Deireadh Fómhair

Cuirimis fáilte roimh mhí Dheireadh Fómhair, mí na Coróineach Muire. A Íosa, bí linn i rith na míosa le do bheannachtaí agus do ghrá dúinn. I rith na míosa seo, tugaimid ómós agus léirímid ár ngrá don Mhaighdean Mhuire agus d’Íosa tríd an Choróin Mhuire a rá go rialta i rith na míosa agus sinn ag machnamh ar bheatha an tSlánaitheora ar a bhás agus a aiséirí glórmhar. Bhí mórghrá i gcónaí ag ár sinsir do Mhuire mar a léirítear sa phaidir seo a leanas, atá againn ón mbéaloideas, ag moladh na Maighdeana Muire.

Is í Muire Banríon na bhFlaithis, Díontóir na bhfíorlag, Farraige na daonnachta, Réaltán eolais gach seachránaí Bean a réitíonn fiurantacht, Léirmhínitheoir na ngearánach, Sásamh an bhreithimh, Teanga na mbeagcainteach, Séad na suáilcí. Taoide na ngrás agus tonn Chliodhna na Trócaire.

October

We welcome the month of October, the month of the Rosary. Be with us Jesus with your blessings and love. We can show our love for Our Lady and Jesus by saying the Rosary regularly during the month and reflecting on the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Our ancestors had a great love of our Lady as is revealed in this verse from folklore in praise of Our Lady. Mary Queen of Heaven, Refuge of the weak, Sea of humanity, Guiding star of the wanderer, Lady who resolves anger, Interpreter of the complainer, Atonement of the judge, Spokesperson of those without voice, Pathway of virtue. Tide of grace and Cliodhna wave of mercy. Nóta: Cliodhna is one of the three great waves in Irish mythology protecting our coast.

Pastoral Councils: A meeting for all the Pastoral Councils in our Inis Cealtra Pastoral Area will take place on Wednesday 14th October at 7.30pm in the Teagasc Office, Scariff V94 NX58. We extend a warm welcome to all members to join us on the night.

As we enter into The Season of Creation, this is an appropriate time for it invites us to reflect on how we are called to live in harmony. The realities of the ecological crises our world faces today highlights the great disharmony which exists between humanity and God's creation. We are not living in right relationship with the natural world nor with our sisters and brothers who are suffering the most from the climate and biodiversity crises. We are not living in right relationship with young people who are now growing up for "we may well be leaving to coming generations, debris, desolation and filth" (Laudato Si' 161). Pope Francis called the destruction of nature an ecological sin. This is not easy to hear, for it makes demands on us. The good news is that there is a cure. The Season of Creation invites us to a profound interior conversion where our relationship with nature is concerned and asks us to reflect on how we might care more deeply for God's creation. For this is our common home, the home we all share. We are not alone, Christ is with us on this journey: "For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them".

Reflection

Planted by God

*Lord, you planted me on this earth.
You fenced me around with the love of family and friends.
Their care towered over me.
In the shelter of this tower I grew in safety and peace.
I put out early blossoms; I filled up with leaves.
People had great hopes for me.
You had great hopes for me.
But now the year of my life is passing.
The harvest is approaching.
What fruit have I to show?
What if, after all this care,
I had nothing to offer but sour grapes?
May you, Lord, have mercy on me,
and with your patient urging,
help me to produce the fruits of love.*

October the Month of the Rosary

The Rosary is a special prayer in the lives of many people.

The month of October, with the Feast of the Holy Rosary, is a special opportunity to once again renew your love for this prayer, even by praying one decade of the Rosary each day.

St. Francis of Assisi with a papal decree, Pope Leo XIV proclaimed a Jubilee Year dedicated to Saint Francis, to be celebrated which began Jan '26 and ends Jan. 10th 2027.

The year marks eight centuries since the death of the Poor Man of Assisi and invites Christians across the world to rediscover and live his message of peace, fraternity, and reconciliation with renewed commitment

Synodality – a call for us to live as a community

- There seems to be a certain amount of resistance to moving on the Synodal Way.
- In rural communities, such as in Feakle where I grew up, people were expected to help one another. To be prepared to help others was a mission that people were aware of because some day it might be us who would need their help.
- Our Christianity taught us to love one another. "See how these people love and care for one another". It's the hallmark of a Christian community. In our world it might seem utopian, yet as Christians we are called on to promote this way of life.

Fr. Harry Bohan

- You can read the full document as follows

Weekly Reflection

When we think that we have it all figured out – we start getting greedy, and we want it all for ourselves.

When we get caught up in the day-to-day details of our world, those details become our world.

We forget that everything isn't about us. It's about God.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Israel, God's first chosen people, did not produce the fruit expected of them. God found fault with them and the promised inheritance passed from them. The Church today must prove itself worthy of God's call by bringing forth the fruit of love and good works.

Thought for the Week

"Anyone who thinks fallen leaves are dead has never watched them dance on a windy day." Shira Tamir.

Gathering as a Community to Pray.

An Invitation to Lead.

We are the People of God and united in baptism in our Christian calling. The blessing of being able to gather and pray together is a wonderful gift. All through the centuries people led and were led in prayer by fellow parishioners. Today, this invitation is as strong as ever. With the opportunities that are now present we in Imeall Boirne Pastoral Area have a great gift before us. We have nine churches that have served our communities over the centuries as places of prayer. We are being asked to continue to gather in our communities to pray as is happening with Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion, Rosary groups, Prayer Groups, Pray and Play groups, Eucharistic Adoration and School based groups are just some of the groups that are currently being led by fellow parishioners. To support and encourage leaders we are inviting all involved and also any person who would like to get involved to a gathering in Ruan Hall on Wednesday Oct. 21st @ 8pm.

If we do not gather we will be scattered!!!

Killaloe Diocese Meeting of Priests The priests of the diocese are having their annual gathering this week. Liturgies will be celebrated at the usual times Monday 12th, Tuesday 13th and Wednesday 14th October.

Safeguarding A safe parish is one where children and young people are cherished, listened to, and protected. Our safeguarding policies, training and procedures help us to provide safe environments for everyone involved in parish activities. We are grateful to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, clergy, staff, and volunteers for their continued commitment to this important work.

Who needs to be Vetted? Eucharistic Ministers who have been commissioned to bring the Eucharist to homes, hospitals, care homes and other institutions where there are children and vulnerable adults present.

October Month of Mission

In the Catholic Church, October has long been associated with mission. The month starts with the feast of St Thérèse of Lisieux and draws to a close with World Mission Sunday 18th October – a special day of prayer and global solidarity celebrated in all Catholic parishes around the world.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
O God of Israel.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Is 25:6-10

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy,
of fine strained wines.

On this mountain He will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
He will destroy Death for ever.

The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his peoples shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
To revive my drooping spirit.

R

He guides me along the right path;
He is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
No evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
With these you give me comfort.

R

You have prepared a banquet for me
In the sight of my foes
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing.

R

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
All the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
For ever and ever.

R

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians. Ph 4:12-14.19-20

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can.
Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word was made flesh and lived among us;

To all who did accept him

He gave power to become children of God.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 22:1-14

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready.

Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them.
The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the cross-roads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

The rich suffer want and go hungry
But those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ennis - A Franciscan Town Eight Centuries of Presence, Prayers and People.

As the Franciscan family worldwide marks the 800th Anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi Transitus (passing) on 3rd October 1226, the town of Ennis holds a place of special honour in Ireland's Franciscan Story.

The Abbey founded by the O'Brien's of Thomond in the mid-13th Century, grew into one of the Order's great centres with 350 Friars and 600 pupils by 1375.

Even after the penal times and the dissolution of Monasteries, the Franciscan presence endured through individual Friars and a small community re-established in 1627.

Today that unbroken tradition continues - the present Friary, acquired in 1824 serves as a living hub of prayer, devotion and community life for so many of us.

Ennis remains home not only to the Friars but also to the Poor Clare Sisters and the Secular Franciscans, who together carry forward the spirit of Francis and Clare.

Today's feast of St. Francis amid the jubilee year is a moment to give thanks for 800 years of blessings and to offer our thanks and appreciation to the present community of Friars, Guardian Fr. Hugh and his fellow Friars Liam, Elezear, Philip, Seamus, Brendan & Eugene.

May God who has begun the good work in them bring it to fulfilment.

Prayer For The Month Of October

Heavenly and Blessed Father, we welcome the new month of October with great expectation and hope.

Lord, it's difficult to find the words to express my gratitude for all the ways You have blessed my life.

As I prepare for this new month, I know that I cannot do it without You. But Your love and strength empower me.

Thank You for Your unconditional love. I embrace Your love and peace.

I will keep my eyes focused on You. In Jesus name I pray,
Amen!

Entrance Antiphon
Within your will, O Lord, all things are established,
 And there is none that can resist your will.
 For you have made all things,
 the heaven and the earth,
 And all that is held within the circle of heaven;
 You are the Lord of all.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord

C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us,
 forgive us our sins,
 and bring us to everlasting life.

C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace
 to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you
 thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Is 5:1-7

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted choice vines in it.

In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.

What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?

I expected it to yield grapes.

Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn.

I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.

He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
 To plant it you drove out the nations.
 It stretched out its branches to the sea,
 To the Great River it stretched out its shoots. R.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
 It is plucked by all who pass by.
 It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
 Devoured by the beasts of the field. R.

God of host, turn again, we implore,
 Look down from heaven and see.
 Visit this vine and protect it,
 The vine your right hand has planted. R.

And we shall never forsake you again:
 Give us life that we may call upon your name. God of hosts, bring us back;
 Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. R.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians. Ph 4:6-9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, every thing that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, Because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt.21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone.
 This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon

October - Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of October is especially dedicated to the Holy Rosary, This tradition originates from Pope St. Pius V who wanted to dedicate a feat to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary following the victory at the Battle of Lepanto against the Turkish fleet on the 7th October 1571. During October we invite you to pray the Rosary.

October - Month of the Missions

As well as being the month of the Holy Rosary, the month of October is also associated with the Missions, as World Mission Sunday occurs on Sunday 18th October.

Feast of Saint Francis at the Friary

The OPW invite all to a guided tour of the Medieval Franciscan Abbey here in Ennis on this Sunday at 12 noon to celebrate the 800th anniversary of St Francis' death.

Learn about Francis' early life, the arrival and growth of the Franciscan Order in Ennis, and the friars' fate after the dissolution of the Friary.

The tour will last about 30-35 minutes and entry to the Abbey is free during the event.

Fáilte

As we celebrate the Feast of St. Francis this weekend, we welcome the latest member of the Franciscan Fraternity to Ennis. Fr. Eugene Barrett OFM. Fr Eugene a native of Clonmel has just completed his term as guardian of the Friary in Rosssnowlagh, Co. Donegal. Fr. Eugene's parents and family the late Tom and Kitty Barrett lived in Ennis in the 1970's and were very active in our Parish and in Comhaltas. We wish Fr. Eugene every blessing and happiness for his Ministry with us here in Ennis.

St. Anthony Herald

The Bi monthly magazine of the Franciscan Order is now available in both the Friary and the Cathedral. The €2 donation supports the Missionary work of the Franciscan Order.

This latest edition has interesting articles on Dolly Parton's Faith; Five Words of Advice from Pope Leo for older people; the life of Derry Girl, Sr. Clare Crockett and the Six Word Prayer.

Safeguarding Month of October Creating a Safe & Welcoming Parish for Everyone

Safeguarding is an essential part of parish life. As a parish community within the Diocese of Killaloe, we are committed to creating an environment where everyone, especially children and young people, feels welcomed, respected, valued and safe.

Our Shared Responsibility:

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Each of us has a part to play in ensuring that our parish is a safe and welcoming place for all. We encourage everyone involved in parish life to be familiar with our safeguarding procedures and to speak up if they have a concern.

Our Commitment:

Our parish takes safeguarding seriously.

If you have a safeguarding concern, please speak with our Parish Safeguarding Representative or follow the reporting procedures display in the church and parish facilities.

For further information and diocesan safeguarding resources, please visit the www.killaloe-diocese.ie or contact Cleo Yates, Director of Safeguarding.

Together, we can make our parish a safe place for everyone.

Cathedral Works Update

Work has begun on the pavement in front of the Cathedral. The main door of the Cathedral will remain closed for the duration of this phase of the work:

There will be four entrances to the Cathedral open each day:

- ◆ Grotto Door;
- ◆ Columbarium Door;
- ◆ Both Side Doors.
- ◆ Funerals will enter and exit by the Columbarium Door.
- ◆ We ask for your understanding and patience as the work progresses.
- ◆ Please park responsibly at all times and do not block entrances.
- ◆ The Parish Office is open and entrance is from Station Road.
- ◆ Our thanks to all who are contributing to the Renovation Appeal that make this work possible.

"The Harvest of the Spirit"

The leaves, like souls, begin to change,
From green to gold in a vast exchange;
Autumn's embrace, a gentle reminder,
Of our own seasons, a time to surrender.

God's hand, like the wind,
guides our way,

As we walk through life,
both night and day;

And just as the trees, we shed our fears,
Trusting that His love will dry our tears.

For every leaf that falls to the ground,
A new prayer rises, a hopeful sound;

Our hearts, like branches,
sway in the breeze,

As we find solace on our spiritual knees.

A PRAYER FOR OCTOBER

Lord, as I step into a new month, I surrender to You everything October will bring. The plans I have, the prayers I'm still waiting to see answered, the thing I'm carrying quietly, and even the fears I cannot put into words. Please give me the strength to face each day with grace, the wisdom to know what to hold onto, and the courage to let go of what You are asking me to release.

May October be a month of answered prayers, quiet miracles, unexpected blessings, and moments that remind me that you have been listening all along. When life feels uncertain, remind me that Your plans are still good. When I feel tired, carry me. When I feel lost, guide me. And when I begin to worry about tomorrow, teach me to trust You one day at a time. Lord, let this month bring me closer to You. May I walk into October with a grateful heart, a peaceful spirit, and a faith that does not depend on what I see. Whatever comes, I pray I will remember that I am entering a new month with the same God who carried me through every month before it. AMEN

Mission Sunday 18th October 2026

During this month of October we particularly remember the work of Missionaries throughout the world often in areas of conflict and poverty.

We are inviting people this month to list the names of emigrants from your own families and to place them on the World Map in our church porch. Please use the slips of paper and map pins provided on the notice stand near the entrance to our church.

At our Masses on Friday 16th & Sunday 18th of October we will be remembering all those whose names are listed together with the many people who have over the years have worked on the Mission fields.

Kilkee Parish Donations

We thank you for your continued support of our parish collections.
You can donate to the parish using the following methods:

- Placing your donation into the buckets at the entrance to Kilkee Church during Mass Times.
- Using the special secure boxes on the inside walls of Lisdeen and Kilkee churches at any time.
- Using the special Donate button on the parish website to make a contribution from your bank card. If you prefer to use "cashless" methods for your donation to the parish using your bank card or mobile phone payment facility, you can use the "Tap 2 Donate" system near the TV screen at the entrance to Kilkee Church or the following QR Code will bring you to the portal for donations to the parish.

Prayer for Peace in our World

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, those caught up in the Middle East conflict, and for all those affected in any way by war in our world that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways so that peace and justice become a reality for the people who are suffering and for all the world.

Amen.

SEASON OF CREATION

As we celebrate this year's harvest, we are becoming more conscious of the impact of climate change in all our lives and as the Season of Creation concludes we are reminded of 7 Environmental Principles Nature knows best;

- All forms of life are equally important;
- Everything is connected to everything else;
- Everything changes;
- Everything must go somewhere;
- Ours is a finite earth;
- Nature is beautiful; and we are stewards of God's creation

Let's try hard in the year ahead to practise these principles as best we can.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, be with me today.

Guide me by your wisdom,
correct me with your justice, comfort me with your mercy, protect me with your power.

Fill me with your gifts, especially the gifts of wisdom, knowledge, understanding & love.

Amen

Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that all we have is a gift entrusted to us by God. Like the tenants in the vineyard, we are called not simply to receive God's gifts, but to care for them and use them wisely. May we recognise the blessings we have been given and respond with gratitude, faith and love, bearing good fruit in our lives and for those around us.

Lord, you planted me on this earth.

and friends.

Their care towered over me.

In the shelter of this I grew in safety and peace.

People had great hopes for me.

You had great hopes for me.

But now the year of my life is passing.

The harvest is approaching.

I had nothing to offer but sour grapes?

May you, the Lord, have mercy on me,

And with your patient urging,

Help me to produce the fruits of love.

Autumn Prayer

O God of Creation, you have Blessed us with the changing of the Seasons.

As we embrace these Autumn months, may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest.

May the crunch of the leaves beneath our feet remind us of the brevity of this earthly life.

May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is you who give us your breath of life.

May the scurrying of the squirrels and the migration of the birds remind us that you call us to follow your will.

We praise you for your goodness forever and ever. Amen.

Parish Notes

Newmarket-on-Fergus

Fr. Albert has moved to the Presbytery, Ennis Road. V95 T6C3. The Parish Office will remain at 19, Goodwood for the time being and will then move to the Sacristy in Our Lady of the Rosary Church. V95 TY24.

Fatima Hour: Sat. 3rd Oct from 1.30pm to 2.30pm. The Rosary will be recited continually.

Church Collections last weekend - Thank you for your generous ongoing support to the Church funds. Last week €1,506.14 / Benevolent Fund €93. €80 has been donated through the tap system in September, the machine is in the front porch of Our Lady of the Rosary Church.

A short film The Skin Covered Axe by Conor Madden and Mary Grogan has been short-listed and will be shown and judged in the O Bhéal poetry film festival in Cork on November 1st. The poem/film is based on the construction of the path to Kilnasoolagh Church dating to famine times. It touches on emigration and its appearance at this time coincides with the current focus on the ancestral connection with Kilkieran of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. The film will be shown on social media after the conclusion of the festival.

Thank You: to those who helped with cleaning Our Lady of the Rosary Church last week. Your time and effort are much appreciated.

Found: Couple of religious articles found near the Our Lady of the Rosary Church. Please contact the Parish Office.

PARISH & DIOCESAN NEWS

- Safeguarding Month: Safeguarding is an essential part of parish life. As a parish community within the Diocese of Killaloe, we are committed to creating an environment where everyone, especially children and young people, feels welcomed, respected, valued, and safe. OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY: Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Each of us has a part to play in ensuring that our parish is a safe and welcoming place for all. We encourage everyone involved in parish life to be familiar with our safeguarding procedures and to speak up if they have a concern.
- Killaloe Priests Annual In-service: The Priests of the diocese will be on their Annual Diocesan In-Service in Loughrea beginning on the evening of Sunday Oct. 11th until the afternoon of Wednesday 14th. This is a very important time for priests to be together and to engage in on-going personal and pastoral development. It is also a time for the priest of the diocese to engage ministry in a discerned and reflective way. It is hoped that all priests in active ministry would be completely free from pastoral engagements during this time. We invite you to keep the Priest of the Diocese in your prayers.

Priests Autumn Collection takes place at all masses in the Pastoral area this weekend. This collection supports the priests who serve our parish. Your generosity is very much appreciated

Recent Baptisms: We welcome to the Christian Community Faye Eileen Sunderland & Dáithí John Normoyle who recently received the Sacrament of Baptism.

Church Gate Collection: in aid of SENIOR CITIZENS CHRISTMAS PARTY will take place at Clooney, Maghera and Quin Churches next weekend Sat & Sun 10th & 11th October. Please support this worthy cause.

Buiochas: A word of thanks and gratitude to all who helped celebrate the Golden Jubilee of St John XXIII Church Clooney and our annual Harvest Mass last weekend. So many people contributed with their time and talents to help celebrate and keep alive our faith story from one generation to the next.

Wave of Light at The Abbey: On October 15th, buildings across Ireland plan to join the global Wave of Light and to light up blue and pink to mark pregnancy and infant loss remembrance day. To mark the event, with the co-operation of the OPW and local Politicians, Quin Abbey is set to be illuminated in blue and pink. At 7pm, people are asked to take a moment in memory of all the babies who are loved, missed and never forgotten. The event is being promoted by Féileacáin, the national non-profit charity in Ireland that provides support, resources, and counselling to families affected by the death of a baby around the time of birth or perinatal loss.

October the Month of the Rosary and of the Missions: This month is especially dedicated to the Holy Rosary. This tradition originates from Pope St Pius V who wanted to dedicate a feast to Our Lady of the Holy rosary following the victory at the Battle of Lepanto against the Turkish Fleet on the 7th October 1571. During October, you are invited to pray the Rosary. As well as being the month of the Holy Rosary, the month of October is also associated with the Missions, as world Mission Sunday occurs this year on Sunday 18th October.

Feast of St Francis: This weekend we celebrate the 800th anniversary of the passing of St Francis on the evening of 3rd October 1226. Our parish has a strong Franciscan tradition going back to the days of the Abbey. On the grounds of St Mary's Church Quin, a statue is dedicated to St Francis whose feast we celebrate this Sunday.

October the Month of Safeguarding: Safeguarding is an essential part of parish life. As a parish community within the Diocese of Killaloe, we are committed to creating an environment where everyone especially children and young people feel welcomed, respected, valued and safe. Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Each of us has a part to play in ensuring that our parish is a safe and welcoming place for all. We encourage everyone involved in parish life to be familiar with our safeguarding procedures and to speak up if they have a concern. For further information and diocesan resources, please visit the www.killaloediocese.ie or contact Cleo Yates, Director of Safeguarding. Together, we can make our parish a safe place for everyone.

Peace Prayer: St Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is error, the truth;
Where there is doubt, the faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled, as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
