Reflection We can look at the parable in today's Gospel passage from the perspective of its historical context and from the perspective of its modern application.

To take the historical context: Who are the various participants in the story? The landowner is God the Father. The tenants are the chief priests and the elders of the people to whom the parable is addressed. The servants sent to collect the produce of the vineyard are the prophets. And finally, the son whom the landowner sent and who was rejected utterly and who was thrown out and killed by the tenants is Jesus.

This was a stark warning to the religious leaders of Jesus' day. They had rejected the prophets whom God had sent and they were rejecting Jesus and he was warning them that there would be dire consequences. Out of their own mouths they condemned themselves. He asked them what the landowner would do to the wicked tenants and they answered: 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end.' Then having completed the telling of the story and having heard the response of the chief priests and the elders, Jesus opened their eyes to its meaning. He told them that he was the stone rejected by the builders who became the keystone. And then, lest there be any doubt he announced to them: 'I tell you, then, that the Kingdom of God will be taken from you given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

No doubt the chief priests and the elders were furious at being compared to faithless tenants; and no doubt they were furious at having been made to condemn themselves.

Now to the present day application: At a remove of two millennia we can feel quite smug and happily join-in in the condemnation of the wretched tenants. But we had better be careful. Could any of the things said to or about the tenants apply to us? Have we received God's messengers and listened to them. Have we received his Son with respect and reverence and listened to him and acted on his call to us? As people in whom the Holy Spirit dwells since our baptism and Confirmation, have we produced the fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control which are the Lord's due and delivered them to him?

In as much as the parable was a wake-up call, so to speak, to the chief priests and the elders of the people of Jesus' day so it is to us.

World Mission Sunday- 18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, and like the Good Friday collection for the Holy Land and Peter's Pence, it is one of three yearly universal Church collections. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present. This includes not only Ireland and Europe, but also in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalised communities, long before and after any emergency. You can show missionaries you care by supporting World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generosity will change lives. Visit: missio.ie for donations

If during Mass or any other services in the church, a child needs to use the bathroom, they must be accompanied by an adult member of their own family. This is in clear compliance with church policy.

Prayer for the sick:

Let us continue to pray for those who are ill at this time, those who are preparing for and awaiting results of tests and those in hospital. Lord Jesus, you are the true friend of all those who suffer anguish and pain in spirit, mind or body. Please share with them now the gift of your consoling love.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
