Sunday 11-October-2026

Twenty Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time
Prisioner's Sunday
od promised his people a future of great blessings where death and mourning would be no more. Christ came to issue God's final invitation to this future. Some rejected it, others accepted it but then made light of it. What have we done with our invitation?

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

Vocations for The Diocese of Cork

Last weekend, we had the visit of the Director of Vocations to the parish of Ballincollig. Father Marius O'Reilly was appointed a few weeks ago to this role in a full-time capacity. Part of his ministry initially will be to visit the sixty-eight parishes across the diocese of Cork and Ross. So, I'm sure he'll make it to the folks in Ballinora, Ovens, and Kilmurry in the coming months also. Beyond telling us a little about his own vocation story and narrating the appointments he's held since being ordained, Marius also reached out for people to form a monthly prayer meeting specifically for vocations to the priesthood in the diocese of Cork and Ross. Some 56 people signed up in Ballincollig, which I think is quite encouraging. The Church does need some of its members to serve communities as ordained priests and praying for this is worthwhile, not least because it reminds us to be open to God's will in our lives.

That said, though, I do wonder about the bigger picture. If a lack of vocations were down to a lack of prayer, then the issue would never have arisen: each and every day people tell me that they pray for their priests and for vocations. So, a reasonable person would naturally be led to ask if the Holy Spirit is prompting us to change how we are as a Church. And while no one person can speak definitively for the Spirit, the 'sensus fidelium' ['the shared sense of the faithful'] is worth paying heed to. I know myself that hardly a week goes by without someone asking me about the potential role of married men and women. These are legitimate questions to ask, even if a convincing answer comes frustratingly slowly.

In the meantime, it might be good to ask ourselves what role I can exercise in my local parish: what gifts do I have to share? There is ever and always a need for additional voices to read, more hands to minister Holy Communion, new minds to share vision at the Parish Pastoral Council. All that's asked is that we be open to God's will in our lives – both in what's necessary now, and what's possible in the future.

God bless.

40th Anniversary Celebrations

What a lovely couple of weeks we've had here in Ballinora!
On Sunday September 13th we were very lucky to welcome Bishop Fintan to lead our Anniversary Celebration Mass. It was wonderful to have Bishop Fintan joined by Fr John, Fr Alan , Fr Declan and Deacon Frank.
It really was a beautiful Mass. We must take this opportunity to thank our amazing choir under the leadership of Ursula Mulvihill and accompanied by organist Ruth Healy. Their presence always adds so much to our celebrations here in Ballinora and this Sunday was no exception. Thanks also to our wonderful readers and to Noreen and Eamon Lane for bringing forward the offertory gifts. There was a table on the steps near the altar with symbols of some of the many active groups here in our parish. All these things enhanced our celebration.
After the Mass refreshments were served in the Scout Den. It was great to see such a huge turnout and lovely to see Bishop Fintan and all the other celebrants enjoying our hospitality.
We must thank our local ICA for their wonderful baking. We are so lucky to have so many gifted people in our community.
Thanks also to the Scouts for their generosity in sharing The Den with us all.
Then on Friday September 18th we continued our celebrations with our Dinner Dance in The Talbot Hotel in Ballincollig. I think everyone that was there will agree that a great night was had by all. It was a lovely social occasion. An opportunity to catch up with people that we hadn't seen for a while. A tasty dinner was enjoyed before The Irish Weavers started playing and had the dance floor hopping all night!!! Congrats to those who won Spot Prizes!! Again it was lovely to see Fr John, Fr Alan, Fr Ronan, Fr Jojo and Fr Declan enjoying such a lovely social occasion. Seeing some parishioners in a completely new light!!!
Many thanks to the Parish Council and The Parish Social Committee for all their hard work in bringing these events to fruition.

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10
The prophet Isaiah presents a vision of a feast prepared for us by the Lord.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20
St Paul tells us confidently that anything is possible for him because his strength comes from God.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14
Matthew dealt harshly with the wedding guests who made excuses for not attending the king's son's wedding. Not only did they refuse the invitation, but they beat the servant who went in search of them. The king knew that there would be those who appreciated the banquet and sent more servants out to the crossroads to find anyone willing to come. Matthew ended his Gospel with what was probably a separate parable. Someone dressed inappropriately was removed from the banquet. Most likely, Matthew intended his listeners to respond appropriately to God's invitation.

CUH Volunteer Opportunity

Become the Primary Handler (or second handler) for the Cork University Hospital Community Dog

CUH Volunteer Service is attempting to expand, and to offer our patients a visit from a community dog. To do this, we need volunteers to home the community dog, and if possible to volunteer in the hospital for a few hours 3-4 times weekly. Could you, or a person you know, provide a loving home for a specially trained community dog and help bring comfort to our patients? We are seeking expressions of interest from people who may be willing to:

- Provide a permanent home for a community dog trained by Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind. To become a primary handler for the community dog.
- Volunteer to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog in a healthcare setting OR
- Volunteer as a second handler to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week. This person would not home the dog, but arrange to collect the dog, visit the designated wards in CUH and return the dog to the primary handler.
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog alongside the primary handler in a healthcare setting.

For more information or to express your interest, please contact:

The monthly meetings offer an opportunity for prayer, conversation, fellowship and accompaniment. An experienced spiritual director will also be provided to help guide you along the path. The first meeting takes place on Saturday September 26th. To find more, have a chat, or to register your interest, please email Fr Marius at vocations@corkandross.org

God's Love Always Shines

Aeroplanes fly above the clouds for obvious reasons. If only it were as straightforward for people! Unlike aeroplanes, we tend to be victims of clouds, be they meteorological or psychological in nature.

When you are looking down from an aeroplane window, all you can see for seemingly endless miles are the brilliantly white, marshmallow like clouds. If you look through the breaks in the cloud, you might see the darker underbelly of the clouds, the rain falling from them and the shadows they cast. You can imagine the people underneath them being pretty miserable. I'm sure we've all experienced a dark, cloudy day. But it doesn't have to be that way.

Consider it this way instead.
The sun is actually still shining brightly through the majority of the sky. There's just some low-level, insubstantial stuff getting in the way. On the dull days, take the higher view. God's love is still most of the sky. We just need, somehow, to blow away those clouds.

There is always hope. It is real and loving and,
like a guardian angel, it walks beside us every day.
If we don't see it or feel it often enough,
it's only because we've let too many other things get in the way.

Priests Retreat 2026 –

Over the last few days, I joined many other priests from different parishes and chaplaincy appointments for our annual retreat. As in previous years, we were blessed with lovely weather and a special time to meet, to pray and to encourage one another. While priests in parish appointments are now stretched across several parishes and with many commitments, we shared a joyful sense of service and gratitude to be able to serve people in our ministry. Invariably, priests mention their gratitude to people in parishes for their kindness and personal support. I always say that people 'lift us up' and keep us going in our ministry and in life. So we prayed for people in parishes in gratitude. I was delighted to be able to do this and am always grateful for your prayers, kindness and generosity. Our retreat this year was guided by Br. Richard Hendrick OFM. Cap. His words were inspirational. Br. Richard is well known as an author and retreat giver.

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

First Reading (Isaiah 25:6–10a):
The prophet Isaiah visualizes a future ultimate salvation as a magnificent banquet of rich foods and fine wines prepared by God for all peoples, where death will be destroyed forever and tears wiped away.

Second Reading (Philippians 4:12–14, 19–20):
St. Paul expresses his deep contentment and strength through Christ in any life circumstance—whether living in abundance or in hunger—reassuring the community that God will supply all their needs.

Gospel (Matthew 22:1–14):
Jesus tells the parable of the royal wedding feast. When the original invited guests refuse to come, the king invites everyone from the streets—both bad and good—filling the hall. It concludes with a warning that accepting the invitation requires a genuine transformation, symbolized by wearing the proper "wedding garment".

This month's collection came to €2670
Many thanks for your generous support.

Reflections

1. Scripture often speaks of the kingdom of God as a banquet. It is not meant to be taken only as referring to life after death but it also shows how God wants us to be in our relationships with one another in this life. The image of people being at a meal where everyone is happy and welcome and where all hunger and thirst is satisfied gets across the idea that God loves, accepts and welcomes us and wants us to make that experience available to one another. Think of times in your life when you have had "banquet" experiences and when you have felt accepted and loved?
2. The host enlists the help of his servants to invite people to the banquet. We are commissioned by the Lord to invite people to the banquet of the kingdom, to the fullness of life—as parents, teachers, friends, etc. What has it been like for you to play a part in leading others to a fuller life?
3. There are many ways in which we can reflect on the guests invited, e.g. a) The ones invited first all found excuses to refuse the invitation. How do you feel when someone turns down an invitation you offer? Have there been times when you have found excuses to refuse an invitation from the Lord, or from others? What effect did this have in your life, or on others? b) The second round of invitations went out to "everyone in the streets, good and bad." What is it like for you to receive an invitation, particularly when you do not consider yourself worthy of that invitation? c) Notice that the banquet of the kingdom is an inclusive one. When have you given an open, inclusive invitation to others?
4. As in the parable last week there is a message about being alert to invitations that offer a fuller life and the danger of losing out if we neglect to respond to such invitations. Perhaps there have been opportunities offered to you that you missed, and now regret. Think also of the blessings you received because you seized the moment and took an opportunity that presented itself.
5. The second parable puts the focus on how we respond to invitations. Some invitations are ones that challenge us to change, to conversion, to put on a 'wedding garment'. What has been your experience of changing in response to an invitation you received?

PRAYER
God of all goodness and kindness, you invite all peoples to the banquet and offer them a feast beyond compare.
Give us your saving grace to keep unstained the robe of our baptism until that day when you welcome us to heaven's joyful table.

Editors note: The incorrect reflections were printed last week. Apologies, and the relevant ones appear now.

Anam Cara, the organisation that supports bereaved parents in West Cork, will be hosting a grief cafe for bereaved parents on Thursday 20th October from 7.30pm - 9pm in the Skibbereen Community & Family Resource Centre. This is a free event.

The aim our grief cafe in West Cork is to supplement our existing meetings and increasing access to as many people as possible, This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age of their child, the circumstances of their death, or how recent their death was. 01 4045378 or email info@anamcara.ie

Thought for the day

In the parables of Jesus, wedding feasts are mentioned from time to time. The original parable may have ended with the words "invite everyone you can find to the wedding." The detail of the troops—highly unlikely as an actual part of a wedding invitation(!)—realistically portrays the later destruction of Jerusalem, which Christians did indeed look back upon as punishment precisely for that rejection. The final verse is difficult for us today on a spiritual level. However, it is meant to provoke (re)conversion in a possibly (!) complacent church.

Prayer
Lord, we know that you love us and invite us to the wedding feast of the Lamb. Help us to respond to your love that we may be followers of your Son not only in name but also in fact.

Kieran O'Mahony OSA

ENTRANCE –
Hail Queen of Heaven

Hail, Queen of heav'n, the ocean Star:
Guide of the wand'rer here below,
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care;
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me.

O gentle, chaste, and spotless Maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, Star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

RECESSIONAL -
How Great Thou Art

Oh Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

CHORUS: Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart;
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art.

Reflection

We all love a good meal with our friends and family. Whenever we share a meal with those we love, there is a sense of joy, community and belonging which is experienced by those around the table. The same is true at the time of Jesus. We know that Jesus sat and ate with many people. To share a meal then was a sign of equality. All around the table were seen as equals, nobody was excluded. Jesus invites us to the table of the Lord. The Eucharist is offered to us freely and we are invited to respond freely. It is God's gift to us and no one is to be excluded.

We were delighted to be joined by primary school pupils on the First Friday for our celebration of the Holy Mass.

Cleaning our Church
Our church like any building, needs regular cleaning and it has been the tradition in this Parish that volunteers clean the church weekly. We are grateful to all those who, over many years have generously given of their time to meet this ministry. We appeal each year for volunteers, (Male and female) but it is a challenge to find parishioners eager to serve this ministry. The church cleaning task takes one hour on a Saturday morning. We currently have 2 teams which means each team does one hour every 2 weeks. If you can help, please contact the parish office. Thank you.

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on 17 October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
Prayer: For the Church in Ireland as we journey towards the National Synodal Assembly on 17 October: May the Holy Spirit guide all those preparing for and taking part in the Assembly, giving them wisdom to listen, courage to discern and openness to God's call, so that together we may respond faithfully to what God is asking of the Church at this time. Lord, hear us.

Pope Leo's Prayer Intention Oct 2026

This month, Pope Leo XIV invites us to pray "that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity." At a time marked by conflicts, the Holy Father recalls that religions must be "bridges and prophecy," and not "weapons or walls."

The Illusion of the Ego

When we look at human existence through the eyes of the world, we are taught to measure worth by what we accumulate, what we conquer, and how high we can elevate ourselves. But the gospel calls us to a different standard. In the economy of salvation, the ultimate triumph of a soul is not the building up of the self, but the quiet, courageous surrender of the ego to God. Sacred Scripture reminds us in the Gospel of Matthew, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." The human ego is a restless entity. It constantly demands to be right, to be noticed, to be validated, and to be first. Saint John the Baptist captured the essence of the managed ego when he said of Jesus, "He must increase, but I must decrease." When we clear away the heavy clutter of pride, we create a void—not an empty emptiness, but a space that can finally be filled by Christ's light. The souls who truly impact us in this life are rarely the loudest or the most self-absorbed. They are the ones who make room for others because they have first made room for God. They remind us that true dignity doesn't come from a puffed-up sense of importance, but from a surrendered heart. It takes immense faith to trust that God sees our quiet goodness, even when the world overlooks it.

Change to this week's Special Collection schedule

Fr. Manuel Casillas of the Comboni Missionaries of the Heart of Jesus will visit Ascension Church this weekend, 10th and 11th of October, to do a Mission Appeal. He will be sharing with us his missionary experience and the work of the Comboni Missionaries in Africa, the Far East, and Latin America. The Diocesan Needs collection will take place on 17/18th October.

Mission Sunday Collection 17th & 18th October

Next weekend we will have a special collection, at all Masses, for World Mission Sunday, also known as Propagation of the Faith. Pope Leo XIV gives thanks for a century of global evangelization since Pope Pius XI established World Mission Sunday 100 years ago.

NorthsideParishes.ie - A new website for our family of parishes

We are delighted to announce the launch of a new website for our family of parishes here on the north-side of Cork City. This website is a joint initiative of Clogheen-Kerry Pike Parish, Farranree Parish, Gurranabraher Parish and Knocknaheeny-Hollyhill Parish and we hope that it will allow parishioners to access information about each of our parishes easily and readily.

It provides essential information such as the times of Masses and other devotions, contact details for our parishes offices and the priests of our family of parishes, news from our communities and information on how to book baptisms and weddings. People can also easily access resources such as reflections, prayers and the readings for Mass or connect to the live stream of Mass from Ascension Church in Gurranabraher.

Hopefully this new website will allow people to connect with our parishes and stay in touch with all that is happening in our communities. We are grateful to Denis O' Regan of faithful.ie who helped in the design and development of the website. Flyers available in the Church.

Gospel Reflection:
Be persistent… and patient…

Our Gospel today is about persistence… just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response…

Community in Action at St Oliver's Church

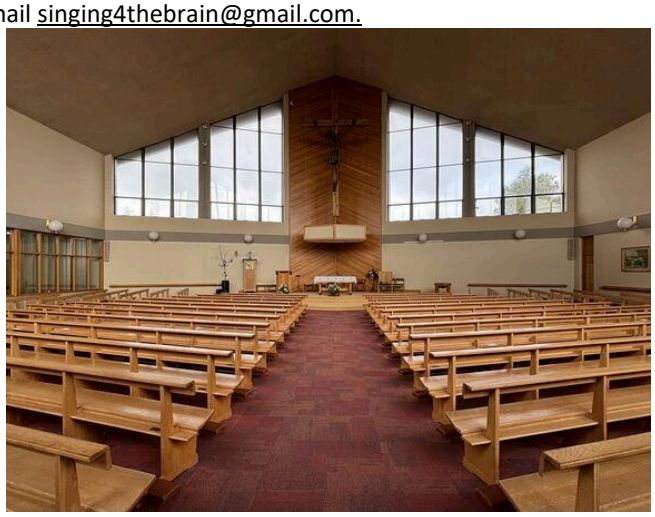

Singing for the Brain Brings the Community Together

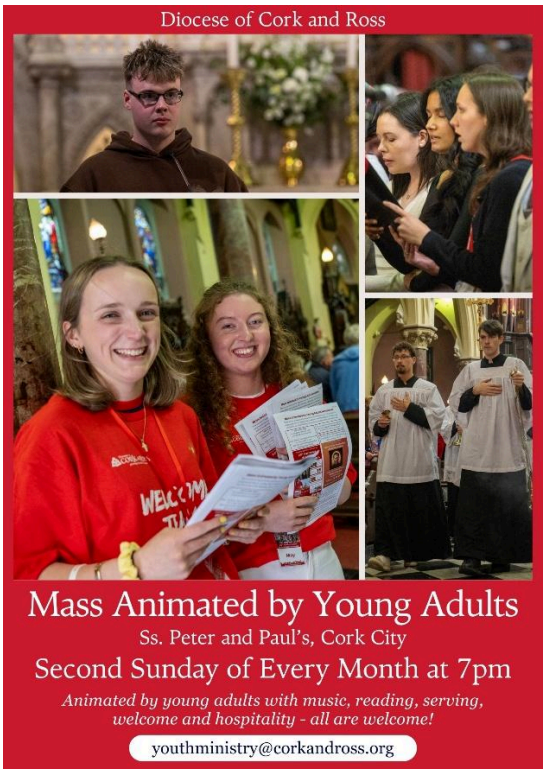

It was wonderful to see St Oliver's Church full of music, movement and conversation recently as members of the local community came together for a Singing for the Brain session. Facilitated by Ceara, the session involved much more than singing, with participants taking part in breathing exercises, movement and activities designed to engage both the body and mind. Most importantly, it provided an opportunity for people to come together, enjoy each other's company and take part in something positive within their local community.

Founded by Fiona Flavin of the HSE, Singing for the Brain uses singing and related activities to support social connection and wellbeing, with sessions taking place in communities across Cork. It is great to see the parish rooms at St Oliver's Church being used to support initiatives like this and to provide a welcoming space where people from the community can meet, learn, participate and connect with one another.

The session is just one example of the positive community activity taking place within St Oliver's and of how our parish rooms can continue to serve as spaces for connection and community.

If you are interested in learning more please contact the Singing for the Brain Administrator on 089 6136342 or email singing4thebrain@gmail.com.

CHRIST THE KING PARISH, TURNER'S CROSS

14th June, 2026

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Mass at St. Michael's Cemetery, Blackrock

Wednesday 24th June, at 7.30 pm.

Weekend Mass Collection Last weekend the amount received was €1,035

Trocaire Collection raised €1,454 this year.

Recent Deaths The death has occurred of Ann Dore, Greenhills Court; Brother Germanus (Ger) Noonan, Maiville Presentation Community. May they rest in peace. Sincere sympathy to their families and community.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.
