26 SUNDAY: Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace as also reflected in the best and noblest inspirations and aspirations of our environment, we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator. Part of the challenge of our day is to content ourselves with our own good choices which uplift, and determine a better tomorrow for ourselves and society. Let us pray for those who have changed their minds or way of life and turned away from God. May they experience afresh the fervour of their early faith and experience anew God's gifts of peace and joy. (Fr Maurice Henry SMA • sma.ie)

Tue 29: Ss Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels. The veneration of the Archangels began in the Eastern Church. In the West, this day first marked the dedication of a fifth century church of Saint Michael in Rome. Raphael and Gabriel were added to the Roman calendar in the twentieth century, and the three are now celebrated together.

WED 30: Sep 30 – St Jerome (340-420) priest and doctor of the Church. Baptised in Rome while studying the classics, became a hermit in Syria for a time and was ordained a priest. Began work on a new Latin translation of the Bible. Finally settling in Bethlehem where he founded monasteries, devoted himself to studying the Scriptures, writing, and teaching. Noted for his asceticism and scholarship and his incomparable service to the word of God.

THU 01: St Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-97) Carmelite and Patroness of Missionaries, Doctor of the Church. Coming from a devout family, entered the Carmelites at fifteen, embraced the suffering of ill-health in service to the missionary spread of the gospel. Loved for her simplicity, humility and fidelity to ordinary duties as the path to sanctity, 'The Little way'.

FR 02: The Holy Guardian Angels. Based on the scriptural belief that God assigns everyone an angel to guard body and soul – an expression of God's personal care for each individual. The feast associates the human race with the eternal song of praise in heaven (Matt: 18:10).

CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that it is important that our words and our actions go together. Read aloud Matt: 21:28–32. The father asked his two sons to work in the vineyard. What did the first son do? (He said no but then changed his mind and went to work.) What did the second son do? (He said yes but then didn't do the work.) Which son did what his father asked? (the first son) Why might the second son have said yes and then not done the work? Sometimes when we are asked to do something, we might say yes and then forget. Other times, we might have no plans to do what we are asked. We say yes, but we don't mean it. Jesus teaches us that our actions are as important as our words. We are called to love and obey God in our words and in our actions. Take a moment and think of one way you will do so this week. Pray the Lord's Prayer. Our Father...

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) The example Jesus poses in today's Gospel could have been taken directly from family experience. Each of us can recall instances in which family members spoke one thing but then did another. The point of Jesus' story is to show that our actions speak louder than words, even with God. As a family, talk about times when a family member said one thing and then did another. Acknowledge that sometimes the action taken displays a true change of heart. Then read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:28-32. Observe that Jesus faulted the religious leaders for not allowing John the Baptist's message of repentance to change their hearts and actions. The word we sometimes use for this change of heart is conversion. Jesus wants us to do more than pay lip service to the Gospel; he wants us to be transformed by his word. Pray together that your family will experience a conversion to God and show evidence of this in both actions and words. Pray together today's second reading, Philippians 2:1-5.

SEPTEMBER 29 - A PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL, GABRIEL AND RAPHAEL ARCHANGELS: Heavenly King, You have given us archangels to assist us during our pilgrimage on earth. Saint Michael is our protector; I ask him to come to my aid, fight for all my loved ones, and protect us from danger. Saint Gabriel is a messenger of the Good News; I ask him to help me clearly hear Your voice and to teach me the truth. Saint Raphael is the healing angel; I ask him to take my need for healing and that of everyone I know, lift it up to Your throne of grace and deliver us back to the gift of recovery. Help us, O Lord, to realize more fully the reality of archangels and their desire to serve us. Holy angels, pray for us. Amen.
