Fr Willie Doyle Tribunal: Father Doyle was an Irish Jesuit priest who served as a British Army Chaplain in World War One and gave his life ministering to soldiers at the Battle of Passchendaele in 1917. Since then, his cult has been strong and Bishop Deenihan opened the Diocesan Tribunal for the Cause of his Canonization in 2022 with the approval of the Holy See. The Investigation has progressed well; the Historical Commission, the Theological Investigation and the Tribunal itself have now almost concluded.

The Public Concluding Session of the Tribunal will occur after the celebration of Vespers in the Cathedral of Christ the King in Mullingar on Sunday, October 18th at 4.00pm. All welcome.

This is the landlord's Heir: Come, let us kill Him.

William Shakespeare had a remarkable ability to capture eternal truths in just a few words. One line from his play, Julius Cæsar, captures almost exactly what Jesus is saying to the Pharisees in the parable of today's gospel. In the play Brutus says of Cæsar: "The abuse of greatness is when it disjoins remorse from power." In ordinary language it means, 'when those with power and authority stop feeling empathy and pity, and become blind to the effects of their Laws on people, then their greatness is abused and lost'. This is exactly the accusation Jesus is levelling at the Pharisees in today's parable. In their pride and arrogance, and because of the power and authority they have as guardians of the Law of Moses, the Pharisees have come to imagine themselves as its creators and owners and have lost sight of how the Law affects ordinary people; they have become harsh judges, insisting on laws and rituals that only damage and deny tenderness and friendship, often times insisting that others keep these Laws, while ignoring them themselves. So then, far from being the 'landowner', as the Pharisees thought they were, they are in fact only the 'tenants' – those employed to guard or be custodians of the vineyard, to look after and care for the Law. But like the tenants in the parable, they have become cruel, harsh, and pitiless, abusing their power and greatness and becoming hypocrites. Jesus' conclusion is scathing and unambiguous. Amid all of the questions, thoughts and meanings evoked by this wonderful parable, the last eleven words contain the greatest challenge and the greatest invitation to us all. "Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom."

The Diocesan Choir sing at many major Diocesan events. The membership is comprised of people from throughout the Diocese, most of whom sing in their Parish Choir. The Diocesan Choir is now recruiting new members and is hosting an information night on Tuesday, 6th October in St. Paul's Church in Mullingar.

THE PLIGHT OF CHRISTIANS IN THE HOLY LAND: many parishioners continue to care deeply about the plight of their Christian brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. Attacks by Israeli settlers on Palestinian Christian communities in the West Bank, especially in the historic village of Taybeh, have escalated significantly, placing increasing pressure on families to leave. Earlier this year, Pope Leo assented to the creation of 'Friends of the Order' within the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. The purpose is to allow those who share our concern for the Holy Land to be associated with aspects of the Order's mission, without requiring full investiture into the Order. By extending this outreach, it creates a broader opportunity for parishioners to express and bear witness to their faith through charity and solidarity with Christians in the Holy Land. To register your interest as a Friend, or support with a donation, Email: friends@holysepulchre.ie or see www.holysepulchre.ie/friends for more information.

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Readings today remind us that 'Israel', God's first chosen people, did not produce the fruit expected of them. God found fault with them and the promised inheritance passed from them. The Church today must prove itself worthy of God's call by bringing forth the fruits of love and good works.

Today is the Feast of St Francis, the 800 anniversary of his death. St Francis was renowned for his love of the poor and his care for all creation.

Confirmation 2027

We welcome the candidates and their parents to Masses today for enrolment in the Parish Preparation Programme; please pray the blessing of the Holy Spirit for the boys and girls and their parents.

Safeguarding Sunday

Today is designated by the Bishops as 'Safeguarding Sunday'. We thank parents, volunteers and all who support the involvement of young people in our Parish Life, as servers, youth readers, youth club, singers, Confirmation and First Communion preparation Masses. Thanks to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives for their oversight, support and supervision. Our Representatives are Carmel and Therese they can be contacted at office@dcp parish.ie Further information is available on www.meathsafeguarding.ie

Prayer to St Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master

Grant that I may not so much seek to be Consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

OCTOBER is the Month dedicated to the Holy Rosary and also to the Mission of the Church. Despite everything, we know how blessed we are to live in this part of the world. So let us count our blessings and pray for those who live in parts of the world crippled with great distress. We especially hold in our prayers all who serve as missionaries giving gospel solidarity to the poorest of the poor in the world. Together let us renew the mission entrusted to each one of us to share our faith and to pray as a family. In offering the few minutes for the daily rosary we simply, yet powerfully, use the blessed beads to meditate upon the mysteries of life and seek the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother. 'We fly to Thy protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O Glorious and Blessed Virgin'.

First Communion Confirmation CONFIRMATION & FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2026 This weekend the children set out on their spiritual journey in preparation for these Sacraments to be celebrated next year. On the day of their baptism, parents, guardians & godparents presented these children and "promised to bring them up in the practice of the faith." Now as they return their enrolment forms they will receive a sacramental passport which they will carry to Mass in the months ahead, marking various stops on the journey at which they will get a stamp or sticker to reflect and pray upon special Faith moments with their families and the whole faith community gathered for Mass. Let us support and encourage our youngest parishioners with joy and prayer.

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY 4 OCTOBER 2026 Today we would like to acknowledge the children and young people who take part in our parish activities and hope they will continue to be part of our parish life. Thanks also to our parish volunteers and to the parents who support our young people. Your enthusiasm, care and welcome plays a huge part in ensuring that children and young people have a positive experience in our parish. Further info is available at www.meathsafeguarding.ie

Caring FOR OUR RETIRED PRIESTS

The collection this Sunday will be used to help sick and retired priests in our Diocese.

This collection will be used exclusively for priests who have spent their lives serving in our diocese, and who because of retirement or illness now rely on the support of the Diocese. It is intended that this will become an annual collection going forward.

We will have Harvest Masses of Thanksgiving next weekend 10th and 11th of October for all the blessings we receive from creation. We thank God for safety on our farms, and for all the blessings of food which the land gives to us. We place before the altar the fruits of our labour and signs of our gratitude to God who is constantly blessing us. Saying thanks to God for all the blessings in our lives is a integral part of what it means to be a follower of Jesus. To facilitate thanksgiving, we will put a box before the altar in each church where people can place their prayers of thanksgiving which will be offered up in each Mass that weekend.

Safeguarding Sunday is an opportunity for our parish to raise awareness of safeguarding and to highlight the good work that is being done by so many to safeguard children and vulnerable people in the community. It is the day where we promote and remind everyone involved in the Church that safeguarding is a standard practice for us all in which we focus on how best our parishes can encourage children and young people to have active ministries in our parish and to ensure they are both safe and welcome. At diocesan level, there are opportunities for young people to grow in faith while being supported in a safe and positive environment. One example is our annual diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes, where young people from Eureka Secondary School, Kells, St. Patrick's Classical School, Navan, and Coláiste Mhuire CBS, Mullingar have the opportunity to deepen their faith, take part in prayer and the Sacraments, while assisting the elderly and infirm pilgrims.

Today we would like to acknowledge the children and young people who take part in our parish activities and hope they will continue to be part of our parish life. Thanks also to our parish volunteers and to the parents who support our young people. Your enthusiasm, care and welcome plays a huge part in ensuring that children and young people have a positive experience in our parish. Thanks to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives - Fiona Kiernan and Linda Duncan. We thank them for their oversight, support, and encouragement.

Further information is available at www.meathsafeguarding.ie.

Closing of the Diocesan Inquiry into the Cause of Fr Willie Doyle SJ.

We are delighted to announce that the public closing session of the Diocesan Inquiry into the Cause for the Beatification and Canonization of Fr William Doyle SJ will take place in the Cathedral of Christ the King, Mullingar, at 4.00pm on Sunday 18th October, World Mission Sunday. The celebration will begin with Solemn Vespers, presided over by Bishop Deenihan with the homily given by Fr. Conor McDonough OP. Evening Prayer will be sung by the Mullingar Cathedral Choir, Cathedral Choristers and the Meath Diocesan Choir, before the formal closing session of the Inquiry. Light refreshments will be available afterwards in Coláiste Mhuire CBS. All are warmly welcome.

Fr William Doyle SJ, Servant of God was born in Dalkey, Co. Dublin, on 3rd March 1873. He entered the Jesuits at Rahan, Co. Offaly, in 1891 and was ordained a priest in 1907. During the First World War he served as a military chaplain and was killed at the Battle of Passchendaele on 16th August 1917, aged 44.

Second Collection for Fleming Fund: We thank you for your generosity contributing to last weekend's second collection for the Fleming Fund which supports retired and infirm priests in our Diocese.

The Diocesan Choir is now recruiting new members and is hosting an information night on Tuesday, 6th October in St. Paul's Church in at 7.30 pm.

PARISH YOUTH GROUP – CHECK THIS OUT! Our plans for this year's Parish Youth Group are underway for all Secondary students. Our first meeting is Thursday, 15 October, from 4.15 to 5.30 pm in the Bethany Space. GAMES | SNACKS | EXPLORING FAITH TOGETHER

We'll start the year with Bible Basics, learning how to engage with Sacred Scripture and how it connects to our Catholic Faith. Secondary students, let us know you're interested: email faithformationmp@gmail.com. And follow our new Instagram @mullingarparishfaith.

YOUNG ADULTS - Interested in a Catholic community?

If you're looking for friends in faith, we're exploring a Catholic young adults group (ages 18–30) for our parish, to begin in October. The aim is to grow closer to God, deepen our faith, and journey together with others who want to keep Christ at the centre of their lives. Activities may include Eucharistic Adoration, Holy Hours of prayer, and faith-based social events. Share your interest by scanning the QR code.

Questions: faithformationmp@gmail.com.

Protecting Our Cathedral for Future Generations. We sincerely thank all our parishioners for their patience, support and generous donations towards the ongoing work at the Cathedral. Major projects currently underway include a new heating system, essential safety works, an upgraded sound system, and cleaning and power washing of the Cathedral. These important works will help protect our beautiful Cathedral for future generations. If you are in a position to do so, we warmly invite you to continue supporting this important work through your generosity.

October – A Month of Mission.

October is Mission Month, a time when we are reminded of the Church's mission to spread the Gospel particularly through the work of missionaries overseas. Children's Day of Mission Prayer is on Friday 9 October, when young people around the world will pray and stand in solidarity with the world's poorest children. October is also the Month of the Holy Rosary. At Lourdes last Sunday, Pope Leo XIV invited all the faithful and Christian communities to pray the Rosary throughout October, particularly “that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict”. He encouraged us to accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, and with a commitment to dialogue and reconciliation. Also, Pope Leo's prayer intention for October is “For Mental Health Ministry”: that mental health ministry may be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination experienced by people living with mental illness.

Sunday Hymn: Praise my Soul the King of heaven

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet your tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who am I his praise to sing.
Praise him. Praise him. Praise him.
Praise him. Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favour
To our fathers in distress:
Praise him, still the same for ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise him. Praise him. Praise him.
Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness!

Vision statement of Navan Parish Pastoral Council

Navan Parish is a family of believers seeking to personally encounter Jesus Christ who welcomes all in his Word and in the Sacraments. We support one another in our decision and desire to follow Jesus Christ together as a community of disciples along the path of faith, hope, and love.

Putting the gifts of the Holy Spirit at the service of all, we proclaim with great joy the merciful message of God's kingdom.

We are part of the Ardbraconn pastoral area comprising the parishes of Navan, Johnstown, Bohermeen & Oristown

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 5:1 - 7

Let me sing to my friend
the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
He dug the soil, cleared it of stones and planted choice vines in it.
In the middle he built a tower,
he dug a press there too.
He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.
And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
I ask you to judge
between my vineyard and me.
What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?
I expected it to yield grapes.
Why did it yield sour grapes instead?
Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
overgrown by the briar and the thorn.
I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it.
Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah
that chosen plant.
He expected justice, but found bloodshed,
integrity, but only a cry of distress.

Psalms 79:9.12-16. 19-20

The vineyard of the Lord Is the House of Israel

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant I you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted.

And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Philippians 4:6 - 9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Alleluia, Alleluia

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone.

This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

Safeguarding Sunday: Today we would like to acknowledge the children and young people who take part in our parish activities such as the Síol Youth Group, the St. Oliver's Children's Choir, the Children's Liturgy, the Parish Catechetical Programme, and altar serving. We also thank the volunteers, parish staff, and parents who support our young people in taking part in the life of the Parish. Thanks also to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives – Geraldine, Liz, Marie, Rosaleen, and Damien – for their oversight, support, and encouragement. For information on the safeguarding policy of the Diocese of Meath, see www.meathsafeguarding.ie, and the noticeboards in the porches.

Parish collections: The new envelope boxes are being distributed at the moment. Regular contributions through the envelope collection and/or standing order allow the Parish to claim an income tax rebate on annual donations totalling €250 or more (i.e. €5 per week). If you would like to become a contributor, please take a registration sheet from the church or contact the Parish Office.

Supporting retired priests: a second collection will be taken up at all Masses next weekend for the support and care of the retired priests of the diocese of Meath.

Síol YOUTH GROUP offers space and time for young people (12-18) who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, to explore their faith, make friends, and have fun. Meetings have resumed on Thursday evenings. Contact the Parish Office for registration form.

Sacramental Preparation: Enrolment ceremonies for First Confession & First Communion candidates will take place at Masses next weekend. We welcome all families to renew their commitment to a deepening of faith and participation of their children in the life of the parish.

Samuel Group: For young adults (18-40 yrs) wishing to grow in their prayer life. Meath Samuel Group commences in October through April 2027. The programme entails being present once a month at the formation day meeting in Navan, with a spiritual director (we'll help you find one, if needed), and a commitment to daily prayer. Irish Synodal Pathway

The Church that accompanies: “Over the course of the Irish Synodal Pathway, a clear longing emerged for a Church that accompanies people along the path of life and faith. ...

This desire for accompaniment extends to people in every state of life, including single men and women, widows and widowers, separated and divorced persons, those returning to the faith, and those discovering it for the first time. The model for such accompaniment is the Risen Christ on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35). He draws near, listens attentively to the disciples, walks alongside them in their confusion and disappointment, enlightens them through the scriptures, reveals himself in the breaking of the bread, and sends them forth renewed in hope. In the same way, the Church is called to be present to people in the realities of their lives, listening with compassion, sharing the light of the Gospel, and helping them to encounter Christ. Such accompaniment is not merely a pastoral strategy but a way of being Church, one that reflects the patient, attentive, and transformative presence of the Lord among his people.”

Prayers, Responses and Chant from the Roman Missal

Introductory Rites

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Response: Amen.

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his holy Church.

PREFACE & EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

V. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

V. Lift up your hearts. R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. R. It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We pro-claim your Death, O Lord, and pro-fess your Res-ur-rec-tion un-til you come a-gain.

Rite of Communion

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The Body of Christ. Amen.

When receiving Holy Communion, parishioners are reminded to consume the Sacred Host reverently before returning to your seat and to encourage younger parishioners to do likewise.

Blessing and Dismissal

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Child Safeguarding Sunday

Today we would like to recognise the children and young people who take part in our parish activities and hope they will continue to be part of our parish life. These activities include the following:

- Altar servers
- Junior readers
- "Light and Life" Movement (teenagers)
- Children's Gospel Stories (starting 18 Oct)
- Children taking part in parish classes for First Holy Communion
- Children participating in First Holy Communion and Confirmation preparation Masses

Thanks to our parish volunteers and to the parents who support our young people. Your enthusiasm, care and welcome plays a huge part in ensuring that children and young people have a positive experience in our parish.

Thanks to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives – Cathy Shelley, Shaun McGale and Louise Cotter. We thank them for their oversight, support and encouragement.

Further information on child safeguarding policy and procedures in the Diocese is available at www.meathsafeguarding.ie. Copies of the latest child safeguarding newsletter are available in the parish church.

Prayers for First Communion and Confirmation children

Morning Prayer

Father in Heaven you love me,
You're with me night and day,
I want to love you always in all I do and say,
I'll try to please you Father,
Bless me through the day, Amen.

Night Prayer

God, our Father I come to say,
Thank you for your love today.
Thank you for my family,
And all the friends you give to me.
Guard me in the dark of night,
And in the morning send your light. Amen.
