Reflection

In the verses in the gospel preceding today's passage, the Sadducees - who deny the resurrection - approached Jesus and asked him a question about the afterlife not in order to seek an answer, not to learn, but to try to trip him up. Yet again, Jesus gave a masterful answer and silenced them.

Then, not to be outdone, the Pharisees approached him and they put their question. They weren't asking in order to learn either but to disconcert Jesus. In other translations, it is said they approached him with a question to test Jesus. The only other place St. Matthew uses this verb is when he applied it to the devil who approached Jesus after his forty days' fast in the desert, and the devil set out to test Jesus. Clearly, St. Matthew is saying that what the Pharisees were up to was reprehensible, nothing short of diabolical. Inspired by the devil they were treating Jesus - who is God - with utter contempt. This then contrasts - like black contrasts with white - when Jesus tells them that the first law is to love God and not treat him with contempt as they had.

To get back to their question for a moment. At first glance, it seems innocuous enough: "Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?" We would happily admit that there is a hierarchy of importance in laws. Some laws are more important than others. It seems obvious enough. But the rabbis of Jesus' day held that all the commandments - all six hundred and thirteen of them - being God's laws were all of equal importance and ranking them in terms of importance would be human presumption and an affront to God.

Then using their own commandment from Deuteronomy which read: "Hear, O Israel: the Lord your God is one Lord: and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might." Jesus instructed them that love of God is the first and most important law and then he went on to say that loving one's neighbour as oneself is the second and that the whole law is summed up in these two commandments. This is the key to interpreting all law. If one truly loves God and neighbour one has in fact kept all of God's laws.

Writing to the Romans, St. Paul put it this way: Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments." (Rom. 13:10)

Our Housebound Parishioners

Are you one of our housebound parishioners reading this online? Do you miss coming to Mass because you are confined at home? Is there a member of your family housebound and only able to get Mass online?

We are trying to expand the service of bringing the Holy Eucharist to those of our parishioners who are confined to their homes. Please let us have names and contact details for anyone who would appreciate regular visits from a Minister of the Eucharist.

Hospitality on Wednesdays

We will have the usual gathering for tea / coffee / chat in the Parish Centre after 10:00 am Mass on Wednesday. Please come along to share the hospitality.

Report from the Parish Council

The Parish Pastoral Council met on 13 October. There was a discussion on the recent Diocesan Assembly. Canon Des was very pleased and impressed with the students from Ard Scoil Rís who attended the beginning of the year School Mass, in particular the student Eucharistic Ministers, and he hopes that these pupils may join our Ministers of the Eucharist team. There was a discussion on establishing a Youth Parish Pastoral Council for students aged 14 – 18.

Parking on the road during the week is a problem as the students from ASR, who drive themselves to school, are taking up parking spaces. Many elderly parishioners are unable to come to daily mass as they have nowhere to park. It was decided to approach the principal of the school in an attempt to come up with some solution. There was also a reference to the position of the tabernacle and replacing some of the ciboria.

Irish Synodal Pathway

As the Irish Synodal Pathway moves towards implementation, the working document for the National Synodal Assembly, which took place on 17 October, is available at www.synod.ie. Everyone is invited to read, pray and reflect on the question: What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The monthly collection for the local conference of the SVP Society will be taken up after each Mass next weekend, Sat 31 Oct & Sun 01 Nov.

Rediscovering Catholic Customs

Every generation inherits traditions from the past which shape our Catholic identity. They have been woven into the daily rhythms of life, complimenting the liturgical year and enriching personal piety. October and November are rich months for rediscovering Catholic customs that may have faded from everyday practice.

There are many graces to be received from praying for the dead. We do this at Mass, at funerals, while visiting cemeteries. Our dear departed are remembered in a special way on the Feast of All Saints (Nov 1) and the Day of All Souls (Nov 2). [based on an article by Maria Hall, liturgy consultant, in Intercom, October 2026]

Holy Souls' Envelopes

Holy Souls' Envelopes, with lists for the names of our deceased relatives and friends, are available in boxes at the entrances to the church. If you use the Parish Envelope System, you will find a list in your box. Please return them to the Church. They will be placed in a basket before the altar and Masses will be offered for the deceased during the month of November.

Message from Úna McCarthy

Dear Father Derek and Fellow Parishioners, I am writing to express my heartfelt thanks for the beautiful presentation of the Benemerenti Medal which I received on Sunday 20th September following the 12.30pm Mass. I was deeply moved and honoured to receive this papal award in recognition of my service as parish clerk and sacristan. It was a privilege to serve the parish and the wider Church from 2003 until my retirement in June 2025 due to ill health. I am so grateful for the kindness, support and friendship shown to me by Fr Pat O'Sullivan, Fr Tom Mangan, Fr Oliver Plunkett, Fr Liam Enright and by yourself Fr Derek and by all of you, my fellow parishioners, throughout those years. The warmth and thoughtfulness of the presentation meant a great deal to me and to my family. To be remembered in this way by the parish community is a treasured gift, and the medal will always remind me of the special place St Joseph's holds in my heart. I give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve and for the many blessings received through the life of the parish. Thank you once again, Fr Derek, for arranging such a memorable occasion, and thank you to everyone who joined in the celebration. Your generosity and care have touched me deeply. May God bless you all.

and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

November is a time for remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us and whose loss we feel. It is a time when we are particularly conscious of those in our parishes who have lost a family member in the last 12 months and are grieving. On Sunday 1st November at the 10.00am Mass in St. Nicholas Church we will remember our loved ones whose funerals were celebrated in this Church in the past twelve months and on Monday 2nd November at 7.00pm in St Mary's Church we will remember our loved ones whose funerals were celebrated in this Church in the past twelve months.
During both Masses, the name of each person will be called out and a family member can come forward to light a candle in their memory (we will have prepared the candle on the sanctuary for you - the family do not need to bring a candle).
There will also be an opportunity for people to go to the back of the church and collect a lit candle which they can bring forward in memory of a loved one whose funeral was celebrated elsewhere.
