BEATIFICATION PRAYER

Dear Jesus, the Venerable Patrick Peyton devoted his priestly life to strengthening the families of the world by calling them to pray together everyday, especially the Rosary. His message is as important for us now as it was during his life on earth. We beg you, therefore, to hasten the day of his beatification, so that your faithful people everywhere will remember his message that the family that prays together stays together, will imitate him in his devotion to your Mother and ours, and will be inspired by his holy life to draw ever closer to you with childlike confidence and love. Amen

Invitation to Get Involved: At the recent meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council, the desire for greater lay participation in our weekend parish Masses was discussed. We would love to see more families and parishioners getting involved. There are a number of ways you can participate, including: reading at Mass, Leading the Prayers of the Faithful or bringing up the gifts of bread and wine. This can be especially meaningful at Month's Mind or Anniversary Masses, when family members may wish to take part in remembering and praying for a loved one. We warmly invite you to consider getting involved. It would be wonderful to see more people taking an active part in our weekend Masses. If you would like to participate, please contact Fr. Padraig or any member of the Parish Pastoral Council.

Season of Creation: Each year, from 1 September to 4 October, Christians around the world unite in this special season of prayer and action to care for our common home. It is a time to celebrate God as Creator and to reflect on our shared vocation to protect and cherish all of creation. This year's theme, "Living Water," is inspired by Ezekiel 47:9, 12 - a powerful biblical vision of hope and ecological renewal. Set against the backdrop of exile and loss, the prophet's image of living water flowing from God's sanctuary reveals God's healing presence, bringing new life to rivers, land, biodiversity and communities, while calling us to renewed care for the whole Earth community.

26 SUNDAY: Of all the gifts given to us by God, the freedom of choice is perhaps the greatest. We're not pre-determined beings; our choices are sacred and are literally our making, our doing and undoing. When we respond positively to God's grace as also reflected in the best and noblest inspirations and aspirations of our environment, we're shaping ourselves more firmly in the image and likeness of God our Creator. Part of the challenge of our day is to content ourselves with our own good choices which uplift, and determine a better tomorrow for ourselves and society. Let us pray for those who have changed their minds or way of life and turned away from God. May they experience afresh the fervour of their early faith and experience anew God's gifts of peace and joy. (Fr Maurice Henry SMA • sma.ie)

Tue 29: Ss Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels. The veneration of the Archangels began in the Eastern Church. In the West, this day first marked the dedication of a fifth century church of Saint Michael in Rome. Raphael and Gabriel were added to the Roman calendar in the twentieth century, and the three are now celebrated together.

WED 30: Sep 30 – St Jerome (340-420) priest and doctor of the Church. Baptised in Rome while studying the classics, became a hermit in Syria for a time and was ordained a priest. Began work on a new Latin translation of the Bible. Finally settling in Bethlehem where he founded monasteries, devoted himself to studying the Scriptures, writing, and teaching. Noted for his asceticism and scholarship and his incomparable service to the word of God.

THU 01: St Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-97) Carmelite and Patroness of Missionaries, Doctor of the Church. Coming from a devout family, entered the Carmelites at fifteen, embraced the suffering of ill-health in service to the missionary spread of the gospel. Loved for her simplicity, humility and fidelity to ordinary duties as the path to sanctity, 'The Little way'.

FR 02: The Holy Guardian Angels. Based on the scriptural belief that God assigns everyone an angel to guard body and soul – an expression of God's personal care for each individual. The feast associates the human race with the eternal song of praise in heaven (Matt: 18:10).

MISSION AWARENESS: A member of the Spiritans will speak at the 7.30pm and 10.30am Masses next weekend 3/4 Oct seeking prayerful and financial support for their mission work.

HARVEST MASS OF THANKSGIVING on Sun Oct 11th. Parishioners are invited to bring some fruits of the earth e.g. vegetables, apples, potatoes, home-baked products, jams, honey, root crops etc. Baskets at church entrance during week leading up to 10.30am Mass on Oct 11th.

SEASON OF CREATION SEPT 01 – OCT 04TH: This year's theme, "Living Water", explores Ezekiel 47:9 and 12. TY students Confirmation class and First Holy Communion classes will plant some bulbs and wildflowers on Tuesday at 11.15 am. www.seasonofcreation.org

CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that it is important that our words and our actions go together. Read aloud Matt: 21:28–32. The father asked his two sons to work in the vineyard. What did the first son do? (He said no but then changed his mind and went to work.) What did the second son do? (He said yes but then didn't do the work.) Which son did what his father asked? (the first son) Why might the second son have said yes and then not done the work? Sometimes when we are asked to do something, we might say yes and then forget. Other times, we might have no plans to do what we are asked. We say yes, but we don't mean it. Jesus teaches us that our actions are as important as our words. We are called to love and obey God in our words and in our actions. Take a moment and think of one way you will do so this week. Pray the Lord's Prayer. Our Father...

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) The example Jesus poses in today's Gospel could have been taken directly from family experience. Each of us can recall instances in which family members spoke one thing but then did another. The point of Jesus' story is to show that our actions speak louder than words, even with God. As a family, talk about times when a family member said one thing and then did another. Acknowledge that sometimes the action taken displays a true change of heart. Then read today's Gospel, Matthew 21:28-32. Observe that Jesus faulted the religious leaders for not allowing John the Baptist's message of repentance to change their hearts and actions. The word we sometimes use for this change of heart is conversion. Jesus wants us to do more than pay lip service to the Gospel; he wants us to be transformed by his word. Pray together that your family will experience a conversion to God and show evidence of this in both actions and words. Pray together today's second reading, Philippians 2:1-5.

SEPTEMBER 29 - A PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL, GABRIEL AND RAPHAEL ARCHANGELS: Heavenly King, You have given us archangels to assist us during our pilgrimage on earth. Saint Michael is our protector; I ask him to come to my aid, fight for all my loved ones, and protect us from danger. Saint Gabriel is a messenger of the Good News; I ask him to help me clearly hear Your voice and to teach me the truth. Saint Raphael is the healing angel; I ask him to take my need for healing and that of everyone I know, lift it up to Your throne of grace and deliver us back to the gift of recovery. Help us, O Lord, to realize more fully the reality of archangels and their desire to serve us. Holy angels, pray for us. Amen.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, Sunday, September 27th: Pope Leo's Encyclical on AI revisited - As headlines swirl with rapid technological acceleration and apocalyptic forecasts, Magnifica Humanitas demands a second, closer look. Just five months since its publication last May, Pope Leo’s first encyclical - on artificial intelligence (AI) – has proven extraordinarily far-seeing. His document bypassed the speculative hype of long-term AI futures to address the exact structural, psychological, and geopolitical stress points that have unfolded over the past five months. New Pilgrim Path has come across a comprehensive and very accessible overview of the encyclical from the website of Ascension Press, a highly regarded American publisher and digital media company specializing in Catholic faith formation material. Access it here: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

The Beatification of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen took place in Missouri on Thursday last. Decades ago, his television show “Life Is Worth Living” brought millions of families together in their living rooms, offering timeless wisdom, humour, and a powerful reminder of God’s love. Today, Blessed Fulton Sheen remains a brilliant guide for our homes. He always taught that the family is the "first church," and he famously promised to spend his heaven interceding for mums, dads, and children. Let’s celebrate his legacy today by bringing his most famous habit into our own homes—making time for prayer, peace, and looking out for one another.

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Lord, watch over our parish, encouraging us to watch with one another as we seek to know your will.
Make us gentle in word,
kind in spirit,
strong in hope
and guide us, ever gently
along that road of peace
that leads to your door;
a door that will always open to the knock of faithful people.
Amen.
