ST. EUNAN'S CATHEDRAL LETTERKENNY NEWSLETTER

Sunday 23rd August 2026

Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRAYER TO ST. MONICA

Lord Jesus,
you were moved by the prayers and tears of St. Monica and you gave the grace of conversion to St. Augustine your son.
Touch our hearts and convert us from fear to love,
from sickness to health and from conflict to peace of mind.
Bless all mothers, living or dead, known or unknown,
married, single or widowed.
May our lives draw others to love you.
Lord, it was at your altar that Saint Monica wanted to be remembered.
(St. Monica - Feast Day: 27th August)

PRAYER TO ST. AUGUSTINE

Holy Father Augustine,
saint and once a sinner, pray for us sinners.
Help us to imitate you in seeking God with all our hearts,
in seeking the grace of repentance and renewal of life.
Help us to Love God and neighbour at all times.
Help us to realise, as you did,
that we are made for God
and that our hearts will be restless, always restless, until they rest in Him. (St. Augustine - Feast Day: 28th August)

PRAYER TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

O God, You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.
Fill Your people with the joy
of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.
Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice,
so we may energetically profess our Faith in You,
and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life. Amen.
(The Passion of St. John the Baptist - 29th August)

Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1468. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

It is a crunch question in our time for each of us. Who do I say Jesus is for me? More basically, who is Jesus for me? How I see Jesus is a basic ingredient in how I see myself and others. Do I see myself as a child of God, a sibling of Jesus, and see others as siblings too?

It is fine to admire Peter's faith, but admiration on its own is barren. It must be imitated and replicated. It is unlikely that Peter blurted out the very exact theological answer that is attributed to him in this Gospel reading, but it is clear that he had a memory of the Transfiguration and glimpsed the truth about Jesus' relationship with the Father and had the courage to acknowledge that publicly, at least in the company of friends. Of course, Jesus had nourished that seedling of faith during their time together and this moment was a critical climax in the work of Jesus.

Peter's insight into who Jesus really was, was a pure gift from the Father, a gift that Peter responded to with customary enthusiasm, embracing all its implications including martyrdom.

By God's choice, a similar gift is offered to many of us. Our responses vary. Some settle for a traditional style of life, inspired by Christian values and supported by religious practice and live worthwhile and fulfilled lives without ever knowing Jesus. So far so good, but there is more on offer. This is what inspired and challenged Peter. He accepted the invitation to climb the mountain with Jesus, to walk the road of life with him, to listen to him and live accordingly, to wince at the horror of the Passion, to run searching for Jesus after his Resurrection, to wait for and accept the fullest coming of the Holy Spirit and so to experience the deeper friendship of Jesus, Son of God.

Am I open to accept such a gift and to live accordingly? Maybe God will surprise me in this Eucharist and in the days ahead. Come, Lord Jesus, come.

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

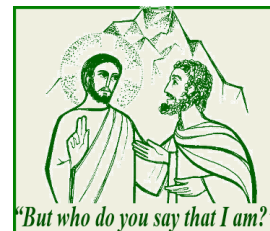

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Reflection

In today's Gospel we experience Peter firmly identifying Jesus as the "Christ, the Son of the living God." God does not always choose the holiest to govern and to serve in His Church. Our Lord chose Peter as Chief of the Apostles even though he was subject to many imperfections. Peter, filled with much zeal, was apt to be impetuous. While he followed our Savior with his whole heart, he stumbled many times after his initial calling. He boasted that he would never abandon Our Lord. Yet, he found himself cursing Him and saying that he never knew Him. That pierced our Lord's heart!

Yet, Our Lord did not reject Peter, since He was sure that St. Peter had a strong and constant determination to correct himself. Peter's natural disposition to cater to his feelings and desires was in part the cause of his lapses. When we experience certain lapses in our on-going conversion, we must not abandon our quest for holiness. Like Peter, let us have a strong and constant determination to take the measures needed to correct ourselves. Then we too will receive special favours and blessings on earth and in heaven.

We must not listen to the voice that tells us that our faults are unpardonable. We must say boldly that our God died for all. No matter how ungodly one is, he or she will find redemption in our Saviour. Let us consider with what patience our divine Saviour awaits those who reject Him. Then like Peter, we may say, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God," our Redeemer.

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Isáia fáidh.

56:1, 6-7.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna: Coinnigí an ceart, cleachtaigí an fhíréanacht, óir tá mó shlánú ar tí teacht agus m'fhíréantacht ar tí a léiriú.

Na stráinséirí a chloigh leis an Tiarna chun freastal dó, chun grá a thabhairt d'ainm an Tiarna agus chun a bheith ina seirbhísigh aige, iad sin uilig a choinníonn an tSabóid agus a chloíonn le mo chonradh, déanfaidh mé iad a chomóradh go dtí mo shliabh naofa. Bhéarfaidh mé aoibhneas daofa i mo theach urnaí. Glacfar ar m'altóir lena dtabhartais agus lena n-íobairtí, óir bhéarfai ar mo theachsa teach urnaí na gcíníocha go léir.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM

Go mola na ciníocha thú, a Dhia;
go mola na ciníocha go léir thú.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

11:13-15, 29-32.

A phágánaigh! Lig domh seo a insint daoibh: Sa mhéid gurb aspal na bpágánach mé, is é mo dhulgias éad a chur ar mo chine féin agus iad a spreagadh chun iomaíochta libhse agus ar an dóigh sin cuid acu a shlánú. Mar, má tugadh an domhan chun athmhuintearais le Dia trína gcaitheamh amach, cad a thiocfaidh dá nglacadh ar ais iad ach mar a bheadh aiséirí ó mhairbh ann? Ní cúis aithreachas ar bith do Dhia a choíche a thíolaicí ná an rogha a bhíonn déanta aige. Ionann is mar bhí sibhse easumhal do Dhia san am a chuaigh thart agus go ndearnadh trócaire oraibh siocar easumhlaíochta na nGiúdaich, is mar a gcéanna acu siúd é; tá siadsan easumhal anois nuair atá trócaire déanta oraibhse, ach déanfar trócaire orthu féin ar deireadh thiar thall. Mar chuir Dia an uile dhuine i ngéibheann san easumhlaíocht d'fhonn trócaire a dhéanamh orthu uilig.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Is fírinne do bhriathar, a Thiarna.

Déan sinn a naomhú san fhírinne.

Alleluia!

AN SOISCÉAL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú.

15:21-28.

San am sin chuaigh Íosa go dtí ceantar Tuíre agus Síodón. Tháinig bean as Canán amach as na críocha

NET MINISTRIES My name is Thomas O'Donoghue, from Inver Parish. I will be starting a mission year in Ireland in August 2026 with a young Catholic organisation called NET Ministries. NET's mission is to encourage and support young people to encounter Jesus and embrace the life of the Church. They do this through road teams and through parish teams, organising different clubs and retreats. I'm looking for support in the mission by people financially contributing to it, as we solely rely on the generosity of others for the mission. You can donate on, <https://netireland.org/missionary/thomas-o-donoghue> or contact me on 087 708 0884 or NET Ministries directly at College Court, Main Street, Ballybofey, Co. Donegal, F93 HYE0.

Gratitude invites us to notice God's loving presence in the ordinary moments of each day. Whether shared in a kind word, a quiet sunrise, or the simple gift of time with those we love, these everyday blessings remind us that grace is never far away. As we cultivate thankful hearts, we begin to see that even the smallest moments can become encounters with God's generous love, drawing us closer to him and inspiring us to share that love with others. A grateful heart sees God's hand in everything, the laughter of a friend, the gift of a new day, even the challenges that help us grow.

A blessing with the relic of St Peregrine can be obtained after Mass every Friday at 10am.
This kindly Saint, born in Italy in 1260, is the Patron Saint of cancer patients.

People are often unreasonable and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.
If you are honest, people may cheat you. Be honest anyway.
If you find happiness, people may be jealous. Be happy anyway.
The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway.
For you see, in the end, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.

The Mass was very well attended, so many people involved in the preparations and celebrations. Our sincere thanks to everyone. We were blessed with the presence of the Parish Choir and also St Catherine's Accordion Band, just crowned All-Ireland Champions for the third time in succession at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in Belfast and celebrating their 25th anniversary this month. The Mass Rock site was in great shape thanks to PJ and Dina next door, Gillen Mc Guinness, Cathal Murrin & Peadar Gillespie. Our thanks to the Mass Rock Committee and to James Gavigan, Thomas Hegarty & Johnny Paul McGuinness who looked after the flags and the chairs. Patrick Boyle had the holy water font by the altar and the Mass Rock Plaque in immaculate condition. And many brought flowers to adorn the site in honour of Our Lady. Liam Conneely organised the transport. Our sincere thanks to all concerned. We're grateful also to all the Ministers of the Eucharist, Readers, Gift Bearers & Collectors. Special thanks to the Parish Choir & St Catherine's Band. Ann in the Parish Office and Patricia our Sacristan played a blinder as usual. The refreshments afterwards were very much appreciated, including the home baking. Thanks to Ann Marie Leslie & John for organising Meehan's Mobile Kitchen and to Annie, Dina, Norietta & all the helpers. Thanks to Plunkett Smith for recording the event. We are grateful to Conal McGuinness for facilitating us at this idyllic location. And grateful to Patricia O'Boyle for looking after Adoration in the Church.

Final Hymn: Hail Redeemer

Hail Redeemer! King divine!
Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine,
King, whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace.
*Angels, saints and nations sing;
Praised be Jesus Christ, our King;
Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary.*
Eucharistic King, what love
Draws thee daily from above,
Clad in signs of bread and wine,
Feed us, lead us, keep us thine. (Chorus)

Parent's Prayer for Children Returning to School

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the gift of my child/children. Please watch over them as they begin a new school year.

Bless their teachers, school administrators, bus drivers, school support staff, friends and classmates.

Keep them safe every day. I pray they may feel Your presence and know that You are always with them.

Help them recall my loving words of support for them. Give them wisdom to make good choices, and an openness to learn new things. Fill them with knowledge and positive thinking. Help them overcome obstacles and shield them from negativity. Surround my child/children with good friends who also know and love You. Help them treat each other with kindness, fairness, and respect. May they treat each person they encounter as another child of God.

Grant them the Grace to place their trust in You so they may know Your peace. Amen.

Prayer to St. Monica (Feast Day August 27th) – Patron of Mothers

Lord Jesus, you were moved by the prayers and tears of St. Monica and you gave the grace of conversion to St. Augustine her son. Touch our hearts and convert us from fear to love, from sickness to health and from conflict to peace of mind. Bless all mothers, living or dead, known or unknown, married, single or widowed. May their lives, their prayer and their Christian witness draw others to love you. St. Monica pray for all children of all ages who cause their parents to worry.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist (Part 7)

The next small ritual that the priest carries out is known as the Lavabo – which derives from the Latin word for washing. In this ritual the priest has water poured over his hands by a server or he dips his hands into a bowl of water. This is not a hygiene ritual – though perhaps in the distant past it may be begun life as a necessary hand washing. In the distant past (as in some Missionary Lands to this day) not only the Bread and Wine (and offertory collection) are brought forward at this stage of the Mass, but also many other gifts of food, oil, meat or dairy produce are brought forward – often to be distributed later to the poor. This could be grubby business and would have necessitated that the priest, who received these gifts, had to wash his hands.

However, this is not the primary reason or purpose for this ritual. It takes its inspiration from the ritual washing that the Jewish Temple Priests carried out before they offered the sacrifices to God in the Temple. That ritual washing in the Old Testament Law of Moses was mandatory for priests every time they would offer a sacrifice. Its meaning was clearly a physical act seeking to communicate a spiritual reality. It was essential for maintaining the sanctity required to approach God and perform sacred duties. The hands of a person are symbolic of their actions – and so the washing of the hands by the priest in a sense reminded him (and those who witnessed it) that not all his works are good, holy and sinless, since he is a mortal man and therefore prone to sin. However, he washes his hands now to show that they are being prepared to do something good and holy – the offering of sacrifice to God. In the Old Testament, when the people saw a priest ritually wash his hands – they understood that a sacrifice was about to take place. For us at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, when we see the priest perform this simple ritual which could go unnoticed because it is so brief, we know that the reason for our gathering at the Church at this Mass is now, in a sense, moving up a gear – the Sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary is about to be made present in the here and now of our celebration of this Mass.

The priest accompanies this ritual action with a short prayer which he speaks almost inaudibly: “Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.” It reinforces the fact that this action is not about physical hygiene, but about being pure in heart and holy in soul – treating the Holy Things of God in a holy way and with holy fear of the Lord. It is in some way akin to a little last examination of conscience for the priest before he advances any further in the offering of Holy Mass.

The 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time focuses on God's patience, mercy, and the growth of His kingdom. The readings show how God gives people time to change and how His kingdom grows in unexpected ways. Let us pray the following prayer this week:

Lord Jesus, plant your Word in our hearts and make it fruitful in our lives. Keep us free from sin and make us a fertile place where your love can grow. Let the Word which you have planted in our hearts not return to you void, but may it provide a rich harvest, a hundred, or fifty, or thirty-fold. Amen

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult for each other?

Anytime we step out boldly to make changes, we take a chance that we might fail. But the only way to get better is to try.

Parent’s Prayer for Children Returning to School
Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the gift of my child/children. Please watch over them as they begin a new school year.
Bless their teachers, school administrators, bus drivers, school support staff, friends and classmates.
Keep them safe every day. I pray they may feel Your presence and know that You are always with them.
Help them recall my loving words of support for them. Give them wisdom to make good choices, and an openness to learn new things. Fill them with knowledge and positive thinking. Help them overcome obstacles and shield them from negativity. Surround my child/children with good friends who also know and love You. Help them treat each other with kindness, fairness, and respect. May they treat each person they encounter as another child of God.
Grant them the Grace to place their trust in You so they may know Your peace. Amen.

St Monica Memorial – Thursday 27th August
Prayers To St. Monica
Exemplary Mother of the Great Augustine, you perseveringly pursued your wayward son,
not with wild threats but with prayerful cries to heaven.
Intercede for all mothers in our day so that they may learn to draw their children to God.
Teach them how to remain close to their children, even the prodigal sons and daughters who have sadly gone astray. Amen.

Donation to Rathmullan Parish
I wish to acknowledge a very kind donation of £1,000 to Rathmullan Parish that was received during the week.

The Certified Seed Potato Scheme
The Certified Seed Potato Scheme of the 1960s involved a very busy time for farming families in Rathmullan and far first viewing in the SVP Centre, Rathmullan at 7:30pm on Thursday 27th August. Refreshments afterwards.
