved in parish life to be familiar with our safeguarding procedures and to speak up if they have a concern.

Our Commitment:

Our parish takes safeguarding seriously.

If you have a safeguarding concern, please speak with our Parish Safeguarding Representative or follow the reporting procedures display in the church and parish facilities.

For further information and diocesan safeguarding resources, please visit the www.killaloe-diocese.ie or contact Cleo Yates, Director of Safeguarding.

Together, we can make our parish a safe place for everyone.

Cathedral Works Update

Work has begun on the pavement in front of the Cathedral. The main door of the Cathedral will remain closed for the duration of this phase of the work:

There will be four entrances to the Cathedral open each day:

- ◆ Grotto Door;
- ◆ Columbarium Door;
- ◆ Both Side Doors.
- ◆ Funerals will enter and exit by the Columbarium Door.
- ◆ We ask for your understanding and patience as the work progresses.
- ◆ Please park responsibly at all times and do not block entrances.
- ◆ The Parish Office is open and entrance is from Station Road.
- ◆ Our thanks to all who are contributing to the Renovation Appeal that make this work possible.

"The Harvest of the Spirit"

The leaves, like souls, begin to change,
From green to gold in a vast exchange;
Autumn's embrace, a gentle reminder,
Of our own seasons, a time to surrender.

God's hand, like the wind,
guides our way,
As we walk through life,
both night and day;
And just as the trees, we shed our fears,
Trusting that His love will dry our tears.
For every leaf that falls to the ground,
A new prayer rises, a hopeful sound;
Our hearts, like branches,
sway in the breeze,
As we find solace on our spiritual knees.

Grace Johnson

A Gathering of the Clare Branch of Multiple Sclerosis will be held at the Temple Gate Hotel, on Wednesday 7th October at 12pm. All old and new members and friends welcome.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established,
And there is none that can resist your will.
For you have made all things,
the heaven and the earth,
And all that is held within the circle of heaven;
You are the Lord of all.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Is 5:1-7

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.

He dug the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted choice vines in it.

In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.

What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?

I expected it to yield grapes.

Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.

I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn.

I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it.

Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.

He expected justice, but found bloodshed,
integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel

You brought a vine out of Egypt;

To plant it you drove out the nations.

It stretched out its branches to the sea,

To the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

R.

Then why have you broken down its walls?

It is plucked by all who pass by.

It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,

Devoured by the beasts of the field.

R

God of host, turn again, we implore,

Look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it,

The vine your right hand has planted.

R

And we shall never forsake you again:

Give us life that we may call upon your name.

God of hosts, bring us back;

Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

R

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians.

Ph 4:6-9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord,

Because I have made known to you

Everything I have learnt from my Father.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Mt.21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third.

Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them.
'They will respect my son' he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance.' So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them,
'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected

by the builders that became the keystone.

This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
To the soul that seeks him.
