MINISTRY OF WELCOME
We welcome Baby Nainsi,
who was baptised recently into our Parish family

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.
Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.
Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism
Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

25th OCTOBER 2026
30th SUNDAY of the Year

Priest: Our Lord calls us to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Let us bring our prayers before him with confidence.

For the Church that we may faithfully proclaim the Gospel and bear witness to God's love in our care for the poor, the vulnerable and the forgotten.
Let us pray to the Lord

For the poor, the homeless and all those who struggle to provide the basic necessities of life. May we be inspired by Christ's teaching to share what we have, to offer our 'cloak' to those who have none, and to treat everyone with compassion, generosity and dignity.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for peace in the World. May hatred and distrust give way to understanding, that nations may work together to build a world where peace and justice prevail.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for the sick and elderly and those whose mobility or circumstances are limiting. May the Lord grant them healing, strength and patience. May their caregivers too be strengthened in their loving service to those who suffer.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for all those who are struggling with the demands and pressures of daily life, those who feel overwhelmed by worry, responsibility or uncertainty. May the Lord be their 'strength', their 'rock' and their 'stronghold'.
Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:
Recently Deceased: Teresa McErlain, Patrick McQuaid, Patricia Morton, Carmel O'Connor, Hugh Letters
1st Anniv: Zbigniew Tracz
All those named in the bulletin.
may they be welcomed into the joy of God's eternal kingdom, where they will know the fullness of his love and peace.
Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: Heavenly Father, you call us to love you with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Hear the prayers we offer you today and help us to live according to your holy will. Amen.

LOVE IN ACTION

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment is the greatest. He gives two: love God with all your heart, and love your neighbour as yourself. The two belong together. Mother Teresa began each day in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, then went out to care for the poor and dying of Calcutta. For her, loving God and loving others were one and the same. Our first reading reminds us that God cares deeply about how we treat those in need.

That love must be practical. Many of you quietly care for children, elderly relatives or the sick, and Jesus sees and blesses every sacrifice. We're also grateful to our St Vincent de Paul members for their generous service. This week, ask God what more he might be asking of you.

November

The Month of the Holy Souls

Next week we begin the month of special prayer for the Holy Souls. There are a number of ways that we can pray together as a parish for our deceased loved ones this year.

November Dead Lists
Lists and envelopes are now available. Please take them home and write down the names of your deceased family and friends who you wish to pray for.

Envelopes can be left back in the church at Mass times or posted through the door of the parochial house. The names will be placed before the altar throughout the month of November and prayed for at all Masses and devotions. You may wish to include an offering in your envelope and these are very gratefully received.

Prayer & Reflection
There will be two short services of prayer and reflection on the theme of remembering the dead and the resurrection during the month. The first will be on Thursday 5th November at 7pm.

Parish Annual Requiem Mass
A requiem Mass for all deceased parishioners and priests will take place on Friday 13th November at 7pm.

November Pledge
Why not go off alcohol (or another treat) this month as a penance for the Holy Souls? Think of it as a little Lent in November (and a good preparation for Christmas too!). If you wish to make the pledge you can pray:

I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November.

Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
of this world in the next.

St Comgall's Men's Friendship Group

Across the parish, there are many men who are living on their own or have retired or are just at a loose end. Mindful that no specific activity is organised for men in the parish, the plan is to set up a Men's Friendship Group, a bit like the men's shed concept, but more focused on broader activities such as sports, hobbies/crafts, cooking skills, healthcare, wellbeing, benefits entitlement, quiz competitions, board games, visits to tourist attractions, day trips to interesting venues such as heritage/religious sites, or simply just meeting up for a chat and banter over tea or coffee. Once the level of interest is determined, it is hoped to develop a calendar of events.

An information meeting will take place in the Parish Centre on Wednesday 28th October at 4.00 pm to gauge the level of interest. So please if you are interested or you know a man who may be interested, you and they are encouraged to come along and see what is on offer. Also tell us what you think could be offered, as there are many people out there with talent, skills and experiences we could all benefit from. The group welcomes men from all backgrounds and age groups. So please come along, you will be made very welcomed. We look forward to meeting you.

THANK YOU

The Parish of Bangor owes an enormous debt of gratitude to Mrs Sonia Devitt who has led the Parish Safeguarding Committee for several years. She carried out this very important role in protecting our children and vulnerable adults with remarkable professionalism and total dedication. As she steps down to fully enjoy her retirement we welcome as her successor Mrs Elaine McAllister and wish her every success in this demanding role.

PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and
I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI
Prayer to the Most Holy Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
From the evil enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me to come to you, that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age. Amen

The Family and the Holy Rosary (from the writings of St John Paul II)
"The Rosary is and always has been, a prayer of and for the family. At one time this prayer was particularly dear to Christian families, and it certainly brought them closer together. It is important not to lose this precious inheritance. We need to return to the practice of family prayer and prayer for families, continuing to use the Rosary.

The family that prays together stays together. The Holy Rosary, by age-old tradition, has shown itself particularly effective as a prayer which brings the family together. Individual family members, in turning their eyes towards Jesus, also regain the ability to look one another in the eye, to communicate, to show solidarity, to forgive one another and to see their covenant of love renewed in the Spirit of God.

Many of the problems facing contemporary families, especially in economically developed societies, result from their increasing difficulty in communicating. Families seldom manage to come together, and the rare occasions when they do are often taken up with watching television. To return to the recitation of the family Rosary means filling daily life with very different images, images of the mystery of salvation: the image of the Redeemer, the image of His most Blessed Mother. The family that recites the Rosary together reproduces something of the atmosphere of the household of Nazareth: its members place Jesus at the centre, they share His joys and sorrows, they place their needs and their plans in His hands, they draw from Him the hope and the strength to go on."

Recessional Hymn

I am the bread of life.
You who come to me
shall not hunger;
and who believe in me
shall not thirst.
No on can come to me
unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up,
And I will raise you up,
on the last day.

The bread that I will give
Is my flesh for the life of the world,
and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever,
you shall live for ever.

And I will raise you …...

Today is the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also." (Matthew 22:40). This is the last sentence in today's Gospel. (Matthew 22:34-40). Jesus is speaking of the radical unity of two commandments that sum up the whole law. To love God with one's whole being and life energy is inseparable from an active love of our neighbour. The first reading (Exodus 22:20-26) spells out in vivid detail how the people of Israel are to act towards three marginal groups in their society; the stranger, the widow and the orphan. Pope Francis wrote an Apostolic Exhortation on 15 October 2023 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the birth of St. Thérèse of Lisieux entitle "C'est la Confiance" The title of the letter comes from her writings. She wrote: "It is confidence and nothing but confidence that leads us to love" In the final part of his letter Pope Francis outlined the outstanding example of Thérèse for Christians today. She wanted to be "love in the heart of the Church" Francis summarised her witness in the final part of his exhortation.

- In an age that urges us to focus on our ourselves and our own interests, she shows us the beauty of making our lives a gift.
- At a time when the most superficial needs and desires are glorified, she testifies to the radicalism of the Gospel.
- In an age of individualism, she makes us discover the value of a love that becomes intercession for others.
- At a time when human beings are obsessed with grandeur and new forms of power, she points out to us the little way.
- In an age that casts aside so many of our brothers and sisters, she teaches us the beauty of concern and responsibility for one another.
- At a time of great complexity, she can help us rediscover the importance of simplicity, the absolute primacy of love, trust and abandonment, and thus move beyond a legalistic or moralistic mindset that would fill the Christian life with rules and regulations, and cause the joy of the Gospel to grow cold.
- In an age of indifference and self-absorption, Thérèse inspires us to be missionary disciples, captivated by the attractiveness of Jesus and the Gospel. (52)

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Congregation Sits

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."'

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 17:2-4. 47. 51. R v.2

(R) I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
when I call I am saved from my foes. (R)

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed. (R)

SECOND READING

A from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Congregation stands

ACCLAMATION Cf. Acts 16:14

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our heart, O Lord,
to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:34-40
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE CREED

All: I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow your head up to the words 'and became man') and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.
The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the wine we offer you:
fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart
may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day
be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Look, we pray, O Lord,
on the offerings we make to your majesty, that whatever is done by us in your service
may be directed above all to your glory.
Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (V in Ordinary Time)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For you laid the foundations of the world and have arranged the changing of times and seasons; you formed man in your own image and set humanity over the whole world in all its wonder, to rule in your name over all you have made and for ever praise you in your mighty works, through Christ our Lord.

And so, with all the Angels, we praise you, as in joyful celebration we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Congregation kneels

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and + Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Priest: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world, and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Leo our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy: welcome them into the light of your face. Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse, with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages, we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels

The celebrant says quietly:
May the receiving of your Body and Blood,
Lord Jesus Christ,
not bring me to judgment and condemnation,
but through your loving mercy
be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Cf. Ps 19:6

All: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:
What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart,
that what has been given to us in time
may be our healing for eternity.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray.
May your Sacraments, O Lord, we pray, perfect in us what lies within them,
that what we now celebrate in signs
we may one day possess in truth.
Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May the peace of God,
which surpasses all understanding,
keep your hearts and minds
in the knowledge and love of God,
and of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.
All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever.
All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.
All: Thanks be to God.

NOVEMBER – THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

The November Dead Lists (envelopes provided) are available in church porches. Returned lists and donations should be placed in envelope and returned to the safe in right hand side alcove of the church, beside confession box. All Masses will be celebrated during the month of November for names included on lists. Since all believers are bound together by the love of Christ, the dead are not beyond our love. We are linked to the dead, just as when they were alive; and so our motivation to pray for them is love. We include in our prayers those forgotten who have no one to pray for them.

PLEASE RETURN ALL LISTS BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF NOVEMBER. THANK YOU.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL will launch their Annual Christmas Appeal Campaign from the pulpit weekend 14th & 15th November. Further details later.

PREPARING FOR THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November Dead Lists are available after Mass this weekend. Please take a list home to record the names of your deceased loved ones, family, friends, neighbours and particularly those who have no living relatives to pray for them. Please return if possible before the beginning of November. Upon return, the envelopes will be opened, read, and place near the altar for the celebration of Masses during November. The offerings enclosed are used to support the priests of the diocese.

FEAST OF THE HOLY SOULS

Feast of the Holy Souls-a special day of prayer and suffrage for the deceased. Mass will be celebrated in St Patrick's at 9.30am, and in Our Lady of the Visitation, Comber at 7.30pm.

ANNUAL MASSES FOR THE DEAD

On the weekend of 7th/8th November we will include in the Masses those whose funerals have taken place in the churches of the parish over the last twelve months. We will also welcome their family members and pray God's consolation for them.

On Wednesday 4th November at 7pm in St Patrick's Church, Mass will be offered in memory of ALL our deceased children. As in previous years, their names will be placed discreetly in front of the Altar. The Parish Bereavement Care Team invite those who have suffered the tragic loss of a child, regardless of age, to contact them in confidence on 07563195580, or to speak to Bronagh or Aine, if they would like their child's name to be included.

In addition to the November Dead Lists placed near the altar, parishioners may like to consider displaying memoriam cards of loved ones on the display boards in the churches. The display is an expression of our love for the deceased, helping others to remember them, and encourages prayer for the happy repose of their souls.

NOVEMBER SHORT-TERM PLEDGE FOR THE HOLY SOULS

The month of November offers a special opportunity to make a small sacrifice in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We invite parishioners and friends to consider taking a Short-Term Pledge throughout November. Pioneer Offering - "I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November." Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

ST. COOEY'S CAMINO 2026

Following the enjoyment of last year's event, the Parish hopes to hold a St. Cooey's Camino on Saturday 7th November around what is known locally as "round by the Wells'; in other words, a walk leaving The Lourdes Grotto at St Patrick's Church at 10.30am and proceeding by the Ballyfounder Road to St. Cooey's Wells and onto Bankmore and Cook St and returning to St. Patrick's. En route there would be stops near Ballytrustan Graveyard, at St. Cooey's Wells, near the Mass Rock at Ballyedock and back to The Lourdes Grotto. At each stop the participants could pray for the Holy Souls, if they wish. Everything would be done from the public road apart from a visit to the Wells where toilets will be available. To avoid a large bunch of people, the walkers would set off in small groups of 4 or 5 at five-minute intervals from St. Patrick's. This will not be a large procession of pilgrims but, as stated, small groups of 4 or 5 friends.

Permission has been sought from The Parades Commission. We need people who do not intend to go on the walk to act as stewards at road junctions; without stewards we cannot proceed. If you helped in any way last year and could help again, or if you feel that you would like to help this year, please phone 07542530006 as soon as possible.

Parishioners, please give serious thought to participating as pilgrims in this unique event. Families are encouraged to participate but children must be accompanied by an adult. Dog owners should keep their dogs on a leash. For further details text Camino to 07542530006.

The Annual Mass for the Deceased of the Parish, especially those who have died the past year (and whose Months Mind Mass has taken place), will be offered on Wednesday 11th November in St Patrick's Church at 7.30pm.

Portaferry GAC Deceased Members Mass: Wednesday 18th November at 7.30pm in St Cooey's Oratory.

Friday Eucharistic Adoration in St Cooey's Oratory, 11.00am - 6.00pm.
Could you try and spend some time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, believing that Jesus Christ is truly present—body, blood, soul, and divinity—under the appearance of the consecrated host.

"Every time I pass a church, I stop and make a visit, so that when I'm carried in, God won't say, "who is it?"

~A Spiritual Communion~

Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, andI desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You Sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, I embrace You as if you are already there, and I unite myself wholly to You.

The Lord asks of you only this, that you act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8)

Many of you will be aware of the problem we have with rock, which is a lot more extensive that we first hoped.

We will dig out 2 rows of graves each year and fill them with soil so that the digging will be so much easier when they are required.

We spent £4,000 during the summer and as a result the Finance Committee agreed with me that to recoup this money being spent we are keeping the price of graves for Parishioners (those who live within the Parish boundaries or those who live outside the Parish boundaries that contribute via weekly envelope or standing order) at £300 but increasing the price for those living outside the Parish to £1,000 in line with many of our neighbouring Parishes.

Thank you for your continued support.

Fr Aidan

In addition to the Masses offered during the month on November for our deceased relatives and friends, special Masses will be celebrated for all Parishioners who have died in the past year (those residing in our Parish at the time of death, or those interred in our Parish cemeteries). A candle will be lit for each person by a family representative. An additional candle will be lit for family and friends from outside our Parish who have died. Please contact the Parish office to ensure your loved ones name is included on the intentions list for these Masses.
Dates and times of these Masses will be available next week.

In November we remember our dead relatives, friends and past parishioners. Fr Stephen will offer Mass & Prayers each day for the dead of our Parish. We are particularly encouraging families to come and attend Mass together.

We would like each family to recall the names of the dead and place them on the November Dead List, which they can find in the porch of the Church.
It is traditional that a stipend is offered, but this is not a requirement for the dead of your families to be remembered, this is simply an offering to Fr Stephen for the Masses celebrated throughout the month of November.

Our Remembrance Mass for our parishioners who have passed away this year will be held on Friday 27th November at 7pm

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Sunday Message

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE WORD

Year A • 25 October 2026 • Colour: Green • Psalter Week 2

The Pharisees prided themselves on strict observance of the law. So meticulous were they in keeping it, they had worked out that the biblical law contained 365 negative commandments (one 'thou shalt not' for every day of the year) and 248 positive commandments (one for every bone in the human body).

In addition to this written law, they believed that God had given Moses another set of laws that weren't written down but were passed down by an unbroken chain from Moses to them.

Some Pharisees taught that every commandment was to be observed with the same attention to detail. Others taught that the commandments ranged from serious to relatively minor. This debate provides the background to today's Gospel. By asking Jesus' opinion, his opponents are also inviting him to line up on one side or the other in the debate.

Jesus answers by quoting a verse from the Book of Deuteronomy that every member of his audience would know (Dt. 6:5). It was part of the prayer they said twice each day, the Shema Yisrael ('Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one...'). He then adds a verse that 'resembles this' – the command to love your neighbour as yourself (Leviticus 18:2). On these two verses, he says, hang the whole of the Law and the Prophets, that is, God's entire revelation to his people. This is the law that matters. ■

DO

This week visit someone who is lonely or who lives alone.

SAY

"Lord, help me to love you and my neighbour to the best of my ability."

PRAY

Pray for your parish community, that all will grow in love of God and one another.

LEARN

Love of God and neighbour is the mark of the Christian

At the heart of our faith is that knowledge that God loves us without reservation

REFLECT

We use the word 'love' with easy abandon today. Think of the casual way we throw it around. We love our bed, our favourite TV soap, our new shoes. We love salt with our chips, sugar in our tea, and a trip to the cinema. I love everything that's bad for me, according to my cardiologist. Love is desire, obsession, addiction, commitment, lust, service; love is whatever we want it to be.

But if we Christians want to know what love truly is, we need only look to God. God is love, St John tells us. God not only loves, God is love. And where there is love, there is God.

In her book Reading Genesis, Marilynne Robinson points out that this Godly love is what distinguished the God of Israel from other Middle Eastern gods of antiquity. The Babylonians and others believed in multiple gods; Abraham and his descendants were unique in being monotheists, in believing there is but one God, who had created them in God's very own image. We are not images of angels or lesser gods but of the creator himself. This was a radical way of thinking.

The other gods of antiquity were remote, distant, and indifferent to the happenings here on earth. The God of Genesis is a benign God who forgives Cain for the murder of his own brother, forgives his people time and again, and is personally invested in them, unlike the apathetic or vengeful gods that other peoples worshipped. Israel's God is slow to anger, rich in mercy, abiding in love.

God, Robinson says, has a lofty view of humankind, expressed poetically in Psalm 8: "What is man that you are mindful of him? Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honour."

God loves, and God is love. But, when we say this, we're not describing an up in the sky kind of love. We're describing the kind of concrete love that Jesus showed.

People practise this kind of love every day. Think of parents who care for children with special needs. Or grandparents who pick up the pieces when their child's marriage collapses. Or groups like the St Vincent de Paul, who help the most needy. All of these put love into practice every day.

I like to break down the great commandment into its three parts. We are to:

* love ourselves. Healthy self-love comes from knowing I am made in God's own image. Healthy self-love is not the same as selfishness or narcissism. It is to see myself the way God sees me, as one made in God's own image. Therefore, I am unique, lovable, irreplaceable. Many of us find it hard to love ourselves. Young people, influenced by social media, find it so hard to love themselves. But if we are to love God and others, we must learn to love ourselves.

* love our neighbour. To love is to will the good of another. It is to go out of our way for others. "Feed the poor." That's love. "Break bread with those no one will sit with." That's love. "Respond with patience to someone who gets on my nerves." That's love. Love of neighbour means never being bystanders. More than anything else, God will judge us on whether we loved others.

* love God. God created us out of love, and sustains us lovingly each day. We return God's love through a life of prayer, worship and good works.

St Paul instructed the Ephesians to 'live a life of love.' Three little words beginning with the letter L. Easy to remember. Hard to do. That's how we keep the great commandment. ■

We are looking for individuals who are passionate about their community and would be interested in helping organise occasional fundraising activities such as coffee mornings, quizzes, sponsored walks, golf days and other local events. No previous fundraising experience is required, just a willingness to get involved and support a very worthwhile cause.

If you would like to learn more about becoming part of the new West Belfast Support Group, or would simply like an informal conversation about what is involved, we would be delighted to hear from you.

The Energy of True Religion

'To love God and love your neighbour - this is one of the most attractive of the sayings of Jesus. It is an encouragement to live fully with what brings the greatest joy in life - true love of God and the neighbour. It is at the heart of good religion, and what attracts many to Jesus.

Bad religion puts law above love. Bad religion fights for the partial truth of religion. We risk being victims of bad religion, just as we can be victims of bad nationalism, bad psychology or any other bad way of living. Jesus' life was to propose good religion and to live by it. The religion of some of the Pharisees was bad, in that it was incomplete in its scope.

We admire those who give energy in love and service. We are proud of people we know whose lives make a great and good difference to others. We know that our family and neighbourhood, parish and school, workplace and leisure time have been enriched by the self-sacrificing love of many people, young and old.

'He gave it his all' - we say that of a good player at the end of a match. We say of parents that they "were always there for the children. May we give all we have in our lives, giving in love, knowing that all we give is itself a gift from God, the giver of all good gifts.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Two Great Commandments.

Today's Gospel reminds us of the two great commandments: love of God and love of neighbour. Here in a nutshell, we have the whole teaching of the Bible. The only real failure for a Christian is the failure to love.

By rabbinical count, 'the Law' consisted of some 613 commandments. The question as to which commandment was the greatest was one frequently discussed among the rabbis. Jesus was asked to name one, but responded by naming two. That is because, for him, the second followed directly and necessarily from the first. Love of neighbour arises out of love of God. Both commandments are found in the Old Testament. What is new is not the fact that Jesus brought these two commandments together, but that he made them of equal importance.

READINGS: First Reading (Ex 22:20-26). God tells the Israelites that there must be no discrimination against or exploitation of the weak members of their society. Second Reading (1 Thess 1:5-10). Paul encourages the Thessalonians by telling them that their exemplary lives have become known far and wide. Gospel (Mt 22:34-40). Jesus tells us that the whole of religion can be summed up in two commandments of love.

NOVEMBER DEAD

November is the month of the Holy Souls – a time when the faithful departed are remembered and prayed for with great intensity. This reminds us of our ongoing connection with those who have gone before us in this life. We are still one family – those on earth, those in heaven and those being purified and awaiting paradise.

Mass is said each day, in every parish throughout the world for the dead – particularly remembering all those names included on the November Remembrance Lists. These lists and the November envelopes are available from our Remembrance Garden. When filled in, these can be put into the red box. These lists are then placed on the altar of St Patrick's.

"In Christ the hope of blessed resurrection has dawned, that those saddened by the certainty of dying might be consoled by the promise of immortality to come."

FAMILY OF PARISHES

There will be an announcement at this weekend's masses about the Diocesan 'Family of Parishes' initiative. We are seeking your views about a potential name for our group of parishes, St Patrick's, Holy Family and St Gerards's. Current options are 'The Cavehill', 'Ben Madigan' or 'The Trinity' Family of Parishes. If you have a preference or alternative, please contact the parish office by phone – 02890 324597 or email – stpatricks@downandconnor.org.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

PRAYER TO ST. JUDE

Most holy Apostle, Saint Jude Thaddeus, friend of Jesus, I place myself in your care at this difficult time. Help me know that I need not face my troubles alone. Please join me in my need, asking God to send me: consolation in my sorrow, courage in my fear, and healing in the midst of my suffering. Ask our loving Lord to fill me with the grace to accept whatever may lie ahead for me and my loved ones, and to strengthen my faith in God's healing powers. Thank you, Saint Jude Thaddeus, for the promise of hope you hold out to all who believe, and inspire me to give this gift of hope to others as it has been given to me. Amen

Sunday Gospel True love casts out fear. Jesus told his disciples not to be afraid and yet many of those who consider themselves to be followers of Jesus are terrified of practically everything that is going on around them. Fear paralyses faith, hope and love. Nothing will happen in God's name when believers are afraid of what others think or what might happen. We are called and chosen to love with all our hearts, souls and minds. That teaching is important when the world in which we live is controlled by money, power and wealth. Time to wake up to what the Lord is teaching. We can change the world if we speak the truth in love and that truth will set us free from the oppression of corruption and evil. (Fr S Crumptor).
