Sunday Gospel At first Jesus did not answer the woman. His silence is telling and it teaches his followers that sometimes, many times silence is more important than speaking. Often times people talk too much and while they are using plenty of words, they are saying nothing of any importance. It's also true that people hear loads of words but they do not care, or want to know what is being said, or communicated to them. At first Jesus did not speak, he did not answer the woman in words. He spoke to her from his heart, a heart full of love for her and her daughter, of course actions will always speak louder than any words and that's how Jesus increased her faith in a loving God.

'A time for silence, a time for speaking'. (Fr S Crumpton).
