Parish Bulletin
18 October 2026

In this Sunday's Gospel, the Pharisees once again were trying to trick Jesus with their question. But his reply was sharp, to the point, yet in its directness put an end to the pharisees' duplicity.

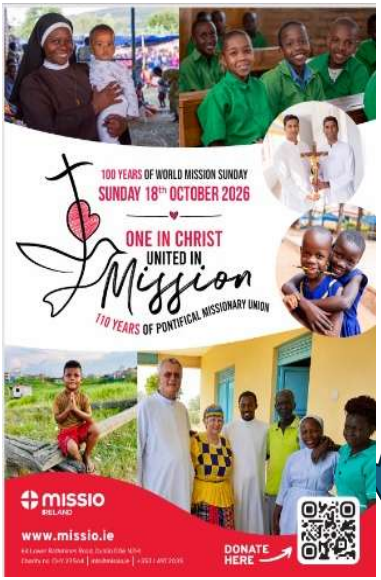

We can all be cunning like the Pharisees, not only towards others, but towards ourselves too. We can focus on non-essentials, over-complicate our lives with the things that don't matter, the things that draw us away from our relationship with God. We can be mesmerised by wealth and power, even jealous of those who appear to have more than we have. We long for material treats and lose sight of our gifts from God.

The Gospel puts us firmly back on the right road in our journey to God. It's a journey of simplicity and a journey in which we leave a light footprint on the world and on others.

When we strip away the non-essentials, we have a wonderful and sometimes challenging opportunity to love and be loved. In today's Gospel, we are invited to be less like the Pharisees and consciously reduce the number of times we try to trip others up, cut back on the rash comments and actively choose kind, uplifting words. BUT we should probably first try to stop tripping ourselves up!

You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me?

FROM DEACON DAMIAN MURRAY

Whose Image Do We Bear?

The readings for this Sunday invite us to look beyond our worldly commitments and remember our truest identity.

In the Gospel, the Pharisees and Herodians attempt to trap Jesus with a politically charged question: "Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" Instead of falling into their political snare, Jesus calls for a denarius and asks, "Whose head is this? Whose inscription?". When they reply, "Caesar's," He delivers a timeless truth: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar—and to God what belongs to God."

Jesus does not separate Church and state; rather, He distinguishes a hierarchy of authority. While the coin carries Caesar's likeness and currency, human beings carry the indelible image and likeness of God. This means that while civil authority has a legitimate place, our ultimate obedience, our hearts, and our very lives belong entirely to our Creator.

This divine sovereignty is echoed in the First Reading from Isaiah 45. The Lord uses Cyrus, a pagan Persian king, as an instrument to free the exiled Israelites. God reminds us that He is the ultimate master of history: "I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me.".

Finally, in 1 Thessalonians, St. Paul commends the community for living out this reality through their "work of faith, labour of love, and fortitude in hope.".

As Christians in modern Ireland, we navigate many civic duties, laws, and cultural pressures. This Sunday's liturgy invites us to audit our lives. We must ask ourselves: "While we rightfully pay our dues to the world around us, do we remember to give our whole hearts to the Creator who made us? Do our daily lives reflect that we ultimately belong to the world, or to God?"

TO PONDER THIS WEEK

We pay our dues to the world readily enough. Do we give our whole hearts to the God whose image we bear?

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Each of us is the result of a thought of God. Each of us is willed, each of us is loved, each of us is necessary."

Pope Benedict XVI

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: 100 YEARS

This weekend the Church celebrates one hundred years of World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. For a century, Catholics everywhere have paused on this day to pray for and support the Church in the world's poorest and youngest places. Through Missio Ireland, our gifts sustain priests, sisters and catechists who bring the Gospel, schooling and care to communities in need. Mission begins with each of us.

HYMNS

10.30am Mass, Church of the Holy Child, Whitehall opening hymn no.8 closing hymn no.32

ON THIS DAY

19 October 1997: On World Mission Sunday, Pope St John Paul II declared St Thérèse of Lisieux a Doctor of the Church. She never left her Carmelite convent, yet she is co-patron of the missions with St Francis Xavier.

19 October 2003: Six years later to the day, and again on World Mission Sunday, Mother Teresa of Calcutta was beatified in St Peter's Square. She was canonised in 2016. The Missionaries of Charity, which she founded in Calcutta in 1950, still serve the poorest of the poor around the world.

The Word of the Lord

Readings for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING — Isaiah 45:1,4-6

I have taken Cyrus by his right hand to subdue nations before him

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:
'It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Psalm 95(96)

℟: Give the Lord glory and power.

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. ℟

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heathens are naught. It was the Lord who made the heavens. ℟

Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: God is king.
He will judge the peoples in fairness. ℟

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power;
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts. ℟

SECOND READING — 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

We constantly remember your faith, your love and your hope

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.
We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your word is truth, O Lord:
consecrate us in the truth.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Matthew 22:15-21

Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH — The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray:

*Grant, O Lord, we pray, that, benefiting from participation in heavenly things,we may be helped by what you give in this present age and prepared for the gifts that are eternal.
Through Christ our Lord.* Amen

November Altar List of the Dead

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember our dear departed when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead, so that they may be prayed for at all Masses during November and on the first Friday of each month for the coming year. If you wish to have the names of your loved ones inscribed on the list, there are envelopes at the back of the Church.

These can be returned in the collection baskets at Mass or to the Parish Office. Contributions and donations for the November List of the Dead go directly to support your local parish clergy when they offer prayers and Masses. We ask you to be as generous as possible in your contributions.

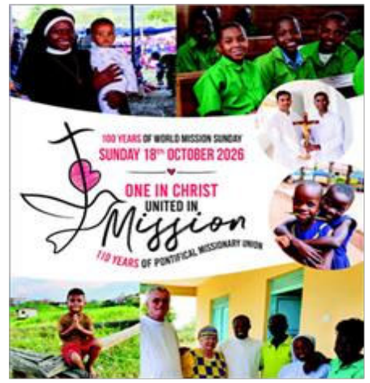

ANNUAL MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

The Annual Mass of those who have died and whose funerals have taken place from our Parish Church during the past year will be celebrated on TUESDAY 10TH NOVEMBER at 7.30 p.m.

Their names will be called out and a lighted candle in their memory will burn on the Sanctuary during the Mass.

Last week-end Fr. Peter made reference to the painting by Amelia Curran which is at the back of the Church. Amelia has inspired Martina Devlin to write a book called "Glorious Monsters".

National Synodal Assembly Preparing Together, Looking Ahead—17 Oct

Almost 300 nominated delegates from across Ireland will gather for the National Synodal Assembly, marking an important moment in the journey of the Irish Synodal Pathway. After five years of prayer, listening, dialogue and discernment, the Assembly offers an opportunity to reflect on what has emerged from this journey and to consider together the proposals that seek to respond to the question at the heart of the Irish Synodal Pathway: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?"
As we approach this significant gathering, we invite you to explore the Working Document (link below), learn more about what will happen at the Assembly, get to know those who will participate, and reflect on what this journey means for the future of our Church.

Sunday 18th October 2026 Mission Sunday

Today, World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue and flourish. The theme for this year's celebration is: "One in Christ, United in Mission". It is a time for us to show our appreciation of the work of overseas missionaries spreading the Good News. We are joined to them in the mystical Body of Christ. As we pray to the Lord so often in the Eucharistic Prayer: "Remember your church, spread throughout the world and bring her to the fullness of charity..." Please go to www.missio.ie or Missio Ireland on (01) 497 2035 for further information.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS.

The Offertory: "Blessed are you, Lord God of all Creation"

What the Priest is Doing The Liturgy of the Word is complete. Now the altar is prepared, gifts are brought forward, and the Mass moves into its second great movement - the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The priest receives bread and wine, lifts each slightly, and offers quiet prayers of blessing drawn from ancient Jewish table prayers. He says these prayers in a quiet voice, or even silently.

These are humble gifts, bread and wine, fruit of the earth, work of human hands. But that ordinariness is precisely the point. God does not ask for the extraordinary. He takes what we bring and transforms it entirely.

How We Should Respond The collection taken up at this moment is not an interruption, it belongs here. Money represents our labour, our time, our life. Placing it in the bags is a small but genuine act of offering ourselves alongside the bread and wine.

As the gifts are brought forward, make an interior offering of your own. Whatever you are carrying this week work, worry, joy, grief - place it consciously on that altar alongside the bread and wine.

Living This at Mass The Offertory is easily overlooked as a moment of transition. Reclaim it. When the priest lifts the bread, lift something of yourself with it.

POPE LEO XIV

Prayer for the Recovery of Pope Leo. Loving and merciful God, we pray for our Holy Father, Pope Leo, asking you to bless him with healing, strength, and renewed health. Be close to him in his time of need, grant him peace and comfort, and guide those who care for him. May he experience your loving presence and be restored to good health, so that he may continue to shepherd your Church with wisdom and love. Amen.

Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday, which is celebrated on the 2nd last Sunday of October each year, is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections will take place in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, plays their part in supporting each other. All offerings and donations made on World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. These dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. The Mission Sunday collection offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women, and children survive and thrive. The Collection for the Missions will be taken up this weekend. It will replace the usual Share Collection. Please give generosity.

Church Heating/ Family Offering .

Last weekend we turned on the Church heating- hopefully you are enjoying it. With this, we will see a marked increase in our monthly expenditure Please be mindful that the only money that stays within the parish to pay our bills is that which we receive through the Family Offering Collection/ Standing Orders. The two Mass Collections go to suppprt the priests of the parish and diocese, and the poorer parishes. When a parishioner dies we lose also their generous support of the parish, and the reality is that they are irreplaceable. Thank you to those who support us so generously, we do need more. Fr Michael.

Parish Mission Statement

We, as members of St Benedict's & St Monica's Parishes, strive to be a community united in our Catholic Faith, and strengthened by prayer, worship and service. We accept our call to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, working to serve all with justice, peace and love, in the name of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Pastors Desk — A place for everything!

My mother used always say - put things where they belong. Newspapers, food, the bicycle not in the hall, and other such homely advice. Jesus says the same here - give what belongs to where it belongs and to whom. So Jesus is being asked about taxes and politics. He knows he is being trapped about money. He moves on to higher questions. Something about the answer of Jesus asks us — where do we belong?

Belonging can sound heavy - as if we are being controlled, or our money belongs to us and we can do what we like with it. But for Jesus it's the belonging of love, not of power and control. Much is not in our control. We are born and die at God's time. This reminds us that we are not the masters of our lives, we come from God and go to God. This belonging is the centre of our human family and community. God doesn't want to control us but to love us.

But there's an addition: belonging to God means belonging to each other. We have rights and duties of love. To give to others what belongs to others; give to the poor what belongs to the poor. Everyone has a right to the food of the earth and the food of the mind, and shelter for the body. It's not charity when people are given food, education, a home, freedom of religion, freedom of speech - it is justice. To give to God what belongs to God is to share the goods of the earth!

Think of a time when you made a decision for the common good - money given away, cleaning the neighbourhood, joining a parents' group etc. Remember and be grateful
Lord, may your will that we share well the goods of the world be done.

Fr Donal Neary, S.J.

Mission Sunday – This Sunday 18th October 2026

October and World Mission Sunday is a time for the faithful of the world to show their appreciation towards the work of overseas missionaries. Please call Missio Ireland on (01) 497 2035 or go to www.missio.ie for further information.

"It is time to count on what unites us, rather than what divides us'"

Through your support, we give missionaries the courage they need to go where others fear to tread so that they can keep loving, serving, and sharing God's peace with people who need their help.

Most of the donations we receive, including those for World Mission Sunday, become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This Fund is a lifeline for some of the most marginalized communities and missionaries across the globe. It provides essential aid for mission dioceses, of which there are more than 1,100, mostly in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The Missio family was able to support more than 90,000 projects worldwide in the last year.

REMINDER
There are envelopes at the back of the Church if anyone wishes to contribute. These envelopes are for the Church of the Holy Spirit, Greenhills. Please place these envelopes in the weekend Mass basket collections or the Parish office and this will ensure that your contribution goes directly into the parish funds. Thank you for all your support.

THE WILD SWANS AT COOLE

By William Butler Yeats (1916)

The trees are in their autumn beauty,
The woodland paths are dry,
Under the October twilight the water
Mirrors a still sky;
Upon the brimming water among the stones
Are nine-and-fifty swans.

The nineteenth autumn has come upon me
Since I first made my count;
I saw, before I had well finished,
All suddenly mount
And scatter wheeling in great broken rings
Upon their clamorous wings.

I have looked upon those brilliant creatures,
And now my heart is sore.
All's changed since I, hearing at twilight,
The first time on this shore,
The bell-beat of their wings above my head,
Trod with a lighter tread.

Unwearied still, lover by lover,
They paddle in the cold
Companionable streams or climb the air;
Their hearts have not grown old;
Passion or conquest, wander where they will,
Attend upon them still.

But now they drift on the still water,
Mysterious, beautiful;
Among what rushes will they build,
By what lake's edge or pool
Delight men's eyes when I awake some day
To find they have flown away?

We would like to send our condolences to the Family and Friends

Of the late

Grace Tynan

Devoted Mother of Dayna

Whose funeral took place on Wednesday 14th October

MAY SHE REST IN PEACE

Thoughts of the Day

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time 18th October 2026

Thought for the Day

The global celebration on Sunday, 18 October 2026, marks the historic 100th anniversary (Centenary) of World Mission Sunday since its official establishment by Pope Pius XI in 1926. For this milestone anniversary, Pope Leo XIV has chosen the theme "One in Christ, United in Mission". The theme emphasizes that mission is not reserved for a select few; rather, every baptized person is an active participant in bringing Christ's hope to the world.

The collection holds unique meaning for Pope Leo XIV, who served directly as a missionary priest and bishop in the underserved regions of Peru before his election to the papacy in 2025. In his personal Centenary Video Message, he shares how the prayers and generosity of past World Mission Sundays directly shaped and sustained his own missionary vocation.

Prayer

Bless all missionaries who bring your Gospel to the ends of the earth. Protect them in danger, strengthen them in faith, and fill them with joy. Teach us to give generously from what we have, so that your hope and compassion may reach every corner of the world.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Thank You to Fr Kevin

When Fr Kevin announced in May that he had been appointed by Archbishop Farrell to a new ministry in Wicklow, our church was about to close for essential refurbishment works. As a result, there was little opportunity for parishioners to express their thanks for his seven and a half years of devoted service to our parish.

The Parish Pastoral Council recently discussed how we might show our appreciation for Fr Kevin and agreed to organise a parish collection towards a gift from the community he served so faithfully. Special envelopes are available at the back of the church and may be placed in the collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

We also hope to welcome Fr Kevin back to Monkstown in the coming weeks for a gathering of parishioners, giving us an opportunity to thank him personally and wish him every blessing in his new ministry.

A Sad Farewell to Bruno

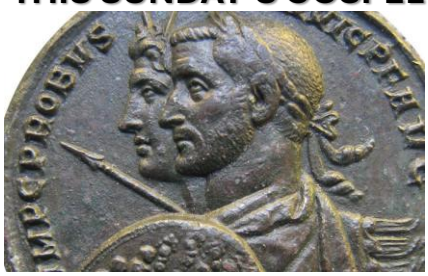

Many of you will remember Bruno, Fr Kevin's Bernese Mountain Dog, who was a familiar sight around the parish. After more than eleven and a half years as Fr Kevin's faithful companion, Bruno has sadly died.

Anyone who has loved and cared for a dog will understand how deep that bond can be. We know that Bruno's loss will be keenly felt and we remember Fr Kevin in our prayers at this sad time.

Deacon Eric

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Giving to God
What Belongs to God
Matthew 22:15-21

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is confronted with a question designed to trap Him: should taxes be paid to Caesar? His response is both simple and profound: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God."

Jesus acknowledges our responsibilities as citizens and members of society. We have duties towards the communities in which we live and work. Yet He reminds us that there is a deeper loyalty that comes before all others. While coins may bear the image of Caesar, each human person bears the image of God.

The Gospel challenges us to reflect on what belongs to God in our own lives. Our time, talents, relationships, compassion, and faith are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord. As we fulfil our earthly responsibilities, we are also called to offer ourselves wholeheartedly to God, allowing His values of justice, truth, mercy, and love to shape everything we do.

May we live as faithful citizens of the world, while never forgetting that we belong first to God.

Deacon Eric

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Render unto God …..

When Jesus ascended into heaven, as we celebrate on the Feast of the Ascension, you may remember the angels then appearing to the disciples and asking them – "Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky?" It was a natural enough reaction on their part – the Jesus whose company they had shared over the previous three years or so, was suddenly gone. Their looking into the sky was basically a version of "what next?" Many people in our parish over the last couple of weeks have expressed similar feelings of "what next?" – "where do we go from here?" Our Passionist superiors, who have the task of staffing our parish, I'm sure are also feeling something similar. Until they get things sorted out, they've asked me to take temporary responsibility for us providing the best service we can, in the circumstances, for our parishioners – and all who form the greater Mount Argus community.

In such situations I tend to look for hopeful signs in whatever is happening at the moment. And our Gospel reading today doesn't let me down! It's that passage which ends with the famous saying "give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God". It comes at the end of a passage in which his opponents have tried to trip up Jesus with a question about taxes to the Romans. But He has reversed the trap, by getting them to produce a coin with Caesar's image on it – something they should never have had, as any one of them that remembered the story of the Golden Calf, and the ban on carrying images, would have fully understood. Their hypocrisy wouldn't allow them to acknowledge that they knew, as well as Jesus did, that "giving to God" and "giving to Caesar" were not two different coins, as it were, but were two sides of the one coin.

And that's the challenge in today's Gospel - the recognition that there are no areas of life that are irrelevant to our relationship with God. It can be easy nowadays to get caught up in political discussions on the state of society; the colossal abuse of power and wealth; and what governments should be doing – and rightly so! – but it should never divert us from the more immediate questions around our own household, as it were, and how much we are doing ourselves to "give to God what belongs to God". Truth, justice, honesty, love, thanks, etc. etc. They say money talks! I wonder what our money says about us?

"Giving to God" is going to have different meanings for each of us. In some cases it might look like a very little – but remember the "widow's mite", it was all that she had! – some maybe need to be challenged to give a little more. And, of course, I'm not talking church collections. I suggest we can't just wait to see what the next chapter in the life of Mount Argus will bring – we need to be the ones making sure that the next chapter is positive, enriching, drawing us ever closer to one another and to the Lord. I'm appealing for people, where reasonably possible, to become more involved in the life of our parish community. If you have time you could give, ideas you could share, then please do. We have a Parish Council meeting scheduled for Tuesday. If you have any suggestions that you think can help us going forward, then please let us know – email to office@mountargusparish.ie – or drop a note into reception. And, of course, please be patient. I promise to do my part to move things along as quickly as possible, but resources – especially human resources – are limited, so all that one might hope for might not be readily achievable.

But what we all can do is pray. We can thank the Lord for all the blessings He has poured down on our parish in the past. We can ask Him to send His Spirit on us to guide us as we struggle to find the way. And we can ask Him to send labourers into His harvest.

------oooooOOOooooo------

Mission Sunday:
This Sunday, 18th October, is Mission Sunday. A collection will be taken up after all the masses in support of overseas mission. Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. You can show missionaries you care by supporting World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generosity will change lives.

NATIONAL SYNODAL ASSEMBLY
The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on October 17, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland.
While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Click here to access the Working Document.

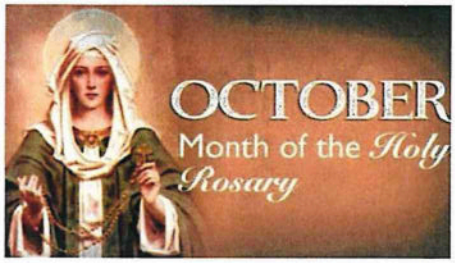

THEWAY.IE :
TheWay.ie is a digital platform set up by the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference dedicated to sharing the Good News and the witness of the Catholic Church in Ireland. It is intended to help people discover the faith, live the faith and pass on the faith. It is for both seekers and followers. Visit www.theway.ie.

We pray for the sick and housebound of our Parish; we remember those who have died recently: Fr. Aidan O'Kane C.P., Maureen Walsh … and those whose anniversaries occur at this time: Paddy Field, John Kelly (Month's mind), Anne Kelly, Mary Carey, William Herbert.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Thought Sister Mary Grace SV was asked "Do you believe you are good like it says in Genesis?" That after making humanity on the sixth day, God said it was "very good". So Sister made a note on her clipboard of all the things she's done & asked Jesus "Do You think I am good?" Waiting for His answer, in her mind's eye she saw Jesus take the clipboard out of her hand, scratch out her list and say, "Yes. Because I said so." When it comes to us, His beloved creation, God is never in doubt that His love for us is unchanging.

"Laity and clergy are "co-responsible" for sharing the good news"

Today we celebrate Mission Sunday. As we give thanks for the tremendous work of Irish missionaries throughout the world, it's also a good opportunity for us all to reflect on our own mission in the church. St Francis of Assisi once wrote that in preaching we should use words if necessary. There was never a time when the example of a good Christian life was more needed in order to inspire other people. We can certainly underestimate the value of our example and kindness to others. And this is before we open our mouths at all!

St Paul tells us that: "Faith comes from what is heard and what is heard comes through the word of Christ." When speaking about mission St John Bosco, who founded the Salesians, once said: "Never say 'it's not my turn' but rather 'I'm going'!" I think there may always be a good reason not to do something, not to accept a challenge. But here St John Bosco is encouraging us to be generous and courageous. We may not be talking about a radical change in our lifestyle or a move to another country but it may just be that we see a gap somewhere and realise that we can fill it. Archbishop Dermot Farrell, reminds us that one of the great blessings of Pope Francis' ministry has been a renewed appreciation of the role of laity. He said, "in our parishes today, through those involved in Parish Councils, Finance Committees, Liturgy groups, ministers of Word and Sacrament, and those in so many voluntary roles, the Holy Spirit continues to pour out gifts for the arrival of God's Kingdom." We should all reflect on our own mission and ministry as we all have one. Our new Saint John Henry Newman once said that we are led to think that we ought to be useful on a large scale and to move away from our usual "line of life". But he tells us that this should not be the case. "We need not give up our usual manner of life, in order to serve God and that "that the most humble and quietest station is acceptable to Him, if improved duly." There are many things that we can do. Newman also wrote about the vocation of Saint Matthias who was elected by the remaining eleven apostles to replace Judas. He said: "We take the place of others who have gone before, as Matthias did; filling up the ranks of soldiers, some of whom, indeed, have fought a good fight, but many of whom in every age have made void their calling. Many are called, few are chosen." Pope Francis said: "It is necessary to recognise "those lay men and women who feel called by virtue of their baptism to cooperate in the work of catechesis." As Pope Benedict XVI said, the laity and clergy are "co-responsible" for sharing the good news. It's a task we all must take on together. Our mission now is to reach out beyond our comfort zones and to connect to those who, as St Paul said, may never hear the word of God unless we bring it to them ourselves.

Mission Sunday 2026 – Theme: One In Christ – United in Mission

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, meaning this year it will be celebrated over the weekend of Sunday 18th October.
"Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. You can show missionaries you care by supporting World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generosity will change lives."
World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration.

Vocations

We are delighted to share some very encouraging news from the Vocations Team: there are now six people studying for the Archdiocese of Dublin in 2026 — four in Maynooth, studying Philosophy and Theology, and two beginning their Propaedeutic Year in Valladolid, Spain. We give heartfelt thanks to their families, friends and, especially, to the parishes and communities who have supported and encouraged these young men throughout their journey of discernment and continue to accompany them as they prepare for priesthood.

We ask all our parishes and communities to continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and if you know someone who may be considering a vocation, please encourage them to get in touch with the Vocations Team. Fr Seamus McEntee or Fr Bill O'Shaughnessy would be delighted to meet with them, listen to their story and accompany them on their journey of discernment. You can contact us at vocations@dublindiocese.ie or bill.oshaughnessy@dublindiocese.ie.

Parish Partnership name

Throughout the diocese parishes are being called to come together in new forms. Grouping, cluster, amalgamation of parishes are the way ahead for the diocese that is reduced in priests to service local areas. We are privileged that the parish of Saggart, Rathcoole, Brittas and the parish of Newcastle have been working together for many years. A shared Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee has been in place for a number of years showing a shared interest and cooperation between the 'four districts'. We have been invited to discern a common name that has a resonance throughout the area. A number of matters are considered to be significant in relation to parish partnership patron names.

Generally, a parish partnership name should:

1. have a unifying character, avoiding the name of any one parish/church in the partnership;
2. be appropriate to the partnership mission or connect with a tradition of faith in the area e.g. a local saint's name or the name of a local monastery or well;
3. be discerned appropriately by people of all of the parishes in the partnership;
4. not be already in use by another parish partnership in the Archdiocese.

One suggestion raised recently was "Mo Sacra" a saint from the 7th century who set up a monastery in what is currently Saggart cemetery. St Brigid's Well in Rathcoole, St. Finian's Well in Newcastle are other names. Have you any thoughts or suggestions on a name that could be used. 'Saggart' was also a suggestion given.

Dear Parishioners

Our parish thrives on the unique gifts, time, and talents that each person brings, and there is a place here for everyone to belong. Getting involved in parish life is one of the most rewarding ways to deepen your faith and build lasting connections within our community. Whether you feel called to serve in liturgical ministries like reading or music, or if you'd prefer to support your parish through upkeep of the church or supporting young families as we prepare children for the sacraments or simply participate in community social events or promote our parish through social media, your presence, talents and gifts makes a difference.

We warmly invite you to step forward into ministry, explore our various ministries, and share in the joy of growing together as a vibrant faith community and family.

Fr. John

Mission Month October 2026

New Voices of Hope

Recently we had a Parish Pastoral Council meeting on the theme 'The Parish of the future', and one person mentioned they'd like to hear more 'Stories of Hope'. So as October is the Month of Mission, I have asked a number of guest speakers to share on the following theme 'New Voices of Hope for Mission, Shaped by the Person of Christ'.

1st Sunday will begin with Sr. Ursula Agge, a Medical Missionary of Mary Sr. from Nigeria, whose last Mission Placement was in Tanzania.

2nd Weekend of October we will have Br. John Stretton, an English John of God's Brother doing social work here.

3rd Weekend is actually Mission Sunday Weekend, and I have asked Fr. Doran to share with us some of his Faith story then.

4th Weekend either myself or Rev Victor will speak on our experiences as it is the Bank Holiday Marathon Weekend, and it might be hard to get here, with all the Barriers.

5th and we saved the best for last — our own Orla McCarthy, PPC, Baptism, Partnership, Choir, Deanery, and Dublin Diocesan Council among other involvement reminding us Mission is here, Mission is now, and Mission is everywhere. Maintenance & Mission are the two great callings of the Church connected by the invitation to Evangelise.

We hope to have many more Stories of hope each October shaped by their faith because we encourage and support each other on the journey. Huge thanks to all those who have helped us to begin this exciting faith-filled adventure for St. Joseph's Parish.
